

THE WOMAN'S PAGE

SOCIETY

By GRACE CARROLL
All contributions to this page, society, women's clubs, and personals, should be telephoned to the society editor by Friday

The strengthening of family ties, the renewing of old friendships and the warmth and glow that comes from seeing one's own family together about the hearthstone again, has supplied a motif as a connecting link for the week. The past week has brought to many homes the joy of reunion, and a legion of young college folk, many with one or two guests, have enlivened the week with jolly and informal parties and dances. Thanksgiving is the day on which the great bird, first found by our forefathers, supersedes all others at the family dinner table throughout the country. Many Roseburg homes enjoyed their hospitality this year a few large dinners being held, the majority being quiet home dinners.

Mrs. Booth Luncheon Hostess Tuesday
The J. H. Booth home was the scene of a pleasant one o'clock luncheon Tuesday, when Mrs. Booth entertained a group of friends at the second of a series of winter affairs.

Yellow Barbee chrysanthemums formed an attractive centerpiece for the table about which were seated Miss Frances Howell, Mrs. George Kohlhagen, Mrs. L. B. Skinner, Mrs. W. A. Bell, Mrs. A. C. Marsters, Mrs. George Hock, Mrs. George Johnson, Mrs. Dexter Rice, Mrs. S. L. Kidder, Mrs. Joseph Knotts, Mrs. A. S. Coen and the hostess. Later sewing and conversation were diversions.

Players Progressing With Junior Class Play
The junior class play "Mrs. Bumpstead-Leigh," a three-act comedy, will be presented at the Antlers theatre, December 2.

The play has a very interesting plot, beginning with the family of Sayles in Indiana, of whom Mrs. Bumpstead-Leigh is the older daughter. The daughter wins a name in the society of Washington, D. C., and the family name is changed to DeSalles. They are later confronted with one of their old friends, Peter Swallow. The question is: does he queer the future of the DeSalles?

The stage manager, Max Carman is working hard to make the stage very attractive. Truman Runyan is business manager and Allen Moore and Myrtle Weatherford are property workers.

C. O. Broders, the coach, states that the cast is working hard after their Thanksgiving holiday, and the play is progressing nicely. Tickets are now on sale and all seats will be reserved. Admission prices are 75c in the evening and 50c for the matinee. No additional charge is made for reserved seats. Seats can be reserved after Tuesday, 10 a. m.

Junior Music Club Meets This Afternoon
The Junior Music club of the Heinline conservatory will have an interesting meeting at the conservatory this afternoon, for which a program has been prepared. The club while only recently formed, is quite active, and is taking up a number of interesting things in music.

The program will include a piano solo, by Wilma Howard; a discourse, telling of the interesting musicians of Longfellow's time, by Marjorie Stafford; a musical reading, by Helen Wetherell, in which Miss Wetherell takes a story from the Etude; a piano solo, by Maude Williams; Elizabeth Williams and Eliza Hardman will have charge of the musical games which follow the program. A guessing contest, sponsored by Mrs. C. S. Heinline each week, will later be given, this time the major scales being taken for the theme.

On Friday morning, the mothers, of the children attending kindergarten, met at the conservatory, where they witnessed the work of the class, which put on demonstration work in songs, games, dances and piano. About fifteen mothers attended.

Miss Louise Anderson was a guest of friends in Portland over the Thanksgiving holidays.

Knights Templars Have Banquet
Honoring their wives and lady friends, the Knights Templars held a banquet at the Rose Hotel Dining room, Tuesday evening at 7 o'clock.

Mrs. Wimberly Entertains Bridge Club
On Friday evening of last week, Mrs. G. Wimberly entertained, having to her home the members of her bridge club, and a few added guests.

