

THE WOMAN'S PAGE

SOCIETY

By BEULAH JEWETT

All contributions to this page, society, women's clubs, and personals, should be telephoned to the society editor by Friday of each week. Telephone No. 135.

Miss Parrott and Miss Stewart Leave for Europe

Miss Rosa B. Parrott, who for the past two years has been at the head of the High School English Department, and Miss Adeline Stewart, who teaches in the Sutherland schools, will leave Sunday morning for New York, and will sail on "the 20" on the S. S. Orca of the Royal Mail Line for Europe where they will spend the summer. They will be the guests of friends in Eugene Sunday night, and on Monday guests of honor at a luncheon for which Mrs. Ben Moore, formerly of Roseburg will be hostess.

Their European visit will include France, Italy and England with stops at Paris, Nice, Monte Carlo, Genoa, Rome, Naples, Florence, Venice, Milan, Lucerne, Strasbourg, Brussels, London and other points of interest, sailing from Southampton on the S. S. Orca for home. Miss Stewart will return to Roseburg in September, and Miss Parrott will remain in the east next year, although she has not definitely announced her plans as yet. A number of social affairs have been given during the past weeks for them, the last being an afternoon party today for which Mrs. B. Casey was hostess, jointly completing Miss Parrott, and Miss Teika Haynes, as guests.

Mrs. Lawrence Entertains Members of W. C. T. U.

Mrs. A. T. Lawrence received the members of the W. C. T. U. at her home on Second Avenue North, Wednesday afternoon. The house was brightened by spring flowers arranged artistically in bowls and vases. Mrs. Scott had charge of the devotions, using the 19th Psalm for the lesson and during the business session, an announcement of $750 had been raised for the Children's Farm Home at Corvallis was made. At the close of business, Mrs. W. L. Cobb, who is superintendent of the Flower Mission department, read a very interesting article on the wide scope of the department in giving relief to the storm sufferers in the middle west. Miss Mary Meyers, accompanied by Miss Lucille Sappington, delighted the members with two vocal solos, and Mrs. Lawrence gave two readings. Following, Mrs. Wm. Austin read an inspirational and helpful paper, on "Say It With Flowers," after which Mrs. R. A. Busenbark, county superintendent of the Flower Mission department, gave a reading, "The Life of Jennie Childs." At the close of the afternoon the hostess served a delectable luncheon. The next meeting, June 17, will be held at the home of Mrs. W. L. Cobb, of 355 South Main street, at which time the Myrtle Creek union will be guests of the W. C. T. U.

Oakland Gobblers Hosts at Large Dance

A number of Roseburg people motored to Oakland last night to attend the dance given by the Oakland Gobblers in furtherance of their plans for a Fourth of July celebration there. The hall was gay with red, white and blue bunting and flags, and during the evening the candidates for Goddess of Liberty at the celebration were introduced, and voting was very brisk between dances. Miss Naomi Pinkston, the Oakland candidate, leads by several thousand votes. Another dance will be given by the Gobblers on June 19. The Blue Devils orchestra of Roseburg played for the dance, and will play at the second affair also.

Garnet Wilcox Is Bride of Richard C. Ring

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Grant Wilcox, on West First street, Friday afternoon, at 3 o'clock, when their daughter, Miss Garnet Wilcox, became the bride of Richard C. Ring, of Seattle, Rev. H. E. Mow, of the Christian church, reading the wedding service. The house was charmingly decorated with spring flowers, with pink and white roses and lilies used as the motif. Following the ceremony, Mrs. Wilcox served luncheon. Mrs. Ring is a graduate of Roseburg high school and has many friends in this city. She has been employed at the local telephone exchange for some time. Mr. Ring is the son of Mrs. L. N. Drake, of Ashland, and formerly resided here, having worked as operator for the Western Union Telegraph company, and is holding the same position in Seattle. Mr. and Mrs. Ring will leave soon for Seattle to make their home.

