BIBLE READING MARATHON STARTS

(Associated Press Local Wire.) BOSTON, Sept. 12.—A bible marathon contest will be started by members of the Adventist temple in this city Monday. It will be a race against time. At 9 a. m. Rev. Robert S. Fries, the pastor, will start to read aloud the first words of the first chapter of Genesis, twenty-five members of the church will be on the relay team, relieving each other every fifteen minutes and continuing day and night until the entire bible has been read.

OVER TON CHERRIES SOLD BY TWO BOYS

A record for cherry sales has been made by Buddy and Elmer, the two small sons of J. E. Dent, of the American Express company. Since the start of the cherry season these two boys, aged 7 and 12, have sold 2800 sacks of cherries at the station to tourists on the trains. They have sold the cherries at 10 cents a sack for John Rosenbark of Melrose, and now as the cherry season has closed are selling plums. The tourists are eager for the fruit which the boys arrange attractively in small sacks, and each train brings a crowd to gather about the two lads and completely buy out their wares.

Mrs. Skinner Entertains Thursday

Mrs. L. B. Skinner graciously entertained Thursday at Winston when she invited the members of the Merry Go Round club to her home for the afternoon. In the rooms, attractively decorated in autumn blossoms, sewing and music were enjoyed. Miss Dorothy Winston gave a piano solo, and a vocal solo was given by Mrs. McMillan. Later the hostess assisted by Mrs. M. B. Green and Mrs. George Iacher served a two-course luncheon at a table brightened with a centerpiece of lovely flowers.

The guest list included Mesdames M. B. Green, Howard Carnes, Paul Spain, Fred Winston, J. K. Falbe, McMillan, Clay Smith, George Iacher, Harry Winston, Earl Apee, Fred Renner, Misses Helen Falbe, Dorothy Winston, Thelma Smith, Elizabeth Renner, Norma Winston, Neva Apee and Grace Benin.

Missionary Society Meets Thursday

On Thursday afternoon the members of the Presbyterian Missionary Society met in the church parlors, enjoying an afternoon of music and literature.

Miss Mary McCullagh gave a piano solo, following which Mrs. W. M. Campbell read the verse, Matthew 21:28 as the devotional exercises, comparing the present day church to the vineyard. The treasurer made the announcement that the fall apportionment for the mission work had been met in full. Mrs. R. M. Park, secretary of literature outlined the work for the coming year. Mrs. Bodie, secretary of the overseas sewing department read a letter of appreciation from work received recently by the needy overseas. Mrs. Fred Fisher, secretary of literature announced that the book to be read and discussed this year would be, "New Days in Latin-America," by Webster Browning. Plans underway for a high school class were taken under consideration and discussed, and Mrs. Scott gave an interesting talk, her theme being, "Is There a Youth Movement." Later a luncheon was served to the twenty-five ladies present.

THEATRES

Liberty Theatre

Elizabeth Cooner's popular novel, "Drusilla with a Million," will have its first motion picture presentation in this vicinity at the Liberty theatre on Sunday when it begins a 7-day run; and it is seldom indeed that such a thoroughgoing, wholesome and amusing comedy is presented on the screen. Minding the show comedy with a facile skill that kept the entertainment mixture always of the right consistency and has the production hitting on all eight, the adaptation of Lois Zellner has lost nothing of the charm of the original, and F. Harmon Wright has again proved himself a director of great ability in catching the subtle shades of human character and interpreting "humanness" to the spectator. Mary Carr, Frieda Donner, Kenneth Harlan, Claire Du Bray, and William Humphrey lead the cast, supported by excellent artists of lesser importance and by one of the finest collections of babies ever assembled before the camera. When Frieda, the little old lady who has for years been a salvee and charity patient at a Home, inherits her million she tries to befriend all the orphan babies and children in the world; and right there the fun and trouble begins.

Antlers Theatre

Three glasses of wine were ordered in by the Chinese servant. One of them contained a deadly poison. Three people, a wife, her husband and the man who loved her, pleaded each other in the wine, which glass did she drink? Suspense, mystery and drama are piled one upon the other in thrilling sequence in Pola Negri's latest starring picture for Paramount, "East of Suz," which Raoul Walsh produced.

A. Antlers Theatre

Charming Pollock, the gifted man who wrote "The Fool," now believes that the tremendous success attained by his masterpiece on the speaking stage will be surpassed by the film version, which was recently launched by William Fox at the Antlers theatre, with Edmund Lowe as David Gilchrist.

Antlers Theatre

Mr. Pollock set a high mark for the stage when he penned "The Fool." This work was so far removed from the proscribed ideas of a stage "box-office" winner that some producers refused even to listen to it; other condemned it as "high-brow," and others said it wouldn't last two weeks on Broadway.

