2500 GUARDSMEN AT MEDFORD READY FOR INSTRUCTION

(Associated Press Leased Wire.)

MEDFORD, Ore., June 12—With eight special trains arriving at frequent intervals, the Southern Pacific station swarming with khaki-clad soldiers, and the street crowded with ammunition and equipment trucks, Medford took on the appearance today of an armed camp in war time, with the opening of the state encampment of the Oregon National Guard at Camp Jackson, a few miles north of the city. According to officers in charge, the entrainment of nearly 2500 guardsmens is being carried out approximately on scheduled time, and by tomorrow everything should be in readiness to start the two weeks program of intensive training. Mayor Allenderfer of Medford will deliver an address of welcome today to the state guardsmen on behalf of the citizens of Medford.

At Oakland, Calif., yesterday Tod Morgan, California featherweight champion, who toddled about Roseburg when he was a youngster in knee pants, won a 10-round decision over his old enemy, Joe Gorman, of Grants Pass.

Rocco Strambo, Portland heavyweight, and Sammy Olson ,of Galesburg, Ill., will head the municipal boxing card at Klamath Falls, June 16. The winner will probably be matched with Frank Farmer, of Tacoma, or Tiny Herman, ex-Astoria policeman, in an open air bout there July 4th.

A BETTER WAY TO CLEAN CURTAINS

Dry cleaning has been found to be a more satisfactory method of cleaning curtains, drapes and tapesteries. There are no after affects with dry cleaning—all of the smoke and dust stains are removed and the body and lustre are left exactly as when new. Phone 472, Roseburg Cleaners.

SHORT SIGHTED LAWYER.

These small-bore barristers little realize it, but they are, by interminable court delays, by indirection and by pettifogging tactics, driving business out of the regular courts into courts of arbitration.

In a very perfected way arbitration courts are functioning in several American cities, and a great many settlements are effected through them without use of lawyers.

The process, because of the speed and small expense incident to the method, is bound to become more and more popular, particularly if the lawyers insist on the present impossible and absurd practice and procedure. The goose that lays the golden egg is being strangled to death by the practitioners who have been getting the egg. — Portland Journal.
