PROSECUTION RESTS CASE OF COL. MITCHELL

Defense Then Attacks Four of Charges, but Court Postpones Ruling

ADJOURNMENT TAKEN

Accused Officer Demands That Cabinet Members Be Compelled to Show Records

WASHINGTON, Nov. 2.—The prosecution rested its case against Colonel William Mitchell late today.

The defense then moved to strike out four of the eight specifications against the Colonel, but the court recessed until tomorrow, without ruling on that motion or deciding whether it would summon the long list of witnesses submitted earlier in the day by defense counsel.

Request is Sweeping

The army and navy officers for whom subpoenas were requested by the defense included not only those in direct charge of the two air services, but those who have general staff supervision over the army and navy organizations as a whole.

In addition, various aircraft experts and other civilians were on the list submitted by the colonel's counsel. They included Donald MacMillan, the Arctic explorer; Grover Loening, the aircraft manufacturer; Mrs. Zachary Lansdowne, widow of the commander of the Shenandoah; Kenevas Mountain Landis, the baseball czar, and Anton Heinen, one of the designers of the Shenandoah.

The defense also requested that Secretary Jardine of the Agricultural department; Everett Sanders, secretary to President Coolidge; and Dwight W. Morrow, head of the president's special air board be called.

The court proceeded with the actual opening of trial without indicating whether it would summon those named on Colonel Mitchell's list of witnesses. Another motion by Mitchell's counsel to dismiss the charges on the ground that the court had no jurisdiction, was quickly rejected. The prosecution called to the stand as its first witness A. A. Weaver, reporter for the San Antonio Texas "Light", to whom Colonel Mitchell gave a copy of his San Antonio statement, containing the accusations that led to his court martial.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 2.—Colonel William Mitchell, on trial by court martial, as a result of his criticism of the conduct of the government's air services, today asked the court to summon Secretaries Davis of the war department and Wilbur of the navy department, as witnesses.

Several other high officials of the two departments, several members of congress and more than sixty army and navy officers also were named by the defense in a list of those it would like to question.

The name of President Coolidge did not appear on the list. The Colonel and his counsel, after assessing the legal obstacles that would stand in the way of a subpoena from the president, had made up their minds not to try to summon him.

It was apparent from the Colonel's action in seeking to bring cabinet officials and members of congress into the trial that he hoped to thrash out in court the whole range of issues involved in the air controversy and thus present a justification for his charges that the air services had been administered with commercial and almost treasonable negligence. Whether the court will admit that procedure is questionable.

Official Records Wanted

Colonel Mitchell's counsel told the court that in asking for a subpoena for Coolidge's Secretary, Everett Sanders, they would "seek copies of all correspondence exchanged between the president and all persons relative to the necessity and reasons for the formation of the president's air board, headed by Dwight Morrow, as contained in the white house executive offices."

TRAIL SCHOOL CHILDREN BUS; KILLED, HURT

(Associated Press Local Wire.)
NASHUOTA, Ga., Nov. 2.—Six were killed and approximately 24 children injured when the Atlantic Coast line's fast New York-to-Florida passenger train crashed into a loaded school bus at a grade crossing here today.

The bus, which collected children in the vicinity, was nearing the town school, when it was struck mid-section by the train. The force of the impact scattered the children about the track and road.

The bodies and the injured children were placed on board a special train and taken to Waycross, where the injured were placed in a hospital.

FUNERAL OF MISS JEAN MADDOX TO BE HELD TUESDAY

Services Will Be Held at 2 P. M. at Undertaking Parlors—Died From Poison Saturday

Miss Jean Maddox, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Maddox, passed away at 7:30 o'clock Saturday night as a result of poisoning from bichloride of mercury. The poison was taken on Tuesday and in spite of every effort to save her life she grew slowly weaker until death put an end to her suffering on Saturday.

Miss Maddox was 16 years of age, having been born in Roseburg on February 5, 1911. She attended the Roseburg schools and was a junior in the Roseburg high school at the time of her death. She was an extremely talented young girl, particularly in music and in dramatics. She has had a prominent part in many programs and entertainments in Roseburg and was well known to the public of the city.

Besides her father and mother she leaves a brother, Richard Maddox, of this city, and two half-brothers, Anthony Maddox, of Sacramento, who is expected to arrive here today, and Woodson Maddox, of this city.

The funeral services are to be held on Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Roseburg Undertaking Parlors, Rev. McCullach, pastor of the Presbyterian church, officiating. Interment will take place in the I. O. O. F. cemetery.

DURKIN'S SHOTS PROVE FATAL TO CHICAGO OFFICER

(Associated Press Local Wire.)
CHICAGO, Nov. 2.—Another death has been charged to Martin J. Durkin, dapper automobile thief and slayer.

