SENATOR WHEELER AGAIN IN COURT IN CONSPIRACY CASE

(Associated Press Special Wire.) WASHINGTON, Nov. 27.—Arguments on the indictment returned here against Senator Wheeler of Montana were begun today before Justice Bailey in the District of Columbia supreme court. Senator Wheeler's counsel, Senator Walsh of Montana, contended that the present charge of conspiracy against his client was based upon the same set of facts Senator Wheeler faced in his own state where he was acquitted of a charge of improperly representing Gordon Campbell, Montana oil operator, before the Interior Department. It is the contention of Senator Wheeler that in view of his former acquittal, the federal government cannot legally proceed against him in the District of Columbia. The government holds the cases are wholly unlike and are based upon different transactions that consequently the indictment must stand. JUDGE ENGLISH IS CITED FOR HIS PROFANE ENGLISH (Associated Press Special Wire.) EAST ST. LOUIS, Ill., Nov. 27.—Federal Judge George W. English, of the eastern Illinois district, is cited in a brief filed with the special house judiciary subcommittee in investigating his official conduct, as a man who has done some mistakes, but who has done nothing for which he can properly be impeached. In a document of more than 25,000 words, made public today, counsel for Judge English gave an exhaustive analysis of the evidence and concludes with this paragraph: "The most that can be said against Judge English, as shown by the evidence in this case, is that he has made some mistakes."

Among the other charges against Judge English, the brief deals at length with his use of profanity in a lecture from the bench to a group of state attorneys and sheriffs. It asks the investigating committee, "in view of all the good work done by Judge English," not to condemn him for using a few curse words.

"Very recently," continues the argument on this point, "a certain candidate was elected to a very important position in our government who is reported to have had the habit of frequently emphasizing his remarks with a little profanity. In former years a member of congress who had the same habit, was honored by his associates for many years by being elected speaker of that body. One of the greatest governors that Illinois ever had who also served a term in the United States senate, was in the habit of using such profanity in his conversation and public utterances as would make Judge English look like a Sunday school superintendent."
