

HENRY FORD MAY BECOME KING OF STEAMSHIP GAME

WASHINGTON, May 18.—Adoption of a policy looking to the scrapping of upwards of four hundred government ships probably will be recommended to the shipping board shortly by its sub-committee on scrapping.

Such a step would pave the way for the sale for junking of a large block of vessels to Henry Ford or other bidders under open competitive terms.

Both the steamship lines now operated by the fleet corporation to Europe and the Pan-American line operated by Munson lines to South America were mentioned in reports that Mr. Ford might enter the steamship business on a considerable scale.

The United States line operates among other vessels the President George Washington and Leviathan.

SIX SUBMARINES FOR PORTLAND ROSE FETE.

(Associated Press Local Wire.) SALEM, Ore., May 18.—Governor Pierce today received a telegram from the secretary of the navy stating that instructions have been issued to the commander of the battle fleet now in the Pacific to detail the submarine tender Savannah and submarine division No. 111 comprising submarines S-24, 25, 26, 27, 28 and 29 to Portland for the annual Rose Festival June 15 to 20. The governor had requested that a portion of the fleet be sent to Portland.

BEAVER-BASEBALL HEAD SEEKS FRESH MATERIAL

(Associated Press Local Wire.) PORTLAND, Ore., May 18.—President Thomas L. Turner, of the Portland club of the Pacific Coast baseball league, will leave for the east tonight intending to get new players to strengthen the club. He has been trying to get men by long distance negotiations but failed, so decided to go in person. He was to get a first baseman, a short stop and one or two pitchers.

$300,000 FUND NEEDED FOR SPANISH WAR VETS

SALEM, Ore., May 18.—Because of an amendment by the 1925 legislature to the ex-service men's bonus and loan act whereby the benefits of the act will apply to Spanish war veterans, it will be necessary for the ex-service men's state aid commission to create a fund of about $300,000 for the pur-

ELKS ATTENTION

The committee in charge has selected the uniform to be worn by the members who are going to the national convention at Portland in July. If you are going call as soon as possible at Wilder and Agee Co.'s store and have your measurement taken. Do not delay.

This will probably be done by a bond issue.

The state bond commission will on Wednesday of this week sell irrigation district interest bonds in the sum of $122,000.

Theatres

Antiers Theatre
"The Thundering Herd," which made its bow last night at the Antiers theatre is a vigorous mixture of entertainment and instruction, of history and fiction. It has tremendous dramatic value, yet the thrilling story it narrates, the adventures and incidents it unfolds and the scenes it pictures are based upon facts that are historically true.

The photoplay was adapted from the absorbing novel of the same name by Zane Grey and centers around the glamorous and colorful days of 1876. Mr. Grey knows the west in the early days as do few others, and Lucien Hubbard, who dramatized the story and William K. Howard who directed it have been careful to follow the novel down to its minutest details.

Instead of viewing a plain dotted with cities, ranches and cement roads, the film shows us a vast wilderness, ranged by great herds of buffalo, over-run by wolves, bears and mountain lions and inhabited by fierce nomadic Indians.

Majestic Theatre
Frank Keenan, Claire Windsor, and Lloyd Hughes divide acting honors in Reginald Barker's new Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer production, "The Dixie Handicap," which came to the Majestic theatre yesterday.

This picture, a screen version of Gertrude Beaumont's story of Southern romance and race tracks is one of the most thrilling films seen in a long time, and will repay a visit to the Majestic theatre many times over.

Waldemar Young made the screen adaptation and Percy Hillburn is credited with the excellent photography.

COPCO LINEMAN. SOON TO WED. DIES ON TOP OF POLE

MEDFORD, Ore., May 18.—The body of Robert S. Welch, 27, of Prospect, Ore., who was to have been married to Miss Helma Hanson of Medford next month, was brought down from the top of a pole from Copco, Cal., where he was killed Saturday afternoon by coming in contact with a live wire while at work for the California Oregon Power Company.

According to the coroner's inquest report, the exact cause of the accident could not be determined, the testimony of witnesses merely establishing the fact that Welch was working on a pole, there was a flash of fire and smoke, and when the body was brought down the young man was dead. Welch was a veteran of the world war and the funeral this afternoon will be under the auspices of the American Legion.

SPAIN'S CONSENT TO FIGHT TRIBES ASKED BY FRANCE

(Associated Press Local Wire.) RABAT, French Morocco, May 18.—The French forces opposing Abd-el-Krim's invading tribesmen were today consolidating their opposition, but were postponing the second and what they hope will be the final offensive to rid their territory of the Riflians.

