Today's Markets (Associated Press Leased Wire.) PORTLAND, Ore., Aug. 21.—(Market Notes)—Egg values have started on the upward trend in the local market after lying dormant during the summer months. Fresh receipts up to the present time have been about sufficient for the local market requirements and prices have been held generally steady. Today bids are higher with extras and firsts up a cent on the dairy exchange at 29 and 36 cents respectively. Pullet eggs have advanced two cents overnight with quotations now posted at 34 cents. Current receipts are "a" a half-cent at 31c net on the exchange. Local buyers are out with bids of 30 cents for receipts delivered. Offerings are moderate and the demand brisk. Outside markets, too, are higher and this is a strengthening factor in the situation. As yet few stocks, if any, have been pulled out of the coolers but should the market continue to advance, some storage eggs are bound to come out. The local butter market is showing a weaker undertone after maintaining a good healthy condition during the past month. Declines in outside markets is the main factor, rather than any local condition. There has been very little increase in cream production and while the undergrade stock is more plentiful there is still a shortage of real high score butter in this market. Prices are unchanged on the local board today but buyers are less keen for shipping supplies. The 10 cent advance in sugar prices is generally effective today. Local buyers are quoting best cane at $6.30 and beet at $5.10 per sack. PORTLAND, Ore., Aug. 21.—Eggs firm 1 1/2 c higher; current receipts 30c; pullets 29 1/2 c; firsts 31 1/2 c; extras 34 1/2 c delivered Portland. Butter steady. How they finally tricked the girl into showing them the place and how Bill managed to bring about the capture of the entire gang makes "Spook Ranch" one of the most humorous and thrilling pictures Hoot Gibson has ever played in. Antlers Theatre Snatches of the strained, hectic life of war-time pass in review in Betty Compton's newest Paramount starring production, "New Lives for Old," which will be shown tonight at the Antlers theatre. Companies of American and French troops in full war panoply move here and there, while around and about them flits Betty—now as a Norman peasant girl; now, as a gorgeously gowned Parisian dancer—wearing the beginning of the story net of suspicion and intrigue which culminates in a thundering climax toward the close of the story. Liberty Theatre The story of "The Awful Truth" which comes to the Liberty theatre for a three-day run, starting Sunday, and featuring the lovely Agnes Ayres in the leading role, is a story based on jealousy. While still on his honeymoon, young Norman Satterlee is seized with pangs of jealousy when he finds his wife's former friends still paying court to her. Returning from a business trip he finds his wife through no fault of hers, in a compromising situation with another man and he demands that she divorce him. This, however, is not the end of the romance but rather the beginning. What follows is an absorbing love story in which the ex-husband is called to testify as to the good character of his former wife when she becomes engaged to another man. It is a unique theme and the result is a picture that is no end interesting. CIVIL WAR VETERAN PASSES THIS MORNING James M.
