MINSTREL SHOW AT ANTLERS TONIGHT AT 8:15

The curtain on the American Legion Minstrel will rise promptly at 8:15 o'clock tonight and from the time of the opening number, "Our States," by the entire company, the audience will be supplied with plenty of entertainment.

Those who witnessed yesterday's rehearsal were loud in their praise of the production and declare that anyone who attends will certainly get more than a dollar's worth of entertainment. Following the minstrel first part there will be five acts of vaudeville.

The seat sale for both nights has been exceptionally fine, but there are still a good number of fine seats left. It looks like a packed house for both nights.

All who hold tickets for tonight's show are urged to be in their seats by 8:15 as the curtain will rise as per schedule at that time.

VIOLINIST FEATURE AT THE ANTLERS.

Donald Parker, concert violinist, scored a big hit at the Antlers theatre last night in his rendition of Los Patineurs, concert waltz number 1. Mr. Goux states that Mr. Parker was one of the best attractions he has booked for some time and expects to feature him again on Sunday night. He also played during the showing of the feature film, accompanied by Grace Thrall at the organ.