Sergeant Harry Gray, shot by the fugitive gunman in his sensational escape from a police trap last Wednesday night, died early today.

It was the second death in the costly attempt to capture the slayer of Edward Shanahan, government agent.

Lloyd Austin, uncle of Durkin's sweetheart, Betty Wurkin, in whose ill-fated police trap was laid, died of wounds received in a general shooting affray, from which Durkin escaped apparently unharmed.

When news of Gray's death was flashed, police redoubled efforts to apprehend the "steel vested" bandit, who had vowed he would not be taken alive.

NO REDUCTION FORCED IN CITY EMPLOYEE LIST

Revenue Enough to Retain Present Number, Mayor Houck States

PLAN TO LOWER DEBT

Sinking Fund Likely to Be Started Next Year for Retiring Smaller Bond Issues

That the city will not be obliged to reduce the personnel of its police force and street department to keep within its income, as suggested in the recent report of the budget committee, is the statement of Mayor Houck in discussing the report informally last Saturday. Mayor Houck states that certain monies allotted from funds received from the county for road work were inadvertently included in the list of prospective disbursements for next year when as a matter of fact, with the work already done and paid for, equivalent sums from the general revenues of the city will permit the retention of all the present employees. This condition is very gratifying to the mayor, who was loath to dismiss employees whose services could not conveniently be dispensed with.

Bonded Debt Problem.

The problem of establishing a sinking fund with which to meet $102,000 worth of city bonds when February 5, 1931. CHICAGO, Nov. 2.—A charge that Police Sergeant Naughton did not know how to use his shotgun and that his weapon took the lives of two men, was added to that of cowardice made against the police, when Sergeant Harry Gray died today.

"Naughton didn't know how to use his shotgun," Gray was quoted by relatives as having told them before he died. He said "how do you work this fool thing anyway?"

Naughton's son also was credited with killing Lloyd Austin, whose widow charged that police showed cowardice in the fight last Wednesday when Austin and Gray were shot down.

Big City Mayoralty Races Will Feature Elections in Thirteen States Tomorrow

(Associated Press Local Wire.)
WASHINGTON, Nov. 2.—Several contests which have attracted wide attention, notably the gubernatorial fight in New Jersey and the mayoralty campaigns in New York City, Boston and Detroit, will be settled tomorrow at the polls.

While Tuesday's elections are referred to as general, there will not be balloting in only 13 states, with statewide voting in only five of these. Besides New Jersey, Virginia will be the only state to elect a governor and in only one other state—Pennsylvania—is there a state office at issue, that of the judge of superior court.

Two members of congress are to be chosen to fill vacancies now existing in the third New Jersey and third Kentucky districts. While there is a vacancy in the senate from North Dakota, this will not be filled, as Governor Steiwer has declined to order a special election to determine the successor of the late Senator Ladd.

The mayoralty fight in New York, with Senator James D. Walker, democrat, who defeated Mayor John F. Hylan in the primary, having Frank D. Waterman, a pen manufacturer and politic novice, as his opponent, probably attracts the widest attention over the country. The bitter mayoralty contest, however, is that in Boston, where 10 candidates, seven democrats and three republicans are in the field. The Ku Klux Klan figures in the Detroit mayoralty fight, in which Mayor Smith is standing for re-election.

Mayors also are to be elected in Pittsburgh, Louisville and scores of other cities. Besides that at Indianapolis, there are 100 such contests in Indiana alone.

There will be no constitutional amendments. The most important of those before the New York voters propose bond issues of $300,000,000 to eliminate some grade crossings and $100,000,000 for permanent improvements. The principal amendment proposed in Ohio is that extending from two to four years the terms of state officers.

There will be a municipal election in Kansas City, Mo., which is to go under its new form of government, and also a San Francisco where the particular issue is whether the city is to purchase a street railway line at a cost of $25,000,000.

AI Smith's Power on Test.

NEW YORK, Nov. 2.—Another test of the political power of Governor Al Smith will be made at the polls throughout the state tomorrow.

Since he caused the defeat of Mayor Hylan of New York for re-election, the governor has been "stumping" the state for four amendments to the state constitution which will be submitted to the voters. The amendments have met with great opposition, from the republican machine, although some prominent republicans have come out for certain amendments.

Two of the proposed amendments provide for bond issues of $100,000,000, of which $300,000,000 would be used for elimination of grade crossings. The other two provide for consolidations of state departments and for reorganization of the judiciary. Republicans have attacked the proposed bond issues on the ground of potential extravagance.

JURY EXONERATES MAN WHO KILLED ANOTHER HUNTING

(Associated Press Local Wire.)
KLAMATH FALLS, Ore., Nov. 2.—Ted McKay, who accidentally shot and killed Clarence W. Jones while hunting quail Saturday afternoon, was exonerated by a coroner's jury Saturday night. The jury held the death to have been accidental.

