

THE WOMAN'S PAGE

SOCIETY

By GRACE CARROLL

All contributions to this page, society, women's clubs, and personals, should be telephoned to the society editor by Friday of each week. Telephone No. 135.

Bridge Luncheon at Fullerton Home

Mrs. N. Fullerton and Mrs. E. C. Ziegler entertained at the first of a series of affairs, Wednesday, at the home of the former on Cass street, when a number of intimate friends were invited to a bridge-luncheon.

A color motif of autumn shades of gold, red and orange was used throughout the rooms and bowls of cosmos centered the tables where luncheon was served. Following tables were placed for bridge. Mrs. W. S. Hamilton received first prize, Mrs. H. H. Stiepleton received second prize, and Mrs. D. Lennox received birthday prize.

Bidden to the affair were Mesdames George Bradburn, Bert Green, Ed Thornton, A. Baum, D. Lenox, H. C. Darby, James Sawyers, S. L. Kiddier, B. A. Sanford, W. H. H. C. C. Lane, E. Meyer, Bolton, Paul Baker, Charles Wharton, J. P. Barker, I. G. Broadway, H. H. Stapleton, A. A. Wilder, Roy Bellows, Fred Schwartz, Wm. Bell, John Enger, Harold Fee, Clair K. Allen, Glenn Wimberly, C. S. Heinline, Fred Chapman, B. Casey, C. A. Lockwood, J. I. Love, and Miss Gertrude East.

Camp Fire Girls Have Social Evening

The members of the Mivaleta Camp Fire Girls had a most enjoyable evening Thursday, when they met at the home of Mrs. L. L. Marsters, guardian. Each member brought one new prospective member to the party, and the evening was made amusing by turning the usual routine around, and calling a "backyard party." This was effectively carried out when the guests were received at the door by Mrs. Marsters, who bid them "good-bye." Each guest came dressed in old clothes, and a prize was awarded the one present who came in the most unique costume.

Luncheon was served by the hostess to Mesdames Grace Wallace, Lucille Peterson, Dayline Reese, Margaret Arthur, Virginia French, Ruth Metcalf, Margaret Meyer, and added guests, Mesdames Doris Johnson, Mildred Coats, Hazel Strickland and Mildred Morris.

The first luncheon of the fall of the Business and Professional Women's Club, was held Friday noon in the Indian room of the Hotel Umpqua.

Business Women Have First Fall Luncheon

The new teachers in the schools of Roseburg were guests of the club, and were welcomed by Mrs. Maybelle Church, and Miss Katherine Blitney, one of the new fifth school teachers responded. A vocal solo, by Mrs. Charles Brand delighted the assemblage. Several songs were sung by those present, and each new teacher was introduced by name, and the list of schools in which each had taught was given.

Miss Geddes Honored at Line Party

Complimenting Miss Lois Geddes, a popular bride-elect, Miss Elsie Bergh and Mrs. Phil. Strader arranged a line party Tuesday evening. The invited guests gathered at the Palace of Sweet and from there went to the Antlers theatre. Following the show the guests went to the home of Miss Elsie Bergh, where the rooms were attractively arranged with zinnias and asters, effectively carrying out a red and white color scheme. The evening was spent in chatting and Miss Faye Geddes and Miss Doris Price delighted the guests with two vocal solos. Miss Geddes received many beautiful additions to her bridal chest. Later a buffet luncheon was served.

Rebekahs Have Enjoyable Evening

Following the regular business session of the Rebekah Lodge on Tuesday evening an enjoyable musical program was presented. The program included a piano duet by Lois Ann Whipple and Lois Hatfield; dance by Dorothy McDonald, accompanied by Velma McDonald; a vocal solo by Mrs. Mary Meyer, with piano accompaniment by Veretta Kohlhagen; a paper by Mrs. S. M. Kelly, in which she gave an outline of the Portland convention; and two vocal solos by Grace Wichham, accompanied by Veretta Kohlhagen.

