

THE WOMAN'S PAGE

SOCIETY

By GRACE CARROLL

All contributions to this page, society, women's clubs, and personals, should be telephoned to the society editor by Friday of each week. Telephone No. 135.

Booth-Geddes Wedding Event of October 28

Of wide social interest is the coming marriage of Miss Lois Geddes to Mr. Harry Booth, which will occur at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Geddes, Wednesday afternoon, October 28, at 4:30 o'clock, and for which invitations were issued this week.

Miss Geddes is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Geddes, is a graduate of Roseburg high school, and attended the Willamette University, where she was a member of the Delta Theta Chi sorority. During one term she attended the Elliott-White conservatory of music.

Mr. Booth is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Booth, of Court street, and is a graduate of Roseburg high school. He was a student at the University of Oregon and a member of the Beta Theta Chi fraternity. He is a veteran of the world war and served in France several months with the 69th artillery. Since his return here he has been cashier in the Douglas National Bank.

Mary Margaret Gedney Hostess to Group

Mary Margaret Gedney was a charming little hostess this afternoon, when she entertained a group of friends at the R. E. Gedney home on South Main street, at luncheon and later a theatre party.

Halloween motifs were featured throughout the dining room, where 1 o'clock luncheon was served the guests at a large table with cloth of crepe paper in Halloween designs. The table was covered with an attractive bowl of fruit, about which were placed small Japanese lanterns with candles of bright colors. Favors of small baskets in colorful designs were used.

Covers were placed for Martha Herman, Phyllis Ann Bolter, Sabina Nerbas, Betty Dixon, Mildred Ziegler, Grace Bubar, Betty Sether, Eugene, Hyla Trefren, Dorothy Frear, Mae Hutchins, Betty Strong, Frances Metzger, Maxine Smith, Betty Mould, Dolphine James, Genevieve Moore, Marie Goux, Agnes Crawford, Mildred Caldwell, Mary Ellen Darby, Hazel Frances Baltimore, Patsy Turner, Eugenie Virdean, Louise Virdean, and Hobby Harris and the hostess.

Later the guests attended the theatre.

Mrs. Fred Richter of Sunshine Ranch, was a guest of Mrs. Clair K. Allen this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Page Honored on Wedding Anniversary

On Wednesday evening Miss Margaret A. Page arranged a dinner for Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Page, surprising and honoring them on their fifteenth wedding anniversary. The dinner was served at 6:30 o'clock in the Indian room of the Hotel Empqua, the table was bright with clusters of yellow flowers.

Covers were placed for Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Page, Mrs. L. C. Smith, Miss Margaret E. Page and Miss Margaret A. Page. Following dinner the party went to the Antlers and enjoyed the feature "The Iron Horse."

New Idea Club Luncheon Wednesday

The ladies of the New Idea Club of Edenbover, met with the president of the club, Mrs. F. D. Owen, at her home in West Roseburg for a one o'clock luncheon, Wednesday.

The afternoon was spent in conversation and needlework. This was the first meeting after the summer vacation and the work for the coming year was planned. It was decided to make rag rugs for the hospital for disabled soldiers at Portland and also to continue the quilt and layette making for the needy. The club has been doing this work for several years.

Those present were Mrs. F. L. Calkins, Mrs. R. H. Williams, Mrs. F. A. Clemens, Mrs. F. A. Gewart, Mrs. T. S. Sprague, Mrs. C. F. Calkins, Mrs. E. P. Balboa, Mrs. R. L. Gile, Mrs. H. A. Calkins, Mrs. C. E. Marks, Mrs. F. H. Appolthor, and added guests: Mrs. Fisher, Mrs. Lee Goodman, Mrs. Gorthy and Mrs. Roy McKinley.

Camp Fire Girls Have Election of Officers

The Umpqua Camp Fire Girls held an interesting business meeting at the home of their guardian, Mrs. H. N. Graybill, Tuesday evening, and held the 6 months' term election of officers. Officers for the next term will be president, Julia Knasey; vice-president, Ona Durck; secretary, Eva Wolford; treasurer, Cornelia Martin; scribe, Marjorie Cochran; song leader, Ruth Collins.

Plans for the ceremonial to be held soon were made by the girls, and at this time they discussed plans for their trip to Mt. Scott, to be conducted Saturday of next week. The girls will give a Halloween party this year, and committee was appointed to prepare for the affair.

