Never has progress seemed so swift

Grandmother's girlhood would seem pathetically poor in comforts to us today. She never knew the convenience of electrically done housework; of time saved in cooking; of swift trips through the country by motor; of the world's best music in her home, out of the air.

A generation has changed the lives, comforts and habits of the world.

Tomorrow—new conveniences, new comforts will swiftly find their way into our lives.

Their advertisements will herald their coming. Today a manufacturer will announce a new and better product. Tomorrow a million men and women will use it as an old friend.

An advertisement breaks down the barrier of distance and tells to all the world—in a day's time—the best and newest things the world has devised.

People who keep abreast with progress read the advertisements.

Advertising is a herald of better things

NOTORIOUS BOOTLEGGER REPRIEVED BY PIERCE

(Associated Press Leased Wire.)
PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 28.—Albert Quartier, who was sentenced in Multnomah county circuit court on June 18 to serve six months in the county jail and to pay a fine of $1500 for violation of the liquor laws, is at liberty on a reprieve granted by Governor Pierce, according to records on file in the county jail. The records show that he gained his freedom from jail by virtue of an extended reprieve issued by the governor on September 1.

The first reprieve was to last until October 15 that Quartier might assist in harvesting his grape crop. A new reprieve from October 15 to February 15 next year was then forwarded to Sheriff Hurlburt. The only provision is that Quartier must pay $25 a month to apply on the fine.

DRY CELL AIM OBTAINED.

(Associated Press Leased Wire.)
MADISON, Wis., Oct. 28.—The perfection of a rechargeable dry cell battery, a development which has long been sought in the electrical field, was announced here today by the research staff of the French battery and carbon company.

SPORT NEWS

Willie Ritola, crowned 10 mile champion in mud and water at New York Saturday, has decided to go after some of the indoor records set out last winter by his compatriot, Paavo Nurmi. Ritola aims at Nurmi's marks from two miles up.

The Haskell Indians, who pitch their tents at Lawrence, Kans., on the few occasions they are home, will create a football record in the transportation field this season. Their schedule takes them 17,000 miles by rail.

Franklin Field, enlarge by the addition of an upper deck this season, seems inadequate to meet the demands for seats to Saturday's football classic between Pennsylvania and Illinois. Quaker fans are already beginning to talk about a 100,000 stadium next year.

Baseball writers, meeting at Chicago, have joined umpires in opposing the practice of major league stars lending their names to World's Series articles. They asked baseball officials to stop it.

No action will be taken by the New Jersey boxing commission on the Harry Wills-Floyd Johnson fight, which ended abruptly in the first round when one of Johnson's handlers tossed the towel of defeat into the ring. Both fighters were paid.

MARKETS

PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 28.—In spite of a slight increase in storage holdings this week values were well maintained in the local fresh egg market. Fresh medium and undersized eggs are a cent higher on the exchange at 46 and 33 cents respectively. Other grades held steady at recent advances.

A total of 51,040 cases of eggs were reported in Portland coolers yesterday, while the government report shows more than 57,000 cases at the close of last week.

Receipts of fresh eggs in this market yesterday were approximately 287 cases. Fresh butter continues to display a good healthy tone locally although prices in the east are somewhat easier. Bids on the dairy exchange held steady and unchanged for the day. Receipts of country dressed meats are more plentiful now and prices lower on both pork and veal. Choice light hogs are selling today at 17 to 17½ cents while choice light calves can be had at 14½ to 15 cents.

A few dressed turkeys are coming into the local market now and prices are steady at 36 to 40 cents. Live birds held around 30 cents. Other lines of poultry steady and unchanged.
