

THE WOMAN'S PAGE

SOCIETY

By GRACE CARROLL

All contributions to this page, society, women's clubs, and personals, should be telephoned to the society editor by Friday of each week. Telephone No. 135.

Large Tea Given for Miss Geddes

Among the smart affairs of the week was the tea given at the C. S. Heinline home in Laurelwood Thursday afternoon, when Mrs. C. S. Heinline, Mrs. Arthur Knuss, and Mrs. Bert G. Bates entertained for Miss Lois Geddes, whose marriage to Mr. Harrie Booth will be an event of October 22, and to which a large assemblage of society folk were bidden. Delicate shades of pink and blue prevailed throughout the rooms of the attractive home and pink roses, and Michael-miss-daisies carried out the charming color motif. In the absence of Mrs. J. H. Booth, who was detained in Portland, Mrs. F. W. Haynes presided over the coffee urn. Mrs. A. J. Geddes served food. They were assisted in the dining room by Mrs. Albert Micell, Mrs. Earl Burr, Miss Vera Fredericks and Miss Martha Oye.

At the door receiving were Mrs. G. D. McAllister and Mrs. Clyde Garsten, and in the living room Mrs. C. S. Heinline, Mrs. Arthur Knuss, Mrs. Bert G. Bates and Miss Lois Geddes received. Music was furnished during the afternoon by a ladies orchestra, directed by Mrs. A. J. Young, violinist and included Mrs. Joseph Shockley, cornet; Mrs. Leo Hupp, cello, and Mrs. Donald Gibbs, saxophone. Several vocal numbers were given by Mrs. Charles Brand, and Mrs. Fred Strang, and Miss Lucille Sappington gave a delightful piano solo.

The guest list included Miss Lois Geddes, honoree, Mesdames A. J. Geddes, J. H. Booth, Fred Haynes, S. L. Kiddier, A. A. Wilder, Harry Stapleton, George Bradburn, L. B. Skinner, I. G. Broadway, J. F. Barker, Dean Dubar, Paul Dubar, W. H. Fisher, D. D. Mathews, A. C. Marsters, F. H. Church, A. N. Orcutt, J. E. McClintock, H. Oeden, G. V. Wimberly, D. Lennox, A. T. Lawrence, Storey Lee, Lee Dillard, R. L. Gile, E. Singleton, Leo Rapp, Joseph Shockley, A. J. Young, Donald Gibbs, J. F. Dillard, I. B. Riddle, Mose Rice, Chas. Brand, Clay Darby, Geo. Johnson, John Throno, Grant Osborne, O. D. McAllister, J. D. Osborne, John Enzer, Wm. Bell, Washington Hughes, John Runden, Chas. Wharton, Walter Fisher, W. C. Harding, B. Cassey, Gerald Geddes, Fred Strang, Chas. Rusbo, Fred Chapman, R. D. Williams, Ruben Marsters, Foster Butler, Max Hamm, M. E. Ritter, Leon McClintock, Albert Bashford, Herbert Quine, Jack Crafton, James Goodman, Archie Taylor, Earl Burr, Horace Berg, Albert Knott, Clyde Carstens, Joseph Knott, Ross, and Misses Rosa B. Parrot, Dorothy Orcutt, Eva Rice, Ethel Webb, Edna Lough, Martha Yoe, Helen Cassey, Vera Fredericks and Faye Geddes.

Flower Sale Sponsored by Woman's Club

The Flower Exchange Sale, sponsored by the Roseburg Women's Club, held Friday and today at the Chamber of Commerce, has not been as well patronized as in previous years, perhaps owing to the fact that so many donations of varieties of flowers have been received for the sale as heretofore. The ladies sponsored the sale as a means of raising funds for their clubhouse, to be built in the near future, and this is the fourth annual sale to be held. Their idea also is to keep a live interest in the city beautiful movement, in which they took such an active interest last year. The standing committee for the flower show are Mrs. Foster Butler, chairman; Mesdames Walter Good, Louis Kohlhaugen, C. V. Platt, Washington Hughes, D. H. Morgan, E. A. Petty and C. H. Bailey.

