

THE WOMAN'S PAGE

SOCIETY

By GRACE CARROLL

All contributions to this page, society, women's clubs, and personals, should be telephoned to the society editor by Friday of each week. Telephone No. 125.

Former Roseburg Girls Wedded in Portland

A very pretty double wedding was solemnized in Portland at the Re-organized Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints, Saturday evening, October 17, when Miss Lila Smith became the bride of Mr. Albert Livingston and Miss Eunice Smith became the bride of Mr. Henry Livingston.

The brides gowned alike, were charming in white crepe creations, trimmed in Spanish lace. Their veils were of tulle, held in place with wreaths of orange blossoms, and each carried a bouquet of small pink roses and lilies of the valley. They were attended by Miss George of Roseburg, who was frooked in a peach georgette, and Miss Allene Minard, of Portland, who wore a dress of green georgette. They carried bouquets of Cecil Brunner roses. Little Phyllis Laird, of Sitkum and Junior Minor, of Portland were ring bearers, and Lois Dudley, of Portland, was flower girl.

Mr. Archie Livingston and Mr. Ansel Minard, of Portland were best men.

The brides, who are the sisters of Mrs. B. H. Laird, of Roseburg, are attractive young ladies of Portland. They are the daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Smith, and both formerly resided here. Mrs. Henry Livingston is a graduate of the local high school, class of '18, and Mrs. Albert Livingston is a graduate of Bethel-Walker Business college.

The grooms, sons of Mrs. John Livingston, of Portland, are employed as soda makers by the O. W. B. and N. company. Following a honeymoon trip the couples will make their home in Portland.

Miss Geddes Complimented at Dinner Party

Mrs. G. V. Wimberly was a gracious hostess at a dinner party Tuesday evening at her home, complimenting Miss Lois Geddes, a popular bride-elect, who is being extensively entertained. The rooms of the attractive Wimberly home were effectively decorated with chrysanthemums and cosmos, arranged in baskets and bowls. Original place cards were used, and a centerpiece of pink roses and snowflake michaelmas daisies brightened the table, when dinner was served at 7 o'clock.

Music and conversation gave interest to the evening following dinner and the group made pretty needlework gifts for the guest of honor.

Bidden to the affair were Miss Lois Geddes, honoree, Misses Vera Fredrickson, Vernita Kohlhagen, Faye Geddes, Lois Cobb, Elsie Bergh, Dorothy Orcutt, Florence Wimberly, Clarice Harpster, Josephine McElhinny, Helen Casey, Katherine Merrill, Mesdames A. M. Thorne, Bert G. Bates, Arthur Knuss, Phil Strader, and Grant Osborne.

Mrs. Wimberly Entertains for Mrs. Luther

Complimenting Mrs. Verna Luther, who recently arrived from Springfield to teach during the winter in the public schools here, Mrs. G. V. Wimberly charmingly entertained with a bridge-dinner at her home in this city, Wednesday evening. Fall blossoms brightened the season's bright notes of color to the rooms. At the table a dinner was served at 7 o'clock, a lavender and white motif was used. Bridge gave interest to the evening following dinner, and honors fell to Miss Emma Ueland.

Invited to meet Mrs. Luther were Mesdames Tom Wharton, Fred Hruby, Clair K. Allen, Carl Wimberly, N. G. Buel, George Wharton, Misses Bess Wharton, Myrl Hansen, Helen Casey, Emma Ueland, Lucille Crank, James Wharton, Lucille Sappington, and Ethel Webb.

Hallowe'en Party at Frew Home Thursday

Miss Melba Frew and Miss Frances Berg jointly entertained at the home of the former with a Hallowe'en party Thursday evening. Festive crepe paper decorations were used in the rooms, and Jack O'Lanterns made an appropriate setting for the affair. Games were played during the evening and later the hostesses served refreshments.

The guest list included Misses Catherine Crocker, Earlene James, Elizabeth Williams, Fred Thompson, Irene Newman, Visa Copeland, Helen Berg, and Chester Frew.