Mrs. West Hostess at Bridge

Mrs. Herbert West charmingly entertained at bridge Monday evening, inviting a few intimate friends to her apartments.

Mrs. Fullerton and Mrs. Ziegler Entertain Today

Mrs. N. Fullerton and Mrs. E. C. Ziegler entertained at the second of a series of fall bridge parties this afternoon, at the home of the former.

Mrs. West Hostess at Bridge

Mrs. Herbert West charmingly entertained at bridge Monday evening, inviting a few intimate friends to her apartments.

Mrs. Allen Entertains With a Shower

A very pleasant social affair occurred last Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Claud D. Allen, when eleven young ladies responded to invitations issued by the hostess, the occasion being a linen shower in honor of Mrs. Ruth Slater Thompson.

The home was beautifully decorated with snap dragons, asters and ferns, pink and white predominating in the color scheme. The afternoon was most enjoyably spent in games, social conversation and music.

Later a dainty luncheon was served by the hostess, Mrs. French, Sr., assisting. Covers were placed for Mrs. Ruth Slater Thompson, Mrs. Blanche Applegate, the Mesdames Helen Marr Grison, Alta Goff, Eva Vogelpohl, Gertrude Davis, Lois Reed, Ella Mohr, Eileen Norton, Marlene Ladd, and Mildred French Mrs. Allen and Mrs. French.

Mrs. Thompson received many beautiful and useful gifts.—Sutherland Sun.

Neighbors Club Meets This Week

Mrs. R. Lawson and Mrs. L. Dick, of Camas Valley, jointly entertained the Neighborhood club at the home of the former this week. Following a short business meeting the afternoon was spent in games and conversation.

Later the hostesses served a luncheon to Mesdames Scanton, E. Brown, L. Richter, B. Parrott, H. Church, A. Smith, N. Hollinbeck, W. Brown, and Miss Alice Scanton.

Melrose Grange Has Social

The Melrose Grange, of Douglas county, initiated nine candidates in the first and second degrees at the first meeting of September. The second meeting of the month was a social one, and the younger members of the grange had charge of the program.

Miss Fern Busenbark was appointed head of the lecture program, and a singing contest was given consisting of an instrumental solo, by Miss Grace Conn; song by quartet number four; first part of a play, presented in pantomime; song by quartet number two; second act of play; and two numbers by quartets number three and five. Following this a chorus of young people sang, and a prize was presented the quartet judged winner in the singing contest. Following the program, partners for supper were chosen by matching the names of prominent characters of the past and present, written on slips of paper.

Roseburg Boys Try for O. A. C. Band

OREGON AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE, Corvallis, Oct. 3.—Chifford Fields, junior in commerce, William Burr, sophomore in commerce, and a member of Alpha Sigma Phi fraternity, and Chester Morgan, senior in commerce and a member of the same fraternity, all of Roseburg were a few of its veterans to report for band practice. Fifty-two new men have tried out for the band. "This is the first time in my many years of directing the college band that I have had such a number of good musicians at the same time," said Captain H. L. Beard, director of the cadet band.

Miss Martin Honored at Shower

Miss Lola Martin, a charming bride-elect, of South Deer Creek, whose engagement to Mr. Gene Mathis has been announced, was the honor guest at the miscellaneous shower Wednesday afternoon at the J. A. Pinkerton home, for which Mrs. Pinkerton was hostess. The rooms were brightened by bowls and baskets of fern and asters, sewing and conversation were enjoyed and refreshments were served by the ladies and all enjoyed a social hour visiting before departing for their homes.

Reception Given for Sutherland Teachers

The reception tendered the public school teachers by the ladies of the Presbyterian, Methodist and Episcopal churches at Community Hall last Friday evening, was attended by over two hundred citizens of Sutherland and vicinity and proved one of the most enjoyable social affairs of the season.