Bridge Party at Petterson Home

At the second of a series of a series of bridge parties Mrs. V. M. Petterson invited a number of intimate friends to her home Tuesday afternoon. Autumn blossoms arranged in bowls and vases brightened the rooms, and tables were placed for bridge, the diversion of the afternoon. Mrs. J. C. Ponsler received first prize. Later Mrs. Fred Schwartz and Mrs. Fred Hruby assisted the hostess in serving luncheon.

Bridge Party at Petterson Home

The guest list included Mesdames J. I. Love, C. A. Lockwood, J. E. Enzer, R. L. Devaney, M. S. Allen, R. E. Gedney, B. C. Ziegler, A. J. Hochradel, H. C. Harris, H. D. Harris, J. C. Ponsler, W. R. Coe, J. E. West, B. L. Shoemaker, H. Ogden, Wm. Bell, Singleton, Clair K. Allen, Fred Hruby, Fred Schwartz and W. H. Davis.

Bridge Party at Petterson Home

At the second of a series of a series of bridge parties Mrs. V. M. Petterson invited a number of intimate friends to her home Tuesday afternoon. Autumn blossoms arranged in bowls and vases brightened the rooms, and tables were placed for bridge, the diversion of the afternoon. Mrs. J. C. Ponsler received first prize. Later Mrs. Fred Schwartz and Mrs. Fred Hruby assisted the hostess in serving luncheon.

Bridge Party at Petterson Home

The guest list included Mesdames J. I. Love, C. A. Lockwood, J. E. Enzer, R. L. Devaney, M. S. Allen, R. E. Gedney, B. C. Ziegler, A. J. Hochradel, H. C. Harris, H. D. Harris, J. C. Ponsler, W. R. Coe, J. E. West, B. L. Shoemaker, H. Ogden, Wm. Bell, Singleton, Clair K. Allen, Fred Hruby, Fred Schwartz and W. H. Davis.

Bridge Party at Petterson Home

The guest list included Mesdames J. I. Love, C. A. Lockwood, J. E. Enzer, R. L. Devaney, M. S. Allen, R. E. Gedney, B. C. Ziegler, A. J. Hochradel, H. C. Harris, H. D. Harris, J. C. Ponsler, W. R. Coe, J. E. West, B. L. Shoemaker, H. Ogden, Wm. Bell, Singleton, Clair K. Allen, Fred Hruby, Fred Schwartz and W. H. Davis.

Mrs. Love Hostess at Bridge-Luncheon

An interesting one o'clock luncheon preceded a bridge party at the home of Mrs. J. I. Love this afternoon, when she was hostess to a group of friends. The table decorations were in autumn blossoms, and the rooms were brightened with colorful fall flowers. Several tables of bridge were in play during the afternoon. The guest list included Mesdames B. Casey, J. F. Barker, Walter Hamilton, J. Hume, George Bolter, S. A. Stoddard, C. A. Lockwood, H. H. Stapleton, A. A. Wilder, A. Baum, J. E. Sawyers, B. West, J. E. Enzer, V. M. Petterson, Fred Schwartz, N. Fullerton, Wm. Bell, H. C. Church, I. G. Broadway, B. C. Ziegler, George Johnson, R. E. Godney, George A. Bradburn and Miss Gertrude Rast and Miss Elizabeth Parrott.

Benson P. T. A. To Receive Teachers

The Benson P. T. A. are planning to hold their annual reception for teachers on Friday evening, October 23, at the schoolhouse, when they will extend a welcome to teachers of the school. A cordial invitation has been extended to all patrons and friends of the school to attend.

The committees are planning for a program, including music and readings and will have refreshments later. The reception, which is an annual affair will be held promptly at 8 o'clock, following a short business session of the P. T. A.

Employes of Overland Orchards Have Picnic

The employes at the Overland Orchards had a very enjoyable time Thursday evening, when they gathered at the Charles Brand Road Stand, near Winchester and held a swimmer roast and picnic, and spent the evening in dancing.

Following the picnic they held an old fashioned dance, and at the close of the evening refreshments were served from the stand. Thirty-five employes from the apple pickers, and the grape pickers and packers of the orchards participated in the evening's pleasure.