Thimble Club to Give Farewell to President

The members of the Woodcraft Thimble Club will entertain this evening at the K. of P. hall, in the form of a farewell to their President, Mrs. Clara Laushead, who with Mr. Langhead is leaving soon for Albany to make her home. The hall is prettily decorated and the evening will be spent in games and a social good time, after which a delicious luncheon will be served. Each member will take one of more prospective members of the club.

Roseburg Music Patrons to Attend Biennial

An important event to music lovers this week is the Biennial Convention of the National Federation of Music Clubs to be held in Portland June 6 to 13. Delegates from the different music clubs in the state will be present, as well as many others who love music. Going from this city were Mrs. Chas. Heinline, of the Heinline Conservatory of Music, who is a delegate from the Oregon State Music Teachers Association, Mrs. Chas. Brand and Mrs. A. J. Young, also of that school of music. The week will be filled with many important events, registration of delegates starting at 9 o'clock this morning, and the afternoon being filled with a program given by the Junior Music Clubs of Portland. Some of America's greatest musicians will be present at the convention and will be on the program.

It has been the custom of the National Federation of Music Clubs for the past seven years to offer a prize for the best opera. The opera winning that prize this year is "ECHO," by Frank Patterson and will have its first presentation at the Auditorium on Tuesday night. Henry Rodwell, director of the Los Angeles Philharmonic Orchestra, will direct the orchestra for the opera, and several stars from the Metropolitan Opera company, and a New York opera company will have parts. Those attending will be interested to know that they will have the privilege of hearing Lamont, the famous tenor, and Marie Rappold, soprano, in the two leading parts of the opera.

Prominent Lodge Officials Entertained This Week

Mrs. Mary E. Cassell, Grand President of the Ladies Auxiliary of the B. of L. E. of Cleveland, Ohio, and Mrs. Edith Wharton, Grand Sentinel of the lodge, from Pocatello, Idaho, were guests of the local order in this city Sunday and Monday of this week, and were the inspiration for a number of social affairs. They were guests at the home of Mrs. M. S. Allen during their stay and enjoyed motor trips through Roseburg and surrounding points of interest. Mrs. C. V. Pfaff was charming hostess at a breakfast honoring Mrs. Cassell and Mrs. Walker Sunday morning. The table was artistically decorated with the lodge colors, the same motif being carried throughout the rooms in flowers. Covers were placed for Mrs. Cassell, Mrs. Walker, Mrs. G. W. Burt, Mrs. H. F. Ogden and Mrs. C. V. Pfaff.

On Sunday noon they were guests of honor at the home of Mrs. T. E. Singleton at dinner. The rooms were decorated with pink and white roses, and a bowl of roses gave an attractive air as centerpiece. Mrs. C. V. Pfaff was a pleasing hostess, entertaining the ladies of the auxiliary, with Mrs. Cassell and Mrs. Walker as honored guests, at a buffet luncheon on Sunday evening at her home. Following the luncheon the evening was spent in chatting. Mrs. Cassell and Mrs. Walker were again the inspiration for a delightful luncheon on Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. G. W. Burt. The rooms were decorated with pink Cecil Brunner roses, which lent an air of spring to the occasion. Present were Mrs. Cassell, Mrs. Walker, Mrs. H. E. Ogden, and the hostess, Mrs. Burt.

On Monday evening the Ladies Auxiliary entertained the visiting lodge officers at a 6 o'clock dinner at the Orange Lantern Tea Room, following which they went to the lodge rooms for an interesting evening.

Outdoor Luncheon Is Event This Week

Using the lawn and beautiful trees of her home at Laurelcreek as the setting, Mrs. F. A. Stewart invited the members of the New Ideas Club to be her guests at luncheon Wednesday. The small tables where the guests were seated under trees and were gay with red poppies. Covers were placed for Mrs. F. D. Owen, Mrs. S. D. Cooley, Mrs. Meade Cooley, Mrs. Paul Beaver, Mrs. R. H. Williams, Mrs. T. S. Sprague, Mrs. R. L. Gile, Mrs. E. P. Ballou, Mrs. Clarence S. Marks, Mrs. F. L. Calkins, Mrs. C. B. Calkins, and three guests, Mrs. G. G. Sewell, Mrs. Norman Fisher and Mrs. J. Jory. In the absence of the president, Mrs. F. A. Clemens, there was no business meeting, and the afternoon was spent with conversation and needlework. Mrs. E. P. Ballou will be hostess at the next meeting.

