PORTLAND, Ore., July 2.—Not a single car of cantaloupes was available for the local fruit trade today, says the Telegram. One car in yesterday was spotted long enough to take out less than 100 crates and then was sealed up to be shipped to a higher market.

In the face of the temporary shortage in this market local product firms are holding prices firm at $5.25 and $5.50 for the best standard.

This morning there were hardly enough good quality melons to meet requirements and several houses ran short of standards during the morning. That the situation would be easier during the coming week is the general belief along the street.

Good tomatoes are very scarce with best stocks repacked selling readily at $3 a crate. Soft over-ripe stock selling at $3 up.

Portland millers reduced the price of family patent flour 40 cents a barrel today. Effective at once best patents will sell at $9.20 a barrel.

Current receipt eggs are a half cent higher in the local market today at 22c. All other grades are steady and unchanged.

No change was made in butter prices for the day and all grades

TODAY'S BASEBALL

NEW YORK, July 2.—Wally Pipp, Yankee first baseman was knocked unconscious by a pitched ball thrown by Charles Caldwell, young Princeton University pitcher, in the batting practice prior to today's game at the Yankee Stadium.

Pipp was hit in the right temple by a fast ball and dropped. He was unconscious for fifteen minutes and a concussion of the brain is feared. He was removed to St. Vincent's hospital, where physicians say his condition is serious.

NEW YORK, July 2.—Babe Ruth hit his sixth homer of the season in the fifth inning of today's game with the Athletics at the Yankee Stadium. No one was on base.

CHICAGO, Ill., July 2.—Ray Blades, outfielder for the St. Louis Cardinals, today hit successive home runs in the first and second innings in the first game of the doubleheader with Chicago. Elmer Jacobs was on the mound for Chicago. Blades' total for four baggers is now eight.