Decorations of gold were used about the rooms, carried out in lovely chrysanthemums, where several tables of bridge were in play during the afternoon. High score was received by Mrs. H. C. Waddell. At the tea hour a dainty luncheon was served by the hostess at small tables. Enjoying Mrs. Zigler's hospitality were the Messdames R. L. Whipple, S. J. Shoemaker, George Wharton, Jack Wharton, Harold Nichols, C. S. McElhinny, Guy Gordon, Carl Wimberly, Roy Catching, Kenneth Quine, George Johnson, and invited guests were Mrs. W. T. Grayson, Mrs. Fred Huber, Mrs. Fred Strang, Mrs. S. G. Sellick, and Mrs. Ralph Quine.

Grace Has Thanksgiving Dinner
The South Deer Creek Grange held a community Thanksgiving dinner at their hall Thursday, about 80 members and their friends being present to partake of the good things to eat and enjoy the program.

The program consisted of a song "America," by audience; a reading by Lois Duncan; piano selection by Miss Eileen McLaughlin; a recitation by Albert Kereher, a piano selection by Miss Josephine Cachelin, an address by Dr. C. H. Bailey, on "Fast and Modern Inventions," a recitation by Hattie Kercher, and an address by Mrs. W. L. Scott, the South Deer Creek school teacher, recitations by Nellie Rose Melton, Frieda Duncan and Rachael Smith, a piano solo by Miss Ruth Blood. Robert McLaughlin gave an interesting address telling of the condition of the roads leading into Roseburg a generation ago and how it was then necessary for a resident of the valley to travel by horseback, a "good old days." A humorous recitation by Calvin Smith concluded the program. In the evening the members and guests enjoyed dancing.

Bridge and Dinner Club at Hochradel Home
Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Hochradel were hosts on Tuesday, having members of the Bridge and Dinner Club for the evening.

At six o'clock dinner was served at one large table centered with lovely yellow and red chrysanthemums. Later several tables of bridge were made up for the evening's diversion. Mrs. J. R. Farrington received first prize in the eventing with Mr. and Mrs. Hochradel were Mr. and Mrs. George Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Farrington, Mr. and Mrs. Leon McClintock, Dr. and Mrs. Clair K. Allen and Dr. and Mrs. H. C. Church.

Dr. and Mrs. Clair K. Allen and family are spending the holidays at Washington, Washington, where they are guests of Mrs. Allen's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. White.

Culvers Have Guests for Dinner
Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Culver were hosts at Thanksgiving dinner, Thursday, at their home on Rice creek.

A large turkey surrounded by the simple and appetizing dishes of the holiday made the table. Covers were placed for Mr. and Mrs. Walter Singleton, Mr. and Mrs. John Atterbury, Ford Singleton, Ivan Atterbury, Harlan Atterbury, and Mr. and Mrs. Culver. The afternoon was spent in riding, hiking and other sports.

Dr. and Mrs. H. C. Church spent the Thanksgiving holidays at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Davis, the parents of Mrs. Church, at Marshfield.

Mr. and Mrs. Winston Have Family at Dinner
Following a yearly custom Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Winston had the members of their family together at Thanksgiving dinner at their home in Winston on Thursday at 2 o'clock.

Dinner was served at one large table where a centerpiece of roses, marigolds and chrysanthemums was used. Covers were placed for Mr. and Mrs. Winston and children, Harrison, Beverly, Virginia and Ulah Agnes, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Winston, and family, Kenneth, Norma, and Dorothy, Mr. and Mrs. Colby Adams, of Oakland, Mr. and Mrs. Clay Smith and family, Dale, Thelma and Earl, Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Lenoix and son, Gordon, Mr. and Mrs. E. McCormick, and sons, Fred, Harold, and Maynard, Mr. and Mrs. Harley Swift, Mr. and Mrs. B. Eastman and sons, Herbert, Richard and Maynard, and Mr. and Mrs. Winston.

Mrs. Zigler Entertains Club
Mrs. B. C. Zigler entertained at her home on 229 Vista Avenue, Monday afternoon, having as guests the members of the Monday Bridge Club.

