INEFFICIENCY WRITTEN OVER STATE'S PRISON

dise of the convicts," was the statement of Wright Gardner, from whose hands a shotgun was shot by the escaping convicts.

Rev. C. H. Bryan, Methodist minister and prison chaplain for the past four years, declared that "the administration is so busy furnishing entertainment for the convicts that it has no time to run a prison."

It was Rev. Bryan who first voiced the charge that gambling is going on openly and constantly among the convicts with the sanction of the warden and with the knowledge of the governor.

"Did you say that the governor knew that gambling is going on?" asked one of the jurors.

"Yes, I told him myself, and he said he would put it to it."

"Did he stop it?"

"No, and I went to him again and told him it was still going on. He banged his fist down on the table and shouted that he would see that it was stopped."

"Was it stopped then?"

"No," Bryan said, that when he complained to Warden Dalrymple of the gambling, the warden answered:

"How in hell can I stop it?"

The gambling games consist mostly of poker, Bryan and C. E. Charlton, former principal keeper, explained.

Rev. Bryan also declared that the smoking of marijuana (flower of the hemp plant) is extensive among the convicts. The drug, he said, is obtained from the hemp hauled into the prison yard.

"It is worse than an opium," he said.

He said the discipline is very lax as compared to that which existed when he first became prison chaplain.

Convicts Run the Prison.

Testifying as to the discipline maintained at the prison, Guard Murphy declared that "from my point of view there is no such thing as discipline." Murphy has been a guard at the prison under five different administrations.

"The convicts are running the institution and are gaining ground constantly," said Murphy.

Murphy was particularly critical in condemning the practice of allowing prisoners so much liberty about the yard and cell house, and his testimony that convicts are allowed to run promiscuously back and forth from the yard to their cells and carry in all sorts of articles and bundles, was verified by other witnesses.

M. W. Miller, the present principal keeper, admitted under examination that the convicts started a riot in the cell house one night recently, demanding more radio music. When the warden was informed of the cause of the riot, he ordered that the radio be turned on, according to Miller, and the disturbance subsided.

Miller also testified that convicts who break from the institution and are captured and returned are not punished.

He also said that the hole in the dots confusion. A distress signal was immediately sent out by the wireless operators and boats from the forty naval ships in the cove rushed to the rescue.

Passengers on the two lower decks were the victims, observers said, especially those amidship near the boiler room. Those on the top deck for the most part escaped with minor injuries. The commands of the officers were obeyed to the letter by the stricken passengers, those who came out unscathed said today. Immediately there was a rush for the rails. Two men are known to have jumped overboard and were picked up by passing boats. Others clung to the gunwales and attempted to reach the top deck. Helping hands were lowered to aid them in their rush to safety. Boats were lowered when it was thought the craft was going to sink while life rafts and deck gear were tossed overboard.

Many of the victims failed to hear the report and their first warning was the swift rush of the deadly steam which trapped them. Those who saw the disaster from the shore described a large burst of black smoke which shot from the steamer. This was followed by the steam which enveloped the entire boat.

As McVey beached the ship Inches sent out by the battleship Wyoming, the scout cruisers Denver and Hatcher, the torpedo boat destroyers swarmed about.

SUPT. CHURCHILL WILL HOLD BOTH JOBS FOR PRESENT

(Associated Press Leased Wire.)

SALEM, Ore., Aug. 19.—J. A. Churchill will continue to serve in the dual capacity of state superintendent of public instruction and president of the new Ashland Normal school until such time as his duties as head of the normal school demand his entire time and attention. This was Mr. Churchill's reply this morning to a query as to whether he contemplated resigning as superintendent in the near future.

Mr. Churchill was elected president of the new normal last March, but up to the present time his work in that capacity has not been heavy, and he said that it was the desire of the board of regents not to burden the state with the expense of maintaining two offices when the work of both could be done by one man for the time being. He does not anticipate that his new position will require more time than he can spare from his duties as state superintendent until some time next spring.

The present plan is to have the Ashland normal ready to open for summer courses next June, and regular work will commence in September, 1925.

Mr. Churchill will prepare the course of study for the new school this winter after a trip of about six weeks to visit similar institutions in the east. He plans to leave on his trip about the middle of September.

TWO PAY FINES FOR FISHING AFTER DARK

Justice of Peace George Jones this morning received checks from two California tourists in payment of fines recently assessed for illegal fishing at Diamond lake. The men were arrested a short time ago by Game Warden Ray M. Powers, of Ashland, and to avoid a trip to the justice court here pleaded guilty in a written statement and mailed the amount of their fines here. The men were H. G. Klair and E. H. Beard, both of Saffran, California. They were charged with fishing after dark. Each was fined $25 and costs, an amount which they paid by the checks received this morning.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 19.—The federal government today dropped entirely the original conspiracy indictments returned here against Albert B. Fall, E. L. Dohney, Jr., and E. F. Sinclair in the oil case.

The indictments were dismissed some time ago on a technicality and now ones recently were returned covering the conspiracy charges. Government oil counsel today withdrew their appeal from the court's decision dismissing the original charges.