Daughters of Nile to Sponsor Benefit Card Party

The Daughters of the Nile will sponsor a benefit card party at the Masonic hall on the evening of October 23. This is the first autumn social event of the lodge and is being held in the form of a benefit. An admission of twenty-five cents will be charged each person. A program is being prepared for the evening and at 8 o'clock tables will be placed for cards. Following luncheon will be served in the banquet room.

The benefit is one which will no doubt be well patronized by Roseburg. The committees in charge is making preparations for the card party and is endeavoring in every way to make the evening an interesting one. Mrs. Max Ruff is chairman of the general committee and assisting her are Mrs. A. Micell, Mrs. Fred Hruby, Mrs. T. E. Singleton, and Mrs. E. S. Dear-driff.

Dr. and Mrs. Church Entertain Wednesday

On Wednesday evening Dr. and Mrs. H. C. Church entertained the members of the Northside 500 club at their home. The rooms were attractively arranged with vases of tall chrysanthemums, and tables were placed for cards. Receiving first prize were Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Crocker.

Dr. and Mrs. Church Entertain Wednesday

Later the hostess served luncheon at small tables to Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Bruun, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Whipple, Mr. and Mrs. D. Lennox, Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Sellick, Mr. and Mrs. J. Wendell Wright, Mr. and Mrs. R. Hazley and Mrs. Stelshaker.

Rebekahs Initiate on Tuesday Evening

On Tuesday evening the Rebekahs held an enjoyable meeting in the lodge rooms, having twenty-two visitors from the Coquille chapter of the lodge. The hall was decorated with fall flowers, where a short musical program and a number of readings preceded the initiation rites.

The Past Noble Grand's degree was put on the initiation work, showing which the guests and members went to the dining room where a banquet was held. The banquet room was decorated in bright flowers and Halloween colors prevailed throughout the room and at the table.

Rose P. T. A. Sponsor Welcome For Teachers

The members of the Rose Parent-Teachers association entertained the teachers of that school at an informal party in the Moose hall last Monday evening. The hall was decorated in autumn leaves and daisies, and about seventy-five people were in attendance. A brief program was given, consisting of a play, "The Skipper of St. Ives," by C. H. Arandel; vocal solo, "In the Garden of Tomorrow," by Lillian Fulton; piano solo, "Sauterelle," by Elizabeth Williams; vocal solo, "Three for Jack," by A. Dawe.

Following the program, which was greatly enjoyed by those present, some clever and original games, supervised by Mrs. Keenan and Mrs. Neal, were played. Mrs. Glenn Wimberly was awarded first prize in a contest wherein those drawing names as designers were given newspapers and pins and asked to design and execute costumes from their models, who had drawn slips corresponding in numbers. Dr. Dillard was her model, and the costume was that of a Zulu chief, and Mrs. Wimberly carried it out in a clever fashion, even to the nose ring, supposedly part of a normal Zulu chief's costume, which she concocted from a hair-pin, covered with paper. Dr. Dillard received a prize as well.

Two sides, chosen and captained by Mrs. G. C. Finlay and Mrs. W. R. Brown, took part in a spoon race, the latter's side losing, thereby to recall and write all the slang phrases and colloquialisms. Miss Florence Thompson was awarded the prize for having the greatest number, as was Mr. Arandel, prize winner for the gentlemen. Delectable refreshments of sandwiches, cookies and chocolate were served by the committee in charge.

Squaws Entertained Monday Evening

On Monday evening Mrs. Albert Bashford and Mrs. Archie Crawford jointly entertained the Umpqua Squaws at the home of the latter. Yellow motifs formed a colorful background where, following a short business session, the squaws spent the evening in chatting. The ladies this year are preparing to make Christmas gifts for the poor children and orphans at the Children's Hospital in Portland.

Later a buffet luncheon was served fifteen guests.

Camp Fire Girls Have Fire Saturday

The members of the Umpqua Camp Fire Girls gathered at the home of Mrs. H. N. Graybill Saturday last week, to go on a hike, the girls taking the road east of town. The party of hikers gathered much valuable information on their trip, and at this time Barbara Clark was voted a new member. Max Schnellbacher was elected secretary.

