

THE WOMAN'S PAGE

SOCIETY

By BEULAH JEWETT

All contributions to this page, society, women's clubs, and personals, should be telephoned to the society editor by Friday of each week. Telephone No. 135.

Queen Thelma Is Feted by Subjects

Society has foregone the pleasure of entertaining to a great extent this week, in order to leave the Carnival days free for enjoyment of the special holiday attractions, and the entertainment of Queen Thelma the first and her quartette of royal maids has taken first place. Automobiles have been at their disposal to convey them about the city, and they have been guests at all carnival attractions.

At noon Friday, Miss Iris Rice, one of the ladies in waiting to the Queen, entertained the royal party at luncheon at the Orange Lantern

QUEEN THELMA FIRST

Tea Room, and Friday evening Queen Thelma was guest of honor at a dinner at seven at the Umpqua Hotel for which Miss Adelle Bemis and Miss Mary Reams were hostesses. Roses and sweet peas in dainty colors combined to make a lovely table arrangement, and favors were in the form of corsages for the ladies and boutonnières for the men guests. Covers were placed for Queen Thelma, Princess Fern Roymer, Catherine Shatta, Iris Rice, Adelle Bemis, Frances Cassell, Velma Goff, Mary Reams and King Ford Singleton. Marlon Weatherford, Donald Hellwell, Lloyd Davis, Herbert Groves, William Dolan, Clarence Baker, and John Gerety.

Tonight the royal party will be dinner guests at the Umpqua Hotel, of the Carnival Committee.

Garden Valley Club Meets Wednesday Afternoon

The Garden Valley Woman's Club met at the home of Mrs. Fred Parrott Wednesday afternoon and after a short business session, the afternoon was devoted to visiting and games. The rooms were tastefully decorated in beautiful bouquets of roses. It being the birthday anniversary of the hostess, the members of the club presented her with a large birthday cake, which was cut later in the afternoon. At the close of the afternoon the hostess, assisted by Mrs. John Sinclair and Mrs. R. A. Calhoun, served a delicious lunch. Attending the affair were Mesdames Gene Bailey, J. E. Brown, R. A. Calhoun, R. S. Hutton, G. McDaniel, A. Niday, J. Erwin Page, Fred Parrott, Hugh Ritchie, Sr., A. Schneider, Peter Sinclair, John Sinclair, R. H. C. Wood and J. D. Young. Guests were Mrs. Elizabeth Young, Mrs. Margaret Hannan and Miss Mildred Sinclair.

Youngs Hosts at Dinner Party Wednesday

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Young were hosts at a charming dinner party on Wednesday evening, having as their guests Mr. and Mrs. William Bell, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Chase, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Wells, Mr. and Mrs. John Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Heinlein, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Knauer, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Brand. The guests were seated at an attractively appointed dinner table centered with red roses, and after the dinner hour played cards.

Railroad Lodge Celebrates Anniversary

A large number of the members of the Ladies Auxiliary of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen celebrated the anniversary of the order last week with an enjoyable party at the Maccabee Hall. A program entertained them early in the evening, including a piano solo by Dalphine James, reading by Mary Wood, reciting Leta Wheeler, and piano solos by Genevieve Moore, Erlene James and Ruth Sargent.

A ministerial wedding given by a number of Lady Muscovites was a feature of the evening, the various characters being taken by Thelma James, the bride; Ila Loubharch, the groom; Mrs. Victor Miceli, the parson; Mrs. Case, mother of the bride; Mrs. C. Cramer, father of the bride; Mrs. Raleigh Angus, flower girl; Miss Josephine McElhinny, ring bearer; Mrs. Fred Reidel, Mrs. C. O. Webber, Mrs. J. B. Bailey, ushers; Miss Olive Fredrickson, usher; Mrs. Leo Rapp music; Mrs. James Clark, Old Black Joe; Mrs. Stanley Bauey, the objector; Mrs. Fred Miller, director.

