RIFFIANS ARE BEING SHELLED BY THE FRENCH

Rebellious Tribesmen Are in Retreat With Guns At Their Heels.

TALK PEACE TERMS

Riffian Leader Ready to Discuss Plans for Treaty and French Refuse to Make Settlement.

(Associated Press Local Wire.) PARIS, July 24.—Vigorously shelled by pursuing French artillery the rebellious Riffian tribesmen in Morocco are hastening their retreat from the Ain Aicha and Ain Matouf regions on the center of the line, taking with them the civil populations of villages and their flocks.

Peace terms offered to have been made by the Riffian leader, Abd-el-Krim, have been published in London and Paris newspapers, but the French foreign office makes it clear that unless such proposals are made through authorized diplomatic channels, no cognizance can be taken of them.

General Stanislaus Naulin, the new French commander in chief, is making plans for an offensive with the object of bringing Abd-el-Krim to the point where he will have to sue for peace.

General Naulin intends to proceed to Taza immediately. It is expected the French offensive will be made from Taza, about sixty miles east of Fez, instead of from Ouezzan, as called for in the original plans.

The government is determined to take drastic measures against the communists who are particularly active in connection with the campaign in Morocco. They have even made attempts to burn the great air service depot at Casa Blanca.

Following the example of the group of American aviators who volunteered for service for France in Morocco, several Belgian pilots who served in the European war have made it known that they are desirous to fight "for the cause of France, which is also that of civilization."

They have met with the same difficulties as did the Americans and more besides. Not only were they refused by the French war office unless they volunteered for five years service with the foreign legion, but the Sultan's army declined to enroll them. They now are appealing to the newspapers to help remove the obstacles.

BUSY SEASON ON AT BOSWELL SPRINGS

The bridge across Elk creek is receiving a coat of paint this week. Mr. Wm. Hirtz of Oakland is taking the trucks and reoperating at the hotel.

Mrs. M. Feible of Roseburg spent Thursday with her sister Mrs. H. Little at the camp grounds.

L. A. Dean is assisting F. J. Bell, well in making enclosure for the fox farm which will be located on the hillside back of the hotel, and will be one of the attractions of the place in the near future.

Mr. J. T. Drow of Medford spent Saturday and Sunday with his wife at the hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Keller and son and daughter took in the celebration at Portland last week and report a delightful time. They also had a pleasant visit with their daughter in Portland.

Mr. John Kruse is helping out at the sawmill this week, owing to a rush of orders.

A party of tourists from Minneapolis stopped at the store recently and reported that they had been "pinched" for speeding at Cottage Grove. On inquiring as to the speed they were making the lady replied: "Oh, we were exceeding the limit all right, but what is the use of having those wonderful headlights of yours if you aren't allowed to try them out?"

Recently many tourists are of the same opinion, as speeders are being "pinched" along our stretch of the "boulevard" every day.

The families of Harry Mahoney, Geo. Hall, Dr. Devore, Jap. Medley and E. L. McCarty, all of Oakland, Oregon, were visitors at the camp of Mrs. H. Little and Mrs. L. C. Purdie over Sunday. These ladies, with little Miss Marcella McCarty, are spending their vacation at the hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Stock, daughter Marcel, and sons Clarence and Marion, who have been guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Kruse, have returned to their home at Oak Hills.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Hartley of Sisters, Oregon, were recent guests at the hotel. Mrs. Hartley is a sister of Mr. F. J. Hellwig.

Levi Akker, who was detained over night in Drain on business recently, reports that he bought a bag of peanuts and had one big time. Levi says he agrees with the old farmer who went to the city, and after indulging in a bag of peanuts returned home quite jubilant and remarked: "I say there ain't no scene in going out for a time unless you have a — of a time."

SCOUTS HAVING GREAT TIME AT SUMMER CAMP

No Time Lost in Getting Routine Schedule Started, Britton Says.