Reception Given for Sutherland Teachers

The program arranged for the occasion consisted of piano and vocal selections. All were heartily enjoyed, and Mr. Gray and Mrs. Stella French both responded in a most pleasing manner. Following the program light refreshments were served by the ladies and all enjoyed a social hour visiting before departing for their homes.

Mrs. Fullerton and Mrs. Ziegler Entertain Today

Mrs. N. Fullerton and Mrs. E. C. Ziegler entertained at the second of a series of fall bridge parties this afternoon, at the home of the former.

Mrs. West Hostess at Bridge

Mrs. Herbert West charmingly entertained at bridge Monday evening, inviting a few intimate friends to her apartments.

Couple Celebrate Golden Wedding Anniversary

Rev. and Mrs. R. E. Mathis were pleasantly surprised at their spacious home on South Deer Creek, by a number of friends and neighbors, Wednesday evening, the occasion being their golden wedding anniversary.

According to a plan arranged by the party, they gathered near the Mathis home, on the roadside, and then drove their cars, with lights on in front of the house, giving Mr. and Mrs. Mathis an auto-horn and tin-pan serenade. This brought the couple to the door, and the assemblage was invited to the house. Following congratulations, a march was played and Mr. and Mrs. Mathis attended by Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Krogel, advanced to the living room, where the marriage ceremony was performed. Following the ceremony Mrs. Horford sang "Love, Betty Kruey," and the bride and groom gave short discourses telling of their marriage fifty years earlier in Vienna, Ill. Mr. and Mrs. Mathis received a number of beautiful gifts, and later luncheon was served.

Present at the affair were Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Mathis, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Krogel, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. McLaughlin, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Page, Mr. and Mrs. Gus Lindbloom, Mr. and Mrs. Kroger, Mrs. Sarah Hunter, Mrs. George Bonebrake, Mrs. Morris Weber and son, Mrs. Mary Bonebrake, Mrs. W. A. Winters, Mrs. G. T. Horford, Mrs. Ruth Hatfield, Mrs. J. Gilham, Mrs. Roland Breedlove, Mrs. L. C. Smith, Misses Alleen McLaughlin, Lois Horford, Lola Martin, Jean Kroger, Betty Kruey, Mary Ellen Breedlove, Merris Albert Krogel, Laven Kroger, Howard Hatfield, Waldon Hatfield, Roy Hatfield, Jr., E. M. Mathis and W. H. Brown.

L. F. T. Dance Event of Next Week

The L. F. T. Dancing Club, which has been so popular during the past number of winter seasons, is making plans for the opening dance, which will be held at the K. P. Hall, Tuesday evening of next week.

Committees have been appointed and decorations in autumn designs will make the hall an effective setting for the fall dance. The favor dances, which have been popular, will be featured again this year, and supper will follow the dance.

Woman's Club to Have Opening Meeting Tuesday

The opening meeting of the fall of the Roseburg Woman's Club will be held Tuesday afternoon, October 6, at the Moose Hall, on the corner of Jackson and Washington streets. The meeting will be opened at two o'clock by Mrs. J. C. Ponsler, president.

An interesting program has been planned and an outline of the year's work will be made by the president. A presentation of the year books will be made by Mrs. Wm. Bell, chairman of the book committee. A musical program will be presented by a number from the Heinline Conservatory of Music and Art.

Luncheon will be served by Mrs. Warren Durt, assisted by Mrs. W. W. Ashcraft, Mrs. C. H. Bailey, Mrs. W. H. Brown, Mrs. Paul Bubar, Mrs. Dean Bubar, Mrs. W. C. Belt, Mrs. T. E. Singleton, and Dr. Lucetta Smith.

Officers for this year are president, Mrs. J. C. Ponsler; vice-president, Mrs. H. D. Harris; second vice-president, Mrs. H. D. Morgan; secretary, Mrs. C. B. Neal; treasurer, Mrs. F. H. Dunlap. This year's directors are Mrs. Wm. Bell, Mrs. Foster Butner, Mrs. Washington Hughes, Mrs. George Bradburn, and Mrs. J. E. Enger.