Jones' body will be shipped to South Bend, Ind.

Searchers have not yet located the body of I. Sund, California-Oregon Power Company employe, who was drowned when a canvas boat in which he was hunting ducks, capsized. Searchers are continuing to drag Link river for the body.

CUPLE WHO FAKED PORTLAND HOLD-UP UNDER HEAVY BAIL

PORTLAND, Ore., Nov. 2.—Mylene Edwards Vance, arrested Saturday as perpetrator of the $4900 robbery from two Roberts Brothers store employes, is held today on $10,000 bail, and Ennis E. Prichard, one of the employes held up, who confessed to the police that the robbery had been planned by himself and the woman, is held under $5,000 bail. Pormal charges of "robbery by putting in fear, not being armed with a dangerous weapon," were filed against them today. The pistol used in the hold-up was a toy toy affair.

NOTORIOUS PAL OF CHAPMAN IS KILLED IN DUEL

"Dutch" Anderson's Career of Crime Ended at Cost of Officer's Life

BAD BILLS ON PERSON

Arrested Following Effort To Pass Counterfeit, He Fights and Own Gun Slays Him

(Associated Press Local Wire.)
MUSKOGON, Mich., Nov. 2.—A bandit slain here Saturday night after he had shot and fatally wounded Charles Hammond, city detective, was positively identified today as "Dutch" Anderson, noted thug and pal of Gerald Chapman, super-bandit.

The identification was made today by fingerprints of the slain bandit and those of Anderson. Several service operators, who arrived here this morning, also aided in the identification.

"There is no question but that it is Anderson," said Peter Hansen, chief of police. "The finger prints tell the story, while the Bertillon measurements also show it to be Anderson."

Police took the prints of the bandit's fingers as he was dying Saturday night at the station. Finger prints of Anderson arrived here this morning, and Lieutenant Roy Ferris of the identification bureau at once declared they were the same.

Anderson went to his death fighting. So did Detective Hammond, who, although fatally wounded, wrested the revolver from the bandit's hand in an alley in the shadows of the police station and then killed Anderson with the latter's own weapon.

The arrest was made after Anderson, who had $2,200 in counterfeit $20-dollar bills on his person, had passed one for a box of candy at a restaurant.

MUNICE, Ind., Nov. 2.—George W. "Dutch" Anderson, bandit, who is believed to have met death at Muskogon, Mich., was wanted here in connection with the murders of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Hance, who were slain last August. They were killed, presumably because of Hance's testimony given at the trial of Gerald Chapman, pal of Anderson, for killing a New Britain, Conn., policeman.

BOOZE HAUL MADE BY FEDERAL AGENTS SATURDAY NIGHT

Federal prohibition officers, who have been maintaining a blockade on the Pacific highway north and south of Roseburg in order to pick up booze runners, made another big haul late Saturday night when they captured Chan Garner of Los Angeles and confiscated a cargo of alcohol. One hundred gallons of alcohol was obtained and the car confiscated. A complaint was sworn to before U. S. Commissioner Charles F. Hopkins and Garner is being held in the city jail pending the arrival of a deputy U. S. marshal from Portland, at which time he will be arraigned before the commission. It is understood that he will waive examination and will be bound over to the federal grand jury at Portland. The blockade was lifted yesterday when the government agents took their confiscated liquor and cars and returned to Portland.

CINCINNATI, Nov. 2.—John L. Lott of the Department of Justice, Washington, D. C., announced here today that he will ask for citations here today of 92 salesmen of the National Cash Register Company, Dayton, Ohio, for contempt of court for alleged violation of an injunction issued against the company in 1915 to restrain unfair sales practices.

THEY LOOK BETTER TO SHAH IN PARIS THAN IN PERSIA

(Associated Press Local Wire.)
PARIS, Nov. 2.—The young shah of Persia appears indifferent to the news from Tehran of the overthrow of his dynasty, and seemingly is determined to continue his agreeable residence in Paris with occasional seasonal excursions to Deauville, Biarritz and London.

An ambassador of one of the great powers, engaging the shah in conversation at a dinner recently, said the Persian ruler had made no mention of political situations but had talked exclusively of horses and women.

AMERICAN LEGION MINSTREL REVUE VAUDEVILLE FINE

Jazz Orchestra Composed of Best Musicians in City Will Provide Accompaniment

The final week of rehearsals for the American Legion Minstrel Revue, will start tonight and next Monday and Tuesday nights, will see the show presented at the Antlers Theatre. Jack Coyle, the producer, declares that the boys are ready right now for the performance and one more week should trim off the rough edges and add the professional touch, usually lacking in home talent productions.