Girls taking the trip were Catherine Babue, Weyone Fellows, Max Schnellbacher, Betty Shoemaker, Phyllis Quine, Vivian Williams, Mildred Koenig, Elizabeth Williams, Erlene James, Margaret Metzger Dorothy Jackson and Marjorie Cochran.

Mrs. Pearce Honored on Birthday Anniversary

Honoring Mrs. W. A. Pearce on her birthday anniversary, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. McLaughlin entertained at dinner Sunday at their home on South Deer Creek.

At a large table, where a birthday cake centered the table, covers were placed for Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Pearce, Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Harvey, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Spang, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. McLaughlin, Misses Thelma Pearce, Helen Pearce, Roberta McLaughlin and Stanley Pearce.

Dr. and Mrs. Bradburn Hostess at Dinner

Dr. and Mrs. George E. Bradburn were hosts at seven o'clock dinner Friday evening at their home in Winston, to a group of friends.

Roses and chrysanthemums were the flower motifs and at the table were seated Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Skinner, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Waddell, Mr. and Mrs. John Throno, Mr. and Mrs. Will Craven, Dr. and Mrs. George Bacher, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Renner, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Nichols, Misses Marion Porter, Elizabeth Renner, Helen Bacher, Emma Mae Craven, Willa Craven, Messrs Lyman Skinner, George Bradburn, Jack Throno and Dr. and Mrs. Bradburn.

Community Circle Entertained Wednesday

Mrs. Herbert Sibold received the members of the Tenmile Community Circle at her home Wednesday. The afternoon was spent in chatting, and a number of vocal solos were given.

Later the hostess served luncheon to Mesdames K. McDaniel, K. Goodard, A. Watson, V. McDaniel, and A. Coats.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Sittler and Miss Helen A. Sittler are spending the week here visiting Mrs. Sittler's and Miss Atterbury's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Atterbury. Miss Atterbury is leaving October 25 for Dallas, Texas, where her marriage to Harry L. Boswell, Jr., will take place. Mr. Boswell is a prominent young attorney in the south, and following their marriage will reside in Los Angeles, following a year's trip through eastern states.

Mrs. Enger Hostess Monday Afternoon

Mrs. J. E. Enger was a charming hostess Monday afternoon inviting to her home the members of the Bridge Club. In rooms were autumn flowers were attractively used, tables were placed for bridge, the afternoon's diversion. Mrs. J. C. Ponsler received high score. Present were Mesdames Wm. Bell, B. C. Ziegler, J. I. Love, J. C. Ponsler, H. D. Harris, and added guests were Mesdames Dean Dubar, F. R. Dunlap and H. C. Waddell.

Quilting Party at Trueblood Home

An old fashioned quilting party was held at the home of Mrs. G. E. Trueblood in West Roseburg Wednesday, when a number of ladies were invited for the day. The hostess served dinner at noon, and following the time was spent in quilting and conversation.

Guests were Mesdames Bell, Hahn, Myers, Porter, Churehlin, Smith, Loeper, Dalton and Egley.

Roseburg Art and Embroidery Club Meet

Mrs. Henry Worthington provided a pleasant afternoon for the members of the Roseburg Art and Embroidery Club, when she invited them to her home Wednesday. The ladies spent the time in needlework and conversation and later the hostess served luncheon.

Guests for the afternoon were Mesdames B. Stapleton, E. Palm, J. Hicks, Bloom, James Byrd, W. Carstens, C. Wansley, Earl Decker, F. Safely, McAttee, L. Engles, H. Snyder, A. Rhodes, E. Rhoads, and Miss Suzie Lewis.

Mrs. Goodman Hostess to Club

The Northside Sunshine club had an enjoyable afternoon when Mrs. L. E. Goodman entertained the members at her home on 819 Winchester street Thursday.

Sewing and chatting were diversions of the afternoon, and later the hostess served luncheon at small tables.

