

THE WOMAN'S PAGE

SOCIETY

By GRACE CARROLL

All contributions to this page, society, women's clubs, and personals, should be telephoned to the society editor by Friday of each week. Telephone No. 135.

Miss Wharton Hostess At Bridge Thursday

One of the interesting affairs of the week occurred Thursday afternoon, when Miss Florence Wharton, who is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Wharton, during the summer, entertained at bridge. The attractive Wharton home was enhanced with arrangements of magnolia blossoms and other summer blooms. Bridge was the diversion of the afternoon and high honors fell to Miss Marion Porter. Following the game, a luncheon was served. The hostess was assisted by Mrs. C. W. Wharton and Mrs. George Wharton.

Large Number Picnic At Umpqua Park Tuesday

P. J. Hohl and Derwin Moss entertained the Shell Gasoline employees and a number of friends Tuesday evening, at a picnic in Umpqua park. Seventeen carloads of guests motored to the favorite picnic spot, where swimming and other water sports occupied the attention of the guests. Later a huge bonfire was built on the bank of the river and wieners roasted and a picnic dinner served. The dinner being Mrs. Moore and Mr. Hohl's birthday anniversaries, their friends presented Mrs. Moss with a beautiful box of candy and Mr. Hohl was presented with a box of cigars.

W. C. T. U. Picnic Enjoyable Event Tuesday

One of the most pleasant events of this week was the picnic given by the members of the W. C. T. U. at the spacious home of Dr. and Mrs. George A. Bradburn, of Winston, Tuesday. Each member took supplies and at 6:30 a dinner was served in the open. Following, the guests went indoors, where a splendid program, in charge of A. T. Lawrence, was presented. The first number was the song, "America," by the members; then followed a prayer, by Mrs. Nettie Davidson, of Long Beach, California; song, "The Star Spangled Banner," by members. A. T. Lawrence gave a very instructive discussion of the constitution, after which there was a duet by Mesdames M. S. Haman and A. J. Geddes. L. E. Goodbourn gave a very entertaining address, the theme being the meaning of good American citizenship, speaking on the prevalence of crime, and the relation that disobedience of law and lack of respect to officers has to crime. His address was followed by a whistling solo, by Miss Elbow May Wilson. The Honorable B. L. Eddy gave a very instructive address in which he urged state wide cooperation of law enforcement. Miss Olive Lawrence gave a reading, following which, A. C. Marsters spoke, summing the important points given in the various addresses throughout the evening. Mrs. Chas. G. Stanton led the singing. About fifty participated in the good time.

Northside 500 Club Holds Picnic at South Deer Creek

One of the enjoyable events of vacation time was the picnic held by the members of the Northside 500 Club Sunday. The members motored to the G. C. Finlay and Glenn Wimberly summer camp on South Deer Creek in the morning, and swimming, games, baseball and other interesting sports were the diversion of the picnickers during the day. At two o'clock in the afternoon a picnic dinner was spread in the shade of the trees. Honoring Mrs. Irvin Brunn, whose birthday anniversary occurred that day, the members surprised her with a large birthday cake. The members who participated in the day's pleasure were Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Finlay and family, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Wimberly and family, Mr. and Mrs. Clay Darby, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Wright and family, Dr. and Mrs. H. C. Church and family, Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Brunn and family, Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Whipple and family, Mr. and Mrs. Sellick, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer McKean, and Mr. and Mrs. David Lenox and family.

Family Reunion Held At Caseber Home

The home of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Casebeer, of Glide, was the scene of a family reunion, Sunday, when their children returned to honor them on their fortieth wedding anniversary. Sunday morning the family attended services at the Glide church. A dinner was served in the afternoon, and the remainder of the day was spent taking group pictures and reminiscences. In the evening the younger members of the family participated in a stimulating party held in the east Umpqua river. Those who participated in the reunion were Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Casebeer, of Glide, Mr. and Mrs. U. P. McLaughlin and children, Mildred, Verla, Delvia, Shirley, Elwood and Eldon, of Riverside, Oregon, Mrs. Nina Lovelace and sons, John and James, of Dixonville, Mrs. M. Merle Rieffman and daughter, Patricia, Meralee, of Klamath agency, Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Shrum and son, Junior, of Dixonville, Miss Florence Shrum, of Monmouth, Miss Ella Shrum, Messrs. George B. Shrum, and Robert L. Casebeer, of Glide.