Bright chrysanthemums formed attractive decorations in the rooms, where two tables of bridge were in play during the afternoon. High score was received by Mrs. H. C. Waddell. At the tea hour a dainty luncheon was served by the hostess at small tables. Enjoying Mrs. Zigler's hospitality were the Messdames R. L. Whipple, S. J. Shoemaker, George Wharton, Jack Wharton, Harold Nichols, C. S. McElhinny, Guy Gordon, Carl Wimberly, Roy Catching, Kenneth Quine, George Johnson, and invited guests were Mrs. W. T. Grayson, Mrs. Fred Huber, Mrs. Fred Strang, Mrs. S. G. Sellick, and Mrs. Ralph Quine.

Bubars Have Families to Dinner Thursday
Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Bubar were hosts at 2:30 o'clock dinner on Thanksgiving Day at their home, having their family and a few added guests together.

Seated about a table, pretty with decorations in keeping with the occasion, were Mr. and Mrs. Washington Hughes, Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Akeley, Mr. and Mrs. P. T. Bubar, Eugene, Miss Dawn Frances Pipes, Eugene, Miss Pauline Bubar, Miss Daphne Hughes, Miss Grace Bubar, and Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Bubar.

Mr. and Mrs. T. Wharton, spent Thanksgiving Day in Eugene as guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Duran.

Club to Have First Winter Meeting
The Garden Valley Woman's club will hold its first winter meeting on Thursday afternoon, December 3, when Mrs. S. Hutton will be hostess at the club rooms in Garden Valley. Plans for the season's work will be outlined and a number of important things will be taken up.

The residents of Gilde and Idle-yld Park gathered on Thursday at the park where they partook of a big Thanksgiving dinner and spent the afternoon dancing. A large crowd attended both in the afternoon and evening.

St. George's Guild to Meet
The ladies of St. George's guild will hold their regular meeting at the parish home on Thursday afternoon of next week.

Following the business meeting the ladies will now and complete plans for the Christmas bazaar to be held on Saturday, December 25. Luncheon will be served at the tea hour.

Mrs. C. V. Hiedel and son, Bobby, spent the Thanksgiving holiday at Rogue River, where they were guests of relatives.

Ferroll Has Host at Thanksgiving Dinner
On Thursday evening Ferroll had as host to a small group of friends at a 7 o'clock dinner at the Storey Inn home on Pitzer street.

An attractive bowl of fruit with candles on either side, formed the centerpiece, where covers were placed for Misses Etta Shambart, Dorothy Ogel, Lois Hamilton, Grace Carroll and Messrs. Roland Schwartz, Linton Bowden, of Yreka, Kenneth Housholder, and Ferroll. Music and conversation formed the diversion and later the group attended the Thanksgiving dance sponsored by Company D, 142nd Infantry, O. N. G., at the Armory.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Cummings and family, of this city, spent Thanksgiving Day as guests of Mrs. Cummings' parents, in Salem.

Pleasant Evening at Richards Home
Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Richards were hosts at their home on Wednesday evening inviting for the evening a group of friends.

Chrysanthemums decorated the rooms where four tables of five formed were in play. Receiving first prize was Floyd Stevens. Following the game the hostess served a luncheon. Guests for the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Harry Burr, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Burr, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Stevens, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Wells, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Post, Mrs. Woodley Stevenson, Mrs. R. A. Blaxall and Mr. Joe Denn.

Dinner at Conlee Home on Thursday
Mr. and Mrs. G. W. McMahon and Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Conlee entertained at dinner at the home of the latter on Thanksgiving day, having as guests a small group of friends.

Chrysanthemums formed the table decorations and covers were placed for Miss Mae Fisher, Miss Lorlene Conlee, Messrs. Bill Reibel, Fred Kellington, Joe Ward Young, Mr. and Mrs. S. N. Young, Mr. and Mrs. McMahon and Mr. and Mrs. Conlee.