Tables of 500 were made up for those who cared to play after the program, and luncheon was served later in the banquet rooms. Large clusters of Scotch bloom decorated the hall.

Mrs. Kidder Sponsors Double Shower

Mrs. S. L. Kidder was hostess at one of the smart affairs of early summer, Monday evening, when she invited a number of Roseburg women to her home on Raat avenue the occasion being a double shower for two of Roseburg's popular bride-elects, Miss Elsie Blomstrom and Miss Marjorie Shatt. Both teachers at the Benson school. The rooms were beautifully decorated in roses and early summer flowers artistically arranged in vases and bowls. The evening was spent in games, contests and bridge. Mrs. L. L. Crocker winning high point at bridge and Mrs. Elmer McKean winning the prize for the guessing game. The guests of honor were recipients of many beautiful articles from their friends, and at a late hour the hostess, assisted by Mrs. J. E. Sawyers, Mrs. T. B. Virden, Mrs. George Bolter, and Miss Gertrude Rast, served a delicious luncheon to the guests.

Invited to the affair were Miss Elsie Blomstrom, and Miss Marjorie Shatt, Mesdames Mariel Keenan, Arlene Farleigh, Roscoe Masters, J. K. Fahe, L. N. Whipple, Irvin Brunn, L. L. Crocker, D. H. Lenox, Clay Kirby, T. B. Virden, W. M. Campbell, M. S. Hannum, A. T. Lawrence, Elmer McKean, George Bolter, and J. E. Sawyers. Misses Gertrude Rast, Elizabeth Parrott, Florence Suedaker, Ruth Davis, Florence Thompson, Elsie Canterbury, Fern Scott, Althea Holmberg, Enid Waterman, Myrtle Henderson, Louisa Bohrens, Ruth Swinney, Clara Jarvis, Mariel Shay, Catherine Olson, Elmer Sherk, Lydia Christiansen, Mabel Colvin, Inez Frazier, Verlie Tracy, Katherine Peterson, Iris McAllister, Hazel Payne and Elsie Hudson.

Popular Engaged Girl Is Given Shower

Miss Marguerite Rusho, a popular engaged girl, was the honor guest at a charming party and shower on Wednesday evening for which Mrs. J. M. Judd and Miss Eldress Judd were hostesses. After the presentation of gifts and an informal evening, a delicious luncheon was served at a table arranged under a large Japanese parasol, with smaller parasols at each place. Sweet peas centered the table, and roses and ferns were used about the rooms.

Enjoying the affair were Mesdames Marguerite Rusho, Mona Porter, Thelma Smith, Velma McDonald, Mildred Davis, Rita Shamhart, Dorothy Edley, Lois Cobb, Thelma Olmstead, Dorothy Winston, Delphine Huches, Mrs. M. P. Rice, Mrs. Guy Flint, Mrs. Roy Yount, Mrs. Charles E. Rusho, Mrs. Judd and Miss Judd.

Youngs Set Enjoy Dancing Party Saturday

A dancing party on Saturday evening at the beautiful new Clay Smith home at Winston, had Miss Thelma Smith and Miss Dorothy Winston as hostesses, and complemented Miss Marguerite Rusho and Mr. Rudolph P. H. Lindner, whose wedding will be an event of early summer. The spacious rooms were charming in an arrangement of American Beauty and Alfred Carrier roses and red and pink plants, and the evening of dancing was brought to an end by a supper served by Mrs. Clay Smith and Mrs. Fred Winston.

Bidden to the affair were Mesdames Marguerite Rusho, Eldress Judd, Thelma Olmstead, Mona Porter, Mildred Davis, Rita Shamhart, Velma McDonald, Agnes McNabb, Portland Norton, Winston Messers, Rudolph Lindner, Bernard Young, Harold Irwin, Ray Jost, Robert Giles, George Hunt, Merrill Ritter, Eugene Bowden, Dale Smith, Kenneth Winston, Earl Smith, and the hostesses, Misses Thelma Smith and Dorothy Winston.