Mr. and Mrs. Craven Hosts at Dinner

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Craven, of this city, were hosts at an informal dinner Sunday evening at their home in Laurelwood. A charming arrangement of flowers brightened the table where dinner was served at seven o'clock. Covers were placed for Mr. and Mrs. Fred Renner, Dr. and Mrs. George A. Bradburn, Misses Elizabeth Renner, Emma Mae Craven, Willa Craven, Mr. George Bradburn, and Mr. and Mrs. Craven.

Mrs. Houck Hostess at 1 O'Clock Luncheon

Mrs. George E. Houck invited a group of friends to her home Thursday for a one o'clock luncheon, the first of a series of affairs. The table was brightened with a bowl of yellow chrysanthemums and sinias and favors of Hallowe'en design were used.

Following luncheon the afternoon was spent in chatting. Invited to the affair were Mesdames George Bacher, A. Baum, B. Casey, W. F. Chapman, H. C. Darby, N. Fullerton, S. W. Hamilton, Walter Paul, S. A. Sanford, John Thorne, T. B. Virden and W. R. Willis.

Club Dance to Be Hallowe'en Affair

Preparations for the dance sponsored by the Roseburg Woman's Club, to be held at the Armory, Saturday night, October 31, are well in progress and tickets are being sold by the members of the club throughout Roseburg, the ticket sale starting Friday.

The benefit dance, given by the club members to help raise funds for the new club house, will be a Hallowe'en affair, and the armory will be decorated in crepe paper with Hallowe'en suggestions. Corn stalks, Jack O' Lanterns and pumpkins will give the hall a festive appearance, and one in keeping with the occasion. Booths will be built in corners of the room and cider will be dispensed free during the evening. At one booth sandwiches, cake and coffee will be served, this booth being in charge of Mrs. George Bradburn and Mrs. Young. The cider booth will be presided over by Mrs. L. B. Skinner and Mrs. Bubar. In one corner there will be a candy booth, which will be in charge of Mrs. H. D. Harris.

Mrs. W. S. Jost is general chairman of the dance, and Mrs. Dunlap has charge of the decorations. Mrs. Warren Burt has charge of the ticket sale, and Mrs. J. C. Ponder is head of the advertising campaign. The dance will be informal and an admission of $1.10 will be charged gentlemen and twenty-five cents for extra ladies. The club members are making every effort to have the dance a successful affair and a large attendance is expected.

Mr. Strang Honored on Birthday Anniversary

At a party, arranged by Mrs. Fred Strang, honoring her husband on his birthday anniversary, a group of friends gathered at the Strang home Wednesday evening. The rooms of the attractive home were decorated with fall blossoms arranged in baskets and bowls. Five hundred was the diversion of the evening and four tables were in play. First prize for the ladies was received by Mrs. Charles McElhinny, and first prize for gentlemen was received by Mr. Roy Catching. Later the hostess assisted by Mrs. W. H. Gerretsen, served luncheon at small tables.

Mrs. Bell Entertains Thursday

Mrs. Wm. Bell was a charming hostess Thursday when she invited the members of the Book Club and a few friends to her home for the afternoon, and complimented two visiting matrons, Mrs. Glover Heintze of New York City, and Mrs. Guy Flint of Portland. Luncheon was served at one o'clock at a table with clever Hallowe'en decorations and favors. Sewing and discussion of books were the diversions of the afternoon.

The guest list included Mesdames Glover Heintze, Guy Flint, and Chas. Wharton, Washington Hughes, J. E. Enger, Paul Bubar, and C. S. Heintze. Added guests were Mesdames Dean Bubar and John Runyan.

North Circle of Ladies Aid Meets Friday

The members of the North Circle of the Ladies Aid of the Methodist Episcopal church held their regular meeting at the home of Mrs. Lee Covard, on 604 Douglas street, on Friday afternoon. Bowls and baskets of cosmos and dahlias gave a bright note of color to the rooms, and a short business meeting was presided over by Mrs. W. A. Cummings, president. Election of officers for the year were held and new officers are: President, Mrs. P. S. Ballinger; first vice-president, Mrs. Lee Covard; second vice-president, Mrs. Harold McKay; secretary, Mrs. McAllister; treasurer, Mrs. E. D. Lewis; and press correspondent, Mrs. E. A. Pettay.

