

"The Slick Guy"

Nearly every one of us has seen the checkered-suit person with the velvet tongue. How smoothly he once told of the merits of this product or that—and raked in perfectly good coin for purchases that were often worthless.

The "slick guy" is seldom seen today. When the wise person goes to buy, he knows what is good in value and fair in price.

Simply by glancing over the advertisements in your paper, you can see where to go for the best buys. You can compare values and check up prices without even stirring from your easy chair. You know in advance just what you are going to get and how much it will cost. And you can have the satisfaction that comes from knowing your money is wisely and safely spent.

Nowadays, no one need be at the mercy of the "slick guy." There are still a few people who fail to read the advertisements—and "take a chance." Don't be one of them.

ADVERTISED PRODUCTS ARE SAFE BUYS. THEY HAVE MADE GOOD BEFORE. THEY ARE ANNOUNCED.

HOPE VANISHES FOR CONDEMNED CHICAGO SLAYER

Telegraph Operator Admits He Lied to Save Man Death on Gallows.

BROTHER NOT FOUND

Request for Reprieve May Also Have Been Fake—Women Claim to Have Seen Shooting.

(Associated Press Local Wire.) CHICAGO, July 20.—Another ray of hope, that of the amazing last hour developments that saved him from death on the gallows last Friday would become tangible to prove his innocence during a seven day reprieve, has gone out for Russell Scott.

James M. Hall, a Detroit telegrapher, who last Friday declared that he witnessed the shooting of Joseph Maurer, Chicago drug clerk, and that Russell was innocent of the slaying, has admitted that the story was a romance, concocted "for the sake of humanity."

Hall said that he "told a lie to save one whom I believe innocent," but that when he found that his story was not accomplishing anything, he decided to admit the fake.

This was the second blow that Scott has received since his dramatic reprieve six hours before he was to hang. The story of execution was ordered by Governor Len Small, when a telegram from Detroit purporting to be from Robert Scott, the condemned man's brother, confessing the murder, was received. According to Russell's story, Robert Scott, also under indictment, did the shooting.

The sender of the telegram promised to surrender the next day, but nothing developed. Various other communications were received, however, one a letter purporting to be from Robert Scott, mailed in Chicago on last Thursday night. In this it was stated that he was seriously ill, but would give himself up as soon as he was able. Scott's attorney's still are pinning hope for a commutation on affidavits they said they had from two unnamed women, declaring to have been in the drug store at the time of the shooting. So far as known, no official action has been taken in the case.

Hall indicated that he may have been the one who sent the Detroit telegram to the governor. Declaring that Scott's predicament preyed on his mind, the operator said he first decided to concoct a telegram purporting to be from Russell's brother, "but I thought it out a little further and hastily struck the idea of representing myself as a witness."