Farewell Party Given For Mrs. J. E. Sullivan

As a farewell to Mrs. J. E. Sullivan of Waukesha, Wisconsin, who left for her home this week, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Young graciously entertained at their home on Flint street, Monday evening. At six o'clock a dinner was served at tables on the lawn, and later cards and games were played. The guest list included Mrs. J. E. Sullivan, Mesdames Celia Fleet, Helen Chase, Dorothy Chase, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Wells, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Chase, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Given, Francis Chase, Adelbert Young, Donald Chase, Bernard Young and Robert Chase.

Men Honored at Dinner Sunday

Surprising L. H. Mynatt and Otto Goettel with birthday anniversaries occur on the same date, Mrs. L. A. Mynatt honored them at dinner Sunday at the Mynatt home, on Fowler street. Covers were placed for Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Mynatt, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Goettel, Mr. L. Croft, Rev. and Mrs. Frederick Goettel, of Corvallis, California, Mrs. Percy Croft and Miss Ruth Goettel.

Miss Nelson Weds Lewis G. Hoagland

The following, taken from the Glendale News, will be of interest to friends of Miss Nelson: The home of Mrs. I. Stranne was the scene of a very pretty wedding on Saturday, July 11, at two o'clock, when her daughter, Miss Ethel Nelson, became the bride of Mr. Lewis G. Hoagland with Rev. M. C. Davis, of Wolf Creek, officiating. The bride and groom were attended by Miss Alice Nebel and Mr. Murray Hart. The bride was lovely in a crown of pink and gray gerberae wreath. The rooms were lavishly decorated with Shasta daisies and roses immediately after the ceremony the bridal party went to the Glendale Hotel where a sumptuous wedding dinner had been prepared. Here the dining room was beautifully decorated with sweet peas and mountain ferns. The happy young couple left Sunday morning by automobile for a trip into southern California. The bride and groom will make their home in Klamath Falls, Oregon, where Mr. Hoagland is engaged in the automobile business.

Bridge Party Friday at Barker Home

An interesting bridge party of the week had Mrs. J. P. Barker, Mrs. I. G. Broadway and Mrs. L. W. Jones, as joint hostesses at the Barker home Friday afternoon. The attractive rooms were enhanced with zinnias, gladioli, and other summer flowers in arrangements in bowls and baskets. Bridge varied the afternoon, honors falling to Mrs. J. E. Sawyer. Later luncheon was served at small tables. The hostesses were assisted by Miss Florence Wharton. Twenty-one friends participated in the affair, among them being Mesdames George A. Bradburn, George Johnson, Glenn Wimberly, H. C. Waddell, Chas. Wharton, R. Casey, Harry Stapleton, Prescott Gately, of Washington, D. C.; F. W. Chapman, J. C. Hamer, T. B. Virden, J. E. Sawyers, S. L. Kidder, S. A. Sanford, Mark Thadde, Ed Lewis, of San Francisco; Jack Eppinger, of San Francisco; Mrs. Chas. Tyte, of Vallejo, California; Misses Gertrude Raab, Elizabeth Parrott, and Florence Wharton.

Out of Town Guests Entertained at Dinner

Mrs. R. D. Williams was a charming hostess Sunday when she entertained a few out of town guests at dinner at her home on South Pine street.

