

ROSEBURG NEWS-REVIEW

Consolidation of The Evening News and The Roseburg Review

DOUGLAS COUNTY

An Independent Newspaper, Published for the Best Interests of the People.

Today's Circulation Over 4300 And Still Growing

VOL XXVII NO. 175

REVIEW

ROSEBURG, OREGON, THURSDAY, JUNE 11, 1925.

VOL XIII NO. 76 OF THE EVENING NEWS

DOUGLAS COUNTY AVERAGE TAX RATE LOWER THAN IN ANY OF NEIGHBORING COUNTIES

Farm Property in County Pays Almost One-Third of Total Tax, City Property More Than a Fourth and Timber and Public Utilities Each About One-Fifth.

Tax statistics compiled by the Oregon Voter for every county in the state reveal the fact that in Douglas county 25.15 per cent of the total property tax is paid by property located within cities, while 74.85 per cent is paid by property outside of cities. The taxes paid by property in all the cities in the state represent 52.64 per cent of the total tax, while property outside of cities bears 47.36 per cent of the tax burden.

| City | Rate | Per Centa |
|--------------|------|-----------|
| Canyonville | 47.8 | $ 8.31 |
| Drain | 48.5 | 20.30 |
| Glendale | 50.0 | 24.51 |
| Myrtle Creek | 62.1 | 34.65 |
| Oakland | 62.5 | 38.48 |
| Reedsport | 65.1 | 43.37 |
| Riddle | 65.8 | 42.29 |
| Roseburg | 43.2 | 36.82 |
| Sutherlin | 45.8 | 39.01 |
| Yoncalla | 45.3 | 30.74 |

Douglas county farm property pays one-third of the taxes 32.34 per cent—compared with all farm property in Oregon, which pays 25.97 per cent of the total. Lumber and timber property outside of cities pays 21.14 per cent of the total, railroad and utility property in the county 22.25 per cent, and all other non-city property 1.83 per cent. The following table, compiled by the Voter, shows the amount and proportion paid by each source:

DEFENSE DAY TO BE FEATURED BY ONE DAY ENLISTMENTS

PORTLAND, Ore., June 11.—One day enlistments will be a feature of National Defense Day in Oregon today. It was decided by a committee appointed by Governor Pierce. The committee, which met here last night, will leave to the mayor's committee of each city the question of holding parades and local celebrations.

REFUSED TO WAIT FOR END OF THE WORLD SO HE JUMPED INTO BAY

SAN FRANCISCO, June 11.—The body of a man found yesterday floating in the bay was identified today as that of William Arnet, member of a religious cult which predicted the "end of the world" last February 16. Arnet is reported to have leaped into the bay from an Oakland bound ferry boat with the words: "Today may not be the end of the world for everybody, but it's the end for me."

SCOPES FINDS ROLE OF "GOAT" A PLEASANT ONE

Accepts Legal Battle Plan Laid Out by New York Sympathizers.

MONKEY SKIT VIEWED

Malone After Array of Counsel Added Refusing to Be Sidetracked to Minor Part.

NEW YORK, June 11.—Metaphorical goats instead of monkeys have figured largely in the closing hours of the night visit of John T. Scopes, high school teacher, who goes on trial next month at Dayton, Tenn., for violating the state law against the teaching of evolution.

COSHOW SPEAKS AT NEW MASONIC HOME COSTING MILLION

PORTLAND, June 11.—Turning of the first sod on the site of the new $1,000,000 Masonic Temple here today marked the beginning of the work on the structure. Supreme Court Justice Oliver P. Coshow of Roseburg and Salem, grand master of the Grand Lodge of Oregon, A. F. and A. M. was the principal speaker and had a silver spade to break ground. Masonic lodges of the state were represented at the ceremony.

