CALIFORNIA WOMAN KILLED IN BASLE

(Associated Press Local Wire.) BASLE, Switzerland, July 29.—A sixteen-year-old boy has been arrested and charged with killing Mrs. Mary Levitt Bowen of Berkeley, California, who was found dead in a park near here yesterday. Police say he confessed but claimed he shot Mrs. Bowen accidentally.

Investigation revealed that Mrs. Bowen was killed by a revolver bullet. Her jewelry and money were found upon her body. Mr. Bowen has called from Berkeley that the body of his wife is cremated and the ashes shipped home.

Mrs. Bowen had arrived here a few days ago to attend lectures in the Basle university. She took a stroll early yesterday morning in the woodland of a park about a mile outside the city, where her body was found.

Marks upon the ground indicated she had crawled about 150 feet after being shot before she collapsed and died.

HELPED THROUGH CHANGE OF LIFE

Took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound during this Critical Time

Baltimore, Md.—"I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to help me through the Change of Life and for a broken-down system. I had been complaining a long time and dragging along had tried other medicines which did not help me much. I read in the newspapers of the Vegetable Compound and after taking a bottle I felt better. I did not stop with one bottle, but took it through the whole critical time and am now practically a well woman. I have two daughters whose health was very bad before they married and I was worried about them. I got the Vegetable Compound for them and it helped them, and after they married it also helped them in bearing their babies. This is a great and good medicine for all complaints of women, and I recommend it to all."—Mrs. J. GINGUCHI, 175 N. Gilmer St., Baltimore, Maryland.

The Vegetable Compound is a dependable medicine for women of middle age. Let it relieve you of nervousness, that feeling of strain and those annoying hot flashes so common at this time.

THEATRES

Antlers Theatre

Instead of the ordinary "triangle" The Manure Girl presents what might well be called a "top-tilled square." In this Paramount picture at the Antlers theatre tonight, Bebe Daniels is seen as Maria Marvoti; Edmund Burns is Antonio Luca, her fiance; Hale Hamerton, the famous stage star, is James Morgan; and Charlotte Walker is Mrs. Morgan.

Morgan falls in love with Bebe. She, with her new rich conquest, momentarily forgets Burns. Called to Mrs. Morgan's home as a manicurist, she finds the other woman very unhappy because of her husband's "affair." She determines to test Morgan's true feeling toward his fiancée, a telegram arrives saying his wife is very ill.

Stricken and leaves immediately without further thought of Bebe. Burns, who has been installing a radio set for Morgan, overhears their conversation. A curious twist of affairs brings the picture to a unique—and laughable—climax.

"The Manure Girl" is Bebe Daniels' latest Paramount star picture. Frank Tuttle directed.

Majestic Theatre

The new Paramount picture, "The Border Legion," a screen version of Zane Grey's immensely popular novel by that name, will be shown tonight at the Majestic theatre.

Antonio Moreno and Helen Chadwick are featured, and Rockcliffe Fellows, Charles Ogle and Gibson Gowland have prominent supporting roles. Whitton Woodard directed the picture, his first work under the Paramount banner.

The story is a typical Zane Grey western thriller, an appealing tale of romance and adventure in the old days when a man was judged by his ability to handle his own gun.

Here's a real "b-man" story in more ways than one, for Miss Chadwick is the only woman member of the cast.

"The Border Legion" is one of the best-selling stories by the author of "The Natural Color Picture" "Wanderer of the Wasteland" and has made a great picture.

Liberty Theatre

The mighty motion picture masterpiece produced and directed by James P. Hogan, is at last on its way here. The photoplay is "Black Lightning" and the scenes and action are laid in the Kentucky mountains. James P. Hogan, director of "Black Lightning," is one of the few directors of pictures who have been extremely successful financially to his credit, and yet Mr. Hogan is a very young man.

Among his most successful screen features were "The Sign of the Cross" the film in which Omar Khayyam, the three-decked Egyptian was killed and "Where is My Wandering Tinker?" Liberty theatre tonight and tomorrow.

Jackson Game Association to Wage Fight on Governor Pierce; Oppose Removal of Burghduff

The Jackson County Game Association, a strong association of independent sportsmen who have kept in close touch with the game and fish fight in Oregon for the past fifteen years, has passed a set of resolutions directed at Governor Pierce and his method of handling the game affairs of the state. The Jackson county sportsmen claim that the game organization is being allowed to be turned into a partisan machine for the able benefit of politicians and political party. To prevent this move they are opposing Pierce and his method of handling the game affairs of the state. The first of which is filed in the following resolution:

For the past two and one-half years Governor Pierce has used every means, fair or foul, to secure control of the game organization of the state of Oregon, and the big game fund which is raised by the sportsmen of this state for the protection of propagation and distribution of game and game fish.

This big game fund, amounting to over $200,000, is raised by voluntary license buying, by the sale of pelts and collection of fines. Not a dollar of this fund is controlled by the general tax collector of the state. It is raised by a special class for a specific purpose to be held in trust by the state game commission, and spent exclusively for the conservation of the wild life of the state.

After the game interests were secured from the general tax collector in 1921 and an independent game commission established, a constructive program for the propagation and distribution of fish and game entirely removed from partisan politics was inaugurated. This policy brought a feeling of security and permanency to the sportsmen and the people of the state which it had not enjoyed under the old condition that existed when the commercial fishing interests dominated both commissions.