Miss Graham Complimented Monday Afternoon

Complimenting Miss Violette Graham, of Portland, who is visiting friends in Roseburg this summer, Mrs. Washington Hughes invited a number of friends to her home on Spruce street Monday afternoon. The guests assembled on the lawn back of the spacious home near the river, Japanese lanterns, artistically hung about the garden, gave an added attractiveness to the scene where a one o'clock luncheon was served at a large table. A French bouquet of delphinium, roses and snapdragons, centered the table. Following the luncheon the ladies spent the remainder of the afternoon chatting. The guest list included Miss Violette Graham, Mesdames Wm. Bell, A. Abraham, George Johnson, George Bradburn, Chas. Bushby, John Eneger, Dean Huber, Paul Huber, Chas. Wharton, Vivian French, Chas. Heinline and Mose Rice.

Long, Drooping Plumes Trim Hat

Long, graceful plumes drooping to mid-lady's waist are the new trimming note used on this hat. The whole costume is black and white, a black satin coat with circular hem and lined in which being worn over a white crep

Booth Ranch Scene of Swimming Party Friday

Miss Lois Geddes and Miss Vera Frederickson, two popular girls of the younger set, were joint hostesses Friday night of last week, at the beautiful country home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Booth, south of this city, inviting a number of Roseburg folk to a swimming party. Swimming was the diversion from 8 to 9 o'clock, when the guests assembled on the veranda and a buffet lunch was served by Miss Geddes, Mrs. Frederickson, and Mrs. J. H. Booth. Later games and music were enjoyed by the guests, in spacious rooms, which were given an added attractiveness by arrangements of summer blossoms in bowls and baskets.

Seelys Hosts at Dinner Sunday

Dr. and Mrs. A. C. Seely graciously entertained Tuesday evening at an informal 6 o'clock dinner. The rooms were given an added attractiveness by arrangements of roses in bowls. Covers were placed for Misses Leta Smith, Greta Smith, Hall Seely and Dr. and Mrs. Seely.

Antlers Theatre

Rum running on a wholesale scale is shown in "Contraband" Alan Crossland's newest Paramount production coming to the Antlers theatre today only. The inside workings of a contraband liquor, an illegal industry which the government combats at an annual cost of millions, are faithfully depicted. The featured roles in "Contraband," Clarence Budington Kelland's story which Jack Cunningham adapted for screen use, are played by Lois Wilson, Noah Berry, Raymond Hatton and Raymond McKee. Miss Wilson has the role of Carmel Lee, a young girl who inherits a small town newspaper and uses it to expose a rum ring using a deserted hotel in the outskirts of the town as a storehouse for the liquor which they smuggle over the border in motor trucks. The sheriff of the county disappears and the girl is told to "lay off" making any mention of the disappearance in her paper, but she goes right ahead and gets out an edition headed "What Happened to Sheriff Churchill?" She is made a prisoner by the rum-runners.

Majestic Theatre

Jackie Coogan's fourth contribution to Metro-Goldwyn productions was presented yesterday at the Majestic theatre when "The Rag Man" had its local premiere before a large and enthusiastic audience. "The Rag Man" is the best Jackie Coogan offering that Metro-Goldwyn has thus far distributed, and this is said with no disparagement of the other presentations, "A Boy of Flanders," "Long Live the King" and "Little Robinson Crusoe." But "The Rag Man" is the best, or at least makes the most immediate hit because of the abundance of comedy episodes. These are touched up with a sufficiency of thrills and tears to give the story by Willard Mack authentic value. Yesterday's audience rejoiced and laughed and chuckled all the way through this charming story. They followed Jackie's adventures from the time the orphanage burned down till Jackie, as little Tim Kelly, became the senior member of the firm of Kelly and Ginsberg, the largest dealers in high class junk in New York.

Black kid slippers are trimmed with narrow bands of color.

Plain opera pumps are smartly trimmed with bows or buckles.

SHOES undeniably are cast for the leading role in this season's performance of fashionable dress.

