WHISPERS OF THE YONCALLA HIGH SCHOOL The annual Freshman initiation and party given by the Sophomores was carried out in elaborate style. What the Sophomores didn't find to do to the unlucky "Frosh" is not worth mentioning. Each of the three upper classes put on a skit of their own manufacture and in each one picked on the green Freshman. The Senior Council, the Freshman School by the Juniors, and the Old Maids Gossip Club by the Sophomores furnished the Freshmen and guests many hearty laughs.

The initiation ended at 10:30 and light refreshments of punch and cake were served. At eleven o'clock the party broke up with many congratulations to the Sophomores for the best Freshman initiation ever held. There were about 60 present. Gerald and Harold Freeman started to school this week. They are not strangers among us and I think no one needs an introduction to "Heslie" and "Heinie's Little Brother." Gerald is a Senior and Harold a Sophomore. We are glad to have you, boys.

The first edition of the school paper will be edited about October 20th. The staff is organized and each pupil is feeling his responsibility in making the paper a success. Mr. White of the Enquirer is kindly giving us all assistance he can. We hope that the patrons of the school will help us along by their subscriptions. "Bigger and Better" is our motto.

We were very sorry that Willetta Miller was ill last week and we are glad she is back. George May Wallace was ill a few days also. The representative from the Master Engraving Company of Portland met with the Seniors and helped them select their diplomas.

Cal Herman and Salem Scrapper Fight to a Draw Main Event Principal for Roseburg Card Has Good Record—Advance Sale Tickets 1s Brisk. SALEM, Ore., Oct. 2.—Cal Herman of Salt Lake City and Frankie Lewis of Salem fought 10 rounds to a draw in the main event of the boxing card here last night. In the semi-windup Bill Hunt of this city knocked out Danny Garth of Portland in the fourth round of a scheduled six-round bout.

Cal Herman in the glassy welterweight who meets Ernie Woodward of Portland, in the 16-round main event of the opening card at the Roseburg armory next Tuesday night, October 8. He is a former high school student of Salt Lake, Utah, taking up the ring game professionally about six years ago. He has 28 knockouts to his credit. His showing against Lewis is a good indication of his ability. Lewis has twice fought draws with Spew Woods, one of the top-notch welters of the coast, who is well known here. Interest in the opening card here is growing and the advance demand for ringside seats is brisk, pointing to the fact that there will be a big crowd present. The principals of the minor condition to deliver the goods.

WILD HORSES TO BECOME FERTILIZER AND SOAP FAT (Associated Press Leased Wire.) PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 2.—Wild horses, estimated to number a quarter of a million, ranging on the wild lands of the Pacific Northwest are to be rounded up and sent to Portland to be rendered into fertilizer and soap fats. A Portland concern is erecting a two-story concrete building for the purpose.

SUPT. OF STATE BANKS LOSES IN COURT BATTLE (Continued from page 1.) The court held that the defendant's claim for a portion of the depositors' funds was not a claim for a portion of the depositors' funds, but a claim for a portion of the depositors' funds. The court held that the defendant's claim for a portion of the depositors' funds was not a claim for a portion of the depositors' funds, but a claim for a portion of the depositors' funds.

Public's Right Paramount. Relative to the contention of the defendant that the plaintiff has no legal authority to bring action, the opinion states: "The general rule is that where private or corporate rights are affected the relation must show an interest. However, the rule is established by a preponderance of authorities that where the question is one of public right and the object of the mandamus is to procure the enforcement of a public duty, the relation need not show that he has any legal or special interest in the result; it being sufficient that he is interested as a citizen in having the laws executed and the duty in question enforced."

Main Office Must Be in Salem. On the question of interference of the courts with an officer in the exercise of discretionary powers, the opinion says: "The court has no quarrel with counsel on this question and will concede such to be the law; but in this case there is no discretion. The status says that the superintendent of banks shall maintain his office in Salem x x x and he may, when considered by him to be expedient and convenient, establish branch offices within the city of Portland. The court has no control over the superintendent of banks on the establishments of branch offices within the city of Portland; x x x but the court does have the power to say to the superintendent of banks, you shall not move the principal office of the banking department from Salem, the place where it is provided by law it shall be maintained, to Portland. Briefly the court holds that the relator, George Putman, has the legal capacity to maintain this action. Second: that the court by mandamus can compel the superintendent of banks to maintain his principal office in the city of Salem. "The demurrer to the alternative writ should be overruled."

WASHINGTON, Oct. 2.—The application of Miss Mary MacSwiney, a member of the Irish republican party, for admission as a delegate to the interparliamentary union conference was denied today by Baron Theodore Adelswaerd, president of the union.

Baron Adelswaerd's action was based on the information given him by the delegation of the Irish Free State that Miss MacSwiney had declined to take her oath of office as a member of the Irish Free State parliament and therefore was not eligible as a delegate to the conference. Miss MacSwiney arrived in Washington this morning. Men's suits cleaned and pressed, 31.50. Roseburg Cleaners, phone 472.

