Mrs. Ashcraft Hostess To W. C. T. U.

Mrs. W. W. Ashcraft was a gracious hostess on Wednesday afternoon when she invited to her home the members of the W. C. T. U.

Tall chrysanthemums in vases brightened the rooms where the time was spent in various diversions. Mrs. B. L. Eddy conducted the devotionals, after which a report of the state convention at Hood River was heard by Mrs. D. C. McGehey, of Glenary.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. J. O. Arthur, in Laurelwood.

Loyal Circle Class Entertains Last Week

The young married set, members of the Loyal Circle Class of the Christian Church taught by Mrs. H. B. Church, entertained with a Hallowe'en party Monday evening of last week, at the church parlors, having as invited guests their husbands.

The parlors were festive with designs in Hallowe'en colors where games and stunts made the evening merry. Later a luncheon was served to about fifty guests.

Masquerade Party at Crawford Home

Among the many affairs which marked the past Hallowe'en season was the party given Friday evening of last week, when Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Crawford were hosts at their home on Winchester street, having as guests the Sunday school class taught by Mrs. Crawford at the Baptist church.

Amidst rooms, festive with Hallowe'en designs and arrangements of tall chrysanthemums in baskets and vases, games and sports were diversions of the evening. Later refreshments were served by the hostess.

Northside Sunshine Club Meets

The Northside Sunshine Club met at the home of Mrs. S. B. Nichols this week for the purpose of making definite plans for their banquet to be held Saturday, November 14.

For a time the ladies chatted, and later a luncheon was served. The hostess was assisted by Mrs. Lenox. Present were Mesdames C. R. Cavender, R. Anderson, F. S. Reister, F. Bowen, B. F. Chilson, R. E. Harness, Wm. Fisher, R. Marsters, I. W. Ingels, W. E. Marsters, G. Marsters, L. C. Goodman, Lennox and Miss Jia Lauback.

Mrs. LaGrander Entertains Grade Class

Mrs. Clair La Grander entertained the members of her seventh grade class, at her home in south Drain, last Friday evening. Typical Hallowe'en decorations ornamented the rooms. The evening was devoted to playing games—among the most interesting being "Seeing the Ghost," Fortune telling and pinning the eyes on pumpkins, which was won by Eugene Iwearing, was also played.

Most of the young folk were masked so well that a great deal of fun was had in guessing the identity of the various characters, among which were the hold up men, Puritan maiden, the old woman, a ghost and the old, old man.

A luncheon was served which consisted of sandwiches, pickles, cider and doughnuts, apples and candy.

"I'm too busy" A FRIEND of mine was worn out shopping around—trying to buy a particular something-or-other. Hours had been spent, also strength and temper—and the desired articles had not been found. I asked if she had read the advertisements to see where it could be found—before wasting hours of fruitless search. The answer was "No, I never have time to read advertisements. I'm too busy." Yet, in the first paper we picked up, the article she wanted was advertised; its price and merit told; also where to get it. Reading advertisements is a time-saver. It's a good, safe investment in information concerning the best things the market offers you and where to get them. Take time to read advertisements—and you'll save time and money in buying the kind of product you want. ROSEBURG NEWS-REVIEW DOUGLAS COUNTY