Following the business meeting the ladies chatted and the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Adams, served a luncheon. About fourteen were present.

Mrs. Love Entertains at Bridge-Luncheon

Mrs. J. I. Love received a number of guests at her home Wednesday, when she entertained at a bridge-luncheon, one of a series of affairs. Luncheon was served at one o'clock at six small tables centered with bowls of bright fall flowers. Bridge and sewing were diversions of the afternoon. Five tables of bridge were in play, and Mrs. H. D. Harris received first prize, and Mrs. Maurice S. Allen, received second prize.

The guest list included Mrs. H. D. Harris, Mrs. B. Green, Mrs. Leon McClintock, Mrs. Fred Renner, Mrs. M. S. Rice, Mrs. L. A. Wells, Mrs. R. E. Gedney, Mrs. L. H. C. Fee, Mrs. J. C. Ponder, Mrs. M. S. Allen, Mrs. R. L. Devaney, Mrs. A. S. McKenzie, Mrs. T. E. Singleton, Mrs. H. Ogden, Mrs. O. D. McAllister, Mrs. W. R. Conlee, Mrs. Fred Hruby, Mrs. F. R. Dunlap, Mrs. W. F. Harris, Mrs. L. B. Skinner, Mrs. L. A. Dillard, Mrs. Guy Flint, of Portland, and Miss Eva Rice.

Yoncalla Study Club Has Meetings

The Yoncalla Study Club presented its initial meeting on Saturday afternoon, October 2, when Mrs. Earl Strong entertained the members at her home. Following a one o'clock luncheon an interesting program was presented.

Mrs. Strong, club president, made an inspiring welcoming address, and Mrs. F. Applegate read the constitution to the members. A piano solo was given by Mrs. F. Breymann. Roll call was responded to with suggestions of practical things that could be accomplished this year by the club.

On Saturday afternoon, October 17, Mrs. Leslie Miller entertained the members of the club at her home in Yoncalla. Hallowe'en decorations and autumn blossoms gave the rooms a festive appearance. Mrs. A. Kruse addressed the members on "Human Needs and the Government," which proved to be an interesting and helpful topic. A paper on the origin and present status of Tammany Hall was given by Miss Bernice Richards, secretary.

Following the program the hostess served luncheon to Mesdames J. R. Lasswell of Oakland; W. S. Kenny of Leona, M. Joekel, N. Nolan, Hartler, and W. E. Satchell and the club members.

Past Noble Grands Club Meets at Kelley's Corner

At the regular meeting of the Past Noble Grands Club, Mrs. S. M. Kelly, Mrs. W. G. Wade, Mrs. D. G. Ferrier, and Mrs. V. T. Jackson were joint hostesses, at the home of Mrs. S. M. Kelly, at Kelley's Corner, Thursday evening, having as invited guests husbands of the members of the club.

Hallowe'en decorations of orange and black were used in the rooms, and following a short business meeting the time was spent in games and story telling. Later the hostesses served luncheon at small tables.

Present were Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Cummings, Mr. and Mrs. O. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. James Hutchings, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Worthall, Mr. and Mrs. D. Lennox, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Clingenpeel, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Carman, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Austin, Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Pickens, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Wickham, Mr. and Mrs. Dave Morgan, Mr. and Mrs. T. Dusenbark, Miss Mae Fisher, Mrs. G. Hatfield, Mrs. J. M. Trefen, Mrs. Emma Lennox, Mrs. I. Wood, Messers S. M. Kelley, W. G. Wade, D. G. Ferrier and V. T. Jackson.

Mrs. Mow Entertains With Hallowe'en Party

Mrs. H. E. Mow entertained Thursday evening at her home, inviting the members of the B. O. T. class for the evening. The rooms were decorated with Jack O'Lanterns and Hallowe'en favors, and the evening was spent in games and fortune telling. Later a buffet luncheon was served.

