

Pray for Their Father to Escape Noose

Hourly prayers are being said by Mrs. Russell Scott and her children, Russell, Jr., (front), Robert (center) and Dudley (rear) for the life of their father, Russell Scott, former millionaire, who has been granted a third stay of execution pending an examination of his sanity by experts. He was convicted in Chicago of the alleged murder of a drug clerk in a holdup, and he swears he is not guilty, and the governor of Illinois has received telegrams from one "Robert Scott," who says he is the guilty party, but "Robert Scott" has not appeared in person to save Russell Scott's life.

HERO OF INDIAN UPRISING IS HONORED IN PAGEANT CALGARY, Alta., Aug. 5.—Daniel Davis, 70, a constable of the Royal Northwest mounted police 50 years ago, who lone-handed escorted 1100 hostile Indians from Fort Walsh, near the United States border to an Indian reservation at Eagle Hills, Saskatchewan, 180 miles, was on the program of a historic pageant here this summer. Davis joined the R. N. W. M. P. at Ottawa in 1876 and when the United States rounded up the renegade Canadian Indians he was commissioned to bring the captured to Canada. During the long trek several elderly Indians succumbed to exhaustion, but Davis delivered the band successfully.

COUNTERFEIT DEN FOUND BY OFFICERS (Associated Press Leased Wire.) EVERETT, Wash., Aug. 5.—Charles D. Smith, aged 35, was arrested last night by James McCulloch, sheriff, and deputies, at a ranch several miles north of Everett and a counterfeiting equipment was seized. The man is accused of passing counterfeit dollars. The officers report that they discovered a quantity of metal, broken dies, cranks and other equipment at the ranch, also several counterfeit dollars and this automobile. Smith had been living alone.

CLEVELAND GOLFER IS MEDAL WINNER (Associated Press Leased Wire.) GARDEN CITY, N. Y., Aug. 5.—Nelson Davies, representing Cleveland, was medalist today in the qualifying rounds of the national public links championship at the Salsbury country club with 147. Ray McAuliffe, of Buffalo, yesterday's leader, gained second place with 148, while Eli Ross, of Cleveland, who shot 71 yesterday, required 82 for his second round to score 153, enough to qualify but several strokes behind. New York obtained the Harding cup, emblematic of inter-city team supremacy with 616 strokes.

CANADA PAYS DUTY, STILL UNDERSELLS AMERICAN FIRMS

SEATTLE, Aug. 5.—Ed Carey told the United States tariff commission, which continued today a hearing opened here yesterday, that the Whatcom Falls Lumber Company of Bellingham, of whose log-buying department he is the manager, purchased nearly half its lumber from Canada in the last four years. W. R. Wood, assistant manager of the E. K. Wood Lumber Company, operating at Bellingham and Anacortes, stated that his concern purchased one third of its logs in British Columbia. The price was about the same in the American and Canadian markets, despite an American import tariff of $1 a thousand feet. A. C. Edwards, president of the Edwards Mill Company, Everett, testified to buying some lumber in Canada but mostly at home. He said his Canadian purchases were before and after the duty was imposed three years ago. Logs were generally cheaper north of the line. Stephen V. Carr, Seattle, attorney for logging interests opposing proposals that President Coolidge cut the duty, cross-examined J. H. Blodell of this city who testified yesterday in favor of a reduction. Carey's questions seemed to be introduced partly to indicate that of the United States the tariff, British Columbia would offset the change by an increase in export royalty. Carey asked whether a reduction, though beneficial to the Puget Sound district, might not be injurious to Western Oregon and all the rest of Western Washington. Carey stated that he tried to buy his cedar in the United States because it was better and usually cheaper, but there were times when cedar, which was becoming scarcer every year, could not be obtained south of the line. Wood declared that three months every winter there was a shortage of American logs and Canadian logs were indispensable to keep American mills running. Edwards expressed a belief that a reduction in the duty would make it easier to meet Canadian competition, but admitted that a tariff on shingles would do just as well as cutting the import levy on cedar logs.

GOES TO COOS BAY TO VISIT FRIENDS; FINDS THEM DEAD (Associated Press Leased Wire.) MARSHFIELD, Ore., Aug. 5.—To drive half way across the continent in a covered wagon to be reunited with friends he had located after a quarter of a century, only to find they had died before his arrival here was the experience of Walter E. Wetmore. He arrived here from Colorado after 120 days on the way. The friends whom he expected to see here were H. H. Hopps and Mrs. Hopps, who were burned to death with their three children in the Noble Building fire last April. Wetmore recounts that early in March he learned that his friends were in Marshfield and made immediate preparations for the westward trip. He bought a team and prairie schooner and started.