Mr. and Mrs. Barker Honored at Bridge

At an attractive bridge party one evening of last week, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Burr complimented Mr. and Mrs. Reginald C. Barker, of Santa Ana, who returned to the south Saturday, at their home on 429 East First Avenue, North.

Mrs. Harry Burr won high honor and Mrs. Clyde Carstens received consolation prize. Following the game the hostess served luncheon to Mr. and Mrs. Reginald C. Barker, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Endicott, Mr. and Mrs. Bert G. Bates, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Carstens, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Knasey, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Burr, Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Larson, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Crafton, and Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Richards.

Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Allen of Jefferson, are guests at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Clair K. Allen for several days.

Miss Bitney Announces Engagement

OREGON AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE, Corvallis, Oct. 10.—Miss Kathleen Bitney, '25, of Corvallis, announced her engagement to Robert Thompson, '25, also of Corvallis, at the Sigma Kappa house, September 26. Miss Bitney, who is a member of Phi Kappa Phi and National Collegiate Players, is teaching English in the Roseburg high school. Mr. Thompson is a member of Alpha Tau Omega and Theta Alpha Psi, dramatic fraternity.

Burton Hutton Elected President of Fraternity

OREGON AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE, Oct. 10.—Burton S. Hutton, senior, in commerce, has been elected president of Sigma Delta Chi, national professional journalism fraternity. This organization fosters the high ideals of journalism among the men and is high ranking in the country.

Hutton is also president of the O. A. C. honor council, member of the Daily Barometer staff, and of the Sigma Phi Epsilon social fraternity. As well as these activities Hutton works half time on the Corvallis Gazette-Times, the daily newspaper of Corvallis.

Ladies Aid Meet Thursday Afternoon

The General Ladies' Aid of the M. E. Church met Thursday afternoon at the church parlors, and election of officers for the year was held. Receiving office this year were Mrs. W. A. Cummings, president; Mrs. Bubar, vice-president; Mrs. Bailey, secretary, and Mrs. A. N. O'Call, treasurer.

Reports from the north, central and south circles were given and reports of activities in the circles were made. Miss Chappell, state supervisor of home economics at O. A. C., presented in an interesting way plans for a school, in which dressmaking and millinery may be taught, and which may be established here soon.

A short program, sponsored by the north circle, was presented, and included a piano solo by Miss Francis Butler, a reading by Mrs. Canaday; two vocal solos, by Mrs. Covert, and a piano duet, by Lola Hatfield and Lois Ann Whipple.

Mrs. Marsters Hostess to Club

Mrs. Roscoe Marsters provided a pleasant afternoon for the Northside Sunshine Club, when she asked the members, and a few additional guests to her home on 1294 Prospect street, one day this week. The afternoon was spent in chatting and conversation, and at the ten hour the ladies gathered about pretty tables, with bright Halloween favors, and a two-course luncheon was served.

Hidden to the affair were Mesdames A. B. Houtzer, R. W. Marsters, Carrie Horney, George Marsters, E. P. Balboa, L. W. Ingles, C. R. Cavender, J. W. Deardorff, W. E. Marsters, J. M. Bartley, Roy Anderson, Stanley Baney, F. S. Register, Fred Bowen, B. F. Chilson, Robert Chilson, L. C. Goodman, R. E. Harness, and Wm. Fisher.

Ten Mile Community Club Entertained

Mrs. Lena Powell was a charming hostess Thursday afternoon to the members of the Ten Mile Community club, inviting them to her home in Ten Mile.

Following a short program, and the reading of the letter received from the superintendent of the Children's Home in Corvallis, thanking the club for its donation to the home, the afternoon was spent in conversation. Later the hostess, assisted by Eva Breitenweber and Vivian Howard, served luncheon to the guests.

Present at the affair were Mesdames M. Foster, V. Debbins, G. Barnes, A. Coats, L. Segot, A. Watson, A. Buehler, V. McDonald, L. Breitenweber, Misses Blanche Barnes, Audrey Porter, Eva Breitenweber and Vivian Howard.

Rose P. T. A. Outlines Work for New Year

The first meeting of the Rose Parent-Teachers Association for the new school year was held at the school building Monday night with a 100 per cent attendance of teachers and a fairly good number of patrons.

Mrs. W. R. Brown, president of the association presided, and reports of the last meeting, held in June, as well as the financial report, were given by Mrs. R. D. Williams, secretary. An especially instructive talk on the activities and organizations of girls, was given by Mrs. Maybelle Church, who is a fluent and interesting speaker, as well as being experienced in the subject which she presented.