Enjoying the evening were Misses Wilma Howard, Neva Agee, Reva Nebel, Edith Parks, Vivian Rose, Katherine Rose, Marie Nelson, Barbara Clark, Jean Rose, Margaret Horner, Opal Horner, Eunice Haney and Marjorie Head.

Dancing Party at Runyan Home

At a dancing party for which Truman Runyan and Max Carman were hosts at the John Runyan home twenty young people participated in an enjoyable time Saturday evening.

Fall blossoms arranged about the rooms gave a bright note of color to the scene when the guests danced to victrola music. Following the dance Mrs. John Runyan and Mrs. A. J. Carman served luncheon to the guests.

North Side Prayer Circle Meets Wednesday

The North Side Prayer Circle met on Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Emmitt Crawford. Following a very interesting lesson the remainder of the afternoon was spent in conversation. Daily luncheon was served at tables decorated with fall colors. Those present were Mrs. Fred Akley, Maud Hagen, Mrs. J. H. Duff, Mrs. Fred Knight, Mrs. D. H. Laird, Mrs. Wm. Fisher, Mrs. Burt Chamberlain and Mrs. Emmitt Crawford. Visitors included Mrs. Pentney of Roseburg and Mrs. M. Henry of Everett, Washington.

Miss Martin Becomes Bride of E. N. Mathis

At a very quiet wedding ceremony Miss Iola H. Martin, of South Deer Creek, became the bride of Mr. Eugene N. Mathis, of South Deer Creek, Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock at the Methodist Episcopal parsonage. Rev. Joseph Knotts performed the ceremony among only immediate relatives. Mrs. Mathis is a popular young lady of South Deer Creek, and Mr. Martin is the son of Rev. and Mrs. P. E. Mathis, of South Deer Creek. Following a motor trip to Seattle and points north they will make their home at South Deer Creek.

Roseburg Students Active at O. A. C.

Oregon Agricultural College, Oct. 21.—James Pickens of Roseburg, has been appointed chairman of the reception committee for the Beaver Knights, R. Pickens, sophomore in commerce, is a member of Delta Kappa fraternity. Helen Churchill, also of Roseburg, has been pledged to Alpha Rho sorority. Miss Churchill is a sophomore in home economics.

Roseburg Man Weds at Yreka

The following, taken from the Glendale News, will be of interest to a number of Roseburg folk who know Mr. Haun:

On Monday, October 12th, Miss Francis L. Humphreys and Jack L. Haun were quietly married at Yreka, California. The bride is a daughter of Mrs. E. J. Humphreys of this city and is well known by the people of this community, having lived here for the past thirteen years.

Mr. Haun, while not known here, is a garage proprietor at Roseburg and is a rising young business man. Following a short trip Mr. and Mrs. Haun will make their home in Roseburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Henning and family and Miss Ellen Endicott of Stanwood, Washington, were guests this week of Mr. and Mrs. Carl W. Ohman. Mr. Henning, a county commissioner of Snohomish county, Washington, is a cousin of Mr. Ohman, and with his family is returning from an extended trip to New Mexico, where he has large farming interests.

Reception Given for Glendale Teachers

On last Friday evening in the Auditorium theatre, the ladies of Glendale gave a reception for the teachers of the local school, which was well attended and an enjoyable time was had.

The hall was beautifully decorated with autumn leaves and sword ferns. The entertainment of the evening consisted of two selections by the Lesh orchestra, piano solos by Dorance Hayes and Joseph Angell, a vocal solo by Mrs. Geo. H. Jackson, a Spanish dance by Mary Alice Brunner, a flower dance by Eleanor Olum. The speaker of the evening was Rev. Angell.

Refreshments were served after the program. The affair, fostered by the ladies of the community, was a decided success throughout—Glendale News.

Mrs. Guy Flint, of Portland, is spending the week here visiting with friends.

Mrs. W. E. Marsters, of this city, is spending several days in Salem as a guest at the home of her daughter Mrs. Lane Morely.