POLICE ASTIR AT COMING PARADE OF KLAN AT CAPITAL

WASHINGTON, Aug. 5.—In view of evidence greatly increasing the prospective magnitude of the K. K. K. demonstration here next Saturday, police officials are taking unusual precautions. All policemen have been ordered to duty and those not regularly assigned will be held in reserve at their respective precinct headquarters. The order will insure an extraordinary police strength at instant call from 8 a. m. Saturday to 8 a. m. Sunday. "We do not expect trouble," said Acting Police Superintendent Evans today, "but we expect to be prepared." Although Klan officials have said the demonstration would be purely local in character, the railroads converging at the capital have asked to prepare to bring in upwards of fifty thousand visitors. Forty three special trains already have been placed on the schedule for Saturday. The specials already chartered will come from points as far west as Columbus, O., as far north as Buffalo, N. Y., and as far south as Jacksonville, Fla. When the local Klan officials first applied for a permit to parade they indicated that more than 100,000 would be in line of march. Later they estimated that the number would be only 50,000 and still more recently they told the police that although 30,000 to 40,000 visitors might be expected in the capital not more than 10,000 would make up the parade.

House in Dayton Where He Died May Become Bryan Museum

The residence of Richard Rogers in Dayton, Tenn., where William Jennings Bryan died, will become a memorial to the "Commoner's" memory, according to present plans of Tennesseans. The memorial would take the form of a museum of Bryaniana.

DEFENSE CLOSING IN MOVIE STAR KIDNAPING PLOT LOS ANGELES, Aug. 5.—Judge Victor McLucas late today denied a motion by counsel for the defense of three men accused of plotting to kidnap Mary Pickford, film star, for a directed verdict of acquittal. The state concluded argument at noon here today in answer to defense contentions on a motion for a directed verdict of acquittal on behalf of three men on trial charged with plotting to kidnap Mary Pickford, screen actress. The defense immediately launched rebuttal argument and the court was expected to rule on the motion late today. Involved legal situations marked the prosecution's answer which held that the commission of an overt act was not necessary to consummate a conspiracy under the California statutes. The defense contended the men were not guilty because "they did not move toward an objective."

WIFE'S TALE SHOWS ACCUSED KILLER TO BE "HARD-BOILED" (Associated Press Leased Wire.) CHICO, Cal., Aug. 5.—C. L. Coker, held in connection with the death of M. T. Tester, a neighbor, who he admitted stabbing six times with an ice pick, gave his two-year old son liquor and cigarettes to make a "tough guy" out of him. Testimony to this effect was given by Mrs. Coker at the coroner's inquest yesterday. Questioned by Deputy Coroner Frank M. Nair, Mrs. Coker said: "My husband gave our son 10 quor to drink and cigarettes to smoke. He told me to raise our girl and he would raise the boy, because he wanted to make a rough-neck out of him. The girl is three years old. Coker took the stand and admitted slaying Tester. "I did it because he tried to take advantage of my wife," he told the judge.

FIRE BREAKS OUT IN PRISON SHOPS BALTIMORE, Md., Aug. 5.—All down town fire fighting apparatus and a heavy police guard were rushed to the Maryland penitentiary at noon today to fight a three-alarm fire which attacked the prison shops between the penitentiary and city jail. The fire started in the furniture factory in the rear of the prisoner's dormitory next to the city jail. From within the walls came the word that there was no disorder among the prisoners, and that guards were ready to halt, by gun fire, any attempt by prisoners to take advantage of the emergency.

SCHOOL BOARD MEETS The school board met Tuesday night in regular session, outlining matters were considered and the monthly bills audited and paid. There was considerable discussion around the purchasing of supplies, but no action was taken. The board has filled all vacancies in the teaching staff with one exception, and this is expected to be filled soon, as many good applications are in.

HEAT WITH GAS SALEM, Ore., Aug. 5.—Three boys took French leave from the state training school south of town about eleven o'clock today. They were baling hay in a field near the school. Their absence was discovered very soon, but they were able to lose their pursuers in the deep underbrush in the stump land beyond the field. They wore khaki trousers and shirts. Tom Gray, a negro, is five feet, seven and weighs 145 pounds; Clyde Stevens, is dark with grey eyes, and five feet eight inches in height. The last of the trio, Bob Howard, is also dark with brown eyes. He is five feet six. It is thought that they went south.

