GERMANY'S ENTRY INTO LEAGUE WILL EASE SETTLEMENT

(Associated Press Licensed Wire.)
LOCARNO, Switzerland, Oct. 12.— "It is the unity of Europe, which we are building at Locarno," said one of Europe's foreign ministers to The Associated Press today in commenting on the progress of the security conference. "You can take it for granted," he continued, "that the discussion of Germany entering the League of Nations is already settled, and as for the nature of the French guarantees for the integrity of Poland and Czechoslovakia, you can say there will be no difficulty as all sides are determined to reach an accord." The formula for the latter problem is yet to be found, but it will like the form of mutual guarantees operating under the League of Nations covenant, whose pertinent articles we will cite instead of brutally talking of direct guarantees.
The correspondent learns from other sources that the Rhine security pact contains no stipulation as to the length of its duration and that there is no present indication to seek revision of the penalty clauses of the league covenant as a result of a gentleman's agreement with Germany. The allied statesmen feel it will be impossible to secure the necessary unanimous approval of the league council for such a move.
"If, therefore, Germany officially approves the League of Nations arrangement with the allies, it is evident that she must, risk her chance of convincing the council after she has become a member, that she is impotent to contribute economic, financial or military help in any league move against a proclaimed aggressor nation."

Under the gentleman's agreement, Great Britain, France and Italy as permanent members of the league of the council, express their view that Germany can only be called upon in proportion to her means.

NEWSY BITS

ROME, Oct. 12.—Pope Pius yesterday received in private audience the Right Rev. Joseph F. McGrath, bishop of Baker City, Oregon.
CHICAGO, Oct. 13.—"Obesity cures are almost all shrewd schemes for fooling fat people and the trick lies in getting those who purchase them to eat less and to exercise more," Dr. Arthur J.
Cramp of the bureau of investigation of the American Medical Society informed the annual meeting of the American Dietetic Association here today.
LONDON, Oct. 13.—The "wink-ling ankles" of years ago are likely to be seen this season. Fashion experts say there will be no plain silk stockings for the society belle who wishes to be up to date. They will be adorned with silk embroidery and ribbon flowers, in the center of which will twinkle a small musk diamond. Other stockings will have embroidered silk comets, tipped with brilliants in a variety of designs.

RED CROSS CONFERENCE
BEING HELD AT BEND.
BEND, Ore., Oct. 13.—A regional conference for eastern and central Oregon chapters of the American Red Cross opened in Bend yesterday with representatives from The Dalles, Madras and Wheeler reporting the first day.
A. W. McMillan of San Francisco, special representative of the branch office, spoke on "Peace time activities of the Red Cross" at the opening meeting Monday.
Lon P. Corbett, recently field representative for Oregon, is in attendance at the meeting. Twelve Oregon chapters and one Washington chapter were invited to attend the Bend conference.
McMillan, Corbett and Miss Aleta Brownlee, executive secretary of the Portland social workers, who is here, will go to Eugene tomorrow to attend the Red Cross conference for Willamette valley chapters.

BORN IN A BARN, LITTLE CHURCH NOW IS A MODEL.
CHICAGO, Oct. 13.—Thirteen families met in a barn nearly 60 years ago and organized the parish of the Episcopal Church of Our Savior. Through fire, wars and hard times it survived. Today it is a modern, fully equipped and beautiful little house of worship for 500 communicants, pointed out by Diocesan officials as a model of church living. The weekly pledges have doubled, open offerings have tripled and special offerings amounting to $8,000 paid for the improvements.

NEW YORK, Oct. 13.—(A. P.)— The Boy Scouts of America will need at least 300 men to serve as executives and assistant executives in connection with the operation of the 606 first-class seasonal camps operating and the new councils to be organized.
To meet this need plans have been made for a series of intensive training courses in different parts of the country.
The first course will be held with the cooperation of Teachers College, Columbia University, and will open October 21. The course will be restricted to men with such educational attainments and general aptitudes as will reasonably assure their success in this particular field of educational work.
During the summer season approximately 300,000 boys had the benefit of camps conducted by the Boy Scouts of America.
Membership in the scout movement increased during the year by more than 100,000, and now totals 830,000 men and boys. The Lone Scout division has 91,532 members.
In the volunteer service of 160, 000 men, there are less than 1,000 men employed professionally. The aim has been to keep the Boy Scout movement as largely as possible on a volunteer basis, but when men are engaged in the work professionally it is desired to have them receive special training.

ALLEGED NEGLECT OF HOMES BY WOMEN IS CALLED "BOSH"

ATLANTIC CITY, Oct. 12.—(A. P.)— Charges against American women of "neglecting home and children" but a lot of bosh" by Ada Be-nie Swann, home service expert of the American Gas association, in an address today.
"The only new fashion I know of that has taken permanent hold on American women is to change the word 'housekeeping' to housework."