Farewell Party Given for Mr. and Mrs. Petterson

For Mr. and Mrs. V. M. Petterson, who leave next week to make their home in Eugene, Mrs. Fred Schwartz invited a group of friends to her home Thursday evening to bid this popular couple adieu. In room which were attractive with arrangements of chrysanthemums and dahlias in bowls and baskets, several tables of bridge were in play during the evening. Mrs. Petterson received first prize, Mr. B. West received consolation and Mrs. Allen received consolation prize.

Later the hostess served luncheon farwell, were Mrs. Fred Hay-Invited to bid Mr. and Mrs. Petterson farwell, were Mrs. Fred Hayes, Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Love, Dr. and Mrs. Clair K. Allen, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Lockwood, Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Zigler, Mr. and Mrs. B. West, and Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Brunn.

Dr. and Mrs. C. T. Norman, Mrs. P. D. Gilbert and Miss Dorothy Gilbert, of Portland were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. McCally.

The Fall Negligee

Elaborate Trimmings Make Beautiful the Garments Worn in Leisure Hours

As the season progresses, the vogue for things more feminine in line are noticed in the majority. And this is true in the garments which are chosen to make comfortable the leisure hours.

The pyjama of former days is still to be found in a foremost place in the boudoir, but it is a pyjama of less masculine severity and one which is beautified by decidedly feminine touches. For the boudoir, or for tea with the intimate friends, the negligee which is truly smart this season boasts a quantity of feminine flourishes.

Furs, which are used so lavishly to decorate the frocks and wraps of the formal hours, are found equally successful in imparting an air of chic to the boudoir. The newest of the negligees are fashioned along lines which greatly resemble the wraps of evening. Joyce Compton, who is now in a negligee role in the First National film, "What Fools Men!" wears a negligee which is a distinct forerunner of what the debutante will wear in the privacy of her boudoir. It is of a soft crepe silk in a charming shade of blue, with cuffs and collar of clipped ostrich dyed beige to give the effect of fur.

rate boudoir this season is frequently made of metallic materials cut along medallion lines and trimmed with rare old laces or gold and silver bandings which are brilliant with jewels.

The train is a matter of choice. In the elaborate robes it is usually effectively worn, but for the very young person who still clings to simplicity the negligee which is of ankle length and depends upon flowers and furs for its decoration is chosen wisely.

Many of the pyjamas of the boudoir from Paris are new in style and three-piece beauty. Chiffon, velvet are charmingly combined. One which is worn over a white beautiful blouse that flows over the hips and meets with a stunning sash effect, trousers of silk.

Mrs. Brunn Entertains Bridge and Luncheon Club

Mrs. Irvin Brunn was a gracious hostess Wednesday, when she entertained the members of the Friday One-O'clock-Luncheon and Bridge club at her home in North Roseburg.

At the table, where a yellow motif was used, lovely Chrysanthemums were placed as a centerpiece, and luncheon was served to seven guests.

In the living room a color scheme of white and red was effectively carried out with bright autumn flowers, and bridge was the diversion of the afternoon. Mrs. Fred Schwartz received high honors.

Present at the affair were Mesdames Clair K. Allen, A. J. Hochradel, V. M. Petterson, Fred Schwartz, B. West, Chas. B. Wade and S. G. Sellick.

Miss Conlee Opens Dancing Classes

Miss Lorlene Conlee, popular Roseburg girl, who has just completed a course in dancing in Portland, has announced that she will open classes of instruction in ballroom dancing, holding both private and class lessons.

Miss Conlee, who has studied terpsichore under various teachers is very talented, and studied in Portland in the Christensen School of Dancing, under Mr. Victor Christensen, completing her course there last week. She will offer an advance course which will include instructions of the Charleston, which is now holding popular sway over dancers, the Finale Hop and Maurice's new Canter-Waltz. The beginner's course will include technique and fundamentals of the waltz and fox trot.

Ursa Copeland Honored on Birthday Anniversary

At a party, arranged for by Mrs. George Wharton Saturday afternoon of last week, little Ursa Copeland was honored on her birthday anniversary. The guests gathered at the Wharton home, from there going to the Antlers and attending the matinee. Later the young folk returned to the home of Mrs. Wharton, where games were played for a time. Following the games, Mrs. Wharton served luncheon to the group at a table, attractively decorated with the popular Hallowe'en motif.