The offensive has been postponed to await the results of the mission to Madrid of Louis Malvey, former French minister of the interior, who is at the Spanish capital to learn the attitude of Spain, should France find it necessary to annex the Moroccan tribesmen from the French into the Spanish zone.

Meanwhile the French are strengthening new positions as well as consolidating those they captured from the Riflians in Wednesday's fighting.

Abd-el-Krim continued to bring up reinforcements and the French are afraid he will strike before their diplomatic negotiations with Spain, seeking permission to fight Abd-el-Krim on Spanish territory, are successful.

Waldemar Young made the screen adaptation and Percy Hillburn is credited with the excellent photography.

The Long Dollar

They say a tight man squeezes his dollar until he makes "the eagle scream."

A wise man makes his dollar stretch. He buys—but he buys wisely, making every dollar go a long way.

He knows that the purchasing power of a dollar has shrunk considerably in the last ten years. He also knows there has never been a time when wise buying paid bigger dividends.

Every day, this newspaper contains information that you should have to increase your buying power. The advertisements are intimate little lessons in every-day economy. They teach you how, when and for what your dollar will go farthest.

Manufacturers and merchants tell of their products through the advertisements. Almost every new opportunity is offered through an advertisement. Practically every unusual buy is advertised.

TIMBER SOLD OFF NATIONAL FORESTS

Sale of government timber on the National Forests of Oregon and Washington as counted to 704,386,000 board feet during 1924, according to figures just given out by C. M. Granger, District Forester, Portland, Oregon.

There were 1692 sales of government timber, valued at $1,449,384.87. Of these, 729 were commercial sales, amounting to $1,446,992.92; and 819 were sales at cost, made to local settlers and ranchers for their own use.

National forest timber is treated as a crop, according to Mr. Granger. He explained that sale of Government timber is governed by such conditions as maturity of the crop, market demand, and the total available supply in a given locality. Since continuous production on the larger watersheds within the National Forests is one of the chief objections of the Forest Service, the total supply covers the amount sold and rate of cutting. Appraisal is made by qualified forest officers, and a minimum stumpage price established based on local conditions. The timber is then advertised and sold under contract to the highest bidder, and at not less than the minimum stumpage price. Timber only is sold, and little remaining in the Government. Important contract provides for fire precautions, close utilization, and proper forestry methods of cutting, looking to a new crop of trees on the cut-over area.

Mr. Granger pointed out that each sale is given close supervision by the Forest Service, being in charge of a competent government scaler or ranger. Timber is paid for as cut and scaled.

Net timber sale receipts for 1924 in the two states, according to the report, amount to $674,372.76. The sales cover a wide range of products, from Cascares bark and Christmas trees, to the large commercial sales of Douglas fir and Western yellow pine.

"Conservation has been defined as wise use," said Mr. Granger. "It is neither hoarding nor exploitation. The prime function of the forests is to produce timber crops. We attempt to make them yield the greatest good to the greatest number and at the same time provide continuous production for the future."

An important fact in connection with the receipts from National Forest sales, as pointed out by Mr. Granger, is that 25 per cent of such receipts come back to the states and counties for roads and schools. An additional 10 per cent is applied by the Forest Service to local road and trail development.

ELECTRIC CHAIR YAWNS FOR YOUTH 15 YEARS OF AGE

POTTSVILLE, Pa., May 18.—William Cavalier, 15-year-old slayer of his grandmother, today sentenced to die in the electric chair.

Cavalier's mother was not in the court room. The judge, visibly affected, told the boy that he had been found guilty of first degree murder with a recommendation of mercy, but there was no alternative provided by law to permit the imposition of any other sentence than death. Counsel for the boy announced an appeal would be taken for a new trial.

WHISTLING LUNATIC SETS FIRE TO JAIL BEDDING

(Associated Press Local Wire.) BEND, Ore., May 18.—Ray Davis, detained in the Deschutes county jail pending an insanity hearing, set fire to the bedding in his cell last night and then called for help. The other prisoners in the jail threw all of the water they had in the other cells on Davis and the burning bedding. The bunk were still smoking when Sheriff S. E. Roberts arrived at the jail this morning. None of the prisoners were injured. Davis was in a cell containing four bunks and he fired all of these. He was brought into the sheriff's office several days ago by neighbors from a ranch outside of town. The neighbors complained that Davis whistled at midnight and annoyed them.
