He is weary, he says of life itself. What a record he leaves! Fifteen hundred battles have been waged by him in the courts of the land. He has defended no less than 60 persons charged with murder. Against approximately 50 of these the death penalty has been asked. And with what result? Forty-five have been acquitted, a few have gone to asylums for the insane, the remainder have received prison sentences. Not one has ever hanged in all the 47 years of his practice. The younger generation doubtless associates his name with the case of Loeb and Leopold, but their fathers will remember him no less vividly as the defender of Moyer, Haywood and Pettibone, and of the McNamara's, with the great anthracite strike of 1908 and with many other battles fought in the pioneer days of organized labor. What Samuel Gompers did in establishing the rights of labor in the industrial field, Clarence Darrow did in establishing its rights under the law. Darrow was born near Kinsman, O., on a farm. He was educated in the public schools and was admitted to the bar when but 18 years of age. In addition to his criminal cases he has led fights against monopolies, including the Chicago gas trust. He has been counsel for labor unions in many important injunction proceedings, also. See the latest improved two-horse cultivator at Wharton Bros.

TODAY'S BASEBALL

NEW YORK, July 9.—The Pirates maintained their one-run margin over the New York Giants by splitting a double header with the champions at the polo grounds today, the visitors winning the opening game, 12 to 3, but losing the final, 7 to 5.