Mrs. Segel Entertains Club at Ten Mile
The Ten Mile Community club held a pleasant afternoon this week when Mrs. L. Segel entertained the members at her home.

The afternoon was varied with a Thanksgiving program, including a reading by Mrs. G. Barnes, readings by Mrs. Segel and a number of stories by other members of the circle. Miss Vera Rookard, a visitor from Bridge, gave a recitation. Later the hostess assisted by Mrs. Barnes, served luncheon. Present were the Messdames A. Coats, G. Barnes, F. C. Rookard, L. Breitenbucher, Miss Vera Rookard and Miss Eva Breitenbucher.

Mr. and Mrs. Dillard Have Group to Dinner
Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Dillard were hosts at a 4:30 o'clock Thanksgiving dinner, having the members of the immediate family at their home.

At the table, centered with lovely chrysanthemums, were seated Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Bates, Mr. and Mrs. Bert G. Bates, Ross Bates, Charlotte Lee Dillard, and Mr. and Mrs. Dillard.

Dr. and Mrs. Bradburn Entertain at Dinner
Dr. and Mrs. George A. Bradburn entertained a group of relatives and friends at Thanksgiving dinner at their home in Winston on Thursday.

The table was bright with a centerpiece of attractive chrysanthemums, where dinner was served at 2 o'clock. Following dinner the guests spent the afternoon in conversation and music.

Bidden to the Bradburn home were Mr. and Mrs. Russell Dunham and children, of Marshfield, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Waddell, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Warner, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Craven, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Renner, Messdames Suste Koller, L. O. Maddox, Misses Kathryn Dunham, of Myrtle Point, Marion Porter, Elizabeth Penner, Emma Mae Craven, Willa Craven, and Mr. George Bradburn.

Family Have Dinner at Bell Home
Mrs. S. W. Bell and Miss Minnie Bell were hostesses to the members of their family at their home on Terrace Avenue, at a Thanksgiving dinner on Thursday.

The rooms of the attractive home were brightened with chrysanthemums in baskets and tall vases, and in the dining room a motif of yellow was effectively carried out with a centerpiece of small Barbee chrysanthemums in a silver basket at the table. Covers were placed for Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Parlow, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Bell, of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Lindott, Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Bell, Messrs. L. S. Ketch, Louis Hillman, Raymond Bell, Maynard Bell, and the hostesses.

O. A. C. Dance Tonight at K. P. Hall
An affair of this evening, which will bring to a climax the social events of the week of college students home during the holidays, will be the dance sponsored by the Greater O. A. C. committee, to be held at the K. P. Hall.

Committees have been working during the day and the hall has been decorated in the college colors and fraternity and sorority pennants have been hung from the ceiling, giving the room an attractive appearance. Students of the high school, and alumni and students of O. A. C. and alumni have been invited to attend, and Roy Evans' five-piece orchestra will furnish music for the evening. Punch will be served from the booth. Patrons and patronesses will be Mr. and Mrs. Chas. McElhinny, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. N. Rice, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Chapman, Mr. and Mrs. G. K. Quine, Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Beckley, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Houser and Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Newland.

Community Dinner at Melrose Thursday
Among the enjoyable community Thanksgiving gatherings was that at the Melrose Grange hall on Thursday, when at noon about seventy were seated at long tables where dinner was served. The dinner, prepared by ladies of the community, included all the delicious foods which accompanies a turkey served on Thanksgiving.

Proceeding the dinner, the time was spent in conversation and anecdotes. In the afternoon games formed the pastime, the group participating in games of horseshoe, foot races and other sports. A short program was presented, which included several instrumental solos, by Miss Veneta Kruse; vocal solos by Mrs. Cora Knapp, and a reading by Miss Joyce Busenbark.