A report of the local service shop was given by Mrs. F. H. Churchill.

Principal Gleaman told of the prizes to be given this year—one for the room having the largest percentage of parents attending the association meetings, and the other prize for the room having the largest number of parents attending.

The dues of the organization were raised, by motion, to thirty-five cents per member, which includes the monthly magazine, Mrs. Lillian Fulton was appointed press chairman.

Delegates to the state convention to be held in Portland this month, were elected as follows: Mrs. H. D. Harris, Mrs. A. Davis and Miss Elizabeth Parrott, with Mrs. Hardman, Mrs. A. W. Baum, and Mrs. Earl Piekens as alternates. Mrs. C. B. Neal presented a concise and interesting report of the institute held here in June, under the direction of Francis Hayes.

Plans are being formulated for an informal Halloween party for the Rose teachers, to be given Monday evening, October 12, at the Moose hall, and the committee named for this affair are Mesdames H. D. Harris, E. H. Huffman, Geo. Jones, R. D. Williams and W. H. Brown.

The Rose P. T. A. meets the first Monday evening in each month and all patrons of the school should make a special effort to attend all the meetings, thus manifesting an interest in the children and their school work.

Mrs. Bell Entertains Bible Class

Mrs. W. D. Bell entertained the members of the Bible class of the M. E. Church Saturday afternoon at the home of her daughter, Miss Minnie Bell. The rooms were bright with flowers arranged in baskets and bowls, and conversation formed the afternoon's diversion.

Later at a table centered with a bowl of fall blossoms luncheon was served to Mesdames C. E. Trueblood, Adam Hein, A. M. McMillan, F. F. Patterson, Edith Myers, S. R. Taylor, E. S. Brubaker, M. E. Alumniker, Elizabeth Porter and Mary Patterson.

Bellview Club Members Entertained This Week

Mrs. A. A. Murphy and M. P. W. Beckley were joint hostesses Thursday at the home of the former, inviting for the afternoon the members of the Bellview Club and a few guests. A number of business affairs were discussed, and the club made plans for a cooked food sale to be held Saturday, October 24.

The afternoon was spent in chatting and later the hostesses served a luncheon to Mesdames C. L. Beckley, R. L. McLaughlin, R. C. Lovelace, Y. Boyer, J. J. Keater, Z. W. Parker and J. D. Arthur.

On Tuesday evening Marjorie S. Allen was host to a few friends at a stag dinner at the Allen home on Blakely avenue. Dinner was served at 6 o'clock, and covers were placed for A. E. Kent, R. L. Devaney, W. R. Conlee, and M. S. Alben.

C. O. M. E. Class Entertained Tuesday

Miss Rose Conroy was hostess to the members of the C. O. M. E. Class at the E. J. Conroy home, in West Roseburg, Tuesday evening. Following a short business meeting a number of games afforded a diversion for the young people and a program of readings and musical numbers was presented. Included in the program was a reading by Elizabeth Abraham; a vocal solo by Thomas Conroy, with piano accompaniment by Doss Conroy; vocal trio, Vesta Beckley, Balogh Church and Thomas Gearty; piano accompaniment by Margaret Hewitt; piano solo, by Margaret Hewitt; duet by Mrs. Charles G. Stanton and Ralph Church.

Following the program the hostess, assisted by Miss Rhea Gates and Mrs. R. J. Conroy, served the guests luncheon.

Enjoying the affair were Mrs. Charles G. Stanton, Misses Taphie Hughes, Rhea Gates, Elizabeth Abraham, Lois Beckley, Margaret Hewitt, Margaret Snyder, Margaret Little, Rose Moroy, Trona Church, Elinor Tipping, Vesta Beckley, and Ray Hardman, Edgar Howard, Charles Webber, George Webber, Donald Stadaugh, Dorence McCurdy, Ralph Church, Charles Little, Le Nor Stanton, Thomas Conroy and Claud Gearty.

Mrs. E. S. Brubaker, of Portland, was a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Mewinger last week.

Major Work Taken Up at Woman's Club Meeting

The Roseburg Woman's Club held its first business meeting of the year Tuesday of this week at the Moose hall, with an attendance of about sixty members. The meeting was opened by the state song, led by Mrs. C. S. Heimlich, and followed by business matters of major importance were taken up. The work of main importance this year will be the building of the club house, for which the members have faithfully worked during the past year. An announcement was made of the amount put aside for the building of the club house, and matters pertaining to different methods of raising funds were discussed, a number of modes of entertainments being suggested.