A feature of this year's Minstrel Revue is the vaudeville after-act. Headed by a jazz band composed of Miss Dorothy Gordon, pianist James Godman, Charles Caw and Roy Wells, saxophones, Oela White, violin, Walter Germain, trombone, and Delaine Stralder, traps, the entertainment will be strictly first class.

Chester Endrup, interlocutor for the show, is enthused over the pep being evinced by the members of the cast and the endmen have received a shipment of burnt cork and are ready for their evening of fun.

The tickets will go on sale tomorrow and can be exchanged at the box office for reservations starting Saturday morning at 10 o'clock. Those living outside of Roseburg should secure their reservations by mail without delay as present indications point to two packed houses. TURKISH TROOPS MAY COMPLICATE SYRIAN SITUATION

(Associated Press Local Wire.)
LONDON, Nov. 2.—A dispatch to the Daily Express from Beirut, Syria, says large bodies of Turkish troops are moving toward Mosul from Turkey.

The Daily Express has a similar report which puts the number of Turks at 5,000 and alleges that the French have given them permission to cross Syria.

The report says Great Britain has protested to the French government. The suggestion is that the French commanders in Syria are favoring the Turkish preparations to check British action against the Mosul boundary.

(Associated Press Local Wire.)
WASHINGTON, Nov. 2.—Official word of the recall by the French government of General Sarraill as French high commission in Syria reached the state department today.

General Dupont will be sent to Syria as high commissioner temporarily pending the appointment of a civilian to that post. The information came from the American embassy at Paris.

CREAMERY SAFE IS BLOWN FOURTH TIME IN ONE YEAR

KLAMATH FALLS, Ore., Nov. 2.—For the fourth time this year, a safe last night blew open the safe of the Klamath Falls creamery and the contents were scattered about with approximately $200 in cash.

The big safe was moved from the office to the ice room where the bandits blew open the big door with the accuracy of experts.

CHEST DRIVE ON TUESDAY, $8,000 GOAL

Five Teams to Start Campaign for Funds Tomorrow Morning

COOPERATION ASKED

All Intending Contributors Requested to be Ready With Pledges For Solicitors

Roseburg's first community chest drive starts off tomorrow morning, when the five teams start out with the aim of raising the full quota of $8,000 before the end of the week. The first day will be spent in soliciting the business district. After all of the business houses, factories and offices have been visited, assignments will be made to the residential district and every home in Roseburg will be visited.

For the first time in the history of the city, the people are being asked to give their money for charitable and benevolent purposes in a systematic and orderly manner.

Heretofore each organization has conducted its own drive separately. It has been forced to spend money for advertising and enter into other expenses. The community chest plan groups the expense and puts the money under one organization to be distributed carefully and in a manner where it will do the most good.

Ten organizations of special funds are included in the proposed budget for the Roseburg community chest. This includes practically all benevolent and charitable organizations in the city, and in addition provides a moderate sum for the administration work.

The budget is as follows: Salvation Army, $1,200; Camp Fire Girls Association, $300; Douglas County Concert Band, $600; Boy Scouts of America, $3,200; Corvallis Farm Home, $200; the White Shield Home, $200; Louise Home, $200; Alberta Kerr Home, $100; Near East Relief, $100; Emergency Fund (local), $1,200; Administration, $600.—Total $8,000.

This budget provides as much for each organization or cause as they have formerly received from Roseburg, less the amount usually expended in making their drive or campaign for funds. Although the budget is small, in comparison with other towns, yet it is believed to be as large as can be successfully handled for the first year.

Roseburg is patterning largely after Marshfield, where conditions are practically the same. Marshfield has had very great success with the community chest plan, and men from that city have given the local committee a great deal of valuable help in the way of suggestions. Marshfield is now building up a fund for local emergencies, securing a small addition each year, so that in the future should some great catastrophe visit the city there will be funds on hand to cope with the situation.

The teams which have been appointed to conduct the drive are as follows:

Captain A. C. Crawford, Kenneth Quine, O. B. Baker, I. B. Moore, V. T. Jackson, R. W. Marsters, W. O. Clinger, W. B. Day, M. F. Rice.

The lieutenant to work with Mr. Rice will not yet be selected, but will be chosen before the final meeting of the committee tonight. Each of the captains has the right to select his own workers.

Men who are asked to work on these committees are urged to respond. L. B. Moore on Saturday went without his lunch in order to have the time to give to the organization of the team of which he is a member. While he was willing to give up of his own time to this work, he found several men who declined to serve on the team because they were too busy.

All of the men who are taking the responsibility of this campaign upon their shoulders are busy men. They are, however, unselfishly giving of their time, as well as of their money, for what they consider to be their civic duty. Their work should not be made harder by the selfish refusal of others to aid in any way possible.

The first part of the drive will be centered entirely in the business district. Prospect cards are being made out bearing the names of all business houses, firms, corporations, etc. These cards will be divided up among the teams, and each
