ceived today in Greek circles in London said the leaders of the uprising on the island of Samos off the Asia minor coast have been captured by Greek forces. Delayed messages giving details of the uprising said that before the landing of Greek forces a band of 60 rebels had dispersed a small garrison, opened a small prison and proclaimed the island under martial law. They said the rebels had few weapons and the population generally seemed hostile to the movement.

MOVIE COMPANY ARRIVES HERE TO TAKE FEW SCENES

Jay A. Haas, exploitation representative of the Famous Players-Lasky corporation, arrived here this morning to meet Irvin Willat, director and his staff, who arrived here today. They are to make a number of scenes for "The Ancient Highway," their new production. Numerous scenes will be taken in Oregon during the month and it is possible that the company will have headquarters in this city a portion of the time. With Mr. Willat, the director, is James Shelley Hamilton, scenario writer; first cameraman, Alfred Gilks and five other cameramen, Frank Titus, Cliff Blackstone, L. Owens Higgins, George Hollister, Jr., and Russell Harlan. Willat's assistant director, Otto Brower and the location manager, Frank Blount are also in the party. They will journey to the Powers Lumber company where they hope to secure a number of scenes of the log jams on the Coquille river. No members of the cast have yet arrived but those who will follow into Oregon in a short time are Jack Holt, Florence Vidor Raymond Hatton and Montague Love.

ISLAND OF SAMOS SCENE OF REVOLT QUICKLY NIPPED

(Associated Press Leased Wire.)
ATHENS, Greece, June 8.—A Greek naval detachment has been landed and martial law declared to suppress an uprising on the island of Samos. The movement is headed by the Vafidas brothers, brigands, who took refuge there to escape arrest. Their first move was to seize the government buildings, deport the authorities and cut the lines of communication. Civilian officials, soldiers and gendarmes expelled from Samos by the insurgents, say they number about 450, including some released prisoners.

A BRIDE'S DIARY

A Love Story of Today
By Idah McGlone Gibson

Cleo Madison, entertaining a few friends, reads from her grandmother's quaint, modest diary. The flapper friends are thunderstruck at its quaintness and suppressed desires. When the girls leave, Cleo plans her elopement with Paul Armstrong, U. S. A., a boyhood sweetheart. None the less, she indulges in a petting party with Chick Adams that evening. Chick is wealthy and Cleo's parents wish her to marry him; so does Chick. Paul's parents, also social climbers who have lost their money, wish Paul to marry Connie Forbush, very rich and in love with Paul. Despite these desires of the parents and Cleo's wanderings as to whether she really loves Paul, the two are married. Almost immediately Cleo begins to learn that marriage is not altogether a path of roses. However, the parents are reconciled to the marriage and the young couple depart for the army post, to which Paul is assigned. On the train Cleo has an allegorical dream which indicates the problems she will have to face. When the newlyweds arrive at the post, Paul is assigned to duty at once and leaves Cleo, who knows nothing of house-keeping, to shift for herself during the day. Johnson, a "striker" detailed to Paul's quarters, helps out enormously so Cleo is able to serve tea when Col. Beldon, the commanding officer, comes to pay his respects.

Rita Thorndike, supposed infamously of Col. Beldon, calls. Cleo likes her. The colonel is not clever enough to ensnare Cleo. Paul warns Cleo about the colonel and Rita. This precipitates a quarrel. And Cleo loses her temper. Just as she is about to pick up much gossip about the colonel, who is a woman chaser, and Rita Thorndike—but she likes Rita immensely. CLEO PULLS A FAUX PAS. The newlyweds and Rita attend the colonel's dinner en partie.

I answered Col. Beldon's question imperiously. "Rita Thorndike never forgives you, for every one at the table saw the joke. I even saw the Major himself laughing." I remembered then that the Colonel had said later when we were dancing, after the dinner was finished, "My, but you were a courageous little animal." "You've got me wrong, sir," I returned in my best manner. "I'm neither courageous, nor in the best sense, an animal." Next—The Colonel Capers.

AMERICANS DROP OUT OF AIR RACE

(Associated Press Leased Wire.)
BRUSSELS, June 9.—Both the American entrants are out of the balloon race for the Gordon-Bennett cup. The S-14, with Lieutenant Florid and Lieutenant McCormick, landed near Dieppe, France, yesterday. The Goodyear III, piloted by Wade T. Van Orman, was today considered disqualified, because its pilot accepted aid when the balloon fell at sea. The three balloons which still were not heard from out of the 18 that started Sunday were the Grand Charles, French, and the Belgica and Prince Leopold, Belgian. The Aero Club at Brussels discredited rumors that Pilot De Muyter, of the Belgica, had been killed landing in England. The French balloon Picardie landed at Anneville, France, it was reported today.

ANIMALS SIEZED BY CREDITORS OF ACTRESS STARVE

(Associated Press Leased Wire.)
SPOKANE Wash., June 9.—Forty animals belonging to Nell Shipman moving picture actress, are starving in their cages at the head of Priest Lake, Idaho. F. T. Carroll, assistant supervisor of the Kaniksu national forest reported here last night.

The animals, which include twenty five dogs, four bears, one wild cat, one deer, several coyotes, two wolves, an eagle and an owl, have been living on half rations lately and did not get anything to eat Friday and Saturday Mr. Carroll said.

"They cannot be turned loose to forage for themselves because they would drive all the game away from the lake and pillage tourists' camps," he said. "Nell Shipman is in the east. The menagerie was taken over by creditors, but they haven't taken care of the beasts."

Mr. Carroll said the forest service has no money to feed the animals and he has appealed to the public for aid.