Barrage of Curious Eyes Forces Harry Thaw to Flee in Taxicab During Invasion of Gay Cabarets

NEW YORK, June 11.—Traffic was jammed this morning when Harry K. Thaw, who came back to Broadway last night after a week's absence at Winchester, Va., emerged from a cabaret. He spent the evening and early morning there doing nothing much but responding to welcomes by Rialto belles and sipping ice water and orangeade. Several hundred curious persons, crowded to the doors to see him. He seemed startled and fled to a taxicab. Curious folk pursued him through Central Park. He left him alone when he returned to the cabaret.

Sailstad and "Sunshine Girl" Bury Past and Begin Life Anew

Have E. J. Sailstad and Dorothy Anderson found happiness at last? The "sunshine girl" who shared his two-year western flight while insurance companies fought over payments of his "death claims" to his wife, back in Eau Claire, Wis., is now Sailstad's wife, and they have begun life anew, free at last from imprisonment. Mrs. Sailstad No. 1 is silent. She married Ross T. Richardson, after her husband was officially declared "dead."

OSHKOSH, Wis., June 11.—Will Edward J. Sailstad and his "sunshine girl," Dorothy Anderson, ever find the happiness that they have so long sought? They're elating at it—here, seeking seclusion after long notoriety. They're married and with the tragic past behind them, are beginning life anew. Sailstad, once a wealthy phonograph manufacturer, is employed here. Edward and Dorothy were the central figures in a sensation that held the attention of the world for a few days.

BETTING HYSTERIA GIVES RACING FOES COGENT ARGUMENT

CHICAGO, June 11.—Opponents of legalized race track gambling adopted a new weapon today when representatives of four state organizations ordered a copy of Colliers Weekly of June 12 sent to each member of the Illinois legislature, which has considered legislation favoring betting.

GROGERS OPEN WAR ON CHAIN STORES VIA WHOLESALERS

PORTLAND, Ore., June 11.—Coffee roasters and packers were placed on the arid front at the annual convention of the Pacific Coast Grocers' Association here today. Explanation was asked why they sell to chain stores with the privilege of price cutting while retail grocers are expected to maintain fixed prices.

TODAY'S BANK JOBS NET OVER $21,000

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., June 11.—The Sixteenth Street Bank here was held up today by two men and $4300 in currency was taken. PADUCAH, Ky., June 11.—Two unmasked men entered the bank at Carverville today, forced the president and cashier to open the vault and escaped with currency and liberty bonds worth approximately $17,000, authorities here were notified.

GUARD COMPANY MOBILIZED AT ARMORY TODAY

Full Quota of Men to Attend Summer Encampment Near Medford.

INSPECTION IS HELD

Clothing Issued, Tents Pitched and Personal Equipment Inspected as Day's Program.

Scenes of warlike nature were enacted in Roseburg today when Company D, 162nd Infantry mobilized at the Armory to prepare for the annual summer encampment, which starts at Camp Jackson, near Medford, tomorrow. The Roseburg company will go to camp with 100 per cent of its enlisted strength. The company is allowed 75 men, and there will be exactly that number on the train which leaves the city at 1:40 Friday morning.

REPRIEVE GRANTED

P. K. Padleford, of Sutherlin, who was recently fined $100 and given 60 days in the county jail for driving a car while intoxicated, was granted a reprieve from June 11 until June 25, by Governor Pierce today. Padleford is a member of the local national guard company, and in order that he may attend the annual encampment with the local unit, he was ordered released by the governor during the period of the encampment, and was paroled to Captain Lyle E. Marsters.

U. S. GUNBOAT FIRED ON WHILE ON SUPPLY TRIP

Replies to Chinese Guns, Continues Journey—No Damage Inflicted.

CANTON BATTLE IS ON

Peking Government Blames Foreigners for Riot at Shanghai and Tells Them to Get Out.

THE DAY IN CHINA

American gunboat fired on and returns fire; no casualties. Battle for possession of Canton continues. Chinese government demands withdrawal of all foreign fighting forces from Shanghai. Manchurian troops enroute to Shanghai, where strike spreads on foreign front. Anti-foreign propaganda continues.