Members present were Mesdames Roscoe Marsters, R. E. Harness, Robert Chilton, E. P. Ballou, R. S. Nichols, L. W. Innes, J. W. Dear-driff, H. P. Chilton, Wm. Fisher, Sam W. Starmer, C. R. Cavender, F. S. Roelster, J. M. Bartley, Miss L. Laubach, and an added guest was Mrs. Henry.

Bridge and Dinner Club at Church Home

Dr. and Mrs. H. C. Church were hosts to a few friends at the second of a series of small affairs at their home Thursday evening, when they received a former bridge club, to be called the Bridge and Dinner club. Dinner was served at 6:30 o'clock at a large table centered with a bowl of French marjolain, and following, the guests went to the living room where bridge was the diversion of the evening. Receiving first prize were Mr. and Mrs. Leon McClintock.

Guests for the evening were Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Hochradel, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. McLaughlin, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Richter, Mr. and Mrs. Clair K. Allen.

Woodcraft Thimble Club Entertained Friday

Mrs. Leona McDonald and Mrs. Oliver Johnson charmingly entertained the members of the Woodcraft Thimble club at the home of the former on Stephens street Friday afternoon. The rooms were decorated in the colors of autumn, and bright flowers were arranged in bowls and vases.

Following the business meeting the ladies pleasantly spent the afternoon in needlework and conversation.

At a large table centered with a bowl of bright autumn flowers, the hostesses served a delicious luncheon to Mesdames F. S. Regeater, J. E. Rexroad, C. C. Wansley, W. P. Wetherell, P. J. Pingle, W. G. Dowell, Earl Rhoads and May De-Joodie.

Women's Club Celebrates Anniversary Friday

The Business and Professional Women's club met last evening at the Heinline Conservatory of Music with a fair attendance. A few minor business matters were discussed, and Miss Darby, who has charge of the ticket sales for the Moral-Open plays reported on the next play to be presented here. The club cleared sixty dollars on the play, "Pygmalion." A letter received from Miss Julia K. Webster, president of the Salem club, invited members of all the clubs to attend a representative meeting of the members of the Oregon Federation, was read at the meeting.

"What Our Federation Stands for in the Life of a Business Woman," will be the subject of the address to be given by Miss Adella Prichard, past president of the National Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs, who will speak at the meeting. The meeting will be held in Salem Wednesday night, and it is expected that members from the Roseburg club will attend.

The club has been organized one year, and the members celebrated its first anniversary. Following the business meeting, Miss Helen Virginia Yount brought in a large birthday cake, which she presented to the members, with a speech, and gave a clever dance. Miss Parrott gave a splendid discourse on her trip abroad, illustrating with lantern slides. Miss Vernita Kollhaugen gave a piano solo, and following the program the committee served refreshments.

In the future Miss Parrott will appear two members of the club to act as hostesses at the luncheons, and one member will preside at the luncheon, which is thought will give an added interest in the luncheon meetings.

Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Pierce, formerly of Roseburg, are being congratulated on the arrival of their eighth child, Rebecca Jean, at the Community Hospital in Medford, Thursday, October 15. Mr. Pierce formerly was employed here at the Southern Oregon Gas company.

Miss Myth Hanan, former Roseburg girl, who has been employed with the California-Oregon Power company at Klamath Falls for the past two years, is spending a week or so here visiting friends.

Miss Wright Honored on Anniversary

Honoring Miss Esther Wright on her 13th birthday anniversary, a number of intimate friends surprised her Wednesday evening, calling at the J. Wendell Wright home in North Roseburg. The rooms were decorated in pink and white and chrysanthemums were arranged in tall vases where games were the diversion of the young folk for a time. Later the guests went to the dining room where a dinner was served by Mrs. Wright.

A centerpiece of pink and white covered the table and a large cake with pink candlesticks centered the table. Small glass favors of fish, rabbits and other clever novelties were used at the table. Miss Wright received many lovely gifts, and later games afforded the young folk diversion.

Present were Misses Esther Wright, honoree, Ruth Schoen-leader, Carmelita Blalock, Marjorie Knight, Maxine Laird, Rachel Hartley, Mable Grimm, Lillian Shields, Olive Lawrence, Evelyn Cummings, Dorothy Staley, Charlotte Crocker, Katherine Crocker, Josephine Jennings and Trons Church.