Prominent Club Women to Attend Convention

Seven clubwomen will go from the Roseburg Woman's club to Marshfield to attend the State Convention of Federated clubs to be held there, June 3, 4 and 5. The delegates are Mrs. Albert Minton, Dorothy Edley, Lois Cobb, Mrs. W. F. Jost and Mrs. R. H. Compton as alternates. Mrs. Foster Butler is also a delegate by virtue of her office as president. Mrs. J. C. Ponsler as president of the South Oregon district, and Mrs. Wm. Bell as director of the State Federation. Other club members will also motor to Marshfield for the convention. Mrs. Foster Butler has invited the club to her home for a special meeting after the convention when the reports of delegates will be given.

Informal Affair Given for House Guest

The home of Miss May Baldwin, at 221 North Kane street, was the scene of an informal gathering, when a number of Roseburg people were invited to meet Mrs. P. L. Snodgrass, of Eugene, who is a house guest of Miss Baldwin this week. The evening was spent in chatting, informal games and cards. At a late hour, refreshments were served by Mrs. Mariel Shay, served delicious refreshments.

Woodcraft Session Is Interesting One

Roseburg members of the Neighbors of Woodcraft, who attended the district convention at Grants Pass last week, report a very pleasing session. Several Roseburg women were elected to important positions, and offices. The district conventions are held every two years, and it was decided to hold the next meeting, which will occur in 1927, at Bandon. The delegates to the grand lodge which is to meet in Portland in June, were Clara Bailey, Grants Pass, Lily Prospat, Klamath Falls, Lillian Coleman, Phoenix and Ethel Worle, North Bend. The alternates chosen were Belle Bennett, Medford, Mabel Roberts, Prudence Hildner, Roseburg and Florence Grimes, Springfield.

The district officers elected were Elva Bridges, Medford, district guardian; Tillie I. Johnson, Roseburg, district advisor; Fannie Leah, Creswell, district clerk; Mrs. Capps, Bandon, district banker; Florence Howell, Marshfield, district musician; Mrs. Ruotich, Klamath Falls, district secretary; Mrs. Butler's untiring efforts during the past year, giving herself wholeheartedly to the work and closing a most successful administration, which has had as its main object the establishment of a club house on lots owned by the club.

The committee on funds, with Mrs. Wm. Bell as chairman, reported a very satisfactory sum realized from the rummage sale which has been conducted for the past three weeks in the Sykes building. Mrs. Washington Hughes also made a report of Rose Show arrangements. Mrs. J. C. Ponsler, the new president of the club, appointed chairman of committees for next year, and announced her intention of inviting club members in small groups to her home during the summer months to get acquainted and discuss club work for next year.

Small Dinner Party Wednesday Evening

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Brand invited a group of intimate friends to be their dinner and evening guests on Friday at their home at Overland Orchard. Covers were placed for Mr. and Mrs. William Bell, Miss Kathleen Waller, Miss Lucille Sappington, and Mr. and Mrs. Brand. The evening was spent in informal chatting and music.

Kidders Entertain North Side 500 Club

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Kidder were delightful hosts to the North Side 500 club at their home on Raat avenue, Wednesday evening. Eleven tables of 500 were arranged and the evening was spent in playing cards. Mrs. Herbert Quine held high score for ladies and James Sawyers high score for men. After cards, the hostess, assisted by Mrs. T. B. Virden, Mrs. Chas. Wharton, Mrs. A. Baum and Miss Gertrude Rast, served a dainty luncheon.

Present at the affair were Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Wright, Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Lenox, Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Brunn, Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Crocker, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Church, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Wimberly, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Whipple, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. McElhinny, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Wharton, Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Sollick, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Catching, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Quine, Mr. and Mrs. Leon McAllister, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Wharton, Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Shoemaker, Mr. and Mrs. I. G. Broadway, Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Jost, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Sawyers, Mrs. A. Baum, Mrs. T. Virden, Mrs. George Neuner, Miss Gertrude Rast, Walter Hamilton and Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Kidder.