For those who can afford the luxury, there are shoes for every gown, beginning with the black kid pump delicately trimmed with subtle suggestion of color, which is proving such a popular trend for street wear. Then we are told that all of Paris walks in bold kid footwear, but one's selection is not confined to this alone.

There are delightful shades of golden brown kid and grey kid worn by many well dressed women.

For those who wish to stray from the conventional, there are shoes of barked kid—black, which is the most delicate shade of the season's pastel shaded kid which comes in a variety of shades. But all shoes have two virtues: they are essentially simple in design and are made of kid leather. Simplicity prevails because the costumes of the day are strictly in the tailored mode while kidskin has found a two-fold popularity in that it is the most comfortable and the most practical of the season's leathers. Because of its soft pliancy and its porous qualities, the foot breathes freely. And kidskin is the smartest leather not only because it comes in every conceivable color but because the flexibility lends itself to any shoe design.

If one shoes wisely then, two pairs of shoes will serve all purposes for daytime wear—a plain, comfortably heeled pump or one strap slipper of black kid, and an open pump, with buckle or tie, of beige or grey kid for afternoon and mirror wear.

SHOES undeniably are cast for the leading role in this season's performance of fashionable dress.

For those who can afford the luxury, there are shoes for every gown, beginning with the black kid pump delicately trimmed with subtle suggestion of color, which is proving such a popular trend for street wear. Then we are told that all of Paris walks in bold kid footwear, but one's selection is not confined to this alone.

There are delightful shades of golden brown kid and grey kid worn by many well dressed women.

For those who wish to stray from the conventional, there are shoes of barked kid—black, which is the most delicate shade of the season's pastel shaded kid which comes in a variety of shades. But all shoes have two virtues: they are essentially simple in design and are made of kid leather. Simplicity prevails because the costumes of the day are strictly in the tailored mode while kidskin has found a two-fold popularity in that it is the most comfortable and the most practical of the season's leathers. Because of its soft pliancy and its porous qualities, the foot breathes freely. And kidskin is the smartest leather not only because it comes in every conceivable color but because the flexibility lends itself to any shoe design.

Bridge Party Friday at Barker Home

An interesting bridge party of the week had Mrs. J. P. Barker, Mrs. I. G. Broadway and Mrs. L. W. Jones, as joint hostesses at the Barker home Friday afternoon. The attractive rooms were enhanced with zinnias, gladioli, and other summer flowers in arrangements in bowls and baskets. Bridge varied the afternoon, honors falling to Mrs. J. E. Sawyer. Later luncheon was served at small tables. The hostesses were assisted by Miss Florence Wharton. Twenty-one friends participated in the affair, among them being Mesdames George A. Bradburn, George Johnson, Glenn Wimberly, H. C. Waddell, Chas. Wharton, R. Casey, Harry Stapleton, Prescott Gately, of Washington, D. C.; F. W. Chapman, J. C. Hamer, T. B. Virden, J. E. Sawyers, S. L. Kidder, S. A. Sanford, Mark Thadde, Ed Lewis, of San Francisco; Jack Eppinger, of San Francisco; Mrs. Chas. Tyte, of Vallejo, California; Misses Gertrude Raab, Elizabeth Parrott, and Florence Wharton.

Out of Town Guests Entertained at Dinner

Mrs. R. D. Williams was a charming hostess Sunday when she entertained a few out of town guests at dinner at her home on South Pine street.

Miss Nelson Weds Lewis G. Hoagland

The following, taken from the Glendale News, will be of interest to friends of Miss Nelson: The home of Mrs. I. Stranne was the scene of a very pretty wedding on Saturday, July 11, at two o'clock, when her daughter, Miss Ethel Nelson, became the bride of Mr. Lewis G. Hoagland with Rev. M. C. Davis, of Wolf Creek, officiating. The bride and groom were attended by Miss Alice Nebel and Mr. Murray Hart. The bride was lovely in a crown of pink and gray gerberae wreath. The rooms were lavishly decorated with Shasta daisies and roses immediately after the ceremony the bridal party went to the Glendale Hotel where a sumptuous wedding dinner had been prepared. Here the dining room was beautifully decorated with sweet peas and mountain ferns. The happy young couple left Sunday morning by automobile for a trip into southern California. The bride and groom will make their home in Klamath Falls, Oregon, where Mr. Hoagland is engaged in the automobile business.