Attractive Little Girl Entertains Friends

Shirley Mae Bruhn was a charming little hostess Tuesday afternoon to thirty of her friends and playmates, the occasion being her seventh birthday anniversary. After an afternoon of music and juvenile games, Mrs. Irvin Bruhn served a delicious luncheon with clever favors and a large birthday cake, to the children.

Housewarming Given for Chapmans on Monday

The members of the Friday Bridge Club and their husbands completely surprised Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Chapman Monday evening when they went in a body to the recently completed Chapman home in Laurelwood. The residence is stucco and of the Spanish type and is one of the most artistic and elaborate homes to be built in Laurelwood. Much of the evening was spent by the guests in admiring the beautiful interior and finish. The date also being that of Mr. and Mrs. Chapman's twentieth wedding anniversary, they were presented with a hand-painted cake plate. After bridge and chatting, a dainty luncheon brought by the guests was served.

Among those who participated in the evening's pleasure were: Mr. and Mrs. N. Fullerton, Gerald Fullerton of Sausalito, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Sawyers, Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Kidder, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Young, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Hume, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Walker, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Wilder, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Stapleton, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Bellows, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Wharton, Dr. and Mrs. George Bradburn, Mr. and Mrs. I. G. Broadway, Mr. and Mrs. B. Moore of Portland, Mrs. A. Baum, and H. Wollenberg.

A number of Roseburg people plan to motor to the coast Sunday to attend the Maritime picnic to be held there during the day. Among those going are Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Pickens, Mr. and Mrs. O. V. Jackson.

Mr. and Mrs. Slater Given Housewarming Tuesday

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Slater, whose marriage was a recent event at Salem, were surprised by a number of friends on Tuesday evening with a housewarming at their new home on 114 West First Avenue, north. About thirty-five friends of the couple met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Cummings going in a body from there to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Slater and completely surprised them. The evening was delightfully spent in games and music, and refreshments were served to the guests at the close.

Roseburg Girl Initiated Into O. A. C. Society

OREGON AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE, Corvallis, June 6.—Helen M. Chase of Roseburg, sophomore in home economics, was one of the four new Tenemids initiated Sunday morning, May 31, in the Masonic hall. Tenemids is an organization consisting of members of the Eastern Star. A banquet in the tea room Thursday evening will be the last special function of the year. Senior members of the Tenemids will be the guests of honor. Dr. Kate W. Jameson, dean of women, advisor for the group, will be present at the banquet.

Verus Houser of Roseburg has been appointed to the circulation staff of the Orange Owl, campus comic publication. Miss Houser is a freshman in commerce and a member of Alpha Xi Delta sorority.

Mrs. Schwarz Is Hostess Recently

A short business session preceded a pleasant social evening Friday when Mrs. Ethel Schwarz invited the members of the Past Noble Grand's Club of the Rebekah Lodge to be her guests. Assisting the hostess through the evening were Miss Helen M. Fisher, and Mrs. Tillie Johnson.

A color motif of pink and green, the colors of the order, was carried out with pink roses and ferns, in the rooms where the guests chatted and enjoyed musical numbers. A dainty luncheon was served at small tables with miniature pink and green May baskets as favors. Guests of Mrs. Schwarz were Mrs. Ella Lennox, Mrs. Parrier, Mrs. Francis Rusko, Mrs. Earl Pickens, Mrs. J. M. Trefren, Mrs. A. J. Carman, Mrs. W. E. Clingworth, Mrs. Harry Hatfield, Mrs. Edythe Kelley, Mrs. V. T. Jackson, Mrs. McDonald, Mrs. Hutchings, Mrs. Maude Pyle, Mrs. Tillie Johnson, Miss Helen M. Fisher.