Dinner and Dance at Wigwam Tavern

About fifty couples making up the membership of the L. F. T. club motored to Wigwam Tavern, south of Roseburg, Tuesday evening for an enjoyable dinner dance. The turkey dinner was followed by several hours of dancing and an informal good time which lasted until midnight.

Amusing Play to Be Here Tonight

Tonight will be an important one theatrically in this city by reason of the staging here of the Henry Duff production of "So This is London" at the Antlers.

This amusing George M. Cohan play is a comedy of delicious situations, subtle humor and keen wit. It has proved a tremendous laughing success wherever it has been presented and it comes here with the original star and a company on a par with that seen on Broadway.

Lawrence O'Drury, the distinguished comedian, who headed the cast in the New York production, will be seen in his original characterization of Sir Percy Beauchamp. His fun making methods, which have won for him an international reputation, will be found well adapted to the subtleties of his role in this offering. Robert Tombs, known the country over as a capable and painstaking actor, and Ivy Crane, former vaudeville star, will head the support. The latter will have the delightful role of Lady Duckworth, which she is said to assume with great distinction.

Last Meeting of Year for Woman's Club

The last regular meeting of the Roseburg Woman's club was held Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. C. Winston, a large number of members and guests driving out from the city. The business of the afternoon was largely devoted to the reports of the retiring officers and introduction of new officers who were elected at the last meeting.

At the close of the report of Mrs. Foster Butler, retiring president, she was presented with a beautiful gift by Mrs. William Bell in behalf of the club members, expressing their sincere appreciation of Mrs. Butler's untiring efforts during the past year, giving herself wholeheartedly to the work and closing a most successful administration, which has had as its main object the establishment of a club house on lots owned by the club.

The committee on funds, with Mrs. Wm. Bell as chairman, reported a very satisfactory sum realized from the rummage sale which has been conducted for the past three weeks in the Sykes building. Mrs. Washington Hughes also made a report of Rose Show arrangements. Mrs. J. C. Ponsler, the new president of the club, appointed chairman of committees for next year, and announced her intention of inviting club members in small groups to her home during the summer months to get acquainted and discuss club work for next year.

After a community sing, dainty refreshments were served at tables charming with pink poppies. On the refreshment committee were Mrs. G. A. Bradburn, Mrs. L. B. Skinner, Mrs. Wm. Bell, Mrs. I. B. Kidder, Mrs. W. C. Winston, Mrs. W. F. Jost, Mrs. J. M. Judd, Mrs. V. Short, and Mrs. Albert Minton.

Mrs. Coates Hostess to Ten Mile Circle

Mrs. Anna Coates was hostess to the members of the Ten Mile Community Circle, on Wednesday of this week. A number of well chosen readings were given by different members, the main theme being "Our Mothers."

Those enjoying Mrs. Coates' hospitality were Mesdames Alira, Anna Bushnell, Lena Rowell, Katie McDaniel, Lizzie Breitenbacher, Margaret Porter, Louise Coates, Sarah Moss, Amelia Mohr, Anna Watson, Grace Barnes, Victoria McDaniel, and Rico, Misses Blanche Barnes, Elita Coates, Ruby McDaniel and Alice Albro. Delicious refreshments were served at the close of the afternoon. Mrs. Louise Coates will be hostess to the club at the next meeting.

The ladies of the Woodcraft club met at the K. P. hall tonight club met at the K. P. hall on Friday afternoon for a combined business and social meeting. After the business meeting, card tables were made up.

Mrs. Frank Shields and two children, who have been visiting at the home of Mrs. Shields' mother, Mrs. P. Ellis, for the past week, left this morning for their home at Stockton, California.

POETS' CORNER

Signed Contributions for This Department May Be Sent to the Society Editor of The News-Review, and Will Be Used as Space is Available.