Enjoying the affair were Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Peterson and family, C. E. Fredrickson and family, H. P. Conn and family, R. A. Busenbark and family, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Goff, Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Busenbark and family, Mr. and Mrs. C. Mabley and baby, Mr. and Mrs. S. Burroway and son, Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Conn and family, Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Penn and family, Mrs. C. E. Mabley and family, Mrs. Cora Knapp, Mrs. Carrie Kruse and daughter, Veneta, Misses Olive Burkhardt, Helen Busenbark, Katharine Busenbark, "Grandma" Burroway, Messrs. Bert Kruse, Ernest Johnston, Andrew Johnson, Gilbert Sutton, N. L. Conn, Henry Scott, K. L. Conn, A. Meyers, and Darby.

Eight-O Club Has Pleasant Meeting
One of the meetings of the Eight-O Club for the winter season occurred on Monday afternoon, when Mrs. J. H. Fee asked the members to her home on 620 East Douglas street.

At 12 o'clock the hostess served luncheon at one large table in the dining room. A yellow motif was carried out in a centerpiece of chrysanthemums, with place cards, and candles, in the same color. Later the bridge was the diversion and high honors went to Mrs. H. F. Ogdan.

POETS' CORNER

Signed Contributions for This Department May Be Sent to the Society Editor of The News-Review, and Will Be Used as Space is Available.

A THANKSGIVING DINNER
We packed a box to send to Jim
He is my college brother
He can't come home Thanksgiving day—
That's what he wrote to mother.
And so we fixed him up a bite
And each one sent a token
It wasn't very much to do
We wish we could have spoken.

Then father wrote, "Now Jim of course
There may be others better
But I want you to learn a lot
You can be a "go-getter."
Then sister filled a page or two
About her beans and pleasures
And sent a half a dozen cards
For him to keep as treasures.

Then came my turn to write a line,
There was so much to tell.
I jumped right in, but spilled my ink
Then father said, "Oh well
Don't be so crazy, calm yourself."
But still I felt so jerky—
What got me so, was how to tell
"Bout that Thanksgiving turkey.

It was the one that Jim had named
It always was a winner.
He called him Jazz, and I did hate
To kill him for that dinner.
But when it came Thanksgiving time
I thought of Jim so lonely
I marched right out and took a whack
At Jazz, and left him only.

Reunion at Pickens Home on Thursday
A delightful Thanksgiving reunion which was among the many intimate affairs of Thursday, was held at the home of Mrs. H. E. Pickens, a group of thirty-one friends and relatives gathering.

About the dinner table which was laden with all the delicious foods of the season were seated Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Pickens, Mr. and Mrs. K. H. Pickens, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Taylor, of Salem, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Travis, of Eugene, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Pickens, Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Pickens, of this city, Mr. and Mrs. John Hatfield and small son, of Dixonville, Misses Edith Miller, of Portland, Dorothy Pickens, Marjorie Pickens, Lola Dale Pickens, of Salem, Lola Mae Pickens, of Eugene, Vernita Pickens, Doris Pickens, of this city, and Chester Pickens, Robert Pickens, Jimmie Pickens, Billie Pickens, of Salem, Wayne Pickens, Kenneth Pickens and James Pickens of this city, Kenneth Lowell, of Santa Ana, Cal., Ivan Pickens, of this city, and the hostesses.

The small son of Mr. and Mrs. John Hatfield is the only great-grandson of Mrs. Pickens.

Business and Professional Women's Club Has Meeting
A most enthusiastic meeting of the Business and Professional Women's club was held last Friday at the Heinline studio. The meeting was opened by ensemble singing led by Mrs. Brand. After a short business meeting, the sectional clubs met for study or organization. The Travel Club, under the leadership of Miss Sappington made a trip to Paris. The Music club, under the supervision of Mrs. Brand, spent a most interesting hour. The Current Literature section, presided over by Miss Pyron, organized and will discuss American writers of the twentieth century at their next meeting. The Bridge Club organized by Miss Louise Anderson, was one of the most popular sections. The International and Physical Culture clubs have not yet organized, but will before the next regular meeting of the club. At the conclusion of the section meetings Miss Goodwin, music supervisor of the Roseburg schools, entertained with a group of solos, and Miss Lorlene Conlee demonstrated the Charleston. Light refreshments were served by the committee, Miss Edith Webb, Miss Evelyn Young, Miss Dorothy Orcutt, Mrs. Clara Scott and Miss Katharine Merrill, concluded one of the most successful evenings of the club.

