It burns without odor, smoke or noise—no pumping up; is simple, clean, safe. Burns 94% air and 6% common kerosene (coal oil).

The inventor, V. M. Johnson, 161 North Union Ave., Portland, Ore., is offering to send a lamp on 10 days' FREE trial, or even to give one FREE to the first user in each locality who will help him introduce it. Write him today for full particulars. Also ask him to explain how you can get the agency, and without experience or money make $250 to $500 per month.

All GENERAL dealers are "Home Folks"!

To make GENERAL the most efficient fuel that a distinctive, modern refining process can produce, and then to market it to the public as economically as possible—that is an important feature of the policy of General Petroleum Corporation.

And so, GENERAL does not and will not compete with its authorized dealers. Every GENERAL dealer is an independent, self-operating business man, selected carefully for fitness to serve the public well and authorized to sell GENERAL products.

Consequently, all GENERAL Dealers are "home folks." Each is interested vitally in the welfare of his community; each is dependent on the success of his neighbors and the patronage of his neighbors for his own success. Each sells GENERAL because he wants to.

SEA SEARCHED FOR SUBMARINE CREW ONLY 20 MINUTES

(Associated Press Special Wire.)
 BOSTON, Oct. 16.—"I don't give a damn for the ship, but I am sorry for the boys," Captain John Diehl, commander of the City of Rome, said to Michael Lira, the first of the three S-51 survivors to be taken aboard the steamer, the latter testified today before the naval board of inquiry when questioned about his conversations with the Rome's officers.

Lira said that the crew of the City of Rome's "boat" almost swamped the craft when they picked him out of the water after the submarine sank. "The witness said that the life-raft's search for survivors lasted only 20 minutes."

Only three of the 36 members of the crew of the S-51 who were asleep when she was rammed by the City of Rome got out before she sank. Dewey G. Kile, a survivor, testified.

Kile, an engineman first class, said he was asleep when the steamer struck the submarine. He thought the submarine had grounded.

He said he climbed to the bridge through the conning tower hatch and was swept over the port side in 15 seconds. He was the last to leave the submarine, he said, and only two others preceded him.

He testified that he was partly clothed and that he remained swimming and floating for 45 minutes before a lifeboat from the City of Rome picked him up.

While he was in the water, he said, he saw no life preservers or searchlight playing from the steamer. The submarine's lights, he said, were burning when he left the battery room to mount to the bridge.

Two hours before, he testified, he was relieved from his engine room watch and went to the bridge to smoke a cigarette before turning in. At that time, he said, he noticed the submarine's stern light burning. He did not look at the lights forward.