AT THE THRESHOLD

Dear little girl with your eyes so brown
And your heart—oh, so tender and true,
I wonder indeed what the years will bring
Of their joys or their sorrow to you.

So far, Father Time has touched lightly, but now,
You are coming to trials all must meet.
May virtue and honor shine bright in your heart
And always preserve your soul sweet.

You stand on the threshold just ready to pass,
From childhood to womanhood's throne,
Do you think as you gaze down the future, the path,
Will be bright? 'Tis your own—all your own.

Yes, 'twill be, little girl, as the years pass along,
Now let me but add one more line,
If you journey with this as your motto and guide
'Keep my hand, my dear Saviour, in Thine.'

Written for a maiden's sixteenth birthday. Taken from "Everyday Life Series," by Orpha Collins, Roseburg, Ore.

THE DREAM OF LIFE

A matinee in the garden,
Staged at break of day,
Scenes of envying beauty
Promising grand display.

A butterfly as an actor,
Of the great Scott Sidney who acknowledges "Charley's Aunt" as his latest masterpiece, it is a small wonder this is a whirlwind force that hits the public like a cyclone.

Antlers Theatre

Mao Murray believes in doing things differently. She designs her own clothes, creates all her dances and, with the aid of her director, husband, Robert Z. Leonard, selects her own stories.

Her most recently completed picture "Circe the Enchantress," written especially for her by Vincente Blasco Ibañez, comes to the Antlers Theatre on Sunday, and according to all reports is in keeping with Miss Murray's policy of originality.

Miss Murray's part is unusual. As Circe, she appears as the mythical goddess of Greece who transformed men into swine, and her modern prototype, a siren of New Orleans and New York.

Liberty Theatre

Happy hokum, jazzy joy, long laughs! That's what's waiting around the corner for the people of Roseburg tomorrow, "Stop Firing," the great Christie laughing hit, takes place at the Liberty Theatre where it will remain for three days.

With John T. Murray, Wanda Hawley, Jimmie Adams, Jack Duffy, David James, Edith Shannon and a host of fun makers playing the leading roles under the direction

Chief character in the play, Kissing a Morning Glory

In the balmy month of May,
A whirlwind in the garden,
A puff, a pause, a gust,
And blue, purple winged actor
Falls in a shroud of dust.

A bolt of light, a thunder,
A heavy crash, a roar,
A misty curtain falling,
And the matinee is o'er.

LUE F. VERNON

EVENING

Over all the drowsy land,
Cool and soothing, soft and bland,
Shadows of the evening fall;
And behind the mountain's wall
In the distant glowing west
Sinks the golden sun to rest.

In the light of waning day
Shining mountains far away,
Clipped with pure and spotless snow,
Guard the prairies far below,
And with summits vast and high,
Loom against the dark blue sky.

Gleaming in the evening light
And reflecting, clear and bright,
Clouds that in the west unfold,
Rivers, tinged with hues of gold,
And with waters moving slow,
Through the dreamy valley flow.

Red and purple gleams of day
In the heavens fade away
Night approaches, draws her veil
Over field and hill and dale;
And from tall she brings release
Rest and sleep and holy peace.

ALDEN HARNESSE,
Roseburg, Oregon.

of the great Scott Sidney who acknowledges "Charley's Aunt" as his latest masterpiece, it is a small wonder this is a whirlwind force that hits the public like a cyclone.

Majestic Theatre

The Robert G. Vignola production of "The Way of a Girl," a Metro-Goldwyn picture featuring Eleanor Boardman, Matt Moore, Matthew Betz, and William Russell, is coming to the Majestic Theatre on Sunday, for a run of two days. The story, by Katherine Newlin Burt, concerns a debutante in search of thrills. Her search leads her to a prize fight, an artist's ball, jail, and an adventure with real, modern caverns.

BAPTISTS ACCEPT FOSDICK ON HIS OWN CONDITIONS

NEW YORK, May 23.—The Park Avenue Baptist Church—after a spirited debate during which a woman objector fainted, ratified the action of the trustees in calling to its pulpit the Rev. Harry Emerson Fosdick, moderator.

