WECOMA BATHS

New salt-water natatorium and cottages just completed by J. F. Kronenberg at Bandon-by-the-Sea. The cottages are ready for occupancy, completely equipped with everything except bedding.
Rates are $2.00 a day, $12.00 a week, $40.00 a month. This charge covers water, light, wood and privilege of showers. The opening day for the natatorium will be announced shortly. The plunge is large and will be heated to a proper temperature, has submerged lights and all the features that will add to the comfort and pleasure of the bathers. A seven-foot fireplace at one end of the building lends an atmosphere of warmth and fellowship.

ZBYSZKO-STECHER AND LEWIS-MUNN BOUTS ON TODAY

(Associated Press Leased Wire.)

CHICAGO, May 30.—The eyes of the wrestling world today were turned to four heavyweight grapplers, each of whom has held or has claimed the world's championship.

With a purse of $30,000 at stake as well as a $10,000 diamond-studded belt, indicative of the heavyweight championship, Ed (Strangler) Lewis and Wayne (Big) Munn will meet at Michigan City, Ind., late this afternoon. At the same time, in St. Louis, Stanislaus Zbyszko, who, like Lewis claims the title, will go to the mat with Joe Stecher, a former title-holder, in a match also billed as for the world's grappling honors. A purse of $50,000 will be shared by the chief participants at St. Louis.

Zbyszko's claim to the title rests upon his defeat of Munn in Philadelphia several weeks ago, Munn having been considered in many quarters as champion because he threw Lewis out of the ring in Kansas City last January.

Lewis, asserted however, that he had been fouled and this contention was upheld by a Missouri court, which permitted him to retain the championship belt.

The contest at Michigan City is set for 3 p. m., central standard time.

MICHIGAN CITY, May 30.—When Pat McGill and Bob Managoff, heavyweights, described as champions respectively of Ireland and Syria, came on for the first preliminary, the arena, which seats approximately 42,000, was not one fifth filled. McGill won the match with a scissors on the head and a wristlock in seven minutes.

Mike Romano, Italian heavyweight champion, and Jack McCarthy, of Montana, appeared in the second match. McCarthy made it a rough bout but succumbed to a series of headlocks in 18:14.

John Pesek, the Nebraska Tiger man, and Charles McDougal, of Scotland, furnished the third contest.

The arena was filling gradually and the crowd was estimated from 12,000 to 15,000.

Pessek won from McDougal with a head scissors and arm lock in 17 minutes and 25 seconds.

Joe (Toots) Mondt of Colorado and Richard Schikat of Germany met in the semi-final wreseling for one fall with a limit of one hour, assuring the start of the Lewis-Munn contest not later than 3 p. m. central standard time. Mondt was thrown out of Munn's camp a few days ago after a fist fight with the big boy.

Mondt left the ring when Schikat's manager insisted the rule that both men should return to the center in a standing position when they reached the rope be changed to permit the man on top to assume that position in the ring center.

Mondt was given ten minutes to return or his match cancelled and a substitute match put on. The crowd jeered as they waited for Mondt's decision. Mondt had a minute left when he returned to the ring.

Theatres

Liberty Theatre

James Cruze, that spinner of home-spun dramas, had better look to his laurels, for after witnessing Renaud Hoffman's "Private Affairs," which is showing Sunday at the Liberty theatre, there is no doubt about Mr. Hoffman's genius for creating shadow character studies that fairly live and breathe.

Antlers Theatre

Gloria Swanson's latest picture, "Her Love Story" boasts a truly extraordinary cast and it is due to the fact that Allan Dwan, who directed it for the Paramount organization, takes the word "realism" seriously. "Her Love Story" is based upon Frank Tuttle's adaptation of "Her Majesty, the Queen" by Mary Roberts Rinehart. It is a touching romance of love and mother-love in the atmosphere of royalty.

HE DIDN'T STEAL THE RHUBARB AFTER ALL

(Associated Press Leased Wire.)

KANSAS CITY Mo., May 29—Max Rope, former postal employe, was acquitted today on a charge of stealing nine sticks of rhubarb from the United States mails. The jury was out 17 minutes. The value of the rhubarb was estimated at 25 cents.

FULLERTON P. T. A.

The Fullerton P. T. A. held its regular monthly business meeting and annual election of officers at 7:30 p. m., Thursday, in theschool house. The following officers were elected: President, Mrs. Minturn; Honorary Vice-president, Judge J. C. Fullerton; First Vice-president, Dr. Wells; Second Vice-president, Mrs. Falbe; Treasurer, Mr. Reese; Secretary will hold over until fall. A new constitution was adopted. The music was as follows: America (by all), with C. H. Arundel at the piano. A group of vocal duets, Mrs. Frank Lilburn and Mrs. Lucy Haley, accompanied by C. H. Arundel. — A group of vocal solos, Mrs. Hamm, who played her own accompaniment. Plans for the school children's picnic were completed. There was a good attendance.

Fullerton Picnic. After school, Friday, the pupils of the Fullerton School were the guests of the P. T. A. at an indoor picnic, due to the inclement weather at that hour. A delicious picnic lunch was served.

Studebaker costs less per pound than butter.

Miss Maxine Sykes and Miss Mary Reams left Friday for Portland, where they will spend the week end with friends. They made the trip by automobile.