Big Bootlegger Making Last Stand, Declares Dry Law Chief, Reviewing Results at End of Four-Year Term

WASHINGTON, June 11.—Roy A. Haynes today completed his fourth year as prohibition commissioner and administrator of the Harrison narcotic act and he observed the anniversary with an optimistic statement of prospects for ultimate and complete defeat of the rum and drug bootlegger. "It has been a hard fight," said the commissioner, who took office 18 months after national prohibition became effective, and while many obstacles to successful enforcement have been overcome, he found others still bobbing up to present new hazards. "The big bootleg operator," Mr. Haynes declared, "is making his last stand as sources of illicit liquor are being closed to him. Real whiskey, wine, gin and brandy," he said, are "practically unobtainable now for beverage use."

DEFENSE LOSES VITAL POINT IN SHEPHERD CASE

Prosecutor Permitted to Refer to Victims Not in Death Charge.

STATEMENTS TO JURY

Slip of Tongue by Defense Counsel Startles His Client—McClintock's Fiancee in Court.

CHICAGO, June 11.—Strenuous effort by the defense to have Judge Thomas J. Lynch limit the opening statement of Robert E. Crowe, state's attorney, opened the trial of William Darling Shepherd, who faced a jury charged with fatally administering typhoid germs, to his foster son, William Nelson McClintock.

AMERICAN GUNBOAT FIRED ON AND RETURNS FIRE; NO CASUALTIES

Battle for possession of Canton continues. Chinese government demands withdrawal of all foreign fighting forces from Shanghai. Manchurian troops enroute to Shanghai, where strike spreads on foreign front. Anti-foreign propaganda continues.

THE DAY IN CHINA

American gunboat fired on and returns fire; no casualties. Battle for possession of Canton continues. Chinese government demands withdrawal of all foreign fighting forces from Shanghai. Manchurian troops enroute to Shanghai, where strike spreads on foreign front. Anti-foreign propaganda continues.

THE DAY IN CHINA

American gunboat fired on and returns fire; no casualties. Battle for possession of Canton continues. Chinese government demands withdrawal of all foreign fighting forces from Shanghai. Manchurian troops enroute to Shanghai, where strike spreads on foreign front. Anti-foreign propaganda continues.

THE DAY IN CHINA

American gunboat fired on and returns fire; no casualties. Battle for possession of Canton continues. Chinese government demands withdrawal of all foreign fighting forces from Shanghai. Manchurian troops enroute to Shanghai, where strike spreads on foreign front. Anti-foreign propaganda continues.

THE DAY IN CHINA

American gunboat fired on and returns fire; no casualties. Battle for possession of Canton continues. Chinese government demands withdrawal of all foreign fighting forces from Shanghai. Manchurian troops enroute to Shanghai, where strike spreads on foreign front. Anti-foreign propaganda continues.

THE DAY IN CHINA

American gunboat fired on and returns fire; no casualties. Battle for possession of Canton continues. Chinese government demands withdrawal of all foreign fighting forces from Shanghai. Manchurian troops enroute to Shanghai, where strike spreads on foreign front. Anti-foreign propaganda continues.

THE DAY IN CHINA

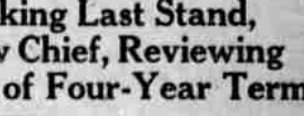

American gunboat fired on and returns fire; no casualties. Battle for possession of Canton continues. Chinese government demands withdrawal of all foreign fighting forces from Shanghai. Manchurian troops enroute to Shanghai, where strike spreads on foreign front. Anti-foreign propaganda continues.

THE DAY IN CHINA

American gunboat fired on and returns fire; no casualties. Battle for possession of Canton continues. Chinese government demands withdrawal of all foreign fighting forces from Shanghai. Manchurian troops enroute to Shanghai, where strike spreads on foreign front. Anti-foreign propaganda continues.

The Weather

Highest temp. yesterday 71. Lowest temp. last night 44. Fair tonight & Friday.

The Moon: Damn that cloud, just when things are getting interesting.