Interesting Program at Alumni Banquet

The annual Alumni banquet for the members of the graduating class of Roseburg high school, was an enjoyable school event on Thursday evening, following the Class Day exercises, at the Palace of Sweets. Roses and sweet peas in red and white, the senior class colors, were used effectively at the tables. The program included the following talks and musical numbers: "Welcome to the class of '25," Evelyn Quine; "The Class of '25," Hall Sear; class president; musical number; Dorothy Nees, Marian Nees; Hall Sear; Ralph Church; "Important Things We Learned at High School," Dorothy Eddy; "A Few Ideas on Going to College," Iris Bree; High School Song; Roseburg High Forever, Paul Geddes, president of S. B. A.; solo, Miss Sarah Christianson; "Good Luck to the Class of '25," Lois Cobb; senior class song.

Fred Reddes was elected president of the Alumni association for next year, with Donald Hollwell, vice president, and Lois Cobb secretary-treasurer. The piano used in the program was donated by the Sherman Clay and Co.

Bridge Club Enjoys Evening With Whartons

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Wharton invited the members of the Bridge and Supper club to their home on Wednesday evening. A charming arrangement of flowers brightened the rooms in which a delicious supper was served by the hostess. Following, the evening hours were enjoyed in playing bridge, high honors falling to Mr. Chas. Wharton. The club presented one of their number, Miss Rosa B. Parrott, who is leaving soon for Europe, with a beautifully bound diary in which to keep a record of the important features of her trip.

Enjoying Mr. and Mrs. Wharton's hospitality were, Miss Rosa B. Parrott, Miss Elizabeth Parrott, Miss Gertrude Rast, Mrs. A. Baum, Mr. and Mrs. George Bolter, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Sawyers, Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Kidder, Mr. and Mrs. N. Fullerton, H. Wollenberg, Gene Parrott, and Walter Hamilton.

Mrs. Wharton Is Hostess to Friday Bridge Club

Mrs. Chas. Wharton provided a pleasant afternoon for the Friday Bridge Club, when she asked the members to her home on Friday for the last club meeting of the year. One o'clock luncheon was served at a table made attractive with early summer flowers, and iris, roses and fern were used about the rooms, in keeping with the spring season.

Bridge gave interest to the afternoon hours, Mrs. Harry Stapleton winning high honors. Those who were received by Mrs. Wharton were, Mrs. N. Fullerton, Mrs. J. E. Sawyers, Mrs. S. A. Sanford, Mrs. S. L. Kidder, Mrs. G. Bolter, Mrs. J. C. Hume, Mrs. J. F. Barker, Mrs. A. A. Wilder, Mrs. F. H. Stapleton, Mrs. Roy Bellows, Mrs. A. Baum, Mrs. I. G. Broadway, Mrs. George Bradburn and Mrs. B. Moore of Portland was an added guest.

Attractive Wedding Ceremony Thursday

A pretty home wedding ceremony was performed Thursday at high noon, uniting in marriage Miss Margaret J. Young of Roseburg, and Mr. Clyde Crosby of Portland, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Young. The service was read by Rev. W. S. McCullagh, in the presence of only close relatives and a few intimate friends. The bride was lovely in a peach hued gown of satin crepe, and was attended by Miss Lucia Pancher of Portland. The groom was attended by Donald Young.

The rooms were effectively arranged with roses and syringa in baskets and bowls and dinner was served after the ceremony at a table charming with Cecil Brunner roses. Covers were placed for Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Crosby, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Young, Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Crosby of Eugene, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Martin, and son Wayne, Miss Lucia Pancher, Miss Evelyn Young, Rev. W. S. McCullagh, and Donald Young.

The bride is a graduate of the Roseburg High School, and was employed at the C. W. Clark photo studio for some time. She has many friends in Roseburg to wish her happiness. Mr. Crosby is the son of Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Crosby of Eugene, and is employed by the Southern Pacific company at Portland. After a short trip by automobile they will return to Portland to make their home.