The congregation, by its vote late last night, accepted three conditions laid down by Dr. Fosdick, who for years was the storm center of religious controversy while he occupied a Presbyterian pulpit. The seventeen members out of four hundred present dissented.

Dr. Fosdick's conditions were as follows:—

"That the church no longer insist on baptism by immersion.

"That the congregation build a skyscraper church near Columbia University with living quarters, club rooms and other instructional features."

"That its membership be open to all Christians regardless of creed.

AUTO SOMERSAULT FATAL TO DRIVER

TACOMA, Wash., May 23.—One man was killed and another seriously injured early this morning when a large touring car in which the two were returning from a party left the road at the city limits on the west side of town and turned over several times in its plunge down a steep embankment.

The injured man was revived long enough to speak his name, Swan Averson, but could tell nothing more except to mumble something about a party and letting his team drive.

Averson owned the car. The dead man has not been identified.

SHOULD USE "SAFETY" RAZOR

Reports on the street on last Thursday evening to the effect that Fred Cornell had been stricken with paralysis, created considerable excitement. However, it developed upon an examination that Mr. Cornell had dislocated his jaw while shaving and fainted from the pain, while the twisted appearance of his face caused the erroneous opinion before an examination was made. Dr. Pawser of this city and Mosher of Grants Pass, set the jaw and Mr. Cornell is again well as ever at this writing. — Gladvale News.

COOLIDGE BEGINS TO SHOW EFFECT OF HEAVY DUTIES

(Associated Press Leased Wire.)
WASHINGTON, May 23.—President Coolidge cancelled his engagements for today because of illness.

The president returned to the White House proper after a short visit to his office and the White House physicians were summoned. Officials said the indisposition was not of a serious character.

Plans were made to issue a statement after the physicians had made an examination.

Ordinarily Mr. Coolidge's health has been more robust than is ordinary for a man of his years. He scarcely has missed a day from his desk because of illness since he entered the White House. For some years, however, he has suffered slightly from throat trouble and has consulted specialists periodically on that account.

Recently he has applied himself even more closely than usual to the duties of office, working long hours and omitting many social engagements. Last year he went with Mrs. Coolidge to the circus and when circus time came around again a week ago, a box was reserved for him but only Mrs. Coolidge of the White House circle occupied it.

It had been customary, too, for presidents to attend the annual horse show here, but this year Mr. Coolidge sent word he would be unable to go.

In addition to the days special engagements the president's daily reception to delegates of visitors also was cancelled. Recently these delegates have been unusually large. Yesterday he shook hands with six hundred.

CHRISTIANS WIN FROM LEGION TEAM

In a baseball game, which degenerated into a farce comedy, the Christian Church team last night defeated the Legion team of the twilight league by a score of 12 to 3. In the second inning of the game, a flock of hits, coupled with several errors at critical points in the contest, allowed the Christians to cross the plate in that frame, while four more were recorded in the third. The Legion players managed to annex two runs in the first, and one in the fourth, but were so completely disorganized in the field that they could not stop the heavy hitting Christian team.

Play was suspended on Monday and Tuesday, and on Thursday and Friday.

GOOD WRESTLING MATCHES ARE SEEN

Wrestling fans have been witnessing several good matches at the arena at the Kline shows. There were three well attended matches last night, all of which were won by local men. In the first match Harold Bellows stayed five minutes with Jack Orchard, the 145 pound wrestler. Orchard agreed to throw Bellows in five minutes, but failed in this attempt, the local wrestler winning the money. In the second match Doc Brasher checked a wicked headlock on Williams, the 150-pound matman representing the show company, and after a few futile squirms in an effort to break loose, Williams was unable to stand further punishment and pounded the mat.