Engers Entertain at Dinner

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Enger informally entertained at dinner at their home at 215 South Main street, Thursday evening. Dinner was served at 6 o'clock at a table with a bright centerpiece of roses and daisies, which effectively carried out a pink and white color motif.

Covers were placed for Miss Gladys Enger, Mr. M. M. Miller, Mr. Stator Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Bell and Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Enger. Later the guests spent the evening in conversation.

Delegates Return From Portland

Mrs. C. O. Hosmer and Mrs. O. O. Jennings have returned from Portland, where they attended the 25th anniversary banquet of the Ladies Auxiliary of the Locomotive Engineers. The Roseburg lodge members were invited to the banquet and meeting, but only the two representatives attended. On the day of the meeting the representatives were taken for a drive on the Columbia highway, and a card party was arranged for the visitors in the afternoon. The banquet was given in the evening and a large delegation was present.

Camp Fire Girls Have Meeting

The members of the Umpqua Camp Fire Girls held their meeting at the home of Mrs. H. N. Graybill Tuesday evening. Following a report of old business, a report of the proceeds taken in from the benefit dance held last week was made, and it was found that there will be about fifty dollars to go in the treasury to buy ceremonial robes.

Artisans Have Dance Thursday

The Umpqua Assembly of United Artisans sponsored a most enjoyable dance Thursday evening, at the Maccabee hall. Decorations in red and white gave the hall an attractive appearance, and dancing continued from nine to twelve o'clock. A four piece orchestra furnished music for the evening to about seventy-five people.

Friends Surprise Mr. and Mrs. Crites

Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Crites, of Melrose, were surprised at their home Sunday of last week, when a number of friends gathered there, honoring Mrs. Crites on her birthday, and tendering a farewell to the couple, who have sold their property, and are soon moving to Seattle to make their home.

Line Party for Miss McComas

As a farewell to Miss Lela McComas, who left Wednesday for Eugene, where she has been transferred to the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph office as operator, a number of friends arranged a line party Monday evening. Following the show at the Antlers theatre, the girls went to the Terminal dining room, where a dinner was served.

Work of Miss Aikins Appears in Oregonian

Appearing in the magazine section of last Sunday's edition of the Oregonian, was a full page painting by Miss Ruth Aikins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Aikens of this city.

Miss Aikins, who is quite an accomplished young lady, and talented artist, took for her subject Miss Opal McLean of Riddle, the setting being the Aikens peach orchards near Riddle. Miss Aikins studied in the art and crafts school, in San Francisco for three years, and also spent three years in New York City, where she studied, and worked for a prominent publishing company. Her talent has brought her many important offers, and since her return from the east, she has been free-lancing in Portland, doing work for many prominent advertising firms. Miss Aikins at one time taught art in the public schools of Roseburg.

P. T. A. Has Meeting Tuesday

The High School P. T. A. held its regular meeting Tuesday evening at the high school. The program was featured by a short address by Miss Daphne Hughes, a high school student, who gave a discourse on the standpoint of the students. Mrs. Haley gave a vocal solo, and Dr. E. A. C. Seely gave a very interesting and instructive address on "Business of Life."

Artisans Have Dance Thursday

The Umpqua Assembly of United Artisans sponsored a most enjoyable dance Thursday evening, at the Maccabee hall. Decorations in red and white gave the hall an attractive appearance, and dancing continued from nine to twelve o'clock. A four piece orchestra furnished music for the evening to about seventy-five people.

Friends Surprise Mr. and Mrs. Crites

Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Crites, of Melrose, were surprised at their home Sunday of last week, when a number of friends gathered there, honoring Mrs. Crites on her birthday, and tendering a farewell to the couple, who have sold their property, and are soon moving to Seattle to make their home.