Booth Ranch Scene of Swimming Party Friday

Miss Lois Geddes and Miss Vera Frederickson, two popular girls of the younger set, were joint hostesses Friday night of last week, at the beautiful country home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Booth, south of this city, inviting a number of Roseburg folk to a swimming party. Swimming was the diversion from 8 to 9 o'clock, when the guests assembled on the veranda and a buffet lunch was served by Miss Geddes, Mrs. Frederickson, and Mrs. J. H. Booth. Later games and music were enjoyed by the guests, in spacious rooms, which were given an added attractiveness by arrangements of summer blossoms in bowls and baskets.

Seelys Hosts at Dinner Sunday

Dr. and Mrs. A. C. Seely graciously entertained Tuesday evening at an informal 6 o'clock dinner. The rooms were given an added attractiveness by arrangements of roses in bowls. Covers were placed for Misses Leta Smith, Greta Smith, Hall Seely and Dr. and Mrs. Seely.

Antlers Theatre

Rum running on a wholesale scale is shown in "Contraband" Alan Crossland's newest Paramount production coming to the Antlers theatre today only. The inside workings of a contraband liquor, an illegal industry which the government combats at an annual cost of millions, are faithfully depicted. The featured roles in "Contraband," Clarence Budington Kelland's story which Jack Cunningham adapted for screen use, are played by Lois Wilson, Noah Berry, Raymond Hatton and Raymond McKee. Miss Wilson has the role of Carmel Lee, a young girl who inherits a small town newspaper and uses it to expose a rum ring using a deserted hotel in the outskirts of the town as a storehouse for the liquor which they smuggle over the border in motor trucks. The sheriff of the county disappears and the girl is told to "lay off" making any mention of the disappearance in her paper, but she goes right ahead and gets out an edition headed "What Happened to Sheriff Churchill?" She is made a prisoner by the rum-runners.

Majestic Theatre

Jackie Coogan's fourth contribution to Metro-Goldwyn productions was presented yesterday at the Majestic theatre when "The Rag Man" had its local premiere before a large and enthusiastic audience. "The Rag Man" is the best Jackie Coogan offering that Metro-Goldwyn has thus far distributed, and this is said with no disparagement of the other presentations, "A Boy of Flanders," "Long Live the King" and "Little Robinson Crusoe." But "The Rag Man" is the best, or at least makes the most immediate hit because of the abundance of comedy episodes. These are touched up with a sufficiency of thrills and tears to give the story by Willard Mack authentic value. Yesterday's audience rejoiced and laughed and chuckled all the way through this charming story. They followed Jackie's adventures from the time the orphanage burned down till Jackie, as little Tim Kelly, became the senior member of the firm of Kelly and Ginsberg, the largest dealers in high class junk in New York.

Black kid slippers are trimmed with narrow bands of color.

Plain opera pumps are smartly trimmed with bows or buckles.

SHOES undeniably are cast for the leading role in this season's performance of fashionable dress.

For those who can afford the luxury, there are shoes for every gown, beginning with the black kid pump delicately trimmed with subtle suggestion of color, which is proving such a popular trend for street wear. Then we are told that all of Paris walks in bold kid footwear, but one's selection is not confined to this alone.

There are delightful shades of golden brown kid and grey kid worn by many well dressed women.

For those who wish to stray from the conventional, there are shoes of barked kid—black, which is the most delicate shade of the season's pastel shaded kid which comes in a variety of shades. But all shoes have two virtues: they are essentially simple in design and are made of kid leather. Simplicity prevails because the costumes of the day are strictly in the tailored mode while kidskin has found a two-fold popularity in that it is the most comfortable and the most practical of the season's leathers. Because of its soft pliancy and its porous qualities, the foot breathes freely. And kidskin is the smartest leather not only because it comes in every conceivable color but because the flexibility lends itself to any shoe design.