WILL STANDARDIZE 50,000 MILES ROAD (Associated Press Leased Wire.) WASHINGTON, Aug. 5.—Fifty thousand miles of roads, honey-combed the United States government Canadian border to the gulf coast, and from the Atlantic to the Pacific, were selected today by the joint board on interstate highways, as "United States highway" to be designated with uniform road markers. No new road construction is involved, the purpose being to standardize the tourist routes and to eliminate the confusion of highway travel. The actual grouping of these roads into main arterial highways was abandoned today by the full committee and was turned over to a sub-committee, which, after making tentative designations, will submit recommendations to the various states for approval.

FINES ASSESSED FOR MINOR CRIMES IN THE JUSTICE COURT TODAY Several fines were assessed by Justice of the Peace George Jones today against persons pleading guilty to minor crimes. G. W. Hottel and J. A. Gould, of Glendale, were each fined $25 and costs for fishing in Cow creek without a license. The complaints were filed by Deputy Game Warden Ed Walker. P. E. White, stage driver, was fined $10 for driving an overcrowded stage. K. Foyeover paid $25 and costs for fishing without a license. MacW. Daugherty, of Youca, was fined $25 and costs for killing a grouse.

GREEN GLEANINGS Taking advantage of the fall in farm work between hay and grain harvest and the fruit picking season, many families are enjoying a well deserved vacation. Among those spending a pleasant time camping are the families of Mr. Preston Wilson, Mr. Henry

Speaking of Million Dollar Infields

It's an axiom of baseball that a ball team must have a good infield if it would win a pennant. That being the case the Pirates have the prime requisite. For the Buccaneers' infield is playing a big part in the drive of that club for the National League flag, begged by the Giants for four years. Here are the four members.

ERSHINE and Mr. Frost. Mr. and Mrs. Earl Agee and family are enjoying Bandon Beach. Mr. and Mrs. John Lander and family have just returned from an outing at Bandon. Mrs. M. J. Adkins has returned from a pleasant visit in Medford and Portland. Mr. Fred Bremer is preparing to begin picking of his pear crop. He has some very fine fruit this year. Rev. and Mrs. Byron W. Travis and Mrs. E. P. Croft were dinner guests of Mrs. Frank Steinhauer Wednesday of last week and of Mrs. John Howard on Thursday. Mrs. Travis was formerly Miss Jeanne Croft and for many years a resident of Green community. Mr. and Mrs. Travis are to go to Wichita, Kansas, to take charge of a church at that place and the good wishes of their many friends go with them. The Glengary W. C. T. U., which has a number of members from Green, met with Mrs. Chambers at Winston Wednesday afternoon. Among the important items of business transacted by the Union was the plan for an ice cream and cake social at Green school house Wednesday evening, August 5th, at 8 o'clock. The proceeds from this social are to go toward furnishing the newly erected school building at the W. C. T. U. Children's Park Home near Corvallis. As this is a worthy cause the ladies hope to be liberally patronized. Plans were also made to send canned fruit and vegetables to the farm home and to the Louise Baby Home in Portland. Rev. and Mrs. Byron W. Travis, who were guests of the Union, gave some very interesting talks on student life and work at the Los Angeles Bible Institute, which they both attended the past year. Mr. Travis having graduated there in June. In spite of many vacation attractions, the Green Union Sunday School is being maintained with a fairly good attendance. The Gospel team from the Christian church of Roseburg composed of Ralph Church, Reginald Hatfield, Daphne Wishes and Jessie Gibbs conducted the preaching service Sunday afternoon in a very pleasing and hopeful manner. It was an inspiration to young and old alike to listen to these splendid young people and they will be welcomed back whenever they can come. The Sunday School is just beginning a course of study on Christian Fundamentals under the whole Bible Sunday School lessons that promises to be very interesting and helpful. Anyone not attending Sunday school elsewhere is cordially invited to come to Green school house each Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock. XXX.

"I see by the papers . . ."

We all do. It's a national habit. Newspapers open and close the day. They are a vital part of our daily existence. Take them from us and the wheels of progress stop. We must have the news.

And news about merchandise ranks with news about current events. As a matter of fact, it is even more personal. It concerns you and your daily needs. Food. Clothing. Shelter. Household necessities.

The newspapers bring you this vital news of merchandise. The advertising columns of this paper are a business guide-book to guide both footsteps and expenditures. They tell you what, tell you who, and show you where. Pilots of the family purse.

Read the advertisements. Every day. Buried in small type may be a bargain that was born for you especially. Known before you go to buy, just what you want and what you will have to pay for it.

"I buy by the papers" is the twin of "I see by the papers." You consult a time-table to see what train to take. Consult this newspaper to see what goods to buy.

Newspaper advertisements are buying beacons to light your way to wise expenditure.