Marriage Two Weeks Ago Is Announced to Friends

Miss Elsie Canterbury, who has been teaching at the Rose school during the past school year, completely surprised her friends here yesterday by announcing her marriage on May 25, to Kenneth P. Reynolds of Cottage Grove. The ceremony was performed by Rev. H. L. Caldwell in the presence of only the necessary witnesses, and was kept a complete secret until the close of school. Mr. and Mrs. Reynolds will leave for California after a motor trip to California, in which they will spend the summer in Cottage Grove, where Mr. Reynolds is employed.

Mrs. Edward Melvin left this morning for Portland, and will be the guest of relatives there during the Rose Festival.

Dinner for Miss Oleson and Miss Blomstrom

As a farewell to Miss Katherine Oleson and Miss Elsie Blomstrom who are leaving soon for the summer, Miss Eleanor Sherk invited a number of teachers to dinner at her home this week. The table was made attractive by a large centerpiece of pink roses, and covered with Misses Verlie Tracy, Florence Thompson, Esther Sherk, Nellie Sherk, Eleanor Sherk, Mrs. Eby, and Mrs. Sherk.

Daughters of Nile Have Last Meeting

The Daughters of the Nile club closed its business for the year at a meeting Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Max Ruff. A short business session preceded the splendid afternoon singing, which the ladies completed their sewing for the Shrine crippled children's hospital at Portland, and packed a large box to send. Mrs. Ruff served at the close of the afternoon to Mrs. George Bradburn, Mrs. M. B. Green, Mrs. C. W. Gilbert, Mrs. Bruce Bridges, Mrs. McCallan, Mrs. J. C. Hume, Mrs. E. L. Helbig, Mrs. E. S. Boardwell, Mrs. Will H. Gerrelsen, Mrs. Lloyd L. Crocker.

Dinner Party Honors Mr. W. F. Chapman

An interesting dinner party Thursday evening arranged by Mrs. W. F. Chapman, surprised and honored Mr. Chapman on his birthday anniversary. Mr. Chapman was kept at the golf links until seven, and returned home to find dinner served with a number of his intimate friends as guests. The table was charming with an arrangement of brightly colored gym in the center and the unusually clever place cards were pen and ink sketches of the guests, with no name, but a description of each.

Covers were placed for W. F. Chapman, L. G. Broadway, G. A. Bradburn, Dexter Rice, Stanley Kidder, E. B. Stewart, J. E. Sawyers, Henry Booth, Chas. Wharton, J. O. Watson, Charles Heinline, Nathan Fullerton, Harry Stapleton, W. J. Weaver, B. W. Bates, A. J. Lillburn, A. A. Wilder, A. C. Seely, A. G. Nathaniel, and J. I. Chapman. Informal cards and music entertained after the dinner hour.

Elks Have Pleasant Dancing Party

One of the most enjoyable Elks dancing parties of the season was an event of Thursday evening, and followed a showing of motion pictures in the lodge room by the Copee organization. Several tables of cards were in play in the ladies parlors, and the Blue Devils orchestra played for the dancers in the large hall. Punch and wafers were served at eleven.

Surprise Shower for Miss Margaret Young

Miss Clementine McReynolds invited a small group to her home Tuesday evening, the affair being arranged as a surprise shower for Miss Margaret Young, whose wedding was an event of Thursday. Miss Young received many beautiful additions to her bridal chest, and the evening was pleasantly spent with chatting and music, and the making of a comic history for the bride to be.

Fern and orange blossoms adorned the rooms and table where Miss Young cut and served a wedding cake. Guests of Miss McReynolds were Misses Margaret Young, Elsie B. Johnson, McMillan, Edna Perrin, Doris Price, Adele Bemis, Olive Frederickson, Lucia Pancher, of Portland, Faye Geddes, Elvan Strader, Mamie Sinnott, Evelyn Young, Mrs. R. E. Harper and Mrs. C. W. Clark.

Misses Parrott and Stewart Honored Tuesday Afternoon

Honoring two Roseburg women, who are leaving soon to tour Europe, Miss Rosa B. Parrott, and Miss Adeline Stewart, Mrs. J. E. Sawyers and Miss Gertrude Rast were joint hostesses at the home of Mrs. Sawyers, on East avenue, Tuesday afternoon. A variety of spring flowers were used about the rooms in a charming arrangement. The afternoon hours were spent in playing bridge and mah jongg, honors at bridge falling to Miss Francis Howell, and mah jongg prize was won by Mrs. James Perry, of Klamath Falls. Several beautiful gifts were presented Miss Parrott and Miss Stewart.