Antlers Theatre

Those who made the production did so in fear and trembling but soon ceased to tremble and rushed to the task of putting company after company upon the road; ten being engaged at one time in presenting this romantic melodrama in every city and town in the country. Ten weekly streams of sold furore to the managers and Mr. Pollock, and the producers who had scoffed at the work, turned to their chagrin, that it was a history-making sensation on Broadway. "The Fool" was an innovation, and wise ministers grasped the fact that a powerful ally was adding them in their ranks. They rushed to Pollock's aid. From scores of pupils came approval. Long lines formed at the box offices. The golden streams widened and deepened and quickened. Nearly 6,000,000 people saw the play in less than three years.

Majestic Theatre

"Steele of the Royal Mounted," the Vitaphone picture that opens at the Majestic theatre on Sunday for a run of two days, is an adaptation of James Oliver Curwood's story of adventure in the far north. The cast includes Bert Lytell, Stuart Holmes, Charlotte Merriman, Mabel Julienne Scott, Sydney De Grey and John Touchard. It is a David Smith production.

LOCAL PASTOR ACCEPTS CALL TO WALLA WALLA

Rev. Stewart O'Dell, for two years pastor of the Roseburg South Methodist church, will leave Tuesday morning with his family for Walla Walla, Washington, where he has accepted the pastorate of the Marvin Memorial South Methodist church. Rev. C. S. Cobelli, pastor of the South Methodist church at Missoula, Montana, will arrive in Roseburg, next week to remain here in charge of the local church. Rev. O'Dell has spent two years in Roseburg, and has made a host of friends among the business people, and his own congregation, who regret his departure. Rev. J. E. Needham will leave at the same time for Milton, Oregon, where he has been called to the South Methodist church for the coming year. Rev. Needham was pastor of the Roseburg church but for the past two years has been engaged in the grocery business here. As Milton is only thirty-one miles from Walla Walla, the two families will be neighbors in their new location.

FAY LANPHIER

'MISS CALIFORNIA' WINS BEAUTY TITLE

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Sept. 12.—The crown of "Miss America" rests today on the blonde long tresses of Miss Fay Lanphier of Alameda, California.

Miss Lanphier as "Miss California" won the title of the most beautiful woman in America by a 12 to 3 decision of the judges against 65 rivals from various cities last night. She was runner-up in last year's beauty pageant when Ruth Malcolmson of Philadelphia won the title. Miss Malcolmson refused to compete this year because she charged "commercialism" permeated the event.

Adrienne Dore as "Miss Los Angeles" was runner-up to Miss Lanphier. The judges had sealed their ballots in two golden apples. Miss Atlantic City, Lee Bartlett, cleaved open the apples last night in the grand ball room of the municipal pier before 12,000 persons.

The beauties passed in final review before 500,000 persons in a rolling chair parade along the Boardwalk yesterday.

Miss Lanphier, who is described by friends as a bashful home-loving stenographer who has never smoked a cigarette, has an opportunity now to join the movies.

The measurements of the hazel-eyed girl, now selected as the most perfect of the year in the United States follows: Weight 138; height 5 feet 5 inches; neck thirteen and a half inches; bust thirty-four inches; waist, twenty-six and a half inches; hips thirty-seven and a half inches; arm length twenty-eight inches; wrist six inches; calf twelve and a half inches; ankle eight inches.

WOMEN'S SECTION FEATURES EXHIBIT OF GERMAN POLICE

KARLSRUHE, Sept. 11.—One of the most interesting features of the recent police exhibit was the section devoted to German women's police. Cologne, with the assistance of American and English women, was the first city to organize a women's section of its police force, the organization being patterned after those of New York and London. Leipzig now is planning to follow Cologne's example.

The women police of Cologne, besides acting as a protective force for girls and young women, also exert an influence in child labor.

JAPAN SUPPRESSES COLLEGE ISSUE

TOKYO, Sept. 14.—A recent issue of the Waseda University Journal was suppressed by the police on the grounds that some of the articles it contained were dangerous to public peace. The chief article which aroused the authorities was one said to have been written by a member of the faculty criticizing the Shanghai situation. This is declared to be the first time the police have suppressed a Japanese school publication.

MABEL MASTERS MEANEST MUSTANG

This is Mabel Strickland, world's champion cowgirl, riding "em slick" on a mean one. Mabel will be one of the stars of the Pendleton Roundup of Sept. 16th to 19th, owes her championship to her versatility in broncho busting, steer roping, trick riding and relay racing in a style that beats most of the men. However, at Pendleton, most of the other "cow-belles" are going to try to ring in on her title, and the fun is likely to be fast and furious.
