Never Again

Your forefather's Lathtub was the creek. He mirrored his face in a basin of water and made his fire with a flint. His Ford was a horse's shanks, his electric light a wick in tallow, his telephone a shrill shouting through his hands. He hewed for his furniture, spun for his clothes, tilled, sowed, reaped, ground, mixed, baked for his bread. When he died, not a newspaper printed the news, and his possessions were too few for a will.

You'll never have to go back to his old discomforts. Not while printed pages are available. News and advertising have carried far the story of new inventions. Every day more are added, more things for use, for comfort, for enjoyment.

Advertisements tell you about them. It pays to read advertisements.

Advertisements show you how to spend your money where it will do you the most good

DOUGLAS COUNTY BOY SCOUT NEWS

Troop Two News.

Our meeting was held at the Baptist church Monday night. Those absent were Lester Russell, Gerald Innes, Harold Thomas, Carlos Neal and Charles Neal.

The flag committee reported that the new flag had not arrived yet. On interviewing the executive we find that that committee has not met with him yet to decide what kind of a flag they want to order. No wonder it has not arrived yet. We meet at the church next Monday night. Some members of our troop need to take advantage of the scout school beginning next Monday afternoon. They have been tenderfoot too long.

Protect Our Natural Scenery.

The department of applied education of the Oregon Federation of Women's clubs has prepared and the state department of education has issued a leaflet on flower and tree protection.

Mrs. J. A. Churchill has advised us that they will send a supply of these leaflets for distribution among Douglas county scouts. As soon as they come in they will be sent out to you scouts.

Yoncalla Troop News.

We had a rousing meeting Saturday night. Passed three tenderfeet and got one new member. We also took a lot of second class work. Each one that passed the tenderfoot was awarded a neckerchief. (They are red.)

We had some games outdoors before the meeting which was called to order at 8 o'clock. Worth Wordman was initiated. Test work took up all our time and at 10 o'clock our scoutmaster had finished a poppin' good story and we adjourned. We have two more ready to pass the tenderfoot next Saturday night.

Big Chief Scoutisms.

A mule cannot pull while he is kicking and he cannot kick while he is pulling—neither can you.

The chronic complainer in society is as welcome as a smallpox patient at a pink tea.

Reedsport Troop News.

Reedsport troop is still looking for that bunch of Roseburg scouts to come over for an all-night hike. For the reason that the roads are not in good condition yet we will not hot-hand you for a little while yet. Take warning—don't wait too long. We are real hot-handers over here.

Yesterday our Court of Honor had quite a novel stunt. Those of us who were ready for the second class test were invited to the Kiwanis luncheon where we were put through our paces. While this was considered as good entertainment it was also instructive to the members of the Kiwanis club in that it showed them just what scouts learn. And the luncheon was good.

Ten Good Rules on How to Kill An Organization.

1. Don't go to meetings.
2. If you do go, go late.
3. If the weather doesn't suit you, don't think of going.
4. If you do attend a meeting, find fault with the officers and members.
5. Never accept office, as it is easier to criticize than to do things.
6. Get sore if you are not appointed on committees, but if you are don't attend the committee meetings.
7. If asked by the scoutmaster to give your opinion on some matter, tell him you have nothing to say. After the meeting tell everyone how things should be done.
8. Do nothing more than absolutely necessary, but when members use their ability to help members along, howl that the troop is run by a clique.
9. Hold back your dues or don't pay at all.
10. Don't bother about getting new members let "George do it."

Harold Penter First to Get Reply.

Remember the letters you signed and mailed east? There is a letter at headquarters for Harold Penter from Independent Chamber of Commerce, Independence, Kansas. He is thanked for forwarding the letter of information and told that his letter received publication in an Independence newspaper.

Troop Three News.

Tuesday evening at 7:30 we held our weekly meeting at the Christian church. There were nine scouts and two officials present. Charles Stanton gave us a drill in marching and tactics.

JACK GIBBS, Troop Reporter.

Court of Honor.

The June Court of Honor will be held at the city hall on Thursday night, June 18th at 7:30 p. m. This is an open meeting and any scout may attend who wishes. There are not quite so many tests to give this time so the meeting should be over shortly after 9 o'clock. Invite your parents and friends. It is very likely that several members of the scout council will be there as their meeting adjourns just before the Court of Honor begins.

Scout School.

Next Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock come to scout headquarters and get in on the scout school. Now do not get this mixed up. Though it is called a school, you will not be given a seat and told to study, because you are on a vacation from that right now. We will get our information in a practical way and so far as possible from games.

Some of you tenderfeet have been such too long. We want to get you out of the rut—some of you second class have been such too long and we want to get you out of the rut too. The more we get now, the more time we will have for fun at camp.

Another thing, this school is to include swimming, however, no scouts will be allowed to go into the water against his parents' wishes. All scouts going in will be accompanied by the executive who is qualified as a Red Cross life saver.

Come on along and get ready to pass whatever you may be lacking in. Come in and sign up any day this week.

Camp Cook Available.

Mr. Shotwell, who cooked for the last year's camp at Wolf Creek has written from Portland saying that he will be available this year. All he wants from the scouts is a guarantee that they will all have ravenous appetites all through the camp season.

Mr. Murphy, timber cruiser, and the executive went up to Wolf Creek Tuesday and ran the boundary line through. The Rotary club is very much interested in either securing title or lease on this ground for use of the scouts. In order to be properly protected it will be necessary to have 25 acres on this side of the Little river and 40 on the camp side.

The Twelfth Scout Law.

A Scout is reverent. He is reverent toward God. He is faithful in his religious duties, and respects the convictions of others in matters of custom and religion.

Good reporters never lay off—and they bring in so much news that the average waste basket is heaped up—not so with our reporters—why here at headquarters we have to go to the waste basket to find something to print. Reporters, report.

Riffs of Morocco Bother France; Scouts Seek Riffs of Kentucky

While France is vainly trying to subdue the Riffs of Morocco the big league scouts are fighting to secure the services of the Riffs of Kentucky, John (left) and Jess, diamond stars of the University of Kentucky. John's an outfielder who has turned down an offer from the Tigers. The Reds are after Jesse, a pitcher.
