Lightning Streaks Down Flue of Schoolhouse Killing 3 Children; Storms Bring Death to 2 Women

CHICAGO, June 12. Five persons were killed last night in the middle West and Southwest by wind and electrical storms. Two had been killed by storms Thursday night in Minnesota. Three children met death and 15 persons were injured, half dozen seriously, when a bolt of lightning crashed down the flue of a school house two miles south of Breckenridge, Texas, at the close of a community meeting. An aged woman was crushed to death near Chicago, when a shed toppled over on her. A Chicago woman was killed and her two sons were badly injured near Lake Zurich, Ill., when their auto struck a hole that had been washed out by the storm.

WINNIPEG, Man., June 12.—

HARRY EMERSON FOSDICK

"I want a church Abraham Lincoln could have joined." Thus does Dr. Harry Emerson Fosdick state his plans for making a great liberal church of Park Avenue Baptist, New York City, of which the John D. Rockefeller, junior and senior, are members. He was called to the pulpit after demanding that his salary be limited to $5,000 a year, that baptism by immersion be made optional, and the church thrown open to all Christians of whatever creed.

CREDIT MANIA OF AMERICA BAD SIGN EXPERT POINTS OUT

WASHINGTON, June 12.—The lengths to which installment buying and selling are going on in America were pointed to as a bad sign today by Rodman Gilder, editor of the Credit Monthly, in addressing the National Association of Credit Men here. "Did you know," he asked, "that a man with only $12.60 in cash can buy a new Ford in Michigan? This is a sign of the times and a bad sign. Credit men realize that more than 90 per cent of all legitimate business is done on credit, but at the pace we are now going any man with a dollar in cash will soon be able to buy a house; any woman with a quarter may get possession of a vacuum cleaner, and any boy with a dime may buy a wedding ring."