SHOES undeniably are cast for the leading role in this season's performance of fashionable dress.

For those who can afford the luxury, there are shoes for every gown, beginning with the black kid pump delicately trimmed with subtle suggestion of color, which is proving such a popular trend for street wear. Then we are told that all of Paris walks in bold kid footwear, but one's selection is not confined to this alone.

Miss Nelson Weds Lewis G. Hoagland

The following, taken from the Glendale News, will be of interest to friends of Miss Nelson: The home of Mrs. I. Stranne was the scene of a very pretty wedding on Saturday, July 11, at two o'clock, when her daughter, Miss Ethel Nelson, became the bride of Mr. Lewis G. Hoagland with Rev. M. C. Davis, of Wolf Creek, officiating. The bride and groom were attended by Miss Alice Nebel and Mr. Murray Hart. The bride was lovely in a crown of pink and gray gerberae wreath. The rooms were lavishly decorated with Shasta daisies and roses immediately after the ceremony the bridal party went to the Glendale Hotel where a sumptuous wedding dinner had been prepared. Here the dining room was beautifully decorated with sweet peas and mountain ferns. The happy young couple left Sunday morning by automobile for a trip into southern California. The bride and groom will make their home in Klamath Falls, Oregon, where Mr. Hoagland is engaged in the automobile business.

Booth Ranch Scene of Swimming Party Friday

Miss Lois Geddes and Miss Vera Frederickson, two popular girls of the younger set, were joint hostesses Friday night of last week, at the beautiful country home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Booth, south of this city, inviting a number of Roseburg folk to a swimming party. Swimming was the diversion from 8 to 9 o'clock, when the guests assembled on the veranda and a buffet lunch was served by Miss Geddes, Mrs. Frederickson, and Mrs. J. H. Booth. Later games and music were enjoyed by the guests, in spacious rooms, which were given an added attractiveness by arrangements of summer blossoms in bowls and baskets.

Seelys Hosts at Dinner Sunday

Dr. and Mrs. A. C. Seely graciously entertained Tuesday evening at an informal 6 o'clock dinner. The rooms were given an added attractiveness by arrangements of roses in bowls. Covers were placed for Misses Leta Smith, Greta Smith, Hall Seely and Dr. and Mrs. Seely.

Antlers Theatre

Rum running on a wholesale scale is shown in "Contraband" Alan Crossland's newest Paramount production coming to the Antlers theatre today only. The inside workings of a contraband liquor, an illegal industry which the government combats at an annual cost of millions, are faithfully depicted. The featured roles in "Contraband," Clarence Budington Kelland's story which Jack Cunningham adapted for screen use, are played by Lois Wilson, Noah Berry, Raymond Hatton and Raymond McKee. Miss Wilson has the role of Carmel Lee, a young girl who inherits a small town newspaper and uses it to expose a rum ring using a deserted hotel in the outskirts of the town as a storehouse for the liquor which they smuggle over the border in motor trucks. The sheriff of the county disappears and the girl is told to "lay off" making any mention of the disappearance in her paper, but she goes right ahead and gets out an edition headed "What Happened to Sheriff Churchill?" She is made a prisoner by the rum-runners.

Majestic Theatre

Jackie Coogan's fourth contribution to Metro-Goldwyn productions was presented yesterday at the Majestic theatre when "The Rag Man" had its local premiere before a large and enthusiastic audience. "The Rag Man" is the best Jackie Coogan offering that Metro-Goldwyn has thus far distributed, and this is said with no disparagement of the other presentations, "A Boy of Flanders," "Long Live the King" and "Little Robinson Crusoe." But "The Rag Man" is the best, or at least makes the most immediate hit because of the abundance of comedy episodes. These are touched up with a sufficiency of thrills and tears to give the story by Willard Mack authentic value. Yesterday's audience rejoiced and laughed and chuckled all the way through this charming story. They followed Jackie's adventures from the time the orphanage burned down till Jackie, as little Tim Kelly, became the senior member of the firm of Kelly and Ginsberg, the largest dealers in high class junk in New York.

