Home-Coming Event Stimulates University Squad to Supreme Efforts in Face of Odds in Favor of Their Old Rivals—Crowd Estimated at 20,000 Views Game in Drizzle.

HAYWARD FIELD, Eugene, Nov. 14.—Before one of the largest crowds that ever witnessed a homecoming game, Oregon and O. A. C. are in excellent shape and ready to start the contest. A slight rain does not seem to hurt the field, which is newly covered with a coating of sawdust. The gridiron appears in good shape and indicates a speedy game will be run off before the large throngs.

EUGENE, Ore., Nov. 14.—The day dawned cloudy and chilled the annual Oregon-O. A. C. football clash on Hayward field here this afternoon. There was every indication that the threatening rain would hold up and hopes were high that the field would be fairly dry and fast.

Oregon's big homecoming rally was staged last night, and today the campus is filled with alumni and friends of the University, as well as with visiting Aggie supporters.

The Aggies, according to the dope, are scheduled to win by about ten points. Both teams, however, have drilled for the past week on trick and surprise plays and any kind of attack may result. The probable attendance this morning was placed at 20,000.

The probable lineups are:
Oregon Position O. A. C.
Mautz RE Robbin
Dixon RT Dickerson
Kerns RG Olmstead
Johnson C Balcom
Leavitt LG Rickett
Sinclair LT Dixon
Smith LE Ward
Anderson QB Edwards
Siltus RH Denman
Weazel LH Schulmerich
Jones FB Snider

Officials: Sam Moyer (California), referee; Bob Morris (Washington), umpire; H. H. Heubel, California; head linesman.

Luck May Favor Oregon.

EUGENE, Ore., Nov. 14.—Shortly before noon today a drizzling rain began, and early this afternoon there was every indication that a rain might fall during the playing of the annual University of Oregon-Oregon Agricultural College football game here.

The city was thronged with Oregon alumni and Aggie rooters. It was estimated that 20,000 people would witness the game.

Fans starting to the field were clad in overcoats and mufflers, as the day was uncomfortably cold for those who were to sit in the bleachers for the four periods of the game.

Odds favored the Aggies, with the Oregon backers depending on the fact that this is Oregon's homecoming game and their main forte. With a damp field it was conceded that many things unexpected might happen.

NO HOPE FOR SUBMARINE'S CREW OF 68

British Admiralty Makes Formal Announcement to Relatives.

CRAFT BEYOND HELP

Efforts of Mine Sweepers and Other Vessels to Find Resting Spot Unsuccessful.

(Associated Press Leased Wire.)
LONDON, Nov. 14.—The admiralty deeply regrets that they no longer hold out any hope that the crew of the M-1 still survive. This brief officially announced this morning was taken as definitely sealing the fate of the 68 officers and men embarked in the monitor-submarine, which disappeared off the Devonshire coast during Thursday's maneuvers.

Although mine sweepers and other vessels have been searching the waters of the English channel almost continuously since the submarine submerged early Thursday morning during maneuvers, they have encountered no signs which would lead to hope.

There has been nothing to confirm that the hull located in the channel yesterday is the M-1 rather than that of any one of the numerous wrecks that are supposed to be lying on the floor of the channel, some of them sent to the bottom during the World War by German submarines.

Respects from officers of the manning fleet who saw the M-1 take the fatal plunge are too indefinite and speculative to furnish an explanation of the cause. The admiralty also sent to the relatives of the crew the following message:

The circumstances in which the submarine disappeared leaves room for no doubt that your son (or husband) has lost his life with the wreck.