Thirty-Fifth Anniversary of D. A. R. Celebrated

The Daughters of the American Revolution met at the home of Mrs. W. M. Campbell on North Jackson last Monday afternoon, on the thirty-fifth anniversary of the organization. Mrs. Campbell gave an interesting talk on the history of the organization. It was organized 35 years ago in Washington, D. C., by Miss Eugenia Washington, a great-grand-niece of Washington, with only three charter members. The present active membership comprises 149,424 women of Revolutionary descent, while the number of chapters throughout the country and abroad is 2,979. The thirty-third continental congress convened in Washington last May and one of the members, Mrs. E. B. Stewart, was a delegate. She will give a talk on "A Message from the National" at the next meeting of Mrs. Wm. Bell. This will be the guest day at which time those eligible to membership will be invited.

Mrs. Chas. F. Sowerby read "The Aim of the D. A. R." Mrs. Caroline Willis talked of the privilege of being a Daughter of the Revolution and Mrs. C. P. Cuyler gave an interesting talk on the History of Our Chapter. Mrs. H. G. Smick read an article on "God and the Constitution."

During the social hour refreshments were served. A large birthday cake decorated with thirty-five lighted candles graced the occasion.

Mrs. Fisher Entertains Wednesday

Mrs. William Fisher entertained at her home Wednesday afternoon honoring Mrs. Gene Hendrickson, and inviting for the afternoon the members of the Northside Prayer Circle. The rooms were attractively arranged with bowls and vases of roses, asters and Michael-miss-daisies. The afternoon was spent in conversation and a short program was presented.

In the dining room pink crepe paper was festooned from the lights to the dining table and at the end of each steamer was a favor of pink rose buds. The table was centered with pink roses and candles completed the decorations. A three-course luncheon was served by the hostess to Mesdames Gene Hendrickson, Maude Hagen, A. J. Geddes, Bert Chamberlain, Sarah Woodcock, J. H. Duff, Fred Knight, S. W. Woodruff, B. Carter, A. D. Oren, E. Crawford, Wm. Fisher, Will Herzell and M. Henry.

Foreign Missionary Society Meets

The Foreign Missionary Society of the First M. E. Church, met with Mrs. Martin on Fullerton street Thursday afternoon. Mrs. A. C. Marston, presiding. The opening song was followed by devotionals, led by Mrs. Martin. Committees reported boxes packed and sent to the foreign field. The same officers will be retained for the ensuing year.

Mrs. A. McMillan, a delegate to the Columbia river branch convention, held in Salem last week, read a splendid paper, seven illustrations representing five foreign countries were on the program, and a number of interesting incidents were related. The keynot of the convention was prayer.

A union district meeting of the Woman's Home and Foreign Missionary Society, will convene in this city at the Methodist church October 29-31. A number of delegates from out of town will be present. Speakers of state and national reputation will appear on the program. Miss Milan, well known in this part of the state from Corvallis will be a speaker.

An invitation is extended to all those interested in this work.

Mrs. Petterson Has Bridge Afternoon

Mrs. V. M. Petterson received a number of guests at her home at a bridge afternoon Monday. Attractive fall blossoms were arranged about the house, and four tables of bridge were in play. Mrs. George Bradburn received high score at bridge. Following the game the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Fred Hruby and Mrs. Fred Schwartz served luncheon.

Bidden to the affair were Mesdames F. W. Haynes, Fred Schwartz, I. G. Broadway, H. Stapleton, A. A. Wilder, A. Baum, George Bolter, J. F. Barker, S. A. Sanford, N. Fullerton, Kenneth Quine, Glenn V. Wimberly, George A. Bradburn, Bert Green, Leon McClintock, H. C. Church, Chas. Wharton, A. Crawford, George Wharton, Jack Wharton, and Fred Hruby.

