MARKETS

PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 9.—Top grade eggs are a trifle easier in the local market today while current receipts are fractionally higher. On the exchange extras and firsts are posted a cent lower at 51 and 45 cents respectively. Fresh receipts are up to forty cents net. No change was shown in small eggs.

The 2 cent advance in butter announced late yesterday is effective today. Prints are moving out this morning at 55 cents with cartons at 56 cents. The buying price of fats and the f. o. b. price shipper's track remains at 52 cents.

Country dressed calves are weak and hard to move. Choice light veal sells for 16 cents. This is the extreme top and the bulk of calves arriving on the street sell from 15 1/2 cents down. Choice light hogs are firm at 18 cents due to the advances at the yards.

Live poultry prices are barely holding steady. Light springs are quoted at 28 cents and heavy springs at 25 cents. Heavy hens bring 25 cents with light hens down to 16 cents. Young White Pekin ducks range all the way from 23 to 25 cents.

Australia is par to five per cent above the level of a week ago, while the river Platte is very firm with quotations above the Boston parity on new wools for November-December shipments.