Line Party for Miss McComas

As a farewell to Miss Lela McComas, who left Wednesday for Eugene, where she has been transferred to the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph office as operator, a number of friends arranged a line party Monday evening. Following the show at the Antlers theatre, the girls went to the Terminal dining room, where a dinner was served.

Work of Miss Aikins Appears in Oregonian

Appearing in the magazine section of last Sunday's edition of the Oregonian, was a full page painting by Miss Ruth Aikins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Aikens of this city.

P. T. A. Has Meeting Tuesday

The High School P. T. A. held its regular meeting Tuesday evening at the high school. The program was featured by a short address by Miss Daphne Hughes, a high school student, who gave a discourse on the standpoint of the students. Mrs. Haley gave a vocal solo, and Dr. E. A. C. Seely gave a very interesting and instructive address on "Business of Life."

Artisans Have Dance Thursday

The Umpqua Assembly of United Artisans sponsored a most enjoyable dance Thursday evening, at the Maccabee hall. Decorations in red and white gave the hall an attractive appearance, and dancing continued from nine to twelve o'clock. A four piece orchestra furnished music for the evening to about seventy-five people.

Friends Surprise Mr. and Mrs. Crites

Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Crites, of Melrose, were surprised at their home Sunday of last week, when a number of friends gathered there, honoring Mrs. Crites on her birthday, and tendering a farewell to the couple, who have sold their property, and are soon moving to Seattle to make their home.

Line Party for Miss McComas

As a farewell to Miss Lela McComas, who left Wednesday for Eugene, where she has been transferred to the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph office as operator, a number of friends arranged a line party Monday evening. Following the show at the Antlers theatre, the girls went to the Terminal dining room, where a dinner was served.

Work of Miss Aikins Appears in Oregonian

Appearing in the magazine section of last Sunday's edition of the Oregonian, was a full page painting by Miss Ruth Aikins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Aikens of this city.

P. T. A. Has Meeting Tuesday

The High School P. T. A. held its regular meeting Tuesday evening at the high school. The program was featured by a short address by Miss Daphne Hughes, a high school student, who gave a discourse on the standpoint of the students. Mrs. Haley gave a vocal solo, and Dr. E. A. C. Seely gave a very interesting and instructive address on "Business of Life."

Artisans Have Dance Thursday

The Umpqua Assembly of United Artisans sponsored a most enjoyable dance Thursday evening, at the Maccabee hall. Decorations in red and white gave the hall an attractive appearance, and dancing continued from nine to twelve o'clock. A four piece orchestra furnished music for the evening to about seventy-five people.

Engers Entertain at Dinner

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Enger informally entertained at dinner at their home at 215 South Main street, Thursday evening. Dinner was served at 6 o'clock at a table with a bright centerpiece of roses and daisies, which effectively carried out a pink and white color motif.

Covers were placed for Miss Gladys Enger, Mr. M. M. Miller, Mr. Stator Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Bell and Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Enger. Later the guests spent the evening in conversation.

Delegates Return From Portland

Mrs. C. O. Hosmer and Mrs. O. O. Jennings have returned from Portland, where they attended the 25th anniversary banquet of the Ladies Auxiliary of the Locomotive Engineers. The Roseburg lodge members were invited to the banquet and meeting, but only the two representatives attended. On the day of the meeting the representatives were taken for a drive on the Columbia highway, and a card party was arranged for the visitors in the afternoon. The banquet was given in the evening and a large delegation was present.

Camp Fire Girls Have Meeting

The members of the Umpqua Camp Fire Girls held their meeting at the home of Mrs. H. N. Graybill Tuesday evening. Following a report of old business, a report of the proceeds taken in from the benefit dance held last week was made, and it was found that there will be about fifty dollars to go in the treasury to buy ceremonial robes.

Artisans Have Dance Thursday

The Umpqua Assembly of United Artisans sponsored a most enjoyable dance Thursday evening, at the Maccabee hall. Decorations in red and white gave the hall an attractive appearance, and dancing continued from nine to twelve o'clock. A four piece orchestra furnished music for the evening to about seventy-five people.