Enjoying the afternoon were Ursa Copeland, guest of honor, Lois Ann Whipple, Irvin Brunn, Jr., Donald Wimberly, Billy Wharton and Chester Frew.

Gordon Gedney Honored on Birthday Anniversary

Mrs. R. E. Gedney entertained for her son Gordon, honoring him on his 11th birthday anniversary, Thursday afternoon. In the rooms here lovely autumn flowers were arranged in vases and bowls, a Hallowe'en motif was used. At one o'clock the guests were served luncheon at a table pretty with the festive Hallowe'en favors. Later the guests attended the matinee at the Antlers Theatre.

Guests for the afternoon were Arthur Baum, Paul Babue, Gilbert Finlay, Rex Applegate, Collin Reed, Robert Hellwell, J. C. Straw, Orville Johns and Robert Harris.

P. T. A. Reception Successful Event

The Benson P. T. A. reception for new teachers, one of the most successful affairs held in the past year or so, was given Friday evening at the school house, one hundred sixty patrons, teachers, parents and board members attending.

The rooms of the school were effectively decorated with autumn flowers and bright foliage which formed an attractive background for the reception. A splendid program was presented, including several selections by Ott's orchestra, composed of Wm. Ott, Ellsworth Ott, Junior Brunn and Barbara Ott, several orchestra selections by the Knight orchestra, composed of Lotus, Shirley, Marjorie and William Knight. Contests added to the amusement of the evening, one a pie-eating contest which was won by Mrs. Scott a basket contest, in which the teachers competed to see who was able to blow up a balloon and burst it the quickest. Miss Pentney receiving the first prize for this feat, and a cracker-eating contest, won by W. A. Cummings, in which the contestants competed to see who could whistle the sooner after eating crackers.

A splendid welcoming address was given by the teachers by Mrs. Edith Ackert, county school superintendent, and a response was given by Mr. Thennis, principal of the Benson school. Following the program the group went to the lunch room, where a banquet was served. Mrs. Mable Church was toastmistress, and splendid toasts were given by Dr. George E. Houck, Walter Hamilton, A. J. Geddes, Miss Rosa B. Parrott, Superintendent M. S. Hamm, and Dr. S. L. DeLapp.

In charge of decorations was Mrs. H. C. Darby, assisted by Mesdames I. Brunn, T. B. Virden, Elmer McKeane, and H. L. Whipple. On the refreshment committee were Mesdames S. L. Kilder, T. B. Virden, H. M. Pierson, and F. Ballinger. Mrs. W. M. Campbell, Mrs. Irvin Brunn, Mrs. R. L. Whipple and Mr. and Mrs. R. Catching were in charge of the program.

Miss Eva Rice left Thursday for Eugene, where she will visit with friends over the week end.

Rose Dining Room

SUNDAY DINNER, $1.00
4:30 to 8 p. m.

POETS' CORNER

Signed Contributions for This Department May Be Sent to the Society Editor of The News-Review, and Will Be Used as Space is Available.

GREETINGS

This morn in October
A card came from Roseburg,
From ladies who live in X-Y
avenue;
No names were appended,
I guess who did send it,
So now I send greetings, dear
ladies, to you—
To you who would kiss me,
And you who just miss me,
And you who solicitous are for my well;
I thank all sincerely,
For words written dearly,
For all the kind throats that you made me to feel.

And where I may wander,
By streams that meander,
On mountain, on meadow, or dim
forest trail,
In June or December,
I'll always remember
The kind throats you wanted to me
thru the mail,
You'll judge from this letter
My health 'n'or was better,
I trust the same may be spoken
of you;
So Heaven defend you,
My blessing I send you,
If that's not enough then I send my love too.
—J. JANCAM

Linen Shower Given for Miss Sheratt

Mrs. Boud S. L. Freitag, of Riddle, entertained at her home Saturday afternoon of last week, complimenting with a linen shower, Miss Leona Sheratt, whose engagement to Mr. John Ross, of Canyonville, was recently announced. Autumn motifs were used in the rooms, effectively carried out in arrangements of marionettes, roses and green foliage, rigoldis, roses and green foliage.