After bridge and mah jongg, the hostesses assisted by Mrs. T. B. Virden and Mrs. S. A. Sanford, served a delicious luncheon. Enjoying the afternoon were Misses Rosa B. Parrott, Adeline Stewart, Josephine Parrott, Elizabeth Parrott, Helen Casey, Bell Curry, Frances Howell, Bess Clough, Edith Curry and Gertrude Rust. Mesdames B. Casey, James Perry of Klamath Falls, N. Curry, Bridgette Hermann, M. A. Thorne, I. B. Riddle, G. W. Riddle, M. N. Tidwell of Astoria, George Kohlmann, Leslie McHenry, of Portland, S. A. Sanford, T. B. Virden, A. Baum, Walter Fisher, S. L. Kidder, Gladys Collins, J. E. Bachler, Thomas Brown, Ben Moore, R. B. Oliver, and J. E. Sawyers.

Interesting Program Entertains Club Members

An interesting program by a number of young people was given before the ladies of the Ten Mile Community Circle Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. G. Coats. Recitations were given by Irene Rowell, Freda Watson and Nell Watson, piano solos by Blanche Barnes, Mildred Coats and Isabel Karcher, and a violin solo by Etta Coats.

The hostess served a dainty luncheon, assisted by Blanche Barnes, Grace Barnes and Etta Coats, to the club members, and Mrs. Adda Ollivant, Miss Nell Ollivant, and Miss Isabel Karcher who were guests. Mrs. Lola Dobbins will be the next hostess.

Picnic Supper Honors Miss TeKa Haynes

An informal picnic supper at the Wharton river bank Monday evening, had Misses Bess and Jane Wharton, and Miss Alice Ueland as hostesses, complimenting Miss TeKa Haynes who will be married next week. Cushions, blankets, comfortable chairs and a large bonfire added to the attractiveness of the beautiful spot where the delicious supper was served. Later in the evening the guests were taken to the Wharton home for bridge, Miss Haynes holding high score.

The guest list included Miss TeKa Haynes, Mrs. F. W. Haynes, Mrs. Merril Thorne, Mrs. Grant Osborn, Mrs. Leslie McHenry, Mrs. Glenn Wimbly, Miss Helen Casey, Miss Lucille Crank, Miss Katharine Merril, Miss Evelyn Noland, Miss Lois Geddes, Miss Louise Anderson, Miss Iona Reibel, Miss Veranita Kohlhaugen, Miss Beulah Jarvis and Miss Helen Mercer.

Two Recitals Announced for Next Week

The year end recitals of the Moore Music Studio, under the direction of Mrs. L. R. Moore, will be interesting events of next week on Monday and Tuesday evenings, at the Presbyterian church.

On Monday evening the program arranged by Mrs. Moore is as follows:

- Rhythm Orchestra—(a) Triumphant March; (b) Spanish Dance, Dunning Class.
- April Song—Billbro, Delmar McMullen.
- Sight Reading and rhythm demonstration—(a) My Balloon; (b) Ding Dong Bell, Billbro—Kindergarten Class.
- (a) Good Night Song; (b) Kanakaro, Vandevere, Helen Newland.
- (a) Rap-a-Tap—Billbro, Frederick Brown.
- (b) Duet—Frederick and Mrs. Moore.
- A Merry Dinner Party—Kern, Eugenia Virden.
- Duet—Linwood Waltz, Mollineux, June Ward and Mrs. Moore.
- Sparletts—Miles, Cloyce Taylor.
- Jolly Sailor—Thorne, Alden Kilbourne.
- Vocal Solo—Song of the Robin—Thorne, Jeanne Maddox.
- Mischievous Eyes—Smith, Arthur Baum.
- Heather Bell—Thorne, Leila Packett.
- The Gingebread Mah—Gardner, Catherine O'Dell.
- Music Dance—Howell, Gilbert Flanagan.
- Jay.
- In Arbia—Johnstone, Gordon Godney.
- A Merry Jingle—Lemont, Margaret O'Dell.
- March of the Leaden Soldiers—Kienzl, Robert Hellwell.
- "The Raining—Erb, Earl Oakley.
- Vienna Waltz—Smith, Virginia Oakley.
- Duet—"Quil Vive"—Ganz, Maxine Moore, Agnes Irwin.