Miss Agnes Pritchard will preside at the December luncheon: Mrs. Edythe Kelley and Mrs. Barnes will act as hostesses. The club hopes to have Miss Adelle Pritchard of Portland, national expert of the Business and Professional Women's clubs, present to address the members.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Northrop of Alsea, Oregon, are being congratulated on the arrival of a son, Robert Harmon, weight 16 pounds, on Thursday, November 12, at the Corvallis general hospital. Mr. and Mrs. Northrop formerly resided at Wilbur, where Mr. Northrop was principal of schools for several years.

Group at Dinner at Heinline Home
Inviting a group to their home on Thursday, Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Heinline were hosts at Thanksgiving dinner at 4 o'clock.

A yellow motif in the rooms was carried out in lovely chrysanthemums, which also formed the table's centerpiece. Seated about the table were Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Waite, Mrs. Walter Baig, of

When he was dead upon the ground
That dear old, fat old turkey.
He was so great a pet to me
No wonder I felt jerky.
But Jim had said, "Now kid, come on
And send me Jazz's gizzard
For college lessons make a "feller"
Hungry as a lizard.

And so I wrote two lines at last
'Twas all that I could master—
"Here's Jazz's remains, I hope that you
Won't meet with like disaster."
Then mother wrote some tender words
As mothers always do.
She told him how we killed that bird
And made some "punkin" stew.

And last of all she said, "Now Jim,
Please don't forget your mother
Nor put off giving thanks to him
Who's dearer than all other.
Give thanks that you have power to strive
For such a noble cause.
And you'll be proud of what you've learned—
The teardrops made her pause.

Then added, just, "Your loving ma,"
And signed her blessed name.
I guess she'd like to see you, Jim,
We all felt just the same.
So here's our box all tied up fine
To send with many others
For folks at home are glad to share
Good things with college brothers.
Written by Orpha Collins, 329
Winchester St., Roseburg, Oregon.

Camas, Wash., Mr. Walter Germain, Mr. W. H. Fisher, Mr. Adria Fisher, and Mr. and Mrs. Heinline.

Liberty Theatre.
Since the greater picture movement was inaugurated several master productions have found their way to the market and now comes one of the outstanding features of the season with the announcement that Kenneth McDonald's "South of the Equator" will close at the Liberty Theatre Saturday.

Majestic Theatre.
"Below the Line", the Warner Bros Classic of the Screen which is coming to the Majestic Theatre on Sunday for a 2-day engagement, marks Tin-Tin-Tin's fifth starring production since his film introduced to the picture world in "Where the North Begins", followed by "Find Your Man," "The Lighthouse by the Sea" and "Tracked in the Snow Country."

Antlers Theatre.
One of the finest pictures it has ever been our pleasure to see at the Antlers Theatre, when it will be shown for the next two days. It is entitled "The Merry Widow." The production is a splendid piece of workmanship and shows Mae Murray and John Gilbert, as costars, doing the best work of their varied and brilliant careers. Erich von Stroheim whose directorial genius immortalized "Foolish Wives" has fulfilled a similar function with "The Merry Widow."

Liberty Theatre.
Nearly any average actor, provided an "average" actor could do the part, playing the leading role in "Manhattan Madness" would retire at night fully convinced that he had enough exercise to last him a life time, but not so with Jack Dempsey, who is the hero of this Encore picture which comes to the Liberty Theatre, Sunday for a 2-day run.

