LOCAL NEWS

It's going to be warm at Rainbow Gardens Saturday night. Big jitney dance.

You've probably wondered what couple waltzed the most charmingly. That will be settled at Rainbow Gardens Saturday nite. Come out!

Mrs. Josephine Jones and Mrs. Ellen Post, county health nurses, left this morning for Medford where they will attend the sectional meeting of the Oregon organization for health nurses. Mrs. Jones is scheduled to lead the discussion on county nursing.

ASHBY'S Imported Broccoli seed will be ready for delivery after December 1. Order from Mrs. N. C. Ashby, Apartment 6, over Rose Confectionery, Roseburg.

Robert Johnson, attorney representing the former custodian, later said he would insist first upon a bill of particulars. The indictment was "incomplete and "fictitious" in its details, he asserted, and emphasized the charge made therein that the alleged overt acts occurred between January 17, 1921, and February 21, 1925. This period was noted, according to Mr. Johnson, in an effort to prevent operation of the statute of limitations which otherwise would outlaw the crimes.

Two big stoves will keep you warm at Rainbow Gardens Saturday night. Be there!

USE YOUR HEAD JUST A MOMENT—and consider the following:

36 acres of sandy, river bottom soil, no better in Oregon; all level; borders on fine stream; irrigation ditch; free water; 16 acres prunes just coming into bearing; 200 Bartlett Pear trees; 40 cherry trees; some family orchard; new 6 room bungalow; big fireplace; barn full hay and feed; team; harness; wagon; full set tools and implements; on hard surfaced road; near school; mail route. Considering equality, this place has no equal for the price. Everything goes for $3800, part cash, balance long time. LAWRENCE AGENCY, 125 Cass Street. Phone 219.