Mrs. Cavender Entertains North Side Sunshine Club

The North Side Sunshine club met this week at the home of Mrs. C. R. Cavender, and after a pleasant afternoon, spent in chatting a dainty two-course luncheon was served by the hostess. Enjoying the hospitality of Mrs. Cavender were Mesdames B. S. Nichols, Wm. Fisher, B. F. Chilton, Fred Bowen, Ed Marsters, Lee Goodman, Roy Anderson, E. P. Ballou, J. M. Bartley, Rosecoe Marsters, Clyde Laughead, Robert Chilton, Stanley Bancey, L. W. Ingels, S. W. Starmer, R. E. Harness, V. N. Fields and Deardorf. Additional guests were Mesdames Homer Kronke, Crowe, Norman Fisher, Walter Poole and Misses Jenny Barker and Marguerite Snyder.

Mr. and Mrs. William Van Buren leave next Sunday on a two months tour by automobile of Oregon and Washington points and thence to Vancouver, B. C. They will attend the rose festival in Portland and later on Mr. Van Buren will attend the Elks convention in that city.

Three Chapeaux 'Avowedly French'

These little hats do not need a French label as their unique style proclaims them from that so dear Paris. Atop a blue crepe and straw shaped like an African explorer's helmet. Center, a charming turban in black and white broadcloth, and below, another crepe and straw creation in brown tints.

Ohio Governor's Daughter Bride in Statehouse-Nurtured Romance

Marriage of Margaret Donahy, daughter of the governor of Ohio, and James W. Huffman, Chandlerville, O., is the culmination of a romance that blossomed in the office of the state's chief executive. Huffman is secretary to the governor, and an attorney.

Delegates to Convention Have Interesting Report

At the state convention of Federated Clubs held in Marshfield, June 2-4, the delegates were royally entertained by the Marshfield Civic club. Delegates from all over the state were present, and going from this city were Mrs. Foster Butler, President of the Roseburg Woman's Club, Mrs. Wm. Bell, director of the State Federation, Mrs. J. C. Ponsler, President of the southern Oregon district and Mrs. Albert Minster.

The keynote of the convention was "The American Home and Law Enforcement." This being election year, officers were selected, and practically all the old officers were re-elected. Sadie Orr Dunbar was re-elected president and Miss Chamberlain of Ashland first vice-president. Mrs. Wm. Bell of this city, was again elected one of the directors of the State Federation. Mrs. Foster Butler gave a detailed report of the activities of the Roseburg Woman's Club at the presidents' procession, which compared favorably with the other reports. It included a statement of the opening of the Public Library here, donation of sums of money for the building of a club house, proceeds of the flower exchange sale and rose show, programs on music, literature and art, community service, the active interest of the club members in the city beautiful campaign and other civic affairs, the sending of delegates to the Southern Oregon District Federation, and the 100 per cent subscription to the Federation News, the official state paper for the federation.

It is planned that a detailed report will be given to the club members by the delegates at a future date, at the home of Mrs. Foster Butler, who will entertain the members with a garden tea.

Miss Lucille Sappington, Dunning teacher at the Heinline Conservatory for the past year, will leave on Monday for Grants Pass for a short visit with a brother who resides there, returning here for the week end, and then continuing on to her home at Washougal, Washington, to spend the summer.

Mrs. W. R. Brown Heads Rose P. T. A.

Officers for the coming year were elected at the business meeting of the Rose Parent Teachers Association held on Monday evening, the also being the last meeting of the year. Mrs. W. R. Brown will head the organization next year, with Mrs. C. B. Neal, vice president, and Mrs. R. D. Williams secretary and treasurer. A feature of the evening was a vocal solo by Miss Gertrude Wickham, accompanied by Mrs. E. T. Melvin.

