WOODARD WINS FROM WOODS ON DECLARED FOUL

constant aggressiveness pleased the crowd, and a roar of disapproval shook the armory when the decision was given to Dundee. There was a big round of applause for the winner, but long after it had died away there was repeated hooting and cries of "rotten." Had the verdict been left to the spectators, the majority would have voted the match a draw. It was generally conceded that Dundee shaded Boles on points, but the colored boy was generally regarded as having earned a draw by practically carrying the fight nearly all the way. Another decision to which some of the crowd took exception was that given to Battling Rutter, 155 pounds, over Art Anderson, 150, in the fourth curtain raiser. Anderson took nine seconds getting up from a knockdown in the third round, but he made such a strong finish that some believed he was entitled to a draw.

Ira Hatfield, 130, and Bill Haah, 135, drew in the second preliminary. Both boys fought well, but they lacked sufficient steam in their punches to endanger each other or enough wind to go the full route in original form.
Boles Gets Another Chance.
So eager are the local fans to see another match between Boles and Dundee—no less eager than Boles himself and probably Dundee as well—that promoter Clough has carded the boys for the semi-final of his next bill, to be held on December 11, according to tentative arrangements. The bout should be even better than the one last night.

Boles, now thoroughly acquainted with Dundee's style of fighting and smarting under an adverse decision that he feels was unjust to him, will work harder than ever to win, and Dundee, with the benefit of more time for intensive training, which he probably needs to better condition himself, will be able perhaps to improve on his stuff. It promises to be a great argument.
Woodard vs. Storey.
The fans are also to be granted their desire to see Ernie Woodard on the next bill. His opponent will be Archie Storey, a Marshfield boy, in whose behalf a challenge was made from the ring last night. Woodard will not be under a weight handicap this time. Storey, it was announced, fights at from 135 to 140 and is willing to give 10 pounds. As Woodard's normal poundage is 142, the boys will be practically evenly matched as far as weight is concerned. Storey is an unknown quantity here, but his backers have so much confidence in him that they would have matched him with the much heavier Spec Woods had the latter gained a decision over Woodard last night. This would indicate that Woodard will have a real battle on his hands, but there is no doubt in the minds of those who saw him last night but that he will give a good account of himself. The boys will be carded of course for the main event of 10 rounds.
Foley Beats Ridley.
PORTLAND, Ore., Nov. 21.—Vic Foley, Canadian bantamweight champion, won a unanimous decision over Bud Ridley, Seattle, in a ten-round bout here last night. Foley had the bout well in hand after the second round. He piled up a big margin on points by ripping in body blows to Ridley's mid-section and mixing up this attack with a straight left hand to his opponent's jaw. The Canadian shook the Seattle boy several times with hard right hand smashes to the head.

JUNIOR CLASS TO PRESENT PLAY ON DECEMBER 3RD

The Junior Class of the Roseburg high school, in its annual play to be given at the Antlers theatre, Thursday evening, December 3, is presenting that very popular three-act comedy, "Mrs. Bumpstead-Leigh." This play was written by Henry Gray, but was really made by Mrs. Flske, who played the title role in an extended engagement at the Lyceum theatre, New York. Mrs. Flske will be remembered by Roseburg people as the "Mrs. Mallibron" in "The Rivals," played in Eugene last summer.

Especially outstanding material in the Junior Class made the selection of this rather heavy comedy possible. Miss Daphne Hughes, who has spent much of her time studying dramatic interpretation, is ably taking the part of Mrs. Bumpstead-Leigh. She is supported by a very able cast, who are working hard at the play rehearsals.
The plot centers around the Snyles family of Missionary Loop, Indiana, who, after having made money in the sale of patent medicine, moved to the national capital, then England. They changed their name to DeSalle, and the oldest daughter, Adelaide married the Rev. Akernon Bumpstead-Leigh. Later, on returning to New York to visit the wealthy Rawson family, an old suitor of Adelaide's, Peter Swallow, turns up most mysteriously. With the aid of Anthony Rawson, he creates some strange complications.
But, as in the usual comedy, after many laughs, the complications are cleared and a happy ending follows.

ENGLAND MOURNS DEATH OF BELOVED QUEEN ALEXANDRA

(Associated Press Special Wire.)
LONDON, Nov. 21.—The British Empire is in mourning over the passing of the beloved Dowager Queen Alexandra. Flags flew at half mast in London today, and many buildings were draped in black.
In London from 8 to 9 o'clock the big bell in St. Paul's tolled out sonorously the tale of the passing of a member of Great Britain's royal family. It is only when a member of royalty dies that the clanging of the bell in St. Paul's awakens the sleeping belfry.
Numerous social functions arranged for last night were cancelled. The theaters did not close their doors, but in them and in the motion picture houses which gave their program, funeral marches were played.
No date has yet been announced for the funeral of Alexandra, nor when her body will be taken to Windsor to lie in the royal vault in St. George's Chapel beside that of Edward VII. It is expected, however, that the funeral will not be held for two weeks.
When Queen Victoria died many people wore black for some weeks. Dealers in women's wear in the west end of London began last evening to replace gray garments and millinery in their shop windows by black apparel in anticipation of a considerable demand from those who desire to go into complimentary mourning.
The American ambassador, Alanson B. Houghton, today sent his personal condolences to King George. He also expressed to foreign offices the sympathy of the American nation.
