BATTLE RAGING IN ENVIRONS OF CITY OF CANTON

Neutrals in Firing Range in More Danger Than the Combatants.

American Consul Warns His Countrymen to Leave—Outcry Against Aliens Grows.

CANTON, June 10.—Efforts of the Canton Chamber of Commerce to induce rival Chinese leaders, now fighting for possession of Canton, to move the seat of warfare outside the business district failed today.

The commander of the Yunnanese troops is unwilling to leave his present position because he is drawing a large income from gambling, opium sales and various other sources.

The Yunnanese troops are apparently preparing for a long siege having brought field guns to the street approaches leading directly to the river front. The Yunnanese are searching to find further supplies of ammunition, with the approach of the Kwantung troops, the Yunnanese troops who hold Canton were entrenching themselves. Both attacking and defending troops claim the advantage in the fighting thus far.

Four bolshevik Russians, attempting to gain admittance into the foreign concession today were refused entrance by the British authorities.

The city police force has been alerted. Chinese newspapers have suspended publication. All the foreigners have been evacuated from the danger zone.

Heavy fighting has been in progress between Cantonese and Yunnanese forces at Canton, Papanese yesterday said four Americans, including two women, who attempted to escape from the fighting zone in a boat flying the American flag, were fired upon by Yunnanese machine gunners and that one of the women, Mrs. Frank Crampton, was wounded in the arm.

PEKING, June 10.—The students of the capital today were holding monster demonstrations in protest against the action of the foreign authorities in quelling the recent strike riots at Shanghai. The students committed the flying of anti-foreign banners on all carts and rickshaws. They also distributed anti-foreign literature, containing wildly extravagant statements and declaring the Shanghai affair "the most brutal and cold blooded atrocity in human history."

The Chinese government last evening requested the Italian minister, Commander Cerutti, to advise the staffs of the various legations.

Kentucky Congressman Emerges From Jail to Face Regular Charge Growing Out of Insatiable Thirst

PIKEVILLE, Ky., June 10.—Congressman John W. Langley, republican, Kentucky, denied today that he was intoxicated yesterday, as charged in a warrant sworn to by Mrs. W. P. Henzler, and said that his jail sentence of four hours last night was a result of his misunderstanding.

Mr. Langley said he went to Judge J. P. Marrs when he learned that the warrant for him had been issued, inquiring about the charge. Mr. Langley said he denied vehemently having been intoxicated and declared that whoever made the charge was a "liar." Judge Marrs, who is about 75 years old, then fined the congressman $10 for contempt of court.

"I thought I was talking to the judge in his private office," Mr. Langley said. "I didn't know we were in court."

The ten-hour jail sentence followed when Mr. Langley protested against the decision, he said. His physician and Mrs. Langley went to Judge Marrs and explained that the congressman was under medical care, and had just been released from a hospital and had a high blood pressure. Judge Marrs released the congressman shortly afterward, about six hours before the confinement sentence would have expired.

LETS BOY DROWN BECAUSE WARNING WAS NOT HEED

SEATTLE, June 10.—A Canadian Press dispatch received here today, said after witnesses testified that Geo. Schrader, Elwood, Manitoba, had refused use of his boat to attempt to rescue Robert Beck, 13, drowned in the Red River Saturday, a coroner's jury yesterday held Schrader negligently responsible for the boy's death and expressed the opinion that his conduct was such as to make him an "undesirable citizen."

The boy's mother pleaded with Schrader for the use of the boat, but was refused, testimony revealed. She said while the lad was drowning, Schrader told her: "I have told the boys many times to keep away from the river. They take no notice, and I don't care if they drown."

CITY COUNCIL IN AGREEMENT TO TRADE LAND

Triangular Park in North Roseburg Exchanged for Narrow Strip.

WILL WIDEN STREET

A. Creason to Trade City 20-Foot Strip in Order to Straighten Out Jackson Street.

At a special meeting of the city council held last night, an agreement was reached with A. Creason whereby the city trades him the small triangular park, just north of the Deer Creek bridge, for a strip of land twenty feet in width, on the west side of Jackson street, along the east side of Mr. Creason's property, formerly occupied by the North Roseburg restaurant. This deal was made for the purpose of straightening out Jackson street, which now has a jog in it near the intersection with Second Avenue South, which leads east, along Deer Creek.

The reason for this action dates back many years to a time when North Roseburg was pasture land. At that time Jackson street extended only to the bridge, and connected there with Winchester street which angles off to the left. W. W. Cardwell, now deceased, owned a strip of land along Deer creek, and extending across what is now Jackson street to Winchester.