The regular meetings of the club will be held the first and third Tuesdays of each month, from 2 to 4:30 o'clock in the afternoon.

At the date of the meeting, the club had been organized 51 years. The organization was effected and the first meeting were held at the Moose hall, the place of meeting this year.

The members made plans for the opening social affair of the season, held this afternoon at the Moose hall, inviting all girls and young women eligible for membership to the Junior Civic Club. At this time the business of incorporating the club was discussed and committees were appointed to make plans for incorporation, and to prepare plans for floating bonds, one means of raising money for the building of the club house. The club will in the future hold Forum luncheons for the chamber of commerce members, the place and date of the first luncheon to be decided later.

Following the business meeting Mrs. Charles Brand delighted the members with a vocal solo, and Mrs. J. S. Shoelkey gave a pleasing concert solo. The Girls' Orchestra gave a number of selections, Lucille Peterson, Grace Wallace; secretary, Ruth Metcalf; treasurer, Lorraine Reyer; and reporter, Virginia French. The girls made plans for the initiation of new members, which will be held at the next weekly meeting.

Miwaleta Camp Fire Girls Have Election of Officers

The Miwaleta Camp Fire Girls met at the home of the guardian, Mrs. Lucy Marsters, in West Roseburg, on Thursday evening, and held the annual election of officers.

Those receiving office for the year were president, Lucille Peterson; vice-president, Grace Wallace; secretary, Ruth Metcalf; treasurer, Lorraine Reyer; and reporter, Virginia French. The girls made plans for the initiation of new members, which will be held at the next weekly meeting.

Mrs. Allen Hostess Wednesday Afternoon

Mrs. Clair K. Allen entertained the members of her bridge club Wednesday afternoon at her home on Watson street.

An interesting one o'clock luncheon preceded bridge, and the table was bright with a centerpiece of autumn blossoms. Snapsragons and zinnias were used about the rooms where later bridge gave interest to the afternoon hours. Mrs. S. G. Sellick received high score. Bidden to the affair were Mesdames Fred Schwartz, Irvin Brunn, V. M. Peterson, S. G. Sellick, A. J. Hochradel, B. West. Additional guests were Mesdames Fred Richter, Maurice Allen and Ed Thornton.

Bridge Afternoon at Devaney Home

At the R. L. Devaney home Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Devaney and Mrs. Maurice Allen were joint hostesses Tuesday afternoon, inviting a number of friends to the second of a series of fall affairs.

Yellow marigolds carried out autumn colors throughout the room, and bridge formed the afternoon's diversion. Mrs. Ed Thornton received first prize and Mrs. Leon McClintock received second prize. The hostesses were assisted during the afternoon by Mesdames A. E. Kent, Harold Fee and A. S. McKenzie.

Later gathered about the luncheon table were Mesdames H. C. Waddell, H. F. Ogden, Chas. McElhinny, A. S. McKenzie, V. M. Peterson, Leon McClintock, Elmer Metzger, H. C. Church, A. C. Hume, C. A. Lockwood, Clair K. Allen, Ed Thornton, B. R. Shoemaker, Harold Fee, R. E. Gedney, W. R. Conlee, S. A. Sanford, R. Thaurber, Loren Miller, A. E. Kent, Irvin Brunn, R. F. Dunlap, W. G. Burt, S. N. Young, J. R. Farrington, Jack Wharton, R. C. Breaux, H. M. Pierson, W. H. Garrison, A. J. Hochradel, Geo. Houck, Albert Bashford, B. Casey, M. F. Rice, and Misses Eva Rice and Helen Casey.

Fullerton P. T. A. Meets Thursday

The Fullerton P. T. A. held its regular meeting Thursday evening. The regular order of business was followed, encouraging reports being given by the treasurer and membership committee, the latter reporting twenty-two new members.

Mr. Martin, who was appointed to secure new playground equipment, reported it all purchased and part of it in use. The committee reported a new fountain ordered also. A committee was appointed to arrange for the annual Halloween social October 30th.