Now taking actions, hitherto, unknown to sportsmen, game laws, etc., have been acquired in the last three or four years of the money contributed by the sportsmen of the state. This to all of the sportsmen of the state of Oregon is a property which is held in the name of the state of Oregon for the benefit of the whole people. This arrangement of the sportsmen of the state is a subject to, precedent has been set in many other states where this money shall be spent and who shall spend it.

Since his inauguration Governor Pierce, in his efforts to secure control of this organization and this fund, has removed from the commission Colonel George Kelly, James Haines, St. A. Lynch, Roy Davis and Don Derris, part of the men being his own appointees, and E. W. Price, another of his appointees resigned in disgust when he found that the governor had employed the discredited Cheever to manage some of the employees of the commission.

Finally, within the last month, the governor has accomplished the purpose of securing control of the commission by the appointment of W. L. Finley to succeed Price, resigned.

None of the sportsmen's organizations of the state have ever been consulted about any of Governor Pierce's appointments on this commission, and it has been contended the sportsmen of the state about this appointment, W. L. Finley would never have been recommended.

Immediately on the appointment of Finley, and at the first commission meeting after his appointment, he made a lot of baseless charges against Captain Burghduff, state game warden, M. L. Ryckman, state superintendent of hutcheries, and Otto Jones, educational director. These only charges which Mr. Finley knew to be untrue were made for the purpose of laying the foundation for the removal of Burghduff, Ryckman and Jones. In this disgraceful proceeding he had the support of M. H. Rover of Corvallis and J. W. Maloney of Pendleton, two of Pierce's appointees who sided with Finley on the motion to remove these heads of departments.

Now the situation is just this—the sportsmen of the state of Oregon object to demand that they shall have something to say about who will be appointed on the state game commission, and shall have something to say about how the money they raise to conserve the wild life of this state shall be spent, or will they turn it all over to designing politicians like Walker, Pierce, Finley, Rover, Maloney and Cheever?

WHEREAS, the above preamble sets forth in some measure a platform of facts as regards the condition of game affairs in the state of Oregon today;

NOW THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, by the Jackson County Game Protective Association in special meeting assembled:

First, that we condemn in the strongest manner the appointment of W. L. Finley, a member of the extra commission, and condemn in unqualified terms the removal of Captain A. E. Burghduff, Matt Ryckman and Otto Jones by the action of W. L. Finley, St. H. Rover and J. W. Maloney.

Second, that this organization extend its heartfelt commendation and approval to Chairman Harold Clifford and Commissioner L. N. Fielchner for resisting this outrageous action with all the power they had.

Third, that this organization express its fullest confidence in Captain Burghduff, M. L. Ryckman and Otto Jones, each of whom we know to be an expert in his line and all of them able and honorable men and true sportsmen.

Fourth, that it is the sense of this organization that the sportsmen of the state should begin to organize at once to the end that when the next legislature meets we can draft and put through a measure that will place the game organization and the game fund beyond the control of unworthy politicians and place it in the hands of the sportsmen of the state who furnish the money for the activities of the game commission.

Fifth, that these resolutions be filed in the records of our association and copies sent to the newspapers and to the different game organizations of the state of Oregon.

PAUL A. SCHEER, President Jackson County Game Protective Association.

PEUNE CROP IN FOREIGN LANDS IS BUMPER ONE

The United States department of commerce, based upon information given by the American consul at Colgrade to United States Trade Commissioner Hughes at Rome, gives the following figures, under date of July 29, concerning the 1925-silvanian plum crop.

Climate conditions in Yugoslavia have been exceedingly favorable to getting and unexceptionable crop, and it is estimated by the trade that the plum crop will be approximately of 500,000 short tons, compared with 215,000 tons for last year, 950,000 in 1923 and 545,000 in 1922. Trade Commissioner John S. Hynes, Rome, reports to our department of commerce that approximately 50 per cent of the plum output is normally dried into prunes. On this basis and with the continuance of favorable weather, the locally estimated 1925 prune production will be about 50,000 short tons, of which 45,000 will be available for export. There is no carryover of 1924 crop prunes.

The following statement is put out by the United States department of agriculture under date of July 30, on this same subject:

Indications are that Yugoslavia will have more prunes to export this year than last, according to a report from G. C. Haas, American agricultural commissioner at Vienna. European countries, particularly Germany, are already showing an increasing interest in Yugoslav prunes.

Prospects for the plum crop are generally favorable, although some complaint is heard of orchards having suffered damage from cold weather in March. The only future danger lies in possible damage from warm winds and hail showers. In Austria and Serbia it is thought that the crop may equal those of 1918 and 1923. Efforts are being made to see that the quality of the prunes is preserved by normal drying methods.

PREMIER KATO DEMANDS RESIGNATION OF CABINET MEMBERS

TOKYO, July 29.—Two members of the Japanese cabinet walked out of a meeting today when Premier Kato demanded the resignations of three members. The third member was absent from the meeting—an extraordinary session to consider tax reforms—because of illness.

The prince-regent, apprised of the crisis, postponed a planned trip to Niako.

The Sei Yunki party, from whose members in the cabinet, the premier demanded resignation, at a meeting tonight voted against its members resigning. This move is understood to indicate the resignation of the entire Kato cabinet soon, owing to necessity for unanimity of action in the Japanese cabinet.

Demand for the resignations of the three cabinet members came from Premier Kato after differences resulting from a tax adjustment program opposed by the Sei Yunki party members and proposed by the Kenseidai party to whose view the premier is inclined.