CHARRED BODY OF WOMAN INDICATES CRIME OF FANATIC

Armed Men Comb Louisa-anna Swamp for Slayer Whose Victim Is Not Yet Identified.
(Associated Press Licensed Wire.) WINNSBORO, La., Oct. 13.—The fastnesses of the Tensas swamp today held the secret of what may have been a modern auto-life with a young white woman as the victim, while armed men combed the recesses for a clue to explain the finding of the charred body on a pine log pyre.
Identification of the body, found Saturday night by a negro who feared to notify the parish authorities lest he be implicated, was practically impossible. It had been divested of clothing and was so badly burned that the coroner could not say whether it had been cremated before or after the woman's death.
Unmarked wearing apparel of good quality, found in a suitcase near the pyre, and a white gold ring on the finger of the corpse were the threads by which identification was hoped to be made. A sacket which apparently had contained gasoline indicated that every effort had been made to make cremation complete.

ACCIDENTS TAKE 2
LIVES AT FLORENCE
(Associated Press Licensed Wire.)
EUGENE, Ore., Oct. 13.—News of two fatal accidents at Florence Sunday was received here late yesterday.
Fred Haubert, of Cashman, was drowned in the Pacific ocean when the boat in which he was fishing capsized. His body has not been recovered.
Frank Ready, with other workmen, was raising a residence when the supports gave way and the building caught him and Oscar Huff. Ready was instantly killed, while Huff was badly bruised.
INJURIES RECEIVED AS RESULT OF AUTO ACCIDENT
A. Lopez, Mexican section hand, received a crushed chest and a few minor scalp wounds Saturday night as the result of an auto accident. Mr. Lopez was driving from Roseburg to his home at Greens-ville, taking the old road from town, when the lights of his car suddenly went out as he approached the highway at the point where the old road and the pavement meet.
The car tipped over into the side of the bank, the steering wheel crushing Mr. Lopez's chest. The top of the car was smashed, the windshield broken and the steering column bent down.

MADE A NEW WOMAN OF HER

That Is What Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Did for Mrs. Jenkins Middleport, Ohio.—"I am going through the Change of Life and I am making Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for the troubles that come at that time. I got so down I could hardly do my work and I keep a rooming house and have a family of eight to take care of. A friend told me about the Vegetable Compound and it has made a new woman of me. I keep it in the house all the time now and won't be without it. My weight got down to 90 pounds and now it is 132 1/2 pounds.
I give the Vegetable Compound the praise and hope that women will realize the good in it."—Mrs. MYRA JENKINS, 602 North Front Street, Middleport, Ohio.
Over 200,000 women have so far replied to this question, "Have you received benefit from taking Lydia E.
Pinkham's Vegetable Compound?" 98 out of every 100 of the replies say "Yes," and because the Vegetable Compound has been helping other women it should help you. For sale ing," the speaker said.

"God gave women a permanent characteristic of the womanly make-up, the ruling desire to be necessary to the happiness of those who make up her family, her husband and her children. It has never been changed, never will be, and is not found in men, because God did not fashion them so."

DWIGHT F. DAVIS WEEKS' SUCCESSOR AS WAR SECRETARY

Appointee Youngest Member of Cabinet—Active in Public Life, Tennis Trophy Donor.
(Associated Press Licensed Wire.)
WASHINGTON, Oct. 13.—Dwight F. Davis, of Missouri, today was appointed secretary of war.
He takes the place of John W.
Weeks of Massachusetts, whose retirement because of ill health, was formally announced at the White House.
The change is effective immediately.
An assistant secretary, Mr. Davis has been actual head of the war department since last spring when Mr. Weeks was sent to New England by his physicians for an operation and a long vacation.
In his letter of resignation, the retiring cabinet member said it had become apparent that he must greatly prolong this vacation if he is to completely regain his health.
President Coolidge replied that he accorded with great regret to the secretary's insistent request that he be permitted to lay down the official duties he assumed when the Harding administration came into office in 1921.
The new secretary, a lawyer and business man, is in his forty-seventh year and will be the youngest member of the cabinet. He has served in the national guard and reserve corps, has been an active official of various financial, educational, charitable and recreational organizations and is the donor of the Davis cup, the most celebrated tennis trophies.
In selecting him, President Coolidge followed the recommendation of the republican organization of Missouri and the advice of a powerful group of political associates who contended that the next cabinet place should be allotted to the west or middle west.
The change wipes out the representation of the president's home state, Massachusetts, in his official family and reduces to four out of 10 the number of cabinet members who have their homes east of the Mississippi river. It likewise presents the unusual picture of two unrelated men of the same family name holding concurrently the title of secretary. As Dwight W.
Davis, will sit near the head of the cabinet table, while as secretary of labor, James W. Davis, sits at its foot.