Black kid slippers are trimmed with narrow bands of color.

Plain opera pumps are smartly trimmed with bows or buckles.

SHOES undeniably are cast for the leading role in this season's performance of fashionable dress.

For those who can afford the luxury, there are shoes for every gown, beginning with the black kid pump delicately trimmed with subtle suggestion of color, which is proving such a popular trend for street wear. Then we are told that all of Paris walks in bold kid footwear, but one's selection is not confined to this alone.

There are delightful shades of golden brown kid and grey kid worn by many well dressed women.

For those who wish to stray from the conventional, there are shoes of barked kid—black, which is the most delicate shade of the season's pastel shaded kid which comes in a variety of shades. But all shoes have two virtues: they are essentially simple in design and are made of kid leather. Simplicity prevails because the costumes of the day are strictly in the tailored mode while kidskin has found a two-fold popularity in that it is the most comfortable and the most practical of the season's leathers. Because of its soft pliancy and its porous qualities, the foot breathes freely. And kidskin is the smartest leather not only because it comes in every conceivable color but because the flexibility lends itself to any shoe design.

SHOES undeniably are cast for the leading role in this season's performance of fashionable dress.

For those who can afford the luxury, there are shoes for every gown, beginning with the black kid pump delicately trimmed with subtle suggestion of color, which is proving such a popular trend for street wear. Then we are told that all of Paris walks in bold kid footwear, but one's selection is not confined to this alone.

There are delightful shades of golden brown kid and grey kid worn by many well dressed women.

For those who wish to stray from the conventional, there are shoes of barked kid—black, which is the most delicate shade of the season's pastel shaded kid which comes in a variety of shades. But all shoes have two virtues: they are essentially simple in design and are made of kid leather. Simplicity prevails because the costumes of the day are strictly in the tailored mode while kidskin has found a two-fold popularity in that it is the most comfortable and the most practical of the season's leathers. Because of its soft pliancy and its porous qualities, the foot breathes freely. And kidskin is the smartest leather not only because it comes in every conceivable color but because the flexibility lends itself to any shoe design.

SHOES undeniably are cast for the leading role in this season's performance of fashionable dress.

For those who can afford the luxury, there are shoes for every gown, beginning with the black kid pump delicately trimmed with subtle suggestion of color, which is proving such a popular trend for street wear. Then we are told that all of Paris walks in bold kid footwear, but one's selection is not confined to this alone.

Long, Drooping Plumes Trim Hat

Long, graceful plumes drooping to mid-lady's waist are the new trimming note used on this hat. The whole costume is black and white, a black satin coat with circular hem and lined in which being worn over a white crep

Booth Ranch Scene of Swimming Party Friday

Miss Lois Geddes and Miss Vera Frederickson, two popular girls of the younger set, were joint hostesses Friday night of last week, at the beautiful country home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Booth, south of this city, inviting a number of Roseburg folk to a swimming party. Swimming was the diversion from 8 to 9 o'clock, when the guests assembled on the veranda and a buffet lunch was served by Miss Geddes, Mrs. Frederickson, and Mrs. J. H. Booth. Later games and music were enjoyed by the guests, in spacious rooms, which were given an added attractiveness by arrangements of summer blossoms in bowls and baskets.

Seelys Hosts at Dinner Sunday

Dr. and Mrs. A. C. Seely graciously entertained Tuesday evening at an informal 6 o'clock dinner. The rooms were given an added attractiveness by arrangements of roses in bowls. Covers were placed for Misses Leta Smith, Greta Smith, Hall Seely and Dr. and Mrs. Seely.