Camp Fire Girls Have Ceremonial

On Tuesday evening the members of the Umpqua Camp Fire Girls held their ceremonial, their guardian giving the "Nohelo" call, and calling the girls into the circle at the top of the hill in North Roseburg. Each girl gave the hand sign and in a chorus, sang "America the Beautiful." Roll call followed, each girl giving her Indian name and the meaning of the name. Girls not having a name in the circle answered to "Kolah" friend.

In the ceremonial the members received honor bands for work accomplished since the organization of the camp fire girls here. Miss Mable Myers gave an instructive address on "Seeking Beauty." The meeting was closed by the song, "America."

Present at the ceremonial were Misses Julia Keasy, Merle Myers, Tallas Colby, Gloria Aden, Ruth Collins, Alice Fest, Katie Spaur, Oma Dureh, Ema Wolford, Marjorie Ochsrahe, Evelyn Thomas, Frieda Schubert and Mrs. H. N. Graybill, guardian.

Sutherland Girl Honored at Farewell Party

Miss Helen Marr Grissom, popular local high school girl who departed last week with her parents, Rev. and Mrs. A. F. Grissom for Monroe, where they will make their home, was honored with a farewell party by her schoolmates and friends at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Holzate on Calapooia street, Wednesday evening, October 7.

The affair was sponsored by the Junior high school students and the senior class and several of the teachers were present as guests of the occasion. Following a luncheon at which the freshmen girls served, all went to the Playhouse where they viewed the presentation of Zane Grey's popular story, "Code of the West."

Those enjoying the occasion were Helen Marr Grissom, Harriet Durr, Wilfred Carline, Alton Hubbard, Richard Ross, Elsie Norton, Roy Currier, Prof. and Mrs. T. H. Cke, Arthur Belt, Cora TenEyck, Morrell Weber, Eva Vespophl, James Crane, Syble Avery, Gertrude Davis, George Wilcox, Sidney Vesper, Mildred Thompson, Arthur C. Wood, Jack Culver, Jr., Donald Stockwell, Cecil Holzate-Sutherland, and Sutherland.

Antlers Theatre

The new Douglas Fairbanks screen feature "Don Quixote of Zorro" is a supreme melodrama. It is a modern story, laid in Spain with most of the action taking place in Madrid.

Action-plus, with lightning sword-play, stunts, athletic achievement, humor and romance merge ceaselessly.

The scenic background is the most elaborate and pretentious imaginable for the period. Fairbanks leaps as it were from castle to castle.

The plot is founded on "Don Quixote of the Love Story" by K. and Hesketh Prichard, adapted for the screen by Jack Cunningham.

The story positively has nothing to do with the Cervantes hero, "Don Quixote" or his windmill troubles.

Mary Astor, young, beautiful and accomplished, has the leading feminine role. Coming to the Antlers Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

Antlers Theatre

The Cecil B. De Mille production, "The Golden Bed," a Paramount picture, adapted by Jeanie Macpherson from the novel of the same name by Wallace Irwin, is the feature at the Antlers theatre Sunday and Monday.

In the picture we have a delectable family whose one asset is their very beautiful daughter, Flora Lee, played by Lillian Rich, a "New De Mille find." There is Cinderella sister (Vera Reynolds) who is always shoved into the background to give Flora Lee every advantage.

La Rocque has the role of a young man who runs a candy store in the village. He adores the beauty. She treats him as so much dirt under her feet. His business expands. He becomes king of a chain of candy stores.

At once he is the prey of the family. Flora Lee is groomed for him. A. The children have grown up. Margaret (Miss Reynolds) has fallen very much in love with Adam Holtz, the part played by La Rocque. She fights for her love and loses.

All through the picture there is the symbol of the golden bed—fallen a ruin. Flora Lee dies and we have the struggle back to regeneration and real love by Adam and Margaret.

'Mighty Lak' a Rose!

Tender as a flower is Sandy, here seeking an answer to life's riddle in the petals of the rose! "Ask the flowers to tell you and they'll always answer true," runs the song. What is the answer Sandy is getting.

Problem and solution will be found in Elenor Meherin's story.

"Sandy" will fascinate you and capture your heart—watch for this great serial.

This Story Starts Monday In the News-Review