SEAT SALE WILL OPEN TOMORROW

Tuesday, May 21, marks the opening of the seat sale at the Theatre for the forthcoming presentation of George M. Cohan's "So This Is London," which the Henry Duffy Productions will stage here on Saturday, May 23, at the Antlers Theatre.

It is not very often that this city is privileged to witness so noteworthy attraction with the same star who appeared in it on Broadway and a company of equal strength and talent, but this is the situation prevailing with the offering of this splendid play. Lawrence D' Orsay, who will be seen in the important role of Sir Percy Beauchamp, originated the characterization in the New York production. He will perhaps be remembered here as the star of "The Earl of Pawtucket," a number of years ago. Upon his shoulders fall the chief fun making proclivities and he will be ably assisted by Robert Toms, another important member of the cast.

A delightful part, that of Lady Ducksworth, will be in the hands of Ivy Crane, remembered as a star on the Keith and Orpheum circuits for several seasons.

"So This Is London," is one long evening of delicious wit and satire ingeniously poked back and forth between the Yankee and his English cousin. It laughs at prejudice and smiles at intolerance. There is nothing preachy about it, and it is built along lines of such merriment as to afford two-and-one half hours of delirious fun.

There is expected to be a rush for seats for this important attraction and an early visit to the box office is suggested.

Mrs. Johana Buchko

The Appealing Charm of Health &

Tacoma, Wash.—"Last April I came down with the 'flu' and was so weak afterwards that I could scarcely drag around, and my nerves were in terrible shape. I had backaches and headaches and my appetite failed me completely. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription had been of such great benefit to me once before when I had need of a tonic and nervine that I decided to take it again and it very quickly relieved me of the nervousness, backaches and headaches and my appetite soon returned. I was restored to health, which I still enjoy. I would recommend Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription to every woman who is ailing, weak or nervous."—Mrs. Johanna Buchko, 3561 E. Eye St.

Theatres

ANTLERS THEATRE

"Between Friends," which will be shown at the Antlers Theatre tonight with Lou Tellegen, Norman Terry, Alice Calhoun and Anna Q. Nilsson in the principal roles, comes from the pen of Robert W. Chambers, who is one of America's most admired and prolific writers of fiction and has contributed much to its literary standing in all its phases—novels, short stories and the screen.

In "Between Friends," Mr. Chambers has written a story of unusual interest in which suspense rules to the final scene.

ANTLERS THEATRE

Some 75,000 persons watched the filming of many of the scenes in "Let 'Er Buck," Universal special which will be screened at the Antlers Theatre commencing Thursday with Hoot Gibson as star.

This does not mean that Universal held open house to visitors while the picture was being made, but is explained by the statement that the picture was filmed in Pendleton, Oregon, from the novel by Charles Wellington Furlong, while the famous annual round-up was being held there in 1924.

The vast number of men, women and children who saw the picture making were present for the purpose of seeing some of the world's champion bronco riders, bull-doggers, ropers and trick riders strive to retain their laurels against men who in some cases proved more skillful.

MAJESTIC THEATRE.

"Romance Ranch" which opened at the Majestic theatre last night, starring John Gilbert, is all the advance notices claimed for it. This latest William Fox production is full of thrills, smiles and tears.

John Gilbert, as Carlos Brent, grandson of a wrongfully impoverished old Spaniard, proves a lovable avenger in this romance of southern California, and Virginia Brown Faire, the dashing, dark haired, dark-eyed little Fox actress, is wonderful as Carmen Hendley, daughter of the usurper.

The interest of the first night audience was not allowed to lag for a moment and three times during the showing of this interesting love and mystery picture Many anxious breaths were drawn as the daring players risked life and limb.

LIBERTY THEATRE

A new picture starring Fred Thomson is enough to draw crowds to any movie palace; and the Liberty Theatre is sure to have packed houses tonight and Thursday when "That Devil Quemado" is shown for the first time locally. The production is the first which this popular western star has made since he broke his leg doing a leap to the back of a wheel horse on a hurtling stage some months ago and his return to the screen will be welcomed by tens of thousands of Thomson fans. Silver King, his gorgeous horse, plays a prominent part in "That Devil Quemado"; indeed, his role is said to be the most exciting that this equine luminary has ever played. Del Andrews directed the production. Gloria Hope plays the leading role delightfully.

KAFFIRS, ZULUS IN SATORIAL EFFECTS, GREET 'IS 'IGHNESS

KING WILLIAMSTOWNS, Union of South Africa, May 20.—Thousands of Kaffirs, garbed in fantastic combinations of native costume and improvised European dress, gathered here today from all the surrounding countries and hailed the Prince of Wales.

One Zulu, in full fighting trim and with a war shield lashed to his back, smashed through the streets on a motorcycle to reach the prince's levee. A Kaffir paraded the ground near the prince's headquarters attired in navy blue trousers, a black dinner suit, waist coats and a rough imitation of a tail coat made from wild cat skins.

The place of honor fronting the platform where the prince received addresses from the chiefs, was occupied by an ancient Kaffir, dressed in a black bordered red blanket and a soft felt hat four sizes too small and covered with the accumulated dirt of many years.

The prince personally conducted the orchestra during one of the numbers at a dance given in his honor here last night.

Ladies of the Woodcraft Thimble club will meet at the K. P. Club room Friday as usual.

Does Your Back Ache?

Bad Backs Bring Suffering to Many Roseburg Folks.

Is that dull, constant backache making you old and miserable? Does you back throb and ache until it seems you just can't keep going? Do you suffer headaches, dizzy spells and urinary disorders; feel weak, tired and worn-out? Then look to your kidneys. Delay may mean serious kidney sickness! Use Doan's Pills—a stimulant diuretic to the kidneys. Doan's are recommended by Roseburg folks.

Mrs. Laura Kimball, 222 S. Pine St., Roseburg, says: "My kidneys were always weak and if I took cold it settled in my back and I suffered dreadfully. I couldn't hold out to sweep the floor. Also my kidneys acted irregularly. Doan's Pills relieved these attacks, strengthening my backs and kidneys."