Antlers Theatre

Rum running on a wholesale scale is shown in "Contraband" Alan Crossland's newest Paramount production coming to the Antlers theatre today only. The inside workings of a contraband liquor, an illegal industry which the government combats at an annual cost of millions, are faithfully depicted. The featured roles in "Contraband," Clarence Budington Kelland's story which Jack Cunningham adapted for screen use, are played by Lois Wilson, Noah Berry, Raymond Hatton and Raymond McKee. Miss Wilson has the role of Carmel Lee, a young girl who inherits a small town newspaper and uses it to expose a rum ring using a deserted hotel in the outskirts of the town as a storehouse for the liquor which they smuggle over the border in motor trucks. The sheriff of the county disappears and the girl is told to "lay off" making any mention of the disappearance in her paper, but she goes right ahead and gets out an edition headed "What Happened to Sheriff Churchill?" She is made a prisoner by the rum-runners.

Majestic Theatre

Jackie Coogan's fourth contribution to Metro-Goldwyn productions was presented yesterday at the Majestic theatre when "The Rag Man" had its local premiere before a large and enthusiastic audience. "The Rag Man" is the best Jackie Coogan offering that Metro-Goldwyn has thus far distributed, and this is said with no disparagement of the other presentations, "A Boy of Flanders," "Long Live the King" and "Little Robinson Crusoe." But "The Rag Man" is the best, or at least makes the most immediate hit because of the abundance of comedy episodes. These are touched up with a sufficiency of thrills and tears to give the story by Willard Mack authentic value. Yesterday's audience rejoiced and laughed and chuckled all the way through this charming story. They followed Jackie's adventures from the time the orphanage burned down till Jackie, as little Tim Kelly, became the senior member of the firm of Kelly and Ginsberg, the largest dealers in high class junk in New York.

Black kid slippers are trimmed with narrow bands of color.

Plain opera pumps are smartly trimmed with bows or buckles.

SHOES undeniably are cast for the leading role in this season's performance of fashionable dress.

For those who can afford the luxury, there are shoes for every gown, beginning with the black kid pump delicately trimmed with subtle suggestion of color, which is proving such a popular trend for street wear. Then we are told that all of Paris walks in bold kid footwear, but one's selection is not confined to this alone.

There are delightful shades of golden brown kid and grey kid worn by many well dressed women.

For those who wish to stray from the conventional, there are shoes of barked kid—black, which is the most delicate shade of the season's pastel shaded kid which comes in a variety of shades. But all shoes have two virtues: they are essentially simple in design and are made of kid leather. Simplicity prevails because the costumes of the day are strictly in the tailored mode while kidskin has found a two-fold popularity in that it is the most comfortable and the most practical of the season's leathers. Because of its soft pliancy and its porous qualities, the foot breathes freely. And kidskin is the smartest leather not only because it comes in every conceivable color but because the flexibility lends itself to any shoe design.

SHOES undeniably are cast for the leading role in this season's performance of fashionable dress.

For those who can afford the luxury, there are shoes for every gown, beginning with the black kid pump delicately trimmed with subtle suggestion of color, which is proving such a popular trend for street wear. Then we are told that all of Paris walks in bold kid footwear, but one's selection is not confined to this alone.

There are delightful shades of golden brown kid and grey kid worn by many well dressed women.

For those who wish to stray from the conventional, there are shoes of barked kid—black, which is the most delicate shade of the season's pastel shaded kid which comes in a variety of shades. But all shoes have two virtues: they are essentially simple in design and are made of kid leather. Simplicity prevails because the costumes of the day are strictly in the tailored mode while kidskin has found a two-fold popularity in that it is the most comfortable and the most practical of the season's leathers. Because of its soft pliancy and its porous qualities, the foot breathes freely. And kidskin is the smartest leather not only because it comes in every conceivable color but because the flexibility lends itself to any shoe design.