Friends Surprise Mr. and Mrs. Crites

Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Crites, of Melrose, were surprised at their home Sunday of last week, when a number of friends gathered there, honoring Mrs. Crites on her birthday, and tendering a farewell to the couple, who have sold their property, and are soon moving to Seattle to make their home.

Line Party for Miss McComas

As a farewell to Miss Lela McComas, who left Wednesday for Eugene, where she has been transferred to the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph office as operator, a number of friends arranged a line party Monday evening. Following the show at the Antlers theatre, the girls went to the Terminal dining room, where a dinner was served.

Work of Miss Aikins Appears in Oregonian

Appearing in the magazine section of last Sunday's edition of the Oregonian, was a full page painting by Miss Ruth Aikins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Aikens of this city.

P. T. A. Has Meeting Tuesday

The High School P. T. A. held its regular meeting Tuesday evening at the high school. The program was featured by a short address by Miss Daphne Hughes, a high school student, who gave a discourse on the standpoint of the students. Mrs. Haley gave a vocal solo, and Dr. E. A. C. Seely gave a very interesting and instructive address on "Business of Life."

Artisans Have Dance Thursday

The Umpqua Assembly of United Artisans sponsored a most enjoyable dance Thursday evening, at the Maccabee hall. Decorations in red and white gave the hall an attractive appearance, and dancing continued from nine to twelve o'clock. A four piece orchestra furnished music for the evening to about seventy-five people.

Friends Surprise Mr. and Mrs. Crites

Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Crites, of Melrose, were surprised at their home Sunday of last week, when a number of friends gathered there, honoring Mrs. Crites on her birthday, and tendering a farewell to the couple, who have sold their property, and are soon moving to Seattle to make their home.

Line Party for Miss McComas

As a farewell to Miss Lela McComas, who left Wednesday for Eugene, where she has been transferred to the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph office as operator, a number of friends arranged a line party Monday evening. Following the show at the Antlers theatre, the girls went to the Terminal dining room, where a dinner was served.

Work of Miss Aikins Appears in Oregonian

Appearing in the magazine section of last Sunday's edition of the Oregonian, was a full page painting by Miss Ruth Aikins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Aikens of this city.

P. T. A. Has Meeting Tuesday

The High School P. T. A. held its regular meeting Tuesday evening at the high school. The program was featured by a short address by Miss Daphne Hughes, a high school student, who gave a discourse on the standpoint of the students. Mrs. Haley gave a vocal solo, and Dr. E. A. C. Seely gave a very interesting and instructive address on "Business of Life."

Work of Miss Aikins Appears in Oregonian

Appearing in the magazine section of last Sunday's edition of the Oregonian, was a full page painting by Miss Ruth Aikins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Aikens of this city.

Miss Aikins, who is quite an accomplished young lady, and talented artist, took for her subject Miss Opal McLean of Riddle, the setting being the Aikens peach orchards near Riddle. Miss Aikins studied in the art and crafts school, in San Francisco for three years, and also spent three years in New York City, where she studied, and worked for a prominent publishing company. Her talent has brought her many important offers, and since her return from the east, she has been free-lancing in Portland, doing work for many prominent advertising firms. Miss Aikins at one time taught art in the public schools of Roseburg.

P. T. A. Has Meeting Tuesday

The High School P. T. A. held its regular meeting Tuesday evening at the high school. The program was featured by a short address by Miss Daphne Hughes, a high school student, who gave a discourse on the standpoint of the students. Mrs. Haley gave a vocal solo, and Dr. E. A. C. Seely gave a very interesting and instructive address on "Business of Life."

Artisans Have Dance Thursday

The Umpqua Assembly of United Artisans sponsored a most enjoyable dance Thursday evening, at the Maccabee hall. Decorations in red and white gave the hall an attractive appearance, and dancing continued from nine to twelve o'clock. A four piece orchestra furnished music for the evening to about seventy-five people.

