bowls and baskets of autumn flowers made an effective background for the models, the new sport coats, dress coats, and gowns, in the pansy shades, the new browns, and blacks, which will be so popular this fall and winter, were advantageously modeled before a large assemblage of people, the models parading through the store, and into the brilliantly lighted windows.

Music was furnished by Ott's Music store, shoes by Kiddler's Shoe Store, and hats by the Specialty Shop. Models were Mrs. George Wharton, Mrs. Clarice Jewett, Miss Theima Olmstead, and Miss Orpha Allison.

Roseburg Women to Attend Federation. Echoes from Portland, Maine, will be heard at the dinner meeting of the Oregon Federation of Business and Professional Women's clubs to be held at the Multnomah Hotel ball room, mezzanine floor, on Saturday evening, September 12th, at six thirty.

Loyalty to Roseburg Merchants

We recognize the right of every one to buy where he pleases. We have no quarrel with folks that ask us to buy their produce, and then when they buy something, send their money a long way off to mail-order houses. It's true, though, that none of that money ever comes back to Douglas county to make better schools and roads and to add to the general development.

Take as an example a 6-Volt Storage Battery. MAIL ORDER PRICE. 6-Volt Battery $11.82. P. O. Money Order .12. P. O. Stamp .02. Express 1.50. Installation .50.

Total Cost $13.96. Perhaps wait one week for delivery and pay for service battery. OUR PRICE HERE AT ROSEBURG IS $10.50

No waiting. No rent for service battery, quality WELLS KNOWN, fully guaranteed or an actual saving in dollars and cents of $3.46 by buying at home. This is just one example, friends and neighbors. All we ask is that, after looking at the pictures of the goods in the far away warehouses, you come here and see the goods themselves and get our prices. Money back if anything you buy here is not perfectly satisfactory.

was there the early part of the week, and saw the delegates arriving with their mascots and all other trimmings which distinguished each state from the other.

National publicity this past year has been handled by Mrs. Josephine Furney, who assisted in this work at the convention. She will tell of some of the outstanding women who attended.

Miss Martha Gansch, represented Oregon on the national executive council, and will report the activities of that body, telling of the important matters brought up for consideration and discussion, as well as subjects presented which will be of help and interest to all clubs throughout the year.

Miss Adella Prichard, who has served the past two years as national president, and was the recipient of much praise at the close of her term of office, due to the very rapid growth made by the federation and the many accomplishments of her administration will bring a message as to "What the Federation Brings to Us."

Members should make reservations for themselves and their guests by mail to Miss Ann Sherlock, 711 Corbett Bldg., to reach her not later than September 10th.

Mrs. G. J. Frankel, first president of the state federation will read Mary Stewart's "Collect for Club Women." Mrs. Alice B. Maloney of Marshfield, national vice president being toastmistress, Miss Louise M. Hacker, state president, presiding.

Business Women Greet State President

A large assemblage of the business and professional women of Roseburg greeted Miss Louise M. Hacker of Portland, state president of that organization, at a banquet in the Indian room of the Hotel Umpqua last night. The banquet also served to welcome Miss Rosa B. Parrott, president of the Roseburg Business and Professional Woman's Club, who has been traveling in Europe the past few months.

Miss Hacker interested the club members in an account of the State Federation from its conception six years ago, when only five clubs, Salem, Marshfield, Hood River, and two Portland clubs were members up to the present time, a record of growth seldom equaled by any other organization. For the purpose of bringing the Roseburg club more closely in touch with the state officers, Miss Hacker gave a personal sketch of each of the members of the State Executive Council.

"I am often asked," said Miss Hacker, "just what need the business women's clubs fill, and just what the club does for each individual in every town in which there is a business and professional women's club you find the girls more closely in contact with each other, more friendly. The friendships and contacts made in the club serve as an inspiration for those girls just starting out who have not as yet reached the higher better paid positions held by some of the members. It is a place where they can bring their business problems, new comers may meet fellow workers, and by uniting to bring about some needed reform or city improvement they feel themselves an integral part of that city. There are many famous people belonging to the National and State Federation, famous writers, doctors, lawyers, women from all walks of life."

Miss Hacker gave a short account of what other clubs in the state are doing, and invited the Roseburg club to attend the state dinner at the Multnomah hotel next Saturday night, at which time returning delegates from the national convention at Portland, Maine, will give an account of the convention. Miss Rosa B. Parrott and Miss Agnes Pitchford will probably attend the dinner.

Proceeding Miss Hacker's talk Mrs. Fred Strang sang a group of solos accompanied by Mrs. Arthur Knauss, and Miss Margaret Page also made by Miss Agnes Pitchford, member of the state publicity committee, Miss Beat Wharton, member of the state membership committee, Mrs. James Sawyer, member of the State Legislative committee, and Miss Ethel Webb, state Director. Miss Rosa B. Parrott presided. Miss Hacker left this morning for Medford where she will meet with the Medford club tonight.

THEATRES

Majestic Theatre For those who find riproaring action a tonic for their nerves, a last opportunity to see "The Trail Rider," Buck Jones' latest starring vehicle, presents itself when it closes at the Majestic theatre tonight. This is a stirring narrative, full of thrilling adventure and wild riding, with a cast of well known players in support of the star, including two leading ladies, Nancy Deaver and Lucy Fox. The story by George Washington Ogden, describes the stirring old cattle war in the Kansas grazing lands. W. S. Van Dyke is responsible for the direction.

Liberty Theatre Fighting the Flames, which comes to the Liberty theatre Sunday for a run of 3 days, has a very remarkable cast assembled to play the exciting fire story which forms the basis of the picture.

The lead is played by William Haines who will be well remembered for his success in The Midnight Express, another action picture depicting railroad life. With Mr. Haines is Dorothy Devore, who is a great favorite with film-goers. David Torrence is the brother of Ernest Torrence of Covered Wagon fame, but happens to be a very excellent actor in his own right. Sheldon Lewis needs no words. He is a villain and every one knows him for those parts.

The rest of the cast includes Frankie Darrow, who though a fit the boy plays one of the largest parts in the production.

Antlers Theatre "A Son of His Father," a Paramount screen version of Harold Bell Wright's newest novel of the same name, produced by Victor Fleming and featuring Bessie Love, Warner Baxter and Raymond Hatton in the cast, will be the feature at the Antlers theatre on Sunday, to remain for three days.

Miss Love, as Nora O'Shea, after the death of her mother in Ireland, journeys to Tucson, Arizona, to live with her brother, a cowboy on the ranch owned by "Big Boy" Morgan, played by Warner Baxter. When she arrives at her destination, the boy is not there to meet her. It develops that he has left the ranch to join in with a gang of cattle smugglers and gamblers, headed by one Zobeber. Morgan, however, deceives the girl and lies to her about her brother.

Morgan gets into a gambling session and loses controlling interest in his ranch to Holdbrook (Walter McGrail), a tool of Zobeber. In time, Nora learns the whereabouts of her brother and sets out to try to win him back to honesty, only to be imprisoned herself by the smugglers. It takes "Big Boy" Morgan and all his men, backed up by an entire company of U. S. cavalry to rescue her. The brother dies protecting Morgan. Holdbrook, the gambler gives up his interest in the ranch to the girl knowing that she loves Morgan.
