ENGLISH CHANNEL BALKS EFFORTS OF GREASED JAPANESE

DOVER, Aug. 28.—Setzu Nishimura, Japanese, abandoned his attempt to swim the English channel today after being in the water only two hours and five minutes. Nishimura, said to be the champion long distance swimmer of Japan, has attracted attention by the unusual diet he has followed in training for his attempt to swim the English channel. He ate only vegetables and eggs, instead of the usual heavy health producing foods favored by most channel swimmers. The weather was fair but a smart breeze was kicking up a sea way. The swimmer wore a costume enveloping him to the ankles and this was covered with a thick coating of grease. BOULOGNE, France, Aug. 28.—

GERTRUDE EDERLE, UNSUCCESSFUL IN HER FIRST ATTEMPT TO SWIM THE ENGLISH CHANNEL, HAS FIXED SEPTEMBER 3 AS THE LIMIT OF HER STAY HERE WAITING FOR FAIR WEATHER AND FAVORABLE TIDES FOR ANOTHER ATTEMPT. SHE HOPES TO GET AWAY NEXT MONDAY OR TUESDAY, BUT THE CONTINUED ROUGHNESS OF THE SEA IS DISCOURAGING.

Lillian Harrison, Argentine star, has decided to wait until September 15, feeling sure she will have an opportunity by that date. BAD THROAT KEEPS DELANEY FROM BERLENBACH BOUT NEW YORK, Aug. 28.—Word was received here today that Jack Delaney of Bridgeport, Conn., will be unable to box Paul Berlenbach of New York, September 11 for the light heavyweight championship of the world because of throat trouble. Efforts are being made to match Mike McTigue, former title-holder, to meet his conqueror on that date. Delaney's illness will prevent him from boxing for at least three months, according to reports. McTigue is at Saratoga Springs, N. Y., and Berlenbach is at South Ampton.