A community sing was held as the first number of the program. Mr. Foster Bunting then gave a talk on P. T. A. "Why We Are, What We Are, Where We Are, Why We Are." The subject of "Safeguarding the Children" was discussed by Dr. Bell, county health physician, from the physical standpoint and by R. W. Marsters from the moral standpoint.

Two rooms, Miss Stephenson's and Miss Swinney's, tied for possession of the barometer, which is given each month to the room having the largest attendance of patrons at the P. T. A. meeting.

Mrs. L. A. Wells the president, Mrs. Minerva and Miss Swinney, were elected delegates to the state convention to be held in Portland October 27-30. The program was concluded by a piano solo by Miss Mildred Morris.

Clitie Meek Weds in New Orleans

Of interest to Roseburg folk is the announcement of the marriage of Miss Clitie Meek of Eugene, to Mr. Glynn Ledbetter, of Alexandria, Louisiana, Wednesday evening, September 23, in New Orleans.

The ceremony took place at 8 o'clock at the Baptist church in the presence of a few relatives and intimate friends. The bride was charming in an ensemble suit of golden brown, with hat to match and was unattended. Mrs. Ledbetter is a graduate of the University of Oregon, and following her graduation she spent two years in Roseburg, teaching mathematics in the high school. Since that time she has taught a year in Nome, Alaska, spent two years in Alexandria, Louisiana, and traveled abroad one summer. She is well known in this city and visited with friends in Roseburg a short time this summer.

Mr. Ledbetter as a graduate of the University of Louisiana and at the present time the head chemist of a large sugar plant in Cuba, after spending a short time in New Orleans Mr. and Mrs. Ledbetter will sail for Cuba, where Mr. Ledbetter will assume his duties at the sugar plant. Their home in the winter will be Central Mercedes, Matanzas Province, Cuba, and in the summer they will make their home in Alexandria.

Miss Geddes Honored at Affair Monday

The Kohlhagen home in West Roseburg was the scene of a pretty affair Monday evening, given by Miss Vernita Kohlhagen and Miss Josephine McElhinny, honoring Miss Lois Geddes, a bride-elect.

Autumn leaves and yellow flowers were artistically arranged about the rooms. The evening was spent sewing and making engagement books for the bride-elect. Miss Elsie Bergh received the prize for the clearest book.

Later the guests proceeded to the dining room where luncheon was served. The table was colorful with autumn shades and favors in the form of miniature umbrellas were at each plate.

Those present were Miss Lois Geddes, honoree; Misses Faye Geddes, Katherine Merrill, Elsie Bergh, Lois Cobb, Adele Bemis, Marion Porter, Jane Wharton, Bulah Jarvis, Vera Frederickson.

Mrs. Eddy Hostess to Missionary Society

Thursday afternoon Mrs. R. L. Eddy was a charming hostess to the Women's Missionary Society of the Presbyterian church. Following the Doxology, there was a short business meeting at which Miss Chapel, state supervisor of home economics, under the Smith-Hughes act, announced that Mrs. Fitzmaurice would be ready to enroll classes in dressmaking and millinery in the high school next Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Mrs. Fred Fisher, secretary of Mission study, announced that Mrs. George Houck will lead the Mission study class for adults. Mrs. W. M. Campbell for Christian Endeavors. The Christian Endeavor society will meet Sunday evening, and the adult class will meet Thursday afternoon. The society has of South America, the gift of Mrs. I. N. Park. Mrs. George Houck presented in a very interesting way the first lesson in "New Days in Latin America," by Dr. Webster E. Browning. During the devotional exercises, "Let the Lower Lights Be Burning" was sung by all. Mrs. Kirk read the story of the "Women of Samaria at the Well," which she said was the beginning of woman's help in foreign missions. For this was Christ's first appeal to a woman not a Jew.

Upright the social host refreshments were served by the hostess. Twenty-nine were present.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Patron of Albany, motored here yesterday and will be week end guests at the home of Mrs. J. H. Miller.

Mrs. Allen and Mrs. Devaney Entertain Monday

One of the attractive affairs of the week had Mrs. Maurice S. Allen and Mrs. R. L. Devaney as hostesses at the home of the latter, Monday when they invited a number of friends to the first of a series of bridge afternoons.

Yellow motif prevailed throughout the rooms and at the tables where bridge and sewing formed the afternoon's diversion. Receiving high score at bridge was Mrs. J. C. Ponsler, and Mrs. H. D. Harris received consolation prize.