Following the presentation of gifts each guest contributed a recipe for the honor guests' book. Later the hostess served luncheon. Present at the affair were Miss Leona Sheratt, honoree, Misses Thelma Ross, Clara Applegate, Helen Shaffer, Ruth Shaffer, Minnie Dunbar, Virginia Elliott, Lois Bartley, Mary Thackeray, and Mesdames Albert Martin, Burke, Daniels, Buell, Peterson, C. Converse, C. O. Bartley, A. M. Shafter, A. Rice and A. Sheratt.

Family Reunion at Harness Home Sunday

Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Harness will be hosts Sunday, when they will entertain for Mr. and Mrs. James Ambrose, of Yoncalla, having a family reunion. Dinner will be served at noon, and the day will be spent in conversation and reminiscences. A family group picture will be taken by J. W. Clark. Present at the reunion will be the children and grandchildren of Mr. and Mrs. Ambrose, including Mr. and Mrs. Cleve Ambrose of Yoncalla, James Ambrose, Jr., and son, Kenneth Ambrose, of Lowell, Mrs. Amy Colwell, and son Melvin Colwell of Chico, California, Mr. and Mrs. Gus Ambrose and children, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Karcher, and Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Harness, of this city.

Miss Helen Falbe, who is attending O. A. C. this winter, is spending the week end visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Falbe.

Daughters of Nile Benefit Party Success

The benefit card party, given by the Daughters of the Nile Friday night at the Masonic Temple, was a very successful affair, a good assemblage of Roseburg people attending. The Daughters of the Nile sponsored the benefit to raise money to buy material and make clothes for the children of the Shrine Hospital in Portland. An admission of twenty-five cents was charged and about sixty dollars was realized.

The committee in charge of decorations spent a great deal of time on the arrangement of the flowers and foliage in the rooms, and the Hallowe'en motif and autumn flowers made an attractive and bright background for the affair. A short program was presented, consisting of several orchestra selections by Mrs. Young's Orchestra, and two readings by Mrs. Charles Ruah.

Tables were arranged in one room for bridge and five hundred, and prizes were offered for the ladies and gentlemen. Mrs. M. S. Allen received first bridge prize for the ladies, and Mr. Thurber received first prize for gentlemen. Mrs. McAfee received the ladies prize for five hundred and Mr. Sager received first prize for the gentlemen.

Following the games the refreshments were served. The program was given by the teachers by Mrs. Edith Ackert, county school superintendent, and a response was given by Mr. Thennis, principal of the Benson school. Following the program the group went to the lunch room, where a banquet was served. Mrs. Mable Church was toastmistress, and splendid toasts were given by Dr. George E. Houck, Walter Hamilton, A. J. Geddes, Miss Rosa B. Parrott, Superintendent M. S. Hamm, and Dr. S. L. DeLapp.

refreshment committee served luncheon to those attending.

The Severe Costume

Smart Suits Still Follow a Tailored Mode for Sports and Traveling

Into a season where gorgeous materials and feminine lines are pronounced favorites, the tailored suit or two piece frock still clings to its place in the sun of sartorial perfection.

In tweeds and homespun, the correct choice for the sports costumes, simplicity, of course, is the keynote. And for the active hour of the modern woman there must be at least one costume which, boasts a tailored aspect.

For the shopping tour, for the motor ride in the open car, for the all-around active life of the country woman, a two piece suit or frock of tweed or English homespun is a necessity.

Typical of the severe, untrimmed costumes which are associated with tweeds is the trim little suit selected by Colleen Moore, whose newest First National picture, "We Moderns," boasts such a charming collection of new gowns and wraps. Miss Moore, who leads such an active outdoor life, finds the tailored suit a necessary part of her fall and winter wardrobe. In tweeds it is particularly to be desired, as it lends an air of youth and chic which is much to be desired, and for traveling at home or abroad, the homespun suit is a cherished possession.

—beautiful.
glossy, wavy hair now yours
Use SEPOL Shampoo. Delightful and easy to use.
At All Drugists.