SALEM, Ore. Aug. 26.—The state teatheast commission convened here this morning for a two-day session to select the text books to be used in the public schools, despite the ruling of Attorney-Goneral I. H. Van Winkle that whatever action would be taken by them today and tomorrow would be illegal. The commission will proceed to hear the bids of publishers and to award contracts for two-thirds of the state's text books desuite the possibility that their decisions may be averrated.