Richardson, an accountant, engaged as a result of a motion offered at a meeting yesterday by A. G. Beals of Tillamook, one of the new commissioners, who succeeded P. P. Kendall. Richardson said that in a preliminary inspection he had found several accounts that were not itemized.

SCORES ARE INJURED

32 Men Put Under Arrest—Authorities Appeal to Governor to Make Investigation.

CLINTON, Mass., June 10.—Thirty-two men were under arrest today the result of a riot after an outdoor meeting of the Ku Klux Klan. Scores apparently were injured in the fighting, which was not quelled until twenty state police patrolmen had charged a battling crowd. Only three men, however, were hurt severely enough to be treated by physicians. They said they were innocent victims, being the target of missiles while passing through the town in automobile trucks.

Everett Rice, 17, was accused of assault with intent to kill and of carrying dangerous weapons. The police said that some time after the riot ceased he threw his neighborhood into excitement by firing three shots at three men near his home.

Fifteen clubs, 12 pieces of lead pipe, pieces of rubber hose and a revolver used in the battle were seized by the police.

The rioting started shortly before midnight, when a procession of more than 200 Klansmen's cars were suddenly attacked. As the first car drove in sight, a crowd rushed it, throwing bricks and swinging clubs.

Lieutenant Roy Kimball and 20 state troopers patrolled the grounds surrounding a brewer's field near Berlin, where a Klan meeting had been held, were escorting the Klan machines thru Clinton when the riot started.

Occupants of the Klan machines jumped to the ground and within a short time numerous fist fights were in progress while the troopers tried vainly to keep order. Clubs and rocks flew right and left, windows were shattered and shrill cries of women in nearby houses contributed to the disorder. Flower pots, porch chairs and other things movable were taken from the porches and lawns and used in the battle. The roadway was strewn with rocks, clubs and broken glass.

State policemen were brushed aside and several were knocked down. Several men arrested were freed as the crowd descended on the arresting patrolmen. State and local police finally gained control of the situation and escorted the Klan cars out of town.

The select new men of Clinton appealed to Governor Fuller to have a state investigation of the trouble.

All the defendants pleaded not guilty, they were arranged in Clinton District Court on charges of violating a town by-law by participating in a parade for which no permit had been issued and of disturbing the peace. They were held in jail of $100 each for later hearing.

OREGON FRUIT CROP THIS YEAR MAY BE LARGER THAN EARLY ESTIMATES BUT NOT OVER 25 PER CENT NORMAL

PORTLAND, Ore., June 10.—Abundance of soil moisture, and the light set of fruit, which indicate that sizes will range unusually large, may produce a fruit crop for Oregon larger than present estimates, says P. L. Kent, statistician of the department of agriculture, in report on a survey of the state during the last ten days of May.

These conditions, he points out, may overcome to a large extent the handicaps of the unusually dry season last year, the light bloom this spring, and the fact that cold rainy weather at pollination time interfered with normal setting of the fruit.

There was some loss of trees from winter cold, he says. There was also considerable winter damage to loganberries, raspberries and blackberries.

Last year's weather conditions affected pears unfavorably, and the

CREATOR OF UNIVERSE LEFT EVIDENCE OF WORK FOR HUMAN REASON.

DURHAM, N. C., June 10.—Some of the questions involved in discussions of the Bible and evolution were touched upon by Secretary Wilbur of the navy department in a prepared commencement address today at Duke university, on the subject, "Common Sense." He quoted as his text, "If any man lack wisdom let him ask of God who giveth abundantly and unbridledly not, and it shall be given him."

Appealing for application of common sense to many of the problems of life Mr. Wilbur said:

"We need common sense in religion."

"If the Bible is the inspired word of God, as we believe," he added, "then he created the universe and left the record of that creation for ever inscribed upon all created things. There are at least two divine books, the holy Bible, on whose pages are inscribed the doings and sayings of holy men, and the book of nature. A part of this historical story is plainly written upon the geological strata which circumscribe the globe. Common sense suggests that these two records be considered together, and that to reject and utterly ignore either is equally foolish."

"Science today, whatever else it may have accomplished, has demonstrated that the universe is constructed on a plan and has been created according to laws which still operate daily. These results not only suggest, but they demand a Planner and a Creator and a law giver. Reason cannot go so far as to discover these laws and plans and created things without going a step further to the creator, discerning some of his attributes by the things he has done."