BALL TEAMS PLAY

4 Patrols Organize League and Start With Hard-Fought Battles—Take Swimming Tests.

The Boy Scouts who left Tuesday for their annual summer camp at Wolf Creek are having a good time and everything is moving smoothly, according to word received from E. A. Britton, scout executive, who is in charge of the camp.

"All scouts reached camp by 9 a. m. Tuesday," Mr. Britton writes. "Every fellow got busy at once getting his campsite ready for his tent, and when the load arrived it took only a few minutes to arrange a neat and orderly camp."

"The K. P.'s (kitchen police) are chosen daily from a roster, being selected in alphabetical order. The duties for the first day fell to Ira Andrews, Gordon Appiewhite, Dan Barnett, Ross Bates and Stuart Benson. This was a heavy detail, for the reason of extra work in the future there will be but four K. P.'s, and they will have very little work to do, thanks to Mr. Showwell, our cook.

"No attempt was made the first day to carry out any set program, but two ball games were played and two swims enjoyed, to say nothing of horseshoes, etc. A good supper and a cheerful campfire ended the day.

"On the second day we were all up at 6:30 and started the regular schedule. Fifteen minutes of physical torture, directed by Mr. Tomlinson was suffered. What would camp be without him? We stood at salute while our flag was raised, and then enjoyed flap-jacks, apples, cocoa and prunes for breakfast. Honors for tent inspection went to Lindon Hoffman and Loren Johnson.

"The fifty boys are divided into five patrols; the Black Bears, Skunks, Wolves, Black Panthers, and Beavers. A different scout will act as patrol leader each day until all have had a chance to show their stuff. Elton Jackson, Eugene Love, Robert Oppie, Russell Laughard and George Weber were made advisors to this patrol.

"From nine to eleven each patrol went to a designated spot and took up scoutcraft. What is known as the patrol method is being used in camp. In short, the method gives each boy a certain amount of responsibility to carry, in order to make his patrol successful.

"A baseball league has been organized between the patrols. On Wednesday the Skunks won from the Black Bears, 7 to 5, and the Wolves beat the Black Panthers, 8 to 7.

"A good "warm up" hike was enjoyed at 11 o'clock and the dinner went down like a million. We had fresh milk to drink, too.

"A good swim was taken in the afternoon. Lindon Hoffman took a test in life-saving, and several others took first class swimming tests. Mr. Tomlinson watched the swimmers and gave tests, while the executive gave instruction to beginners.

"In the evening, around the camp fire, a judge, sheriff, deputy sheriff and prosecuting attorney were elected, and arrangements were made for the "Mutt" court on Thursday night.

If you swim or dive come and take part in the swim Friday evening at Alexander's Park.

GLENN MONOSMITH KILLED SUDDENLY IN PENNSYLVANIA

Glenn Monosmith, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Monosmith of this city, was accidentally killed at Williamsburg, Pennsylvania, Wednesday evening, according to a message received last night by his parents.

The message was transmitted through a sister at Albany, and was delayed several hours in reaching the relatives here.

Mr. Monosmith visited in Roseburg during the month of June, having had a vacation then, and had only been back at his work for about two weeks. He was employed by the Westinghouse Electric company at Williamsburg. No details of the accident which ended his life have yet been obtained.

He was born in Benton county, Missouri, in 1897. The family resided in Albany for a number of years. He graduated from the Albany high school and the Oregon Agricultural college. He enlisted in the army during the world war, being a sergeant in the 27th regiment, heavy field artillery.

He was married two years ago to Miss Marie Martz of Newburg, Oregon.

Besides his wife and parents he leaves two sisters, Gladys Moench of Albany, and Mrs. Grace McKimney of Roseburg, also one brother, Vern Monosmith of Roseburg.

The body is being brought to Albany, where the funeral will be held on Monday or Tuesday of next week.

Mr. Monosmith was a member of the First Baptist church of Albany.

On his return from the "movie hit" the vice-president reviewed the frontier days parade, a colorful procession in which the cavalry and artillery regiments of Fort Russell, nearly 100 Indians and hundreds of cowboys and cowgirls participated.
