OREGON BANKERS TO HEAR SPEECHES ON FLAX AND WOOL

CORVALLIS, Ore., June 11.—The twentieth annual convention of the Oregon Bankers' Association, which opens here this afternoon, will be devoted to consideration of Oregon development and agricultural problems. Among the speakers will be state Treasurer Kay, who will talk on development of the flax and linen industries in the Willamette Valley.

"The wool industry of the Pacific Northwest" will be the theme of E. L. Thompson, Portland banker and president of the Portland Woolen Mills. At the annual banquet to be held tomorrow night, Dr. Colin V. Dymont, dean of the college of literature, sciences and arts of the University of Oregon, will speak.

Kay and Thompson are to speak Friday afternoon.

STOP FOREST FIRE WEEK IS SPONSORED.

PORTLAND, Ore., June 10. — (Special). — The week of June 25th to July 4th, has been set aside as the second annual "Stop Forest Fires" campaign to be observed throughout Oregon. It was announced today by officials of the Oregon State Chamber of Commerce. The campaign, initiated by the Klamath County Chamber of Commerce last year and taken up by the state body, will also be observed this year in Washington, Idaho and California.

Local chambers of commerce and commercial clubs throughout Oregon have been requested to take charge of the "Stop Forest Fires" campaign in their respective districts. The purpose of the movement is to install in the mind of the individual a sense of his personal responsibility in the protection of our forest wealth.

POLAND DISCOVERS SPY OPERATIONS OF SOVIET.

(Associated Press Leased Wire.)
WARSAW, Poland, June 11. — The police say that a soviet spy system has been discovered in operation in the Polish ministries of war and railroads. One functionary is said to have been paid $400 a month for regular delivery of Polish mobilization plans.

Several arrests were made, the police asserts, but the chief of the spy system, Ivan Zuboff, took refuge in the Soviet legation.