"I was asked the other day if I believed in a future life, and what proof there was of such life. I replied that it took faith to apprehend and believe in a future life. But there are ample proofs of a future life if we care to weigh them and their fundamental one around which all others center is the resurrection of Jesus Christ. If Christ there is a future life. What evidence is there of his resurrection? This is the belief which I stand, this institution in which you are trained, and every Christian church in existence and every Christian institution and every Christian in the universe now and since the day of the resurrection, is evidence of the resurrection. It was this incident which transformed the eleven disciples from fleeing cowards appalled and dismayed at the crucifixion into inspired prophets who assailed the world single handed and sought in a generation to convert all men to Christianity and to a belief in the resurrection. It was faith in this resurrection that enabled men who had fled from mere rebuke or censure to calmly face a martyr's death."

"To believe in such a transformation of the disciples without an adequate cause, requires greater credulity than to believe in the resurrection and when they themselves asserted the resurrection of Jesus as the source of their inspiration, they furnished the foundation of their conduct and gave evidence of the truth of their assertion."

"If we accept as a basis of life the first verse of the first chapter of Genesis, the first verse of the twenty third psalm, and the first two sentences of the Lord's prayer, we shall have in those declarations, made hundreds of years apart, a sure foundation for investigation into the truth of religion as revealed in the Bible and in nature. These verses are as follows: "In the beginning God created the heavens and the earth."

"The Lord is my shepherd I shall not want."

"Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed by Thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth and as it is in heaven."

"And if we are willing to regulate our conduct according to the truth thus discovered, we cannot go far wrong, for it is written 'that death shall befall those who know of the doctrine whether it be true or false.'"

DRENCO ACADEMY HEAD PASSES BAD CHECKS; SKIPS

HILLSBORO, Ore., June 10.—Local officers who hold a warrant against Harry Johnson, superintendent of the Oregon Military Academy at Drenco, near here, charging issuance of worthless checks, believe he is headed for Victoria, B. C. The exact amount of the alleged bad checks and unpaid bills alleged to have been left has not been ascertained. One irregularity of the checks turned in was that they were dated 1926. Persons cashing them failed to notice the wrong date.

Johnson dropped out of sight about 10 days ago leaving 40 young boys at the academy without supervision and almost without food.

The plight of the boys was discovered when Carl Hawkins, one of the boys in the school, was hurt by the explosion of a cartridge with which he was playing. Part of one of his fingers was blown off.

FINED $250 IMPOSED IN BOOZE CASE

Russell Bryant, a resident of Umpqua Park Addition was arrested last night and was again arrested. In attempting to handcuff him in the darkness one of the cuffs was put on wrong side out. When Sadler reached for his keys, Lusk, a big man, knocked the officer down and the struggle followed. Just before lapsing into unconsciousness, Sadler fired twice, both shots wounding Lusk.

Several hours later, Sadler said, he regained consciousness just as Lusk was stealthily re-entering the house. When Lusk disregarded his command to halt, Sadler fired again, this time killing him.

Darrow and Colby Chosen Counsel For Evolution Teacher; Hughes to Be Added at Supreme Court Round

NEW YORK, June 10.—As the result of various conferences in New York, Clarence Darrow, Chicago criminal lawyer, and Bainbridge Colby, former secretary of state, have been chosen to assist in the defense of John T. Scopes, Dayton, Tenn., school teacher, charged with violating the Tennessee law prohibiting teaching of evolution in the schools.

Darrow and Colby are expected to lose the case in a spectacular fashion at first, preparatory to the state and United States supreme court's passing on the constitutionality of the law.

Dudley Field Malone, who, with Darrow, first volunteered his services, was delegated to keep the home fires burning in New York. With Samuel Rosensohn of the legal staff of the Civil Liberties Union, Malone will engage in research, digging up previous trials of scientists as far back as Galileo, who got into trouble by announcing that the earth moved around the sun.

Malone was not chosen as one of the assistants to John R. Neal, former dean of the University of Tennessee, because he was brought up a Roman Catholic and because he remarried after a divorce. Both of these circumstances, advisers said, might prejudice him with a jury in Tennessee.

Charles Evans Hughes, also former secretary of state, will be held in reserve in the event the case reaches the United States supreme court. Mr. Hughes has been suggested by those who feared Darrow's defense of Leopold and Loeb, murderers of Bobby Franks, might provide ammunition for William Jennings Bryan another former secretary of state, who is to assist the prosecution.