Bribery indictments against Fall and the two Dohneys also were thrown out by the court and government's appeal from that portion of the court's decision stands. The bribery charge is not covered in the new indictments.

AMERICAN GIRL IS UNDECIDED AS TO 2ND CHANNEL TRY

(Associated Press Leased Wire.)

CAPE GRIS-NEZ, France, Aug. 19.—Grace Ederle is feeling 50 ill-effects from her efforts yesterday when she battled the waters in the English channel for nearly nine hours, in a game but unsuccessful attempt to be the first woman swimmer to cross from France to England. She suffered no muscle stiffness and the consumed breakfast showed that the salt water she swallowed yesterday had left little or no after-effects. Miss Ederle intends to rest for two or three days after which she may go to Paris. While there she will decide whether to undertake the channel again this year.

The only physical reminder of her wonderful swim is a slight irritation of the skin due to her encounter with a school of jelly fish four miles out from the cape.

SALEM, Ore., Aug. 19.—The act of the legislature certainly intends that the main office of the state banking department be maintained in Salem. There is no question about it. The only question I can see in this case is whether the court has a right to say just what constitutes a main office, and a branch office and how much of an office must be maintained in Salem to make it a main office.

With this declaration, Circuit Judge C. H. Skipworth of Eugene, sitting in mandamus proceedings here brought by the state on a motion of George Putman of Salem to require Frank C. Brankwell, state superintendent of banks, to move the main office from Portland to Salem, gave attorneys 20 days in which to file their authorities.

"After receiving these I assure you a prompt decision in the case," said Judge Skipworth to the attorneys.

FROM FAIRYLAND TO MOVIELAND FOR MARY

NEW YORK, Aug. 19.—Mary Louise Spas, whose career as the adopted daughter of a New York millionaire came to a dramatic end last week, after being lashed in the limelight of front pages two weeks, today embarked upon a venture into the land of footlights and the silver screen.

Mary signed a contract with a theatrical and moving picture agent who plans to film the kaleidoscopic history of her adoption.

EVANGELIST TALKS ON STORY OF NOAH

The service at the tent revival last night was attended by a large crowd to hear the sermon of Alice Wilson Parham on the subject, "One Hundred Fifty Days at Sea." Members of the Henry family played several instrumental selections.

In discussing the subject the evangelist showed how the second coming of Christ was just as sure as the coming of the flood though now, as then, people refuse to believe the word of God. She told how foolish the new twentieth century religion was, because it professes to go to heaven, no hell and no Lord. Every human, she said, desires and needs something supernatural to satisfy.

Noah with his upright children whom he had influenced, she continued, at last entered the ark. Parents should live so close to the word of God that their children will follow in their footsteps as Christians. In these days, said the evangelist, we need the protection of God as much as they did before the flood; let us pay no attention of the scoffing unbeliever, but take safety at any cost by coming to the ark of Jesus Christ.

The subject for tonight's meeting will be "A Kiss in the Dark." Tomorrow evening the theme will be "The Trees," and Friday, "Furch Climbers."

MAJESTIC THEATRE

The title of the new Paramount picture, "Sinners in Heaven," which is coming to the Antlers Theatre for a 2-day run beginning today has a distinctly paradoxical sound. It is safe to assume that the picture satisfactorily explains and justifies the title.

"Sinners in Heaven" tells the story of a man and a girl who are through fate wrecked on a tropical island off the coast of Africa. Try to imagine what would happen if you found yourself stranded in some remote corner of the earth, apparently a million miles from any sign of civilization, and your only companion was a person whom you cordially disliked! This is the situation that confronts Barbara Stockley, the heroine; and you can readily understand the dynamic possibilities for rich drama when we tell you that the girl eventually falls in love with the man and marries him, there, in the heart of the African desert! How the marriage is performed and what happens after that, we will let you discover for yourself.

ANTLERS THEATRE

Hoot Gibson, the star in "Spook Ranch," the Universal-Gibson special which will be shown at the Majestic Theatre commencing Friday, found himself up against such a "tough egg" in a little town on the edge of the Mojave desert when he wandered into town, tired, broke and hungry.

"Spook Ranch," Gibson plays the part of Bill Banks, a Texas cowboy who has spent his last $500 for the mining rights to the Mojave desert. Bill knows there is gold there because the man who obligingly took his money assured him there was lots of it. The only reason he sold the rights was because he was in a hurry. Bill was told. That left the proposition a cinch. All he had to do was dig and dig he did.

LIBERTY THEATRE

Guaranteed to crinkle your back hair and make your spine a race-course for chills, "The Fighting Demon," Richard Talmadge's most recent, F. B. O. production, will be shown for the first time in this community at the Liberty Theatre tomorrow and Friday. Charles Metz's story proves a superb vehicle for the colorful personality and brilliant athletic ability of the star, who has come to be known in Hollywood as "Durable Dick" since he recovered from a broken neck sustained in doing one of his spectacular stunts before the camera.
