ECONOMY DRIVE

Fear is expressed by some that the drive which President Coolidge has been making for government economy, and the sample he is said to have set in some instances of personal thrift, are hurting business by discouraging people from buying goods...

A lady remarks, that when a certain friend of hers gets up in the morning and finds it is raining, she will stay abed all day. A travelling salesman also says that he finds it very hard to sell goods in rainy weather.

William J. Bryan's heart may be "in the grave," as that gentleman sadly announced a few years ago after the national democratic convention rejected his prohibition plank...

GERMAN OFFICERS DIRECT RIFFIANS IN WAR ON FRENCH

PARIS, May 27.—Abd-el-Krim, the Riffian leader, is actively recruiting supporters from the tribesmen inhabiting the zone north of the Ouergha river, which has just been abandoned by the French.

Hard fighting is continuing with neither side making an appreciable gain. Information from sources which the French consider unimpeachable is to the effect that 145 young Germans, trained in various semi-military athletic organizations, have left Germany for Morocco by way of Spain to join Abd-el-Krim's troops.

WET LEADER SAYS WARFARE AT SEA IS FUTILE EFFORT

WASHINGTON, May 27.—The rum blockade is described in a statement published today by the association against the prohibition amendment as a "throwing away" of millions of dollars of taxpayers' money.