In the main event of the evening Paul Amort stayed the ten-minute limit with Colorado Cowboy, the 190-pound wrestler of the company. The cowboy wrestler had agreed to put Amort down in 10 minutes, but the local man stayed the time, and won the purse.

Tonight Amort and Colorado Cowboy will stage a finish bout with a limit of two hours. An agreement has not yet been reached regarding the division of the money, but this will be arranged sometime today.

GOVERNMENT WILL GRAVEL LOWER END OF COAST HIGHWAY

Storm of protest from Southwestern Oregon coast section over the announcement that the secretary of agriculture planned to top off forest highway appropriations, including the Reedsport-Scottsburg road, proved effective, and a call for bids on that work has been authorized immediately, says the Fort Umpqua Courier. This information is contained in a telegram sent to the Reedsport Chamber of Commerce by Senator Chas.

MAN ACCUSED BY SHEPHERD JUROR IS UNDER ARREST

(Associated Press Leased Wire.)
CHICAGO, May 23.—A charge of contempt of court faces James C. Callan, a north side politician, accused by Phillip J. Barry of attempted jury tampering in the trial of William D. Shepherd on a charge of killing his foster-son, William M. McClintock, with typhoid germs.

Callan was arrested last night as he was leaving the office of his attorney, who throughout yesterday promised he would surrender him to the state's attorney. He admitted he had been retained as a defense investigator and had talked to Barry but denied making any attempt to influence him.

He knew Barry, Callan said, and merely had asked him if he was a veterinarian after Barry had first asked him the same question. He was held overnight in a police station and his attorneys said if he was not released before tonight, they would seek a writ of habeas corpus. Beyond the investigation of the alleged tampering attempt and search for Robert White, vanished state's witness, the almost completed first week of the trial has produced only four tentative jurors to try Shepherd.

FRENCH PREPARE FOR LONG WARFARE AGAINST RIFLIANS

METZUN, Spanish Morocco, May 23.—The Riflian tribesmen suffered defeat in General Coué's drive mainly because of the defection of the Beni Zoroual and Beni Messtara today according to officials received here today.

The rebels lost 245 killed. Abd-El-Krim is said to have imposed a fine of 1,000 duros each on four tribes following the rout.

New French military contingents are arriving from Algeria to fill the gaps caused by casualties and also to reinforce the garrisons and the firing columns established in the sector between Fox and Tazza. Great stores of war material and aeroplanes have been moved into the theatre of war.

OREGON LOSES TWO GAMES OF BASEBALL IN ONE DAY

PULLMAN, Wash., May 23.—University of Oregon baseball team was defeated in two games yesterday. Playing Washington State college at this place, they were shut out 4 to 0, getting only four hits off of Weingarten. The Oregon battery was Brooks and Minnaugh.

At Moscow, Idaho trimmed the Oregonians in a ragged contest, 9 to 5. Erickson pitched for Oregon.

TIDAL WAVE SWEEPS LAKE RESORTS; NO LOSS OF LIFE

ROCHESTER, N. Y., May 23.—A tidal wave along 250 miles of the American shore line struck Lake Ontario today causing heavy damage to one village and minor resorts. No loss of life was reported.

FARMER VANCE HAS MATCH

KLAMATH FALLS, Ore., May 23.—Henry Burke, wearer of the coast middle-weight wrestling championship of Idaho, was Vance, who claims title to the championship of Idaho, were matched here today for a finish match on the night of May 30.

SUNDAY AT THE CHURCHES

M. E. Church, South, Main and Lane streets, Sunday School at 9:45. Sermon by pastor at 11 a. m., and at 5:00 p. m. Junior League 7:30. Senior at 7:00 p. m. Prayer meeting Wednesday evening at 7:30. W. M. S. Thursday afternoon 2:30 in regular weekly meeting at the church. — Endorsement. You are always welcome at our services.

Adjutant American and Workers are now back from a successful trip to Reedsport, Winchester Bay and other places. Special Praline Service will be held at the hall tonight. Services all day Sunday. Everybody welcome.