SUNDAY AT THE CHURCHES

Church of Christ of Myrtle Creek for Sunday, Nov. 8. The fact that the communities are without the influence of the Bible School are the places that produce the greater amount of criminality should not be slighted. A town without the influence of the Bible School is a dangerous town to live in. Show that you appreciate the Bible School by being there on time next Sunday morning at 10:00 o'clock. The attendance is growing. Let us all work to reach our goal of 100. Preaching and communion at 11:00 a. m. The subject for the morning service will be "Hidden Treasure." Young folks, remember the Christian Endeavor at 6:30 p. m. The sermon in the evening should be heard by all members of the church and outsiders as well. The subject will be, "Knockers." "It is far better to be a 'knocker' than to be a cringing coward in the face of humanly foes."—Bob Shuler. Hear this sermon. It will do you good. Luke Elliott, Minister

St. George's Episcopal Church—Rev. Archdeacon Black, pastor. Early Holy Communion Services at 8:00 a. m. Morning prayer and sermon at 11:00 a. m. Church School in the Parish House at 9:45 a. m. You are always welcome.

The International Bible Students meet at the Moose Hall every Sunday. Bible Study at 10:30 a. m. The subject for this Sunday is a study with "The Lords Return and Hopes For Life Everlasting—Immortality." All who are interested in Bible Study are invited to attend.

First Presbyterian Church—Sunday in the Presbyterian church as follows: Bible school at 9:45; Mrs. Campbell, Supr. Classes are graded to conform with the age of the pupil. Church services at 11 o'clock. Theme of sermon: "A New Song." Two Endeavor Societies meet at 3:00 p. m. The Senior C. E. at 6:30. A splendid meeting with the last half hour of it given to a study of South America. At the evening services, Kenneth Tobias will speak. A cordial invitation is given to you to spend a part of your Sunday with us.

Catholic Church—Kane and Oak streets. Rev. B. Clery, pastor. November 8th. Mass and Sermon at 11:00 a. m. Catechism Classes immediately afterwards. Rosary and Benediction of the M. B. S. in the evening at 7:30.

Church Services—Services as usual at the Green schoolhouse on Sunday. Sunday school at 2:00 p. m., followed by a father and son service. Rev. W. S. McCullagh of the Presbyterian church of Roseburg will give the address. Special music. Fathers are urged to bring their sons to this service. Public invited.

Methodist Episcopal Church, Corner of East Lane and South Main streets. C. S. Coberly, pastor. Sunday school at 9:45 a. m. Morning services at 11 o'clock; sermon by the pastor, followed by the Sacrament of the Lord's supper. Preaching in the evening at 7:30. Rev. H. S. Shangle of Corvallis, Oregon, and presiding elder of the district, will bring the message. Rev. Mr. Shangle needs no introduction to the people of Roseburg. He is a splendid preacher and a good man, and his message will be of a high order. Business session of the first quarterly conference of the year will be held Saturday evening in the parlors of the church at 7:30. Senior Epworth League devotional meeting at 6:30 p. m. Junior League meeting Sunday afternoon at 2:30. This work is in charge of Miss Maude McQuaughey. It is hoped she will have the cooperation of the church in this important work. Prayer meeting Wednesday evening at 7:30, followed by rehearsal of the choir.

First Christian Church—Our evangelistic campaign opens Sunday morning with Kellems and Filewood in charge. These men are men of national reputation and years of experience. Every person in Roseburg should hear these men while they are here. The meetings will be conducted every night beginning at 7:30. We are planning for a great Bible school service every Sunday beginning at 9:45. There were 229 present last Sunday, and the largest class in the school was the Men's Bible Class. This class is taught by the pastor. Every man in the city who is not attending some class, is invited to attend this one. You will find a big welcome awaiting you next Sunday. H. E. MOW.

