Today's Markets

PORTLAND, July 31.—Wheat harvest is in full swing in the eastern part of the state with the yield averaging better than 25 bushels to the acre in most sections. Weather has been dry during the past week, but wheat matured well and harvesters report quality excellent.

Hauling is just getting under way and considerable wheat has already been shipped.

Umatilla county received slight showers during the week, sufficient for grain and other crops, but hardly enough to do pasture any good.

Light hens are dragging again in the local market with receipts on the increase. Today 16 cents was the extreme top on light white stock, while colored hens brought as high as 24 cents. White springs are also weaker with 19 cents the top along the street, while colored springs bring 24 to 25 cents. Ducks are about steady at 21 to 22 cents for young white Pekins.

Extra grade eggs are a cent higher today at 28 cents on the dairy exchange. Other grades are unchanged. Quotations posted as follows:

Extras 28c; firsts 25c; pullets 22c; current receipts 20c (net). No change is shown in the local butter market over night. Creamerymen report conditions generally steady. Prices on the local board are:

Cubes—extras 47c; standards 47c; prime firsts 45c; firsts 42c. Country dressed meats are steady with the usual light Friday receipts. Choice light veal bringing 15 1/2 to 16 cents. Choice light hogs 19 1/2 to 20 cents.

The market for old hogs is strong with the few remaining hogs in strong hands. Growers holding at 20 cents but 19 cents is best offer. Reports from the south indicate that California will produce between 45,000 and 48,000 hales this year. The weather is hot and may reduce this estimate some. No future contracts are reported in California.

CHICAGO, July 31.—Spenators paid dearly today for the privilege of selling wheat without having first got actual ownership. Before they could sell July accounts today, wheat available for July delivery here went soaring nine cents above yesterday's closing price, and touched $1.66 a bushel.

CHICAGO, July 31.—Opening wheat prices unchanged to 3c higher, September $1.59 1/2 to $1.57 1/2 and December $1.52 to $1.52 1/2, were followed by something of a sag and then by fresh upturns all around.

After opening unchanged to 3c lower, September $1.03 7/8 to $1.04, the corn market underwent a slight general decline, but then recovered.

BOSTON, July 31.—The Commercial Bulletin tomorrow will say:

"The wool market has been irregular and rather on the easy side this week, trade being held up to necessity by the reaction to the opening of light weight goods by the American Woolen company and the outcome of the readjustments in wages both here and in Yorkshire. Where concessions have been made they have been only of a minor nature, likely to occur in any call market and frequently prices are as high as ever have been paid. Results on the goods opening thus far have been rather encouraging.

"Australia has ruled firm to fractionally dearer. Bradford is full and easier, tops being down a penny or two. The continent is fairly keen.

"In the west there has been little new development. The bids for the Jericho pool Wednesday were all rejected, growers being disappointed at the lack of interest shown.

"Mohair is slow but steady." The Commercial Bulletin will publish the following wool quotations tomorrow:

Secured basis: Oregon, eastern, No. 1 staple $1.30; fine and fine medium comb-nut 1.22@1.25; eastern clothing $1.10@1.15; valley No. 1, $1.10@1.15. Mohair—best combing 75@80c; best carding 65@70c.

DEGENERATE IS FINED AND SENT OUT OF THE CITY

W. I. Showalter, who was arrested yesterday charged with indecent exposure, appeared today in the city court and paid a fine of $10 and was ordered to leave town. Showalter appeared personally, Attorney Ray B. Compton, whom Showalter endeavored to retain for his defense, having refused to take the case. The man was accused of following and frightening two 12-year-old girls, and was charged with having partially unclothed himself before them. He was a tourist, and was accompanied by his wife. As they had only a small amount of money, Recorder Whipple assessed a small fine, $10, and imposed a jail sentence of 10 days. The jail term was suspended, however, upon condition that Showalter leave the city at once, which he agreed to do.
