WOMAN IS SHOT, NIECE ABDUCTED, HOME SET AFIRE

(Associated Press Leased Wire.)
WINTHROP, Maine, May 20.—A posse of county officers, reinforced by citizens, was searching the countryside near Lake Maranacook today for a man who is believed to have shot and seriously wounded Mrs. Emma M. Towns and then set fire to her cottage. Miss Alda Hayward, a niece of Mrs. Towns, is missing and is believed to have been abducted. Mrs. Towns and her niece are among the most respected citizens of the town. According to the story told by Mrs. Towns, she and her niece returned last night from Winthrop village to the cottage on the east shore of Lake Maranacook and as they entered the door two shots were fired from within. Both bullets struck Mrs. Towns. She fell on a couch in a half-conscious condition and later heard the voice of a man telling Miss Hayward that if she would accompany him on a journey of fifty miles no harm would come to her. She heard Miss Hayward ask:—"But what if my aunt should die?" The man then looked at her as she lay on the couch. Mrs. Towns said. Afterward he went upstairs and she heard him speaking of money. The next she realized was that she was alone in the house and it was on fire. She revived sufficiently to drag herself from the place and seek refuge in a neighboring cottage.

NOTICE TO WATER CONSUMERS

CALIFORNIA OREGON POWER CO.
TO OPEN REST ROOM AT CROCKER'S DRUG STORE FOR CARNIVAL

The rest room for ladies and children to be maintained by the County Health Unit will be located at Crocker's Drug Store instead of the Sykes building as previously announced. A change in arrangements was made today, due to the fact that the drug store provides many facilities desirable for a rest room which cannot be obtained at the Sykes building. The county nurses, Mrs. Grandy and Mrs. Post, today put everything in readiness to open the rest room tomorrow, and all ladies, particularly mother with children, are urged to visit the rest room where comforts will be provided for them.

BASEBALL GAME POSTPONED.
The base ball game scheduled for last night between the Legion and Odd Fellows baseball teams of the twilight league, was postponed because of the heavy rain. There will be two games during the carnival, one on Thursday night at 6:15 between the Odd Fellows and the Baptist-DeMolay team, and the Friday game also at 6:15 between the Christians and the Legion.

NOTICE