Camas Valley Club Spends Pleasant Afternoon

The members of the Camas Valley Neighborhood club were the guests of Mrs. Scranton and Miss Alice Scranton last week, spending a pleasantly informal afternoon chatting and sewing on aprons for an apron sale to be held soon. A dainty luncheon was served at the close of the afternoon to Mrs. Bertha Parrott, Mrs. Helen Church, Mrs. Lucy Dick, Mrs. Ethel Brown, Mrs. Irene Crossy, Mrs. Helen Mayer, Mrs. Louisa Richter, Mrs. Elmira, Mrs. Anna Wilson, Mrs. Ruth Lawrence, Miss Beulah Brown, and the hostesses.

Business Woman's Club Entertains Grade Girls

One of the most interesting meetings of the Business and Professional Woman's Club was held when it had as guests the eighth grade girls of the public schools, at a luncheon, Friday noon, in the Indian room of the Hotel Umpqua. Preceding the luncheon, Miss Jean Maddox, accompanied by Miss Lucille Sappington, gave two delightful vocal solos. Mrs. Alice B. Maloney, of Marshfield, the state president of the organization, and Mrs. Northrup, a member of the state membership committee, were present, and gave two very interesting talks. Mrs. Maloney talking on the work accomplished by the club along the line of civic work, and Mrs. Northrup speaking on the work now under way for the Portland carnival, and the interesting features to be presented this year in the way of entertainments and music.

Miss Margaret Page gave an address of welcome to the eighth grade girls, following which, Mrs. Chas. Heinline spoke on education, the theme being the educational advantages of the modern girl and the girl of her day. Miss Rosa B. Parrott was toastmistress and two of the grade school pupils, Elbow May Wilson and Vera McClintock, gave responses. Mrs. Mabel Church presented Miss Parrott, who is to sail soon for Europe, with a silk umbrella, as a gift from the club.

The club luncheon was considered one of the most successful yet held, and was one to give the inspiration of higher learning to the young people who will enter high school next fall. Much credit for the splendid meeting is due the Education Committee, headed by Mrs. Mabel Church, and the Girls' Welfare, headed by Mrs. Chas. Rusko.

Mrs. Kidder Entertains With 6:30 Dinner Tuesday

Honoring four of Roseburg's public school teachers who are leaving town for the summer, Mrs. S. L. Kidder, who is to go to Eugene, Miss Wilma Dobell, Miss Katherine Peterson and Miss Katherine Oleson, who are leaving for their homes, Mrs. S. L. Kidder was hostess at a 6:30 dinner, at her home on East avenue, Tuesday evening. The rooms were made attractive with pink and white sweet peas, arranged in bowls, and the same color motif was carried out at the dinner table, where beautiful pink embroidered oriental table linen was used, with pink and white sweet peas. Assisting Mrs. Kidder were Mrs. T. B. Virden, Mrs. J. E. Sawyers, Mrs. A. Baum and Mrs. George Bolter.

Seated about the table were the guests of honor, Miss Rosa B. Parrott, Miss Wilma Dobell, Miss Katherine Peterson, Miss Katherine Oleson, Miss Elizabeth Parrott, Miss Helen Casey, Miss Alice Ueland, Miss Louisa Anderson, Miss Sarah Christianson, Miss Lydia Christian, Miss Crystal Jacobs, Miss Edna Hashtine, Miss Gertrude Rast, Dr. Lucetta Smith, Mrs. B. Casey, Mrs. Colvin, Mrs. W. G. Burt, Mrs. Milton Church, Mrs. J. A. Perry, Mrs. Dexter Rice, Mrs. C. Darby, Mrs. J. K. Faibe, Mrs. Lucy Dick, Mrs. Ethel Brown, Mrs. Irene Crossy, Mrs. Helen Mayer, Mrs. Louisa Richter, Mrs. Elmira, Mrs. Anna Wilson, Mrs. Ruth Lawrence, Miss Beulah Brown, and the hostesses.