Following the game pretty tables centered with bright marigolds, were placed and the hostesses, assisted by Mrs. W. R. Conlee and Mrs. H. F. Osborne, served luncheon to the guests.

Bidden to the affair were Mesdames M. F. Rice, L. B. Jiddle, J. D. Osborne, L. A. Dillard, J. C. Ponsler, H. G. Harris, W. S. Hamilton, W. F. Harris, Chas. Rusko, Paul Bubar, Dean Bubar, Wm. Bell, John Enger, J. I. Love, T. E. Singleton, A. E. Kent, A. G. Sutherland, B. Casey, H. F. Ogden, R. E. Gedney, Washington Hughes, Patterson, Freeman, Roy Hutchins, E. E. Applewhite, W. H. Davis, J. G. Koenig and W. R. Conlee.

Mrs. Stapleton Compliments Miss Geddes

Complimenting Miss Lois Geddes, an attractive bride-elect, Mrs. Harry Stapleton charmingly entertained at her home on Chadwick street Friday evening. In rooms where the popular autumn shades prevailed, the guests spent the evening sewing. Mrs. G. Osborne delighted the guests with a vocal solo.

Later the hostess, assisted by Mrs. A. Bashford and Mrs. F. W. Haynes, served luncheon at small tables, where bright flowers were used in centerpieces.

The guest list included Miss Lois Geddes, honoree, Misses Faye Geddes, Vera Frederickson, Elsie Bergh, Dorothy Orcutt, Florence Wimberly, Maxine Sykes, Katherine Merrill, Vernita Kohlhagen, Josephine McElhinny, Edna Dough, Mesdames A. J. Geddes, J. H. Booth, Phil Strader, Jack Crafton, G. Osborne, F. W. Haynes, Leon McClintock, Gerald Geddes, A. Bashford, Victor Miceill, Bert G. Bates, and Glenn Wimberly.

Annual Chrysanthemum Show Next Month

The annual chrysanthemum show will again be sponsored by the Benson P. T. A. at a near future date. Cash prizes will be offered this year for the best blossoms entered, and it is thought that by so doing a greater interest in the raising of these flowers will be aroused.

The sale will be held on Wednesday, November 11, and in connection with the show a cooked food sale will be held. The place for the show will be selected and announced later. Money received from the show will be used by the P. T. A. to improve the school grounds. Shrubs and trees have already been planted and many improvements have been made on the grounds, but a good sum is yet needed to finish the improvements.

Roseburg Girls Pledged to Sororities

OREGON AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE, Corvallis, Oct. 10.—Bertha Kohlhagen was pledged to Delta Delta Delta sorority and Helen Falbe to Sigma Kappa sorority Sunday afternoon. These girls are of Roseburg. There were 135 girls pledged to Greek letter sororities Tuesday afternoon as the result of a week of closed rushing.

Miss Schnellbacher Entertains Friends

Miss Mae Schnellbacher entertained a number of friends at the Schnellbacher home on 836 South Pine street Tuesday afternoon, the occasion being her 11th birthday anniversary.

Games and sports were diversions of the afternoon, and later the guests were served a luncheon. Bidden to the affair were Misses Mildred Thayer, Marion Thayer, Mildred Cromell, Mildred Koenig, Ethel Huffman, Eileen Hamilton, Ruth Newdrier, Margaret Ockelman, Ferno Spray, June Spray, Edna Brown, Margaret Berg and Frances Nelson.

L. F. T. Club Has First Dance of Season

The R. P. hall was the scene of a festive evening Tuesday, when the members of the L. F. T. Club held the first dance of the season.

The hall was decorated in brilliant crepe paper streamers, in autumn colors, and bright balloons clustered the ceiling. The balloons were separated, at one end of the hall the ladies gathered, and at the other end the men gathered, and each jumped for a balloon, finding attached to the end of the string on the balloon a number, thereby finding their partner with a corresponding number for the dance and for the supper to follow.

A germania was one feature of the evening. (Continued from page 3.)

It's "SANDY"! She'll Win Reader-Love Soon!

Sandy, 19, and filled with the joy of living. Her radiance will throb through the chapters of Elenore Meherin's story of that name which starts soon in this paper. What will happen to "Sandy"? Read and see.

WATCH FOR STARTING DATE IN NEWS-REVIEW

Girls • • The enchanted charm of your hair lies in proper shampooing. Use Soper Shampoo, regularly for beauty and attractiveness. AT ALL DRUGGISTS