CONTINUED AGITATION IN CANTON IS CAUSE OF EXODUS OF BUSINESS FROM STRIKE CENTER TO BRITISH QUARTER

(Associated Press Leased Wire.)
CANTON, July 7.—Continued anti-foreign agitation started an exodus of Canton business houses today to the British settlement of Hong Kong, 95 miles distant. The move was started when predictions were made that hostilities would last for six months. The exorbitant Chinese government yesterday issued orders forbidding anyone to accept foreign currency and assumed control of the post office for censorship purposes. Thousands of Chinese have abandoned their residence at Hong Kong and are arriving here daily.

As a precautionary measure, foreign gunboats are proceeding to waterway approaches of Canton for the purpose of conveying ships carrying foreigners. Strikers continue to receive foodstuffs and money from abroad. However, all clerks, boys and other workers are anxious to be back at their old employments, but are prevented from returning by Chinese strike leaders. A double guard has been placed at the residence of the British consul general here, because of fears that attempts will be made to kill him.

ma has again revived interest in the local crop. There will be little or no carry-over this year among Oregon growers. Trading has been quiet of late as the few remaining lots are in strong hands. Contracts at Yakima were made at 16 cents and at 15 cents for three years' crop. Coast hops are bringing 20 to 25c on the New York market. Several million pounds of old crop Oregon prunes are yet to be disposed of. The market is quiet although prices hold generally steady in the face of the short new crop coming on. New crop prunes will run less than 30,000,000 pounds in this state, according to late estimates, or about 30 percent of normal. Eastern jobbers are quoting last year's crop of 50c in 25-pound boxes at 8 cents a pound.

The cherry movement in the valley is about over for this year with the total considerably below the 29 cars predicted earlier in the season. Salem buyers have ceased their activities and it is expected one or two cars will see the wind-up of the season.

Studenaker costs less per pound than butter.

MARRIED TODAY
C. J. Shump, and Inez Esther Kemble, both giving their residence as Phoenix, Arizona, were quietly married this morning at the office of County Judge Quire. Mr. Shump is employed as a locomotive fireman out of this city at the present time. The ceremony was attended by the bride's mother.

MARKETS

PORTLAND, July 8.—Egg prices are higher in the local market today with extras and firsts posted at a cent advance on the exchange. Light receipts and a brisk call for top grades are considered the strengthening factors at this time. Exchange quotations are as follows:

Extras, 35c; firsts, 37c; pullets, 35c; current receipts, 33c (net). Coast storage holdings of eggs now total 657,164 cases, as compared to 614,417 cases for the same week a year ago. Eggs coming in now show the effects of the hot weather and the quality is not as favorable for storage as eggs put up earlier in June.

Cube butter ranged from a half to a cent higher on the local exchange today with extras up to 46c and standards at 45c. Even the lower grades participated in the advance. Fancy butter is extremely scarce and in demand and the market is showing a good, healthy tone.

Creamerymen report a brisk movement in prints at the cent advance made yesterday.

A better call shown for live poultry with prices slightly firmer.

Light hens 16c; heavy hens 22c; springs 14c; colored springs up to 25c. Country dressed meats are firm and higher; receipts so far this week have hardly been sufficient for the demand. There is a brisk call for both fancy hogs and fancy calves. Choice light veal brings 12 1/2 to 14c; choice light brings 12 to 13c. Contracting of hops around Yakima
