OREGON PIONEERS HOLDING REUNION

(Associated Press Special Wire.)
PORTLAND, July 1.—The real reunion of the Oregon pioneers went on this forenoon at the auditorium where they are registering for the 53rd annual session. All forenoon reminiscences have been interchanged, while sons and daughters and grandsons and granddaughters of the outsiders learned more about Oregon history in an hour than the textbooks teach.

The informal part of the reunion was scheduled for 2 p. m. opening with an organ recital by Ralph W. Hoyt and the call to order by David S. Stearns, a pioneer of 1857.

Invocation and benediction by the Rev. Troy Shelley, chaplain of the organization and special service for the pioneers who have died in the last year by past president H. S. L'Arcy and the annual address by Judge Alfred S. Bennett of The Dalles, were the largest features of the program. J. D. Lee, past president, introduced Catharine J. Adams as "mother queen of Oregon." Mrs. Maud Springer Bowen and Dr. Stuart McGuire sang and committees on resolutions were named.

The annual dinner precedes the business meeting at 7:30, which will be followed by the "camp fire" presided over by past president R. A. Miller, and consisting of talks by pioneers, songs and old time melodies.

Sons and daughters of the Oregon pioneers were hosts to delegates at their annual meeting at the library last night. The annual business meeting of the sons' and daughters' association was held at this time and officers elected were: Irlace Scott Bullock, president; Rufus C. Holman, vice-president; Lillian Hackleman, secretary; Mrs. T. T. Geer, treasurer; Mrs. Mary Brown Lewis, director for a five-year term.

A musical program was given.

Prospective Resident Here—
Conrad Schwarz of Covina, Cal., is a visitor in this city today. Mr. Schwarz has been in touch with this district through the Chamber of Commerce and is looking for a suitable location.