The First Baptist Church—Corner of Lane and Rose streets; H. L. Caldwell, Minister. 9:45 a. m. The Sunday school; Carlos Page, Superintendent. The Sunday school is running smoothly and efficiently with classes for all ages and grades. Capable and devout teachers in charge. If you are not in a Sunday school you are neglecting one of the best means of spiritual culture and are invited to be with us. 11:00 a. m. The Morning Worship. Message by the pastor. Good music by the choir and orchestra. The Majestic Theatre. An exciting man hunt features the early part of "The Call of Courage." Universal-Blue Streak Western starring Art Acord which is to be screened at the Majestic Theatre commencing tonight. This realistic hunt of a sheriff's posse for a lone man vividly illustrates the pleasure that men get out of hunting down one of their own. In this thrilling picture play, which is directed by Cliff Smith, Acord is supported by a splendid group of players. Among them are Olive Hasbrouck, Duke R. Lee, John T. Prince, Frank Rice, Turner Savage, aged 8, and Frank Shackelford.

THEATRES

and well as the most correct in detail, will come to the Liberty Theatre, commencing Sunday, when Manager Grass will present for the first time in this city, "The Last Edition," Emory Johnson's action-packed photoplay scenes which were taken in the new plant of the San Francisco Chronicle. Ralph Lewis, well known to movie fans, has the leading role in this punch picture. "The Last Edition," abounds in big scenes, while the climax showing the wrecking of a huge newspaper press and the explosion and burning of the entire plant together with the turning out of the entire Frisco fire department is a sure fire thrill.

Antlers Theatre. "Eivabla of the Ice Lands" which opens at the Antlers theatre commencing Friday, is an idyll of the Arctic, the tale of a man's devotion and a woman's steadfast love. For love is not a thing of race or climate, nor yet of civilization. "A thousand miles north of where the last tree grows, within the Arctic Circle, and on the northernmost tip of the American Continent, living under almost inconceivable hardships with the winter temperature around fifty degrees below zero, are the Eskimos who love the bleak desolation they call home. "Enduring equally the hardships, privation and misfortune of the natives as part of the daily lot, Mr. Rossman, during two years of Arctic travel and study, has in spite of the most trying photographic conditions recorded the struggle for existence of our most northern cousins. "For the first time in the history of Arctic exploration, a natural color film record of the Aurora Borealis was obtained." Liberty Theatre. When "The Fearless Lover" comes to the Liberty tonight for two days it will see in the person of the terrible tough who heads a most vicious gang, the person who in private life answers to the name of Tom Kennedy. To fight fans of a few years ago that name will mean something. Tom Kennedy was for a long time amateur heavy weight champion of the United States. At ordinary times Mr. Kennedy is the fight promoter of the American Legion Post fight stadium in Hollywood. This is the place where all fight events are put over and Mr. Kennedy is the leading light in the city in that field. Between times he takes various parts in the pictures of the C. B. C. Columbia Pictures Corp. of which this picture is one. In his fight on the edge of a roof with William Fairbanks, who plays lead in this picture, "The Fearless Lover," one is able to recognize the trained fighter.

Winter's Rainbow for Coughs and Colds. Quick Relief For Old and Young. DISTURBANCE IN A LOCAL THEATRE The picture of a local show house was very much disturbed and annoyed by the continuous coughing of a person in the audience. The cough was so bad that it was a source of annoyance to the other patrons. The cough was finally stopped by the use of Foley's Honey and Tar. The person who had the cough was very much surprised and pleased with the result. W. F. Chapman.

That Wonderful Quaker Flavor

Is true Scotch flavor—only QUAKER OATS has it

THE one thing to remember in buying oats is that Quaker Oats has the flavor you want. The difference is great. Oats, originally a Scotch dish, must have a certain Scotch flavor. There's real Scotch tang to that Quaker flavor. No other brand has it. None successfully imitates it. It's due to exclusive Quaker milling of the finest, plumpest oats. Milling methods which took some 50 years to perfect. Makes all the difference in the world. Quaker flavor spoils folks for ordinary brands. Quick Quaker cooks in 3 to 5 minutes. No kitchen muss busy mornings. Faster than plain toast. Due to Quaker milling methods, it supplies, too, the "roughage" you need to make laxatives seldom necessary.