NEWSPAPER SUIT AGAINST COUNTY CLERK PREPARED (Associated Press Leased Wire.) BEND, Ore., Oct. 2.—A petition will be filed at once in the supreme court of the State of Oregon by the Central Oregon Press, asking a court order compelling Joseph Hager, county clerk of Deschutes county, to open his office to representatives of the paper, according to Edward F. Bailey of Eugene, attorney for the newspaper in the matter.

An out-of-town attorney was engaged, that no local attorney might be embarrassed in his relations with the county clerk, according to Harold A. Moore, editor of the paper. Bailey arrived in Bend yesterday and having completed final papers in the case today will leave for Salem within a short time. The Rexall one-cent sale starts Thursday, October 2, and will continue for three days.

ATTENDANCE STATE FAIR PROMISES TO MEET ALL EXPENSE Livestock Men Ask Period to Embrace Labor Day—Dairy Herd May Tour Country (Associated Press Leased Wire.) SALEM, Ore., Oct. 2.—Paid admissions to the state fair yesterday totaled 21,300 and receipts were $12,437.75, according to official announcement. The attendance of Wednesday and Thursday, with indications of another big day at the fair today because of fair weather, should easily bring the state's annual exposition financially over the top for this year.

Today is Hospitality Day at the fair which is a new feature. The state Hospitality club, organized a year or two ago from the booster organizations of various cities will be in the swim today, and the uniformed boosters from all sections are scheduled to arrive between 9 and 10 o'clock. The Salem Cherrilans will act as representatives of the city and will perform stunts about the grounds and in front of the grandstand between races in the afternoon. At the races this afternoon, the freer-all trot will be featured. Recommendation that the dates of the state fair be changed so that it begin on Saturday, and cover eight days, as made by resolution last night at a meeting of the Oregon Pure Bred Livestock association. Should the latter scheme be adopted, it is believed that the racing program should start on Saturday with running races only on that day. On Sunday a sacred concert in the stadium is recommended.

The association went on record in favor of improved buildings for the livestock department and possibly a new exhibition building. More liberal premiums are also urged. Sentiment was expressed in favor of sending an Oregon show dairy herd through the show circuit of the middle West and East over eight days, as made by resolution last night at a meeting of the Oregon Agricultural college club department to be added to the reels presented to the college last summer. The livestock judging, carrying contests, and judging of fruits and vegetables have been filmed while the huge club parade and the official dedication of the new club home later in the week will also be taken. The dedication ceremony will feature the club officials, the state fair board, Governor Pierce and the club members at home.

Lapid growth of juvenile club work is pictured through this film taken under the direction of E. J. King, superintendent of the Southern Pacific system. Fifteen county teams of three boys each entered the livestock judging contest. If counties exhibited in special booths while nearly as many other counties had sectional exhibits in a general booth for club workers. The livestock judging teams judged beef cattle, dairy cattle, sheep and swine, and two classes each. Tiltmook won first prize with Lehnhart Geisinger and Kenneth and Robert Williams competing. Klamath with Bryan Williams, Cecil Bailey and Carl Kiger was second and Multnomah with Floyd Stafford, Harvel Dahl and Ian Burns, third. Floyd Stafford took first place in individual scores.

Race Results SALEM, Ore., Oct. 2.—J. C. McK. owned by James Dacres, Walla Walla horseman and hotel man, captured the 2:12 trot, feature event at the state fair racing course yesterday, taking three straight heats and making the scheduled two additional heats unnecessary. Johnny Morrissey won the 2:25 pace in straight heats and Carolyn Logan was first money in the 2:10 pace. Skyhawk Ches, with Donovan up, took the 4 1/2 furlong run in 49 1/2 seconds, with Slatas second and Cicely third. Poor Puss, Buell up, won the mile run in 1:42, with Rochester, Jr., second, and Peace Flag, third. The 5 1/2 furlong run was captured by Randolph, with Buell up, in 1:07, Dayde taking second and Virginia Hedge with third.

Cheese and Butter Winners SALEM, Ore., Oct. 2.—Tiltmook carried off first honors in cheese this year at the state fair with Melowest a close second. Competition was keen and the judges in the scoring found only a half point difference between the two well known Oregon brands. Ralph Hutton won first prize with his cheese entry of Tiltmook with a score of 96 1/2. Reed Farmer, of Marshfield, won second prize with a score of 96 on his cheese. Hugh Barber, Tiltmook factor, was third with a score of 95 3/4.

In the butter division, A. Lauber of Portland, won first honors with a score of 95 3/4. F. Heitwe of Mt. Angel, won second prize with a score of 95 1/4. A. A. Oswald of Carver, won third with a score of 95 1/4. Cook with gas. SOUTHERN PACIFIC GETS ENDORSEMENT KLAMATH CITIZENS (Associated Press Leased Wire.) KLAMATH FALLS, Ore., Oct. 2.—Organization of the Klamath-Mohoc main line to East Association was affected here last night by a group of leading farmers, business men and lumbermen of the region between Chiloquin, Ore., and Altura, California. The object of the association is to support the proposed new direct main trunk line east by way of Klamath Falls, Tule Lake and the broad gauge N. C. O., as proposed by the Southern Pacific company. Civic and commercial organizations have expressed themselves in sympathy with the new line. Terminal Beauty Shop, phone 588.