Friends Surprise Mr. and Mrs. Crites

Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Crites, of Melrose, were surprised at their home Sunday of last week, when a number of friends gathered there, honoring Mrs. Crites on her birthday, and tendering a farewell to the couple, who have sold their property, and are soon moving to Seattle to make their home.

Line Party for Miss McComas

As a farewell to Miss Lela McComas, who left Wednesday for Eugene, where she has been transferred to the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph office as operator, a number of friends arranged a line party Monday evening. Following the show at the Antlers theatre, the girls went to the Terminal dining room, where a dinner was served.

Work of Miss Aikins Appears in Oregonian

Appearing in the magazine section of last Sunday's edition of the Oregonian, was a full page painting by Miss Ruth Aikins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Aikens of this city.

P. T. A. Has Meeting Tuesday

The High School P. T. A. held its regular meeting Tuesday evening at the high school. The program was featured by a short address by Miss Daphne Hughes, a high school student, who gave a discourse on the standpoint of the students. Mrs. Haley gave a vocal solo, and Dr. E. A. C. Seely gave a very interesting and instructive address on "Business of Life."

Artisans Have Dance Thursday

The Umpqua Assembly of United Artisans sponsored a most enjoyable dance Thursday evening, at the Maccabee hall. Decorations in red and white gave the hall an attractive appearance, and dancing continued from nine to twelve o'clock. A four piece orchestra furnished music for the evening to about seventy-five people.

Friends Surprise Mr. and Mrs. Crites

Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Crites, of Melrose, were surprised at their home Sunday of last week, when a number of friends gathered there, honoring Mrs. Crites on her birthday, and tendering a farewell to the couple, who have sold their property, and are soon moving to Seattle to make their home.

Line Party for Miss McComas

As a farewell to Miss Lela McComas, who left Wednesday for Eugene, where she has been transferred to the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph office as operator, a number of friends arranged a line party Monday evening. Following the show at the Antlers theatre, the girls went to the Terminal dining room, where a dinner was served.

Work of Miss Aikins Appears in Oregonian

Appearing in the magazine section of last Sunday's edition of the Oregonian, was a full page painting by Miss Ruth Aikins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Aikens of this city.

P. T. A. Has Meeting Tuesday

The High School P. T. A. held its regular meeting Tuesday evening at the high school. The program was featured by a short address by Miss Daphne Hughes, a high school student, who gave a discourse on the standpoint of the students. Mrs. Haley gave a vocal solo, and Dr. E. A. C. Seely gave a very interesting and instructive address on "Business of Life."

Artisans Have Dance Thursday

The Umpqua Assembly of United Artisans sponsored a most enjoyable dance Thursday evening, at the Maccabee hall. Decorations in red and white gave the hall an attractive appearance, and dancing continued from nine to twelve o'clock. A four piece orchestra furnished music for the evening to about seventy-five people.

Work of Miss Aikins Appears in Oregonian

Appearing in the magazine section of last Sunday's edition of the Oregonian, was a full page painting by Miss Ruth Aikins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Aikens of this city.

Miss Aikins, who is quite an accomplished young lady, and talented artist, took for her subject Miss Opal McLean of Riddle, the setting being the Aikens peach orchards near Riddle. Miss Aikins studied in the art and crafts school, in San Francisco for three years, and also spent three years in New York City, where she studied, and worked for a prominent publishing company. Her talent has brought her many important offers, and since her return from the east, she has been free-lancing in Portland, doing work for many prominent advertising firms. Miss Aikins at one time taught art in the public schools of Roseburg.

P. T. A. Has Meeting Tuesday

The High School P. T. A. held its regular meeting Tuesday evening at the high school. The program was featured by a short address by Miss Daphne Hughes, a high school student, who gave a discourse on the standpoint of the students. Mrs. Haley gave a vocal solo, and Dr. E.