AT KELSO FRUSTRATED
KELSO, Wash., Oct. 24—Jailers and deputies of the Cowlitz county sheriff's office frustrated a bold attempt at jail breaking today. Last night deputies overheard sounds of filling coming from the jail. Silent watch was kept, and a conversation was overheard between Oliver Jones, negro, convicted this week of a second degree murder for the killing of his wife with an axe, and W. H. Thompson, parole law vio-later held as a material witness in the Dorey murder case.
Jones' cell was searched. Two backpacks, a file and a small wrench were found. Nothing was revealed by the search of Thompson's cell.
Jones had few callers and has always been separated by two barred doors from his callers. How the tools were smuggled into his cell is a mystery to officers.
