Today's Markets

PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 16. — (Markets Notes) — Fresh egg values continue their upward trend in all markets. On the local exchange all grades are up a cent for the day with fresh posted at 53 cents, firsts at 47 cents, pullets at 46 cents, and peewees at 31c. Current receipts continue steady at previous levels.

The fresh butter market continues to display a firm undertone although quotations on the dairy board are nebulous. Fat prices being paid now are so extreme that few of the creamerymen are making any money. Little effort is being made to get the price of prints up.

Front street commission houses are well supplied with poultry and the demand is none too keen. Prices are easier in all lines, but broilers and dressed turkeys.

Country meats still show a weak undertone, especially on the calves. Choice light veal sells at 15 cents with 15 1/2 cents the extreme top. Good calves have been bought as low as 14 cents during the past 24 hours. Hogs hold barely steady at 18 to 18 1/2 for the best.

PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 16. — Cattle receipts 50; calves 15; the market still demoralized.

Hogs—25 cents lower; receipts 165. Lightweight (160 to 200 pounds) common, medium, good and choice $13@13.25.

PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 16. — Eggs cent higher. Current receipts 40c; fresh medium 40 1/2@41c; fresh standard firsts 41 1/2@42c; fresh standard extras 47 1/2@47 1/4.

Butter firm. Extra cubes, city 53c; standards 51 1/2c; prime firsts 51 1/2c; firsts 47 1/2c; undergrades nominal; prints 55c; cartons 56c. Milk steady. Best churning cream 52c net shippers track in zone 1. Cream delivered Portland 50c; raw milk (4 per cent) $2.65 c. w. l. f. o. b. Portland.

Country easier. Heavy hens 25c; light 16c; springs 25@24c; 25@25c; young white ducks 23@25c; turkeys, dresser 25. @ 26c.

Onions steady, $1.50@1.60.

Potatoes, firm, now $1.75 @ $1.75.

Nuts—chestnuts cheaper; rest steady. Walnuts No. 1, 28@31c; Gilberts nominal; almonds 28@31c; Brazil nuts 24@25c; Oregon chestnuts 18c.

Cacaca bark quiet. Nominal at 6@7c; Oregon grape root nominal.

Hops steady. New crop, clusters 21@23c; fuggles 27c.

PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 16. — Wheat: hard white, B. B. B. $1.45; hard white, B. S. baart, $1.41; soft white $1.39; western white $1.38; hard winter, northern spring and western red $1.29.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 16. — (Federal State Market News Service)—Pears—Winter Nollis $3.50@3.75; No. 2, $2@2.50; few poor packs low as $2.75.

BOSTON, Oct. 16.—The Commercial Bulletin will say tomorrow:

"While the volume of business transacted in the wool market this past week, probably has been smaller than that done a week ago, there has been nevertheless a fair business and prices show a rising tendency, which has been heightened as the week advanced by the stronger tone in Australia and more especially in Bradford. It has seemed significant that England has been the leading buyer in Melbourne this week.

The manufacturers evidently in need of wool and there has been evidence to show that the mills are running very close to the wind, in a number of instances at least, on supplies.

"Some offerings of fall Texas wools are expected to be made late this month in San Angelo. Early samples indicate rather short wool.

"Mohair is firm. Texas is cleared, practically of the fall clip at big prices."

The Commercial Bulletin will also publish the following wool quotations tomorrow.

Scoured hair:

Oregon Eastern No. 1 staple $1.25@1.30; fine and f. m. combing $1.15@1.20; eastern clothing $1.05@1.10; valley No. 1, $1.08@1.10.

Mohair—Best combing 75c@80c; best carding 65c@70c.

This Man Intends to Keep It in the House

In May or June, 1913, I got four bottles which were worth many dollars to me. They enabled me to go to work again. I had lost 40 pounds, but these 4 bottles of Mavr's Wonderful Remedy for stomach trouble gained back all I had lost and I feel like a new man since. I shall keep it in the house all the time. It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. At all druggists.

CONVENTION OF COUNTY W. C. T. U. IS HELD TODAY

Morning Is Given Over Largely to Business of Union and Reports.

BANQUET AT NOON

Fine After Dinner Speeches Develop Interesting and Inspirational Ideas—Program Tonight.

The 30th annual convention of the W. C. T. U. of Douglas County started this morning with an exceptionally good attendance. Delegates from local unions all over the county were present and a great deal of interest was shown in the reports as presented.

Mrs. A. C. Marsters, county president opened the convention, the devotional services being led by Mrs. B. L. Eddy, the county evangelistic superintendent. Mrs. Ada Jolley, the state corresponding secretary was then introduced to the various officers and committee heads were then received, showing that the union has accomplished a great deal of constructive work during the past year. Owing to the lack of time the election of officers scheduled for 11:15 was postponed until 4 o'clock this afternoon.

One of the finest addresses of the morning was made by Dr. R. A. Moon, superintendent of the bible school of the Christian church. Dr. Moon traced the value of the bible school in the life of the nation and the benefit of religious training on national life.

The noon banquet was an enjoyable and well attended event. Dr. Albert Louis Banks presided and his humorous introduction of each speaker kept the crowd in constant good humor. L. E. Goodburn spoke on the subject of "Play the Game."

A. T. Lawrence made a short talk on "Keeping Fit," and E. A. Britton, Douglas County Scout Executive took the subject "Why the Scout is a Go-Getter."

A corps of school teachers who advocate and practice clean living and wholesome morals are the safeguard to the school. M. S. Hamm, city school superintendent, stated in a fine address. Carlos M. Page made an inspiring talk on "The Challenge of My Child."

Although the billtop has been reached in legislation, there still remains much work to do in agitation and education. Senator Eddy stated in a talk on the subject of legislation. "The Credit Side," was the topic of a short address by Hon. A. C. Marsters. The after-dinner program concluded with a short talk by Hon. J. W. Hamilton.

A good program was presented this afternoon and tonight there will be silver and gold medal reading contests interspersed with a number of excellent musical and literary selections. Mrs. Edith Ackert will have charge of the evening program. The meeting to night is open to the general public.

Other complaints declared that children were frequently worked long hours overtime on the lots without added compensation.

FILIPINO COURT TO DECIDE STATUS OF POKER AS GAME.

MANILA, Oct. 15. — Meeting with adverse results in the courts in the prosecution of persons arrested on charges of playing poker, the constabulary authorities have concluded that further raids on these games would be useless expenditure of time and money until the question of whether poker is a game of skill or chance is decided by the Supreme Court.

The courts of first instance have held that poker is a game of skill, while the attorney-general has rendered an opinion that it is a game of chance and as such is punishable under the laws.

Brigadier-General Rafael Crame, chief of the constabulary, calling the attention of the secretary to the subject says:

"Since the attorney-general in his opinion of several years ago held that poker was a game of chance and punishable, instructions were given the constabulary to apprehend and prosecute all persons engaged in playing poker and these instructions are still in vogue. However, since judges have taken upon themselves to acquit persons engaged in poker playing, there seems to be no further need of the constabulary spending time and money in raiding these games. If the men caught will be acquitted."

Steps have been taken to bring a case before the Supreme Court in order that a final decision on the subject may be obtained.

OXFORD COLLEGES CRUMBLE BUT ALWAYS GET NEW FACE

OXFORD, October 14.—Oxford colleges are crumbling away, but they have never done anything else. Nearly all Oxford is built of a soft local stone which crumbles easily into rich and fanciful shapes but begins to flake and rot away after the first decade. After a century or so it is necessary to dress down the whole outer surface of the buildings and lay on an outer surfacing of new slabs.

Some of the larger colleges are never without builders' scaffolding. One Oxford firm has been occupied for eighty years in mending the stonework of a single college.

The great expense of rebuilding led to the destruction of all college ivy. Before it was stripped from the walls this hardy climber had done an immense amount of damage, often destroying the stone to a depth of several inches below the surface. After the ivy is removed its work still remains and there is grave danger of falling stones until the wall is resurfaced.

FEDERAL REPORT SHOWS FINANCIAL SHAPE OF OREGON

(Associated Press Leased Wire.)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 15.—The department of commerce has announced a summary of the financial statistics of the state of Oregon for the fiscal year ending September 30, 1924.

The payments for maintenance and operation of the general departments of Oregon for the fiscal year ending September 30, 1924, amounted to $9,198,381, or $11.06 per capita. This includes $430,496, apportionments for education to the minor civil divisions of the state. In 1923 the comparative per capita for maintenance and operation of general departments was $12.04, and in 1917, $5.90. The expenses of public service enterprises amounted to $11,936; interest on debt $2,675,800 and outlays for permanent improvements $7,631,590. The total payments therefore, for expenses of general departments and public service enterprises interest, and outlays were $19,517,707.

Of the governmental costs, reported above, $8,472,104 was for highways, $1,536,640 being for maintenance and $6,935,464 for construction.

The total revenue receipts of Oregon for 1924 were $20,511,159, or $24.30 per capita. This was $8,325,935 more than the total payments of the year, exclusive of the payments for permanent improvements, and $693,445 less than the total payments including those for permanent improvements. Property and special taxes represented 38.4 per cent of the total revenue for 1924, 45.3 per cent for 1923, and 64.7 per cent for 1917. The increase in the amount of property and special taxes collected was 17.8 per cent from 1917 to 1923, but there was a decrease of 2.1 per cent from 1923 to 1924. The per capita property and special taxes were $9.33 in 1924, $9.65 in 1923, and $3.79 in 1917.

The net indebtedness (funded debt less sinking fund assets) of Oregon on September 30, 1924, was $41,552,377, or $49.94 per capita. In 1923 the per capita debt was $49.82, and in 1917, $0.68.

For 1924 the assessed valuation of property in Oregon subject to ad valorem taxation was $1,042,410,619; the amount of states taxes levied was $7,460,170; and the per capita levy $9.97.

SEEK NEW NAME AND USE OF "BLUE STAIN" LUMBER

WASHINGTON, Oct. 14.—The name "blue stain" as applied to certain discolorations on lumber is a ten million dollar hoodoo, says the National Lumber Manufacturers' association, which has begun a campaign to popularize use of such lumber and find a new name for the stain which will remove the curse from it.

"Blue stain" is regarded as a blemish in lumber grading, but association officials declare they have been assured by the forest service that it does not detract from the usefulness of the lumber for many purposes.

Chemical dips have been tried in an effort to remove "blue stain," but have been found impracticable.

A committee reported that the present unpopularity of the stain was resulting in a loss of $10,000,000 annually to lumber producers, and that the best means of improving the situation lay in the discovery of a less obnoxious name that would convert the blueness into an asset.

INDIANS FROWN ON "BOB" SPOKANE, WASH., OCT. 15.—If bobbed-haired entrants are to be considered in the Indian girls' beauty pageant to be held here in connection with the council of northwest Indians October 30 and 31, the Yakima tribe will refuse absolutely to compete, they informed the committee in charge of the affair today.

Francis A. Garrecht, formerly United States district attorney here and now counsel for the Yakimas, visited the reservation yesterday to interest the tribesmen in the Indian council, and incidentally suggested a pretty daughter of the tribe as a "princess" candidate. He was greeted with scornful disapproval. The girl had bobbed hair. The ultimatum followed.

KING FOOTBALL REIGNS IN NORTHWEST TOMORROW

(Associated Press Leased Wire.)

SEATTLE, Wash., Oct. 16.—Eighty-eight football warriors, plus as many reserves, made their last preparations today for four battles in the northwest conference tomorrow.

The classic of the Northwest brings together the University of Idaho and Washington State colleges on the Cougars gridiron at Pullman, Wash.

The University of Montana, and the University of Gonzaga, battle on neutral grounds at Butte, Montana; Pacific University travels to Eugene, Oregon, to contest the University of Oregon, and Oregon Agricultural College plays Whitman at Portland, Oregon.

ROSEBURG HIGH SCHOOL AND OAKLAND PLAY THIS AFTERNOON

The Roseburg high school shortened its afternoon study periods in order to permit dismissal at 3:30 o'clock in order that the students might attend the football game this afternoon between the Roseburg and Oakland teams. The Roseburg boys are after all the experience they can gain this year and having a vacant week on their schedule challenged the Oaklanders for a game today.

MEXICAN WOMEN FAVORED AS BRIDES FOR JAPANESE IN U. S.

TOKYO, Oct. 14.—(A. P.)—The most desirable foreign women in the United States for the Japanese to marry are Mexicans, J. Arima, publisher of the Hokubei Jiji, a Japanese daily of Seattle was quoted as saying in an interview upon his arrival in Yokohama.

"Mexican women have many of the similarities of the Japanese, and they are beautiful," Mr. Arima said. "German and Scandinavian marriages also have proved successful with the Japanese, but the women of these nationalities are not numerous.

"The Japanese in the United States have two alternatives—to remain unmarried forever, or to return to Japan. One-third of the Japanese in the United States are still unmarried. American women do not care to marry Japanese and even if they marry Japanese, happiness results in few cases, as divorce is prevalent even among the Americans themselves."