Majestic Theatre.
An airplane accident, in which Doris Kenyon crashes to earth amid tangled wires, broken propeller blades and smashed wings, furnishes one of the biggest thrills of "The Unguarded Hour", which comes to the Majestic Theatre tonight. Milton Sills appears in the stellar role, with Miss Kenyon as the featured feminine player.

FLASHES OF LIFE
PARIS—Pedestrians have organized to protect themselves against the tyranny of chauffeurs.

GARMISCH-PARTENKIRCHEN
—Electric block signals have been installed on toboggan slides in the Bavarian Alps.

MEXICO CITY—There is to be telephone connection with New York City, although the construction stage has not been reached yet.

LOS ANGELES—Jack Dempsey wants the city to reduce the $10 daily license fee on his gymnasium, which with a state tax, he complains is denting his bank roll.

MADISON, Wis.—Simple and vigorous speech that the ordinary intelligent man uses is urged on journalists by Glenn Frank. He would have them write in the vernacular without being too broad.

WASHINGTON—A blonde male bandit is sought for a lot of recent holdups. Two gay young spenders, arrested in a hotel as suspects, have proved innocent.

Russian Boots of Many Colors Worn With Coats of Tailored Fur

By VYVYAN DONNER
POLA NEGRI went to Paris. Pola Negri returned with a load of trunks packed tightly with gorgeous gowns, fabulous furs, chic hats, glittering jewels, and shoes—and boots.

Part of the wardrobe was for the screen, and part for her own personal wear. Some of the things that she brought back for herself, are shown above in photo and sketch.

To begin with—there are the boots. Miss Negri purchased not one pair, but a dozen, in white, black, olive green, blue de rose, pencil blue, blond, purple—well, every fashionable tone, so to say. Any lovely frock she might choose to don, she finds them attractive accompaniments to the short skirt, cool in warm weather, and a protection against wintry blasts in cold weather.

The photo shows her in a tan pair, worn with a tan, matching, frock and tan felt hat. The frock is laced with two deeper tones; one a light brown, and the other a sepia. A glowing tie of bright orange touches up an autumnal costume.

The two sketches at the right show a tailored coat of flat short fur, used as a fabric, and a short, box coat, fashioned of the same fur, in the same tailored manner.

The upper model is of blond broadtail caracul, trimmed in bands of squirrel, dyed deep brown. The coat has the look of being a coat-dress, with rather narrow sleeves, and a jumper effect given by the bands placed across a low waistline.

The lower coat is of blond ermine, trimmed in white ermine and seal. A blond and black fur hat is made to go with it.

With the first costume, Pola Negri wears brown boots, and with the second, she wears black.

Freshmen Girls Organize Camp Fire Class
The freshmen girls of the high school met Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. M. Judd, organizing a Camp Fire Girls class and outlining work for their organization.

The girls will meet Thursday of each week for their regular business session, the place of meeting to be chosen later. Election of officers was held, and those to serve term are president, Gwen Scott; vice-president, Margaret Page; secretary, Dorothy Staley; treasurer, Jessie Judd; secretary, Margaret Arundel; song leader, Dorothy Arundel. Mrs. J. M. Judd and Mrs. Benjamin Larson will be guardians of the association.

L. F. T. Dance
An informal dance of the week, which was well attended, was that of the L. F. T. club, given the second of a series of five winter dances at the K. P. hall, each member bringing guests.

Evergreen bouquets, fern and chrysanthemums formed an attractive and unusual background, where the dancers enjoyed the evening. Clever headbands and cigarette whistles, with corresponding numbers, were given each lady and gentleman, whereby the large group drew partners for the supper dance. Following a buffet supper at 11 o'clock, the guests enjoyed an hour of dancing.

Mrs. Ivan B. McKimney, of Portland, is a guest at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Hayes for